

SANTIAM UNION CONVENTION TO BE HELD SUNDAY

Turner—The Santiam Union district Sunday school convention will be held Sunday at the Station Baptist church with the usual all day meeting beginning at 10 o'clock with the Bible classes.

Devotionals will be led by Rev. Klingensper of Salem and the morning address will be delivered by Rev. Wayne Wright of the Station Methodist church. The theme of the convention will be "Onward," and the theme song, "Onward Christian Soldiers."

A basket dinner will be served at the noon hour. The afternoon session will open with a song service at 1:30 o'clock led by Mr. Booker of Station, followed by the business meeting and awarding of the business. Mr. Jorden of Lyons will have charge of the young people's meeting hour at 2:15 o'clock. Duets will be given by Clearedna Mulkey and Lorene Landers, and by Estelle Jordan and Helen Halford of Lyons. Special talks on chosen subjects will be "How to Secure Conversions in Sunday School," by Mrs. J. J. Douker of Station, "What We Hope to Accomplish in Our Sunday School for 1932," by Willard Bear of Turner, "How We Increased Attendance at Our Sunday School," by Sylvia Farmer of Mill City. The afternoon address will be delivered by Rev. H. Ross, pastor of the Station Baptist church. Song service and the benediction will close the convention.

Miss Josephine Gilstrap of Turner, secretary-treasurer, and John Mix of Aumsville, president, will preside. A large delegation from the Christian and Methodist churches in the district are planning to attend the district convention.

WOOD CUTTING BEE HELD AT AUMSVILLE

Aumsville—An all-day wood cutting bee was held Thursday for the benefit of the needy in this community. The trees were donated by the Donker brothers. Those cutting in the woods were T. C. Mountain, Doug Bradley, Howard Tong, Charles Martin, Fred Garbe, Robert Mountain, Mr. Tucker, Mr. Jennings, Roy Foster, Leo Douker, Mr. Landers and Mr. A. J. Richards. Those that hauled were the Donker brothers and Mr. Richards while those operating the cut off saw at the house were Frank Bowers, Harvey Snyder and Jack Baldwin. Eight cords were cut and delivered.

The main attraction of the day was the dinner which was taken out to them by the women of the district. Mrs. T. C. Mountain, Mrs. Charles Martin and Mrs. Jones gathered the dinner and served it by a bonfire in the woods.

Falconers Hosts With Watch Party

Woodburn—A group of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Faulconer on Corby street Thursday evening to watch the old year out and the New Year in. "Five hundred" was in play during the evening and prizes for high scores were won by Mrs. G. F. Wright and R. L. Freeberg. The consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. Faulconer and Arista Nendel. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Arista Nendel, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Freeberg, daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weiss, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Tyson and the host and hostess. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Cards Are Played

St. Paul—Miss Zella Davidson entertained at a bridge party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davidson. Those present were Misses Mabel Smith, Beatrice Murphy, Alice Davidson, Loretta Gooding, Erna Gooding, Mrs. Alvina Case and the hostess. Miss Erna Gooding received first prize, Mrs. Case consolation. At the close of the evening a lunch was served.

Millers Entertain

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller entertained with a family dinner on New Year's day at their home on Garfield street. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Otto P. Miller and children, Marjorie, Dorothy, Betty and Dennis; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Whitney and children, Annette and Lavone; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Miller, William Miller, Jr., and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller.

Mountains Hosts

Aumsville—A watch party was given at the Mountain home Thursday night for a group of young people. Those present were Misses Cleo Barry, Alice Jensen, Virginia Bradley and Gwen Martin, and the Messrs. Leonard Lee, George Towle, Harvey Snyder and Robert Mountain, and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Mountain and Mrs. A. J. Mountain. At a late hour refreshments were served by the hostess.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS MEET

Silverton—Miss Florence Merryman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Merryman of Silverton is attending the eleventh quadrennial student volunteer convention in Buffalo, N. Y., continuing from December 30 to January 2, as a delegate from the Oregon State college where she is a senior in home economics. The Oregon delegation was joined in Spokane by the Washington group and went from there by special train with one day stop over in Chicago. More than 6,000 delegates are registered.

Lincoln—Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Madsen and sons drove to Silverton Friday to spend New Year's at the guest of Mrs. M. J. Madsen, mother of Madsen. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Madsen and children, and Harold Larson.

Revivalist Still Holding Meetings

Jefferson—The evangelistic services conducted at the Christian church by Walter Piacus are progressing in an encouraging way. Each night of the week services are held beginning at 7:30 o'clock. An enthusiastic song service is conducted each night by Mike and his choir. Sunday school will be conducted at 10 o'clock, preaching service at 11 by the minister, Rev. Ard Hoven, Christian Endeavor at 6:30 o'clock and evangelistic service at 7:30.

PRAYER WEEK OPENS SUNDAY

Silverton—Rev. William Steward Gordon, D. D., pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Silverton has arranged a special program of observance of the World's Week of Prayer. These meetings begin Sunday and include the week of Sunday, January 10, and are authorized by the American Council of Protestant Federated churches and the local church board.

The musical contributions are under the direction of Mrs. P. J. Roubal, leader of the adult choir; Mrs. W. P. Tale, in charge of the junior chorus; George Isaacson, in charge of a male quartet; Bert Day, I. B. Altred, N. M. Smith and W. K. Cain; Fred Baker and his 12 piece orchestra; and Mrs. Edson Constock and Mrs. Lowell Davenport at the piano. There will be special musical numbers at each session.

The topics and leaders for each day are scheduled as follows:

Sunday, January 3, 11 a. m.
Topic: "The New Year and the New Year."

At 7:30 p. m. "Some Remarkable Answers to Prayer," leader, Dr. Gordon.

Monday, January 4, Official Board Night.

Topic: "The Spiritual Life of the Church," leader, I. B. Altred.

Tuesday, January 5, Ladies' Aid Program.

Topic: "Winning People to Christ and the Church," leader, Mrs. P. J. Roubal.

Wednesday, January 6, Sunday School Night.

Topic: "Men Win Men," leader, C. F. Pabon. Sermon: "The Gardener's Secret."

Friday, January 8, League Night.

Topic: "Winning Chorus to Christ," leader, Kenneth Isaacson. Sermon: "The Guide of Youth."

Sunday, January 10, 11 a. m.

Topic: "Where Are You Going?" At 7:30 p. m.

Topic: "Protection of Merit." There will be no services Saturday evening.

Mrs. Zeis Honored With Many Affairs

Silverton—During the week several social events for the pleasure of Mrs. J. M. Zeis, whose 60th birthday anniversary was Christmas day, were arranged by her children and other near relatives. Mrs. Zeis has lived practically all her life in the Silverton community. Present for the different affairs were Mrs. Martha Coffman, Miss Clara Zeis both of Portland, Mrs. R. A. Hines of Condon, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Zeis of Mt. Angel, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. McDonald of St. Helens, and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Zeis and Mathilda, Ruby, Frances Mary, and Joe Zeis of the Silverton community. Two daughters unable to attend were Mrs. Irene Haynes of Butte, Mont., and Mrs. Louis Quinn of Seattle, Wash.

Rickreall Inn Is Closed By Piel

Rickreall—The Black Bird Inn, which has been operated in the Masonic building here for the past four years by Mr. and Mrs. George Piel, closed its doors Thursday. The Piel's turned the place over to their creditors and left with their personal belongings for Salem where they plan to find work.

Watch Party Held

Mehama—Several of the young people from here were entertained at the D. Monroe home at Lyons when they watched the old year out. The evening was spent in playing games and at midnight lunch was served. Mrs. Monroe was assisted in serving by her daughter Addie Brandt. Those who enjoyed the evening were Alene and Alice Boyington, Cornelia and Jack Cardwell, Jesse and Arlyn Moe, Sula Montgomery, Lorene Landers, Beryl and Ruth Grace, Harry and Dale Mountain, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Monroe, all of whom were present. Mrs. George Piel, Addie Brandt and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe.

Mill City—Clerks in the Hammond company store are busy this week with the annual inventory. Mrs. Nell Jones of station came on Tuesday to take the inventory of the drug department.

Lodge To Install

Seio—Installation of officers for the Seio Rebekah lodge is to take place Wednesday evening, January 6. Mrs. Jennie Weddle will be the new presiding officer for the six months term. Plans for installation and other work for the coming term were considered at the meeting Wednesday evening of this week.

Mill City—Guests during the past week at the home of Mrs. Clara Ellsworth were her son, Fred Ellsworth and family of Klamath Falls and her brother, Ruben Lewis of Hubbard.

San Francisco's Newest

AND MOST MODERN Downtown Hotel!

Just off Union Square—most convenient to theaters, shops and stores. Only California hotel offering Servidor feature—thus combining "maximum privacy with minimum tipping".

Garage in basement with direct elevator service to all guest room floors. In every room—connection for radio reception, running filtered ice water, tub and shower. Western exposure. Tower rooms have ultra-violet ray windows.

Dinner in Coffee Shop from 75¢ up—in Main Dining Room from $1.50 up. Also a la carte service.

Hotel Sir Francis Drake

600 OUTSIDE ROOMS—127 single rooms at $3.50 daily, 118 at $4.136 at $4.50, 107 at $5.64 at $5.50, 48 at $6. Double rooms $5 to $8 daily.

IN THE TOWER—Luxurious Suites $12 to $20 daily—De-Luxe Rooms $5 to $12 single, $7 to $15 double.

Memo—HERMAN HELLER'S ENSEMBLES—during Luncheon and Dinner

JOINT AFFAIR OF LODGES IS HELD EARLIER

Silverton—Owing to the holiday season the joint installation of the officers of Ramona chapter, O. E. S. and of A. P. & A. M. No. 45 were held one week previous to the regular meeting scheduled in the tentative plans for the event.

George Towle was installing officer for the Masonic fraternity and Mrs. William Towle for the Star. The Star order acted as host for the affair, in serving a banquet and sponsoring a program of musical numbers and readings following the installation services. The Star officers installed were: Mrs. Mary Sylvester, W. M.; Julius Alm, W. P.; Vernita Meyers, A. M.; Olivia DeGuire, conductress; Zeta Schaldor, associate conductress; Mary Skaffe, secretary; Josephine Benson, treasurer. Appointive officers include for the Star: Adah, Elaine Clower; Ruth, Ina Harold; Esther, Ruth McKee; Martha, Marie Solie; Electa, Elizabeth Thumberg; Chaplin, Alice Tomison; musician, Fern Davenport; Warner, Edna Pounder; sentinel, E. H. Pounder.

The elected officers of A. P. & A. M. who were installed were: B. J. Meyers, W. M.; Fred Thumberg, S. W.; Earl Ross, J. W.; C. G. Rice, treasurer; and C. B. Anderson, secretary. The appointive officers of the Masons who were installed included Harry Larson, S. D.; Walter Davis, J. H. A. Brandt, S. S.; Vinet Rudington, J. S.; William Towle, marshal; George Towle, chaplain; Elgin McCleary, Tyler.

HENDERSONS HOSTS WITH CARD PARTY

Chemawa—Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Henderson were hosts at a New Year's eve party at the campus club rooms in the practice building. During the evening cards were in play. High score for women went to Mrs. R. C. Kriesel while the men's prize was won by C. O. Engstrom. Consolation prizes were given to Miss Florence Vlesko and C. F. Patton. As a late hour buffet lunch was served during which the guests were entertained by Mrs. Dan Kleiberg, pianist, and Alex Melovickoff, violinist.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. George Naderman, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hammer, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Kriesel, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. F. McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Noyes, Miss Bennie Hammer, Miss Irene Schartman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ratzburg, Mrs. Sibil Laughlin, Mr. and Mrs. L. Oman, Mrs. Daisy McIntyre, Mrs. Florence Vlesko, Mrs. Carl Steward, Mrs. Betsy Claggett, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hesson, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Engstrom, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mennis, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drager, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Erikson, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Henderson.

Mill City Church Expects Visitors

Mill City—At a conference meeting which will be held in the local Presbyterian church, members of the faculty and students of the Portland Bible institute will be in attendance Sunday at the morning and afternoon meetings. A basket lunch will be served at noon at the church and a large number of members and friends of the church will be present at the meetings.

Birthday Observed

Turner—Mrs. Howard Mellis and Miss Mildred Bones entertained with a surprise party, complimenting Eloise Mellis on her 13th birthday anniversary. Following several hours of games, refreshments were served by the hostesses to Mildred Lucille Bones, Clara Clark, Geneva Barber, Francis Clark, Alvin Mae Bora, the honored guest Eloise Mellis, Mildred Bones, Mr. and Mrs. M. Mellis and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mellis.

Lodge To Install

Seio—Installation of officers for the Seio Rebekah lodge is to take place Wednesday evening, January 6. Mrs. Jennie Weddle will be the new presiding officer for the six months term. Plans for installation and other work for the coming term were considered at the meeting Wednesday evening of this week.

Mill City—Guests during the past

week at the home of Mrs. Clara Ellsworth were her son, Fred Ellsworth and family of Klamath Falls and her brother, Ruben Lewis of Hubbard.

Visitor Is Honor Guest for Party

Jefferson—Miss Joan Beach and Miss Virginia McKee entertained with a party at the Beach home recently, honoring Robert Beach, who left Friday for Los Angeles to resume his studies after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Beach.

Those present were the Misses

Marjorie Pontaine, Virginia McKee, Margaret Wall, and Joan Beach; Robert Beach, Laverne Davis, Frank Beach, Lincoln Waterman of Portland, Laverne Simons of Oregon City and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Beach.

Silverton Babe To Get Presents As Master "1932"

Silverton—So far as has been officially reported the young man who arrived in Silverton as claimant of the many gifts offered by the Silverton Appeal-Tribune, local weekly newspaper, and by a dozen or more of the Silverton business houses, is Master Robert Wayne Johnson, 9 point son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson, who live near Silverton on the Salem highway. He entered Silverton at exactly 3:16 a. m. New Year's morning, and will reside at the Silverton general hospital for several days.

Should Robert Wayne hold what appears to be the title of "Master 1932," he will be the motif of a prize party planned for him and his parents, both of whom, report hospital authorities, are doing nicely. Among the gifts is a bank account of no mean amount, a complete layette that any baby first needs, a box of chocolates, choice of numerous wearing apparel, three "Billowy" pillows, a ring, a porcelain bath tub, a cello, a bicycle, a crib mattress, 25 announcement cards, 15 quarts of milk, bottles and nipples, powder, soap, sponge, and small hot water bottle are listed among the many things the baby falls heir to so soon after his advent into Silverton.

Milk Distributors At Public Hearing

Lincoln—A group of dairymen went from this locality Wednesday to attend the open hearing of milk distributors before the public held in the Portland auditorium. Plans originally had been to hold the meeting in the Portland public library, but the jam of more than 2000 dairymen made necessary the transfer to the larger building. The dairymen report that they were well pleased with the arguments which they heard and were sorry they could not return Thursday for the remainder of the hearing which was scheduled to close at noon. Those who went from here were W. R. Edwards, Clarence Merrick, C. S. Neple, Alvin H. Madsen and Ivan Merrick.

Brush College Has Many Before Court

Brush College—A large group went from this locality to Dallas Thursday to meet with the county court in regard to the budget being made up for the coming year. Representatives of rural women's clubs and grange members who went from here were particularly interested in the county agent and county health nurse and went with the hope that both would be a part of the county program for the year.

Those who went were Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCarter, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glaze, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Biddgett, Mrs. W. F. McCall, Mrs. E. A. Uley, Mrs. Ferdinand Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Whitney, Fred Ewing, Burl Oliver, William Stoddard, Paul Wallace, Worth Henry, L. Grace and son, Ammon Grice, A. R. Southwick, and from the neighboring Zena community were W. D. Henry, Jesse Walling and T. J. Merrick.

Ceremony Slated

Mill City—A joint installation of the officers of the Rebekah and I. O. O. F. lodges will be held in the local hall Tuesday evening, January 5. The members of the Gates Rebekah lodge have been invited to attend the ceremonies.

MOVE TO WOODBURN

Jefferson—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McCarty and family, who have been living on the corner of Burnside street near the north city limits for the past year, moved to Woodburn this week.

Open House Held

Silverton—W. O. Livingstone, pastor of the First Christian church of Silverton, and Mrs. Livingstone held open house, informally, from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. New Year's day at the club paragon for the pleasure of the members of the local congregation and their friends. More than 150 called during the day and were served a buffet luncheon.

SILVERTON HAS MANY TEACHERS AT CONVENTION

Silverton—Of the 2500 teachers attending the Oregon State Teachers Association held in Portland this week, Silverton was well represented. Miss Mildred Wharton of the junior high was the official delegate selected to represent the Silverton Teachers' association. Miss Wharton's home is in Portland. Robert Goetz, superintendent of the Silverton schools, and his son, Robert Goetz Jr., of the Monmouth Normal attended the three days program.

A. M. Davis, principal of the senior high school and Mrs. Davis drove to Portland each day of the session and Monday afternoon Davis attended the executive committee meeting of the Willamette Inter-scholastic football league, of which he was president; Miss Hannah Olson, principal of the Eugene High grades, and Miss Olga Johnson, primary teacher, drove to Portland with Miss Olson's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Olson and remained the three days with Miss Johnson staying in Canyon for a week-end visit with friends; E. J. Roubal and the baby visiting friends in Milwaukee, and Roubal attending the association meetings; Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Crabtree and son David attended Tuesday and Wednesday. Crabtree is head of the local Smith-Hughes vocational agricultural department and was present at a luncheon and meeting called to talk over the possibilities of forming a Farmers' wives marketing association. The Crabtrees were guests of J. Cramer, superintendent of schools at Grants Pass, and Mrs. Cramer, while in Portland.

James Manning of the senior high social science department was particularly interested in the semi-annual session of the Willamette Golf League of which he is president and for the inception of which Mr. Manning and his Silverton Orangemen are largely responsible; Hal Campbell of the instrumental musical department, also attended Harry Wells, instructor of foreign languages, and Mrs. Wells are remaining for the week with relatives; and Elaine Clower of the grades and Olivia DeGuire of the junior high were present two days of the sessions.

Thefts Reported By Mill City Residents

Mill City—A number of petty thefts have occurred recently in this vicinity, among the latest to be reported was the theft Sunday night of a tire and rim from the T. A. Booth car which was in the garage at their home. The noise of the parties in removing the tire and rim awakened the family and the miscreants were seen. Reports also state that a motor on a washing machine at the W. J. home which was standing on the porch, was taken.

New Year Reveals Dallas Quiet City

Dallas—This city brought in the New Year very quietly with little or no noisy demonstration. Business houses for the most part remained closed with a number of the merchants taking advantage of the opportunity to complete their stock inventory. The Willamette Valley mill remained closed during the day, as did the court house. Indications were that many had left town as the streets were very quiet.

Officers Seated

Jefferson—At a stated communication of Jefferson Masonic lodge the following officers were installed: W. M., Mike Kelly; S. W., James Johnston; J. W., Robert Kelly; treasurer, E. H. Houtell; secretary, H. D. Mars; J. D., Sidney Howard; chaplain, J. O. Van Winkle; S. D., Delmer Davidson; stewards, George Mariatt and Tim Kelly; Tyler, George Looney.

Open House Held

Silverton—W. O. Livingstone, pastor of the First Christian church of Silverton, and Mrs. Livingstone held open house, informally, from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. New Year's day at the club paragon for the pleasure of the members of the local congregation and their friends. More than 150 called during the day and were served a buffet luncheon.

San Francisco's Newest

AND MOST MODERN Downtown Hotel!

Just off Union Square—most convenient to theaters, shops and stores. Only California hotel offering Servidor feature—thus combining "maximum privacy with minimum tipping".

Garage in basement with direct elevator service to all guest room floors. In every room—connection for radio reception, running filtered ice water, tub and shower. Western exposure. Tower rooms have ultra-violet ray windows.

Dinner in Coffee Shop from 75¢ up—in Main Dining Room from $1.50 up. Also a la carte service.

Hotel Sir Francis Drake

600 OUTSIDE ROOMS—127 single rooms at $3.50 daily, 118 at $4.136 at $4.50, 107 at $5.64 at $5.50, 48 at $6. Double rooms $5 to $8 daily.

IN THE TOWER—Luxurious Suites $12 to $20 daily—De-Luxe Rooms $5 to $12 single, $7 to $15 double.

Memo—HERMAN HELLER'S ENSEMBLES—during Luncheon and Dinner

Sacramento Slated Jefferson Sunday

Jefferson—Sunday school at the Methodist church will be held at 10 o'clock and morning worship at 11. Rev. T. H. Downs, pastor, will speak on "Paul's Balance Sheet of Life." The sermon will connect lessons for the new year. In connection with the morning worship the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. All young people are invited to the Epworth League service at 6:30 o'clock. Evening worship will be at 7:30 o'clock, the theme being "Come! A Welcome to the New Year."

DALLAS CHURCHES TO HOLD JOINT SERVICE

Dallas—Prof. James T. Matthews of Willamette university will occupy the pulpit at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday at the morning service. Mrs. Walter A. Ballyntyne will sing a solo.

A series of stereoscopic pictures will be shown to the boys and girls of the junior church which meets at the same hour as the senior body. A joint meeting will be held in the evening in the Presbyterian church with Rev. James Aikin Smith, pastor of Presbyterian church delivering the sermon.

Woodburn Alarmed Over Auto Thefts

Woodburn—Lewis Irvin has been engaged as special deputy marshal for Woodburn and will serve under Chief of Police Louis Ruzicka. His salary will be paid by the business men of Woodburn. This action has been made necessary by the ease with which escapes from the training school adjacent to Woodburn are able to pick up cars about the city to make their get away.

Epworth Leaguers Hold Watch Party

Turner—Rev. and Mrs. William S. Burgoyne entertained a group of young people of the Methodist Epworth League society, with a New Year's party at the paragon. The evening was spent in games and music. At a later hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Burgoyne, followed by a watch party in the church. Rev. Burgoyne delivered a sermon, and other numbers were given at the services. Guests in attendance were Dorothy Standley, Gladys Hale, Lillian Peterson, Walter Peterson, Donald Standley, Jack Bothwell, Alvin Garner, Kenneth Bear, Glenn Garner, Robert Hatfield, Albert Jensen, Earl Standley, William Bear, Henry Hatfield, the hosts, Rev. and Mrs. Burgoyne and their daughter Ruth Helen.

Falconers Hosts With Watch Party

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. Norman K. Richards entertained at dinner on New Year's day at their home on Grant street. Covers were placed for Mrs. Ada Holtgreve of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richards, Miss Rose Richards, Howard Magnusen, O. L. Magnusen and the host and hostess.

HOLLYWOOD

Home of 25c Talks A Home-Owned Theater

LAST TIMES TODAY

Buster KEATON NEW YORK

SIDEWALKS

Also Last Episode "VANISHING LEGION" with HARRY CAREY News & Mickey Mouse Comedy

COMING SUN. MON. TUES

Continuous Sunday 2 to 11 P. M.

A STORY OF YOUTH THAT HITS HEARTS!

"AN AMERICAN TRAGEDY" A Paramount Picture

with PHILLIPS HOLMES SYLVIA SINLEY FRANCES DEE

LAST DAY—

The Sin of Madelon Claudet

With HELEN HAYES—LEWIS STONE Men Wept at the Soul Stirring Drama

ANNUAL CLUB DINNER HELD

Aumsville—The annual Community club New Year's day dinner and program was held at the school house Friday with a dinner served at 1 o'clock. After the dinner a program and short business meeting was held.

The program consisted of a song by the audience as a request number for Mrs. Cornelia A. Davis of Turner; piano solo, Alice Jensen; duet, with Gwen Martin at the piano and Wayne Ransom at the saxophone; songs by Harold Witcraft of Dallas and Mrs. Ella England of Salem; story comparing an old fashioned Christmas with that of today, by Henry Porter, story of Her Rag Doll "Sadie Ethel," by Mrs. T. C. Mountain; experience of long ago, by Henry Porter, Chris Jensen and John Mix.

After the program the business meeting was held with Mrs. Theodore Mountain acting as secretary in the absence of Miss Gladys Burgess. No definite action was taken except the community relief work. Much discussion was held on the civic improvements of the town and about buying plants for the school grounds and fencing it off.

The bonds which have all been paid off by the district were presented to the audience and a reading of thanks was given to the school board, past and present, and it was voted to keep them in the lock box for awhile.

The committee to work on the community relief service is Mrs. T. C. Mountain, of the Parent-Teacher association and the W. C. T. U.; Ray Porter, of the Christian church; Mrs. Jennie Wallace, Bethel church; Mrs. Susie Ransom, Women's club; and Charles Martin and Mrs. Ralph Pomeroy of the Community club. Mrs. Bradley, president of the Community club, is chairman.

Proceeds From Show Donated To Charity

Woodburn—Manager T. C. Pooman of the Bungalow theater, has announced that the entire proceeds from the show to be given at the theater Tuesday night will be given to local charity. The regular admission