

BUTTER EASER EGGS UNSTEADY CHICKENS WEAK

Portland (UP)—There continues to be reflected a weaker tone in the butter market locally which is more or less a picture of the general American trade...

Market for live chickens is a very bad affair here with very little demand in sight at the moment. Previous low buying prices are continued with the trade not at all inclined to rush purchases.

Some fancy cauliflower out of the Roseburg section is being received in the Portland market. As the quality is excellent considering the season, sales are generally being made around $1.50 crate for No. 1.

First carload of Mexican tomatoes of the season has arrived in Portland. As the trade is fastidious for good stuff, the supply is meeting with favor.

Florida bananas are arriving. Are of good quality and priced around $1.85 bushel hamper. There is a small demand for Japanese oranges owing to the rather high price.

Potato trade is dragging with prices unchanged. Country killed lamb is in good demand. Demand for hogs is easier and the price lower.

Dressed calf market is inclined to show a steady tone at a nickel for lack of snap by distributing interests.

Maling Contracts for 80 Acres of Spinach And 100 Acres Beans

News of contracts in the West Stayton district for 80 acres of beans and for what is reported to be growing of around 100 acres of spinach in the Lake Labish country...

Report is that the West Stayton district has been contracted at $5 a ton and the spinach at $2 a ton. It is estimated about 25 growers are affected in the West Stayton district where the bean growing business is reported to be nothing less than a boom.

It is reported Maling will put in a delivery station at West Stayton and growers will make delivery there while Maling agrees to truck the produce from there to Trullaborg and a similar arrangement is said to be planned for the Labish section.

Spinach has not been grown on a big scale in the Labish country for many years so there is nothing much to use as a criterion as to the price paid there. However, beans have been grown in the West Stayton section for some years prior to last year under contract with the Oregon Packing company which had a price of $75 a ton to the grower.

Over Sunday appears to have been fairly satisfactory, according to E. J. Dixon of the local cooperative, E. L. Martindale of Swift & Co. said the market at the moment is in fairly good shape with hens selling 2c above toms at 20c for 60.1.

Arrival of turkeys Sunday was somewhat disappointing to the wholesale trade. The complaint was heard that many local growers are "peddling" their supplies from one place to another, occasionally disposing of them to retailers at a price lower than offered by wholesalers.

The beans which were purchased by the Oregon Packing company all went into cans and this is the first time that the West Stayton beans will go into a frozen pack as far as known, for anything added for experimental purposes at least.

WHEAT SLUMPS TOWARD CLOSE EXPORTS GOOD

Chicago (UP)—Wheat sagged on scattered selling toward the close on the board of trade Monday and finished lower. Trading was very slow and the market held to a narrow range, losing its early gains in the late selling.

At the close wheat was 1 1/2c lower, corn was 1/2c to 1 1/2c lower and oats were 1/2c to 1c lower. Provisions were steady to weak.

Chicago (UP)—Wheat prices tended upward early Monday, helped by unexpected firmness of quotations at Liverpool. The Liverpool market reported a noticeable lack of selling pressure, and a decrease in Liverpool supplies, together with a fall in world shipments, pointing to a possible recovery in wheat futures.

Portland (UP)—With no sales in the market for wheat and sellers here far apart—there was a weaker tone in the Monday session of the Portland futures market. December wheat led to May 3c. July was nominally quoted.

On the merchants' exchange cash wheat lot is 10c. Portland (UP)—With no sales in the market for wheat and sellers here far apart—there was a weaker tone in the Monday session of the Portland futures market.

STOCK MARKET IRREGULAR AND MOSTLY LOWER

New York (UP)—Prices moved irregularly in lethargic trading on the stock exchange Monday. Many traders were absent for a prolonged vacation over the Christmas holiday and business generally was only of routine character in banks and brokerage houses.

Petroleum shares lost 1 to more than 2 points with Standard of New Jersey making a new low for the present shares at 26 1/2, off 1 1/2, and Socony-Vacuum equalling its low at 9. 1/2. Standard of California lost 2 1/2 points to 24 1/2.

TransAmerica was a weak spot throughout the session, making a new low at 2 1/2, off 1/2, and holding around that level in fairly active turnover. Near the close selling increased in some of the leading shares like American Telephone, U. S. Steel and others.

Grains also sagged off near the close and wheat closed 1 to 1 1/2c a bushel lower and others were held in white heat by a heavy bid a few points in quiet trading.

The reaction in wheat had a dampening effect on share buyers, despite firmness in bonds. The latter was taken as a barometer of improved sentiment in the street as a result of a series of aids now being developed for the railroad bonds such as the railroad corporation and the reconstruction finance corporation.

Chicago (UP)—Wheat futures: December... 60 1/2, 61 1/2, 62 1/2, 63 1/2, 64 1/2, 65 1/2, 66 1/2, 67 1/2, 68 1/2, 69 1/2, 70 1/2, 71 1/2, 72 1/2, 73 1/2, 74 1/2, 75 1/2, 76 1/2, 77 1/2, 78 1/2, 79 1/2, 80 1/2, 81 1/2, 82 1/2, 83 1/2, 84 1/2, 85 1/2, 86 1/2, 87 1/2, 88 1/2, 89 1/2, 90 1/2, 91 1/2, 92 1/2, 93 1/2, 94 1/2, 95 1/2, 96 1/2, 97 1/2, 98 1/2, 99 1/2, 100 1/2.

TURKEY PRICES SHIFT TO MEET TRADE DEMAND

Portland (UP)—Reversing usual market conditions, the price of hen turkeys on the Portland market is now definitely established at an advance of 2c a pound over the quotation for toms.

The sales to the local trade over Sunday appears to have been fairly satisfactory, according to E. J. Dixon of the local cooperative, E. L. Martindale of Swift & Co. said the market at the moment is in fairly good shape with hens selling 2c above toms at 20c for 60.1.

SENATE OPENS DRIVE TO PASS MORATORIUM

Washington (UP)—The Senate today opened a drive to pass a moratorium on the construction of new highways. The measure is sponsored by Sen. Charles McNary, Democrat of Oregon.

The House marked time by discussing the "state of the union" report of the LaGuardia republican. N. Y. opened the debate, assailing President Hoover's anti-depression program as inadequate.

He said there would be "serious trouble" if congress did not act. He proposed federal aid to the jobless, a "real" building program, and construction of a nationwide net of new highways.

Senate investigation of international banking continued, with Otto Kahn detailing the foreign financing handled by Kahn, Loeb and Co. He said he would favor dumping war debts and reparations into the ocean if anyone could find a way to do it.

The Japanese wrapped their helmets in white cloth to prevent the aviators from mistaking them for Chinese. The helmets of the Japanese flags also were dyed yellow, as Japanese officers said the Chinese were using home made Japanese flags to deceive the Japanese fliers.

Nanking (UP)—A new note to the League of Nations and another statement, interpreted here as a direct appeal to the United States under the nine-power treaty and the Kellogg Briand pact, were issued by Dr. Wellington Koo, Chinese foreign minister, Monday as reports of a new Japanese drive came from Manchuria.

LEGION-HEIR PARTY EVENT

Dallas—Carl B. Fenton post of the American Legion scored another bull's eye Thursday night when it staged for the first time, a father and son meeting. Officially a number of games, "fish" for their gift and finally enjoy the refreshments.

There were present some 60 boys, each of whom accompanied a legionnaire as his guest. Comrade Virgil Bolton and Billy Miller, chairman of the entertainment and entertainment committee, presided over one hundred per cent. Expressions of opinion from a number of the members are that the event should become an annual one with the possibility that in view of the success of the men's affair, the auxiliary will stage something similar and throw a party for their girls.

Only last Friday, the president called in some leaders along with Ogden Mills, undersecretary of the treasury, to talk across the breakfast table about the moratorium, the emergency reconstruction corporation and the bill to increase Federal Land bank capitalization, two of which already have been passed by the house and laid before the senate. They assured him that the nation's economic program would not be delayed.

Immediately after the conference the possibility of a shortened recess of congress over Christmas appeared again. Walter Newton, one of the president's secretaries, said there was "a possibility of a shortened recess which would allow a meeting of congress between Christmas and New Year."

No joint resolution to this effect has been introduced, however, and Newton would not comment upon its chances of adoption until some move was made on Capitol Hill. Mr. Hoover went over the entire economic situation, touching upon relief for railroads, and the financial condition of central Europe, two of the problems uppermost in his mind.

CHECK IS RECEIVED Hubbard—The relief committee reports that a check for $4.68 has been received by the committee from the county fund through S. H. Van Trump, secretary of the committee in charge of the funds. The money will be used in the welfare work of the relief committee.
