Delphians Entertained With Tea

An attractive social event Tuesday afternoon was the smartly appointed tea with which Mrs. L. D. Lambeth entertained members of the Chi Delta chapter of Delphians at her home. The tea followed the regular study session of the chapter and was in compliment to chapter members and additional guests, who were Mrs. H. M. Berry and Mrs. G. E. Lunde of Portland, Mrs. J. E. Hill of Tacoma, Wash., who is the house guest of Mrs. Charles Hudkins, and Mrs. R. M. Ritter.

Mrs. H. M. Berry of Portland, field supervisor, brought Mrs. C. E. Lunde, president of the oldest Delphian society in Portland, who gave an inspiring talk on the great masters of art of the old world.

Topics on the study of Dutch painters were given by Mrs. R. D. Burton, Mrs. C. B. Spencer, Mrs. R. M. Waltz, Mrs. E. B. Millard and Mrs. W. J. Nelson.

The livingrooms of the Lambeth home were effectively decorated with bowls and baskets of pink anemones. Pink anemones and lighted pink tapers centered the pretty tea table where Mrs. E. B. Millard presided at the urns. Mrs. Lee Canfield and Mrs. Karl Heinlein assisted Mrs. Lambeth in serving.

Dumming Club At Bergsvik Home

The Joy Turner Moses piano and violin Dumming club was entertained Saturday night at the Leif Bergsvik home, when Miss Marjorie Ann Bergsvik was hostess to the club. A program of piano and violin numbers was given after which a musical play was presented. A musical discussion followed and later instructive musical games were played. Mrs. Bergsvik served a lunch.

The following members were present: Esther Callison Adelia Dickman, Jean Pound, Ruth Shewey, Edith Davis, Eileen Goodenough, Edwin Erler, Roy Morihoro, Mary Anderson, Irene Seelye, Margaret Strating, Maxine Goodenough, Ruth Seelye, Maxine Ross, Wanda Meadlinger, Maxine Case, Wilma Councilman, Violet Perkins, Clara Mae Dalke, Marjorie Ann Bergsvik and the advisor, Joy Turner Moses.

The Misses Eileen and Maxine Goodenough will entertain the club at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Goodenough at the February meeting.

Miss LaVerne Proctor entertained in compliment to the birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Proctor, with a family dinner Tuesday evening. Covers were placed for Mrs. Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Olsen, Emil, Bennie, Orlin, Elizabeth, Daryl and Beatrice Orlin, and for Miss Proctor.

Dr. O. A. Olson will be host to members of his dinner-bridge club at his home Wednesday evening. Members of the club are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Canfield, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Daus, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ferry, Mr. and Mrs. Halsey White, and Dr. Olson.

Officers of the Salem branch of the National Association of Letter Carriers and the local auxiliary were installed Monday night at the Fraternal temple with Arthur Welch, state president of the national association and Mrs. W. M. Persons, retiring president of the auxiliary, acting as installing officers. They were assisted by Mrs. Elsie Volkel and W. M. Persons.

Officers installed for the Salem branch were: Millard Doughton, president; Frank Zinn, vice-president; Guy Boyce, secretary; Ralph Morton, treasurer; William O'Neil, trustee; B. Horn, sergeant-at-arms.

New officers for the auxiliary who were installed included: Dorothy Taylor, president; Lillian Davis, vice-president; Gladys Boyce, secretary; Edna O'Neil, treasurer; Ethel Welch, chaplain; Ethel Nichol, color bearer; Pearl Nichol, mistress at arms; Melissa Persons, trustee.

A 8:30 o'clock dinner preceded the installation ceremonies. Speeches were made by the installing officers, the new presidents of the two organizations, and by Arthur Gibbard, assistant postmaster, and Claude H. Glenn, superintendent of mails.

Mr. Welch will go to Eugene January 23 to install officers for the branch and auxiliary in that city. Several local people plan to attend the Eugene meeting also.

Judge and Mrs. George Rosman will be hosts to members of their bridge club for an informal dinner and evening of cards Thursday at their home on North Capitol street.

The Standard Bearer society of the Jason Lee church held their monthly business meeting at the home of Jewel Gardner on Tamarack street Monday. Helen Marcy led the devotions and Betty Fouke and Wilma Godsey gave the lesson. Following the program the time was spent in seeing on hospital supplies and in conversation and music. Refreshments were served with Mary Lois Driggs assisting in the serving.

Those present were Helen Marcy, Gatha Bressler, Marguerite Clark, Betty Fouke, Hazel Mason, Mary Lois Driggs, Wilma Godsey, Clara Bell Burnside, Beatrice Burtow, Wanda Gamble, Maxine Stout, Jean Gardier and Mrs. A. P. Waller.

The February meeting will be held at the home of Betty Fouke.

Complimenting her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Wilkerson, on her 86th birthday anniversary, Saturday, Mrs. Harrison McWhorter entertained with an informal party at the McWhorter home on North Summer street Saturday afternoon. About 25 intimate friends called for the informal afternoon and the honor guest, who has made her home in Salem for the past 20 years, received many gifts. An elaborately decorated cake was served at the tea hour.

Parties Feature Week-End

Matrons in the capital city and the immediate vicinity are awaiting the week-end with interest, for two series of large parties will entertain numerous guests.

Mrs. Reed Rowland, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy and Mrs. E. B. Gabriel will be hostesses for large bridge teas on Friday and Saturday afternoons. About 25 tables will be in play altogether. Both parties will be held in the attractive Masonic temple social rooms.

Mrs. M. C. Pettesey and Mrs. B. B. Fiack will entertain with a bridge luncheon and bridge tea series on Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Pettesey home on the Wallace road. Five tables will be in play following the luncheons on Thursday and Friday, and six tables of cards will be in play at the bridge tea Saturday.

Miss Gunnell Entertains Club

Miss Kathryn Gunnell entertained Zonta club members and invited guests at her studio Tuesday night with a showing of motion pictures which she took during the Zonta district conference last fall and, by request, showed the classification film which was one of the main features of the conference banquet.

A social hour followed the motion pictures, and Miss Gunnell was assisted in serving light refreshments by her mother, Mrs. N. E. Gunnell.

A meeting of the Zonta club executive board at the home of Miss Dorothy Pearce preceded the entertainment at Miss Gunnell's studio. Zonta club members will hold a business session at their luncheon Thursday noon in the Marion hotel, and will make further plans and set a definite day for the Y.W.C.A. benefit program which they will sponsor the latter part of this month, on the first of February. Miss Barbara Barnes, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Dr. Helen Pearce and Miss Dorothy Pearce are in charge of the program.

The program arranged for the meeting of the Lincoln Parent-Teacher association at the school building Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock will feature two motion picture films made by Dr. David Bennett Hill, "Life of a Healthy Child," and "Scenic Oregon," the views taken in trips totaling more than 4000 miles. The meeting was erroneously announced previously as that of the Leslie association.

The music section of the Salem Arts league will meet at the home of Miss Ruth Coffey, 468 North Winter street, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All interested in active work in either voice or instrumental music are invited to attend. The section plans later in the season to cooperate with the drama section in presenting programs.

An interesting book review was given by Miss Laura Phipps at the Encinitis club dinner Tuesday night in the Y. W. rooms. Guests for the dinner were Miss Bernice Cowden, Miss Rosanne Schroeder, Miss Mildred Judson and Mrs. Helen Hamilton.

Members of her contract bridge club closed their first series when Mrs. John McNary was hostess to the group Monday afternoon. Mrs. George Rodgers and Mrs. Clarence Keene of Silverton held high scores for the series. Mrs. David Eyre was an additional guest for the affair. The second series for the group will start next Monday with Mrs. Henry Meyers as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Linn McCreadie of Eugene were guests Tuesday evening and Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Slade.

Mrs. N. O. Bales was hostess to members of her bridge club at her home on 17th street recently. Prizes for the afternoon went to Mrs. C. M. Wilson and Mrs. W. D. Albright. Mrs. H. Dammell was an additional guest. Members of the club are Mrs. W. D. Albright, Mrs. C. E. Kertson, Mrs. D. W. Medley, Mrs. Ed Phalen, Mrs. P. A. Smith, Mrs. Rutherford, Mrs. C. M. Wilson and Mrs. Bales.

Mrs. Frank Snedecor, who went to Portland Monday to attend the symphony concert, and since then has been staying in Portland as the house-guest of her cousin, Mrs. Rudolph Prael, is expected to return Thursday.

The Beta Chi Mothers' club met in the sorority house on State street Tuesday afternoon with a number of members present. During the social hour, Miss Clara Wright entertained with piano solos. Hostesses were Mrs. W. A. Marshall, Mrs. H. L. Braden, Mrs. P. H. Boardman and Mrs. C. W. Beechler. The February meeting will be held the evening of February 9 at the home of Mrs. W. A. Marshall, 1775 South High street.

My dear - you have no idea how shocked I was...!

YOU know I spent the week-end with Helen. Someone really ought to speak to her. She's such a nice girl, and she's perfectly fastidious about everything else. But she wears her underthings a second day—and everybody perspires a little. Why does she run the risk of offending?

Personal daintiness! The subject of whispered comment, veiled hints. Lose it and you lose all chance of social acceptance.

Fresh lingerie each day is absolutely essential to daintiness. All day long underthings absorb perspiration. A daily change is even more important than a daily bath. And it's so easy to wear fresh lingerie every day. For Lux removes every trace of perspiration, yet protects colors and fabrics. And it takes four minutes or less. Wash underthings and stockings in Lux diamonds, after each wearing.

- 1 Wash this 4-minute way: 1 tablespoon of Lux diamonds does 1 day's undies. Dip up and down, rinse twice, squeeze in bath towel, shake out. Then they're fresh and sweet!
- 2 Wash after each wearing, for perspiration acids left in silk fade colors and rot threads. With Lux it takes only a few minutes—less time than it takes to wash your face and hands.
- 3 Never rub dainty lingerie with cake soap. Rubbing tends to streak colors and weaken fabrics. Tests show Lux removes perspiration acids completely—yet leaves colors sparkling, like new. Anything safe in water alone is just as safe in Lux.

Your Hands— they deserve gentle care, too. Use Lux in the dishpan... costs little... keeps hands white and smooth...

"I was afraid Grandfather would be Shocked.."

"HE'S rather a bossy old darling, and I didn't know how he'd like the idea of my smoking."

"The first time I lit a Chesterfield in front of him, he snuffed like an old war-horse... and I braced myself for trouble. But all he said was, 'That's good tobacco, Chickabiddy.'"

"But I still think that if he hadn't been so impressed by the quality of Chesterfield, the old dear might have been less agreeable. Human nature is like that!"

"Grandfather raised tobacco in his younger days, so he knows what's what. I don't, of course—but I do know that Chesterfields are milder. It's wonderful to be able to smoke whenever you want, with no fear you'll smoke too many."

"And it doesn't take a tobacco expert to prove that Chesterfield tobaccos are better. They taste better... that's proof enough. Never too sweet. No matter when I smoke them... or how many I smoke... they always taste exactly right.

"They must be absolutely pure... even to the paper which doesn't taste at all. In fact... as the ads say... 'They Satisfy!'"
