

SWEDES TO PLAY FLORSHEIMS IN WU GYMNASIUM

The basketball local fans have been looking forward to several weeks will take place next Wednesday night in Willamette university's gymnasium. Willamette's "Terrible Swedes," billed as the best independent aggregation of hoop stars in the country, will clash with Florsheim. The contest, originally billed for the armory, was changed to the university gym when it was decided to throw in a contest between Salem high and the Beartooth from a certain raiser. Both games will be seen for the price of one admission.

The Swedes have an impressive record during the present season despite the fact they have been playing almost every night since they left Humansville, Mo., early in December. Up to January 4, they had played 33 games, losing but two, both to Brigham Young university, Provo, Utah.

The visitors claim to be proficient under any rules including amateur, American league, and Eastern two hand dribble.

An exhibition of basket shooting and "two hand frog dribble" will be put on between halves by the visitors.

Persons desiring to secure seats for the affair before Monday night can secure them at Cadwell and Parker's on State street.

Willamette Rooks Nose Out Lincoln

The freshman basketball squad of Willamette university won its second game of the season Tuesday afternoon in Portland when it defeated Lincoln high, 16 to 14. The rappers were faster than the rappers but were unable to penetrate the some defense which Coach Sparks used during the second half. Terry Edwards, frosh center, scored 10 points for the winners.

Lincoln has a strong team this year with two players who are as tall as Edwards. Lincoln will come to Salem Saturday to play the rappers in a preliminary to the Willamette-Columbia tilt.

LOMSKI, SAWYER IN WILD BOUT

Portland, Ore., Jan. 12. (AP)—Leo Lomski, Portland heavyweight, took a decision over Frank Sawyer, Vancouver, B. C., after six slashing rounds here last night. It was a slugging bee from start to finish. For the first three rounds Lomski had his hands full. After almost flooring Sawyer with a left hook in the first round, Lomski sat down on the canvas from a right to the jaw, but was up before a count was started. Lomski's clever use of left hooks gained him the decision.

Neal Kilbane, Tacoma middleweight was awarded a close decision over Ray McQuillan, Portland, in another good bout.

Ernie Peters, the Cherokee Indian, and Al Musola, Clatskanie, bantamweights, went six rounds to a draw. Peters put Musola down for a nine-count in the fourth.

"Beard" Baker, Seattle negro heavyweight, made short work of Tom Moore, who went down four times and out in the first round.

Denny Lenhart, Portland light heavyweight, knocked out Art Mayer, Portland in the first round. A right uppercut toppled Mayer for the first of two knockdowns.

Young Corpus, Manila lightweight, knocked out George Hval.

Salem Golf Board To Elect Officers

Election of three directors, one for three years and two for one year, and reading of the financial report for the past year, will constitute the main business Wednesday night when the board of directors of the Salem Golf club meets at the clubhouse for the annual meeting. R. I. McLaughlin's term of three years has expired while Fred Kay and Graham Sharkey will be up for re-election.

FAST BOUTS ON FRIDAY NIGHT'S CARD ASSURED

"One of the best and fastest boxes in the northwest today," is the opinion of Matchmaker Plant of George Hval, the youngster who will be brought here next Friday night for a 10 round collision with Kim Albertson who has been working out daily at the Capital club. Although recognizing that Albertson carries a dangerous wallop in either fist, Plant does not believe he will be able to put Hval away. Hval was formerly amateur northwest featherweight champion and has wins to his credit over Pat O'Day, Johnnie Albertson and Ted Garvey.

Albertson is rapidly getting into condition and says he will be able to hit a fast pace throughout the entire 10, three minute rounds if necessary.

In an effort to secure the best match possible for the main event, Matchmaker Plant has signed Shrimp McDonald of Corvallis and Burdette Ambrose for a six round battle while "Spike" Gorman will clash with Hank Brady of Silverton in a four round event. Bobbie Ambrose will scrap four rounds with Cy Landreth of Independence.

REED'S WRISTLOCKS DEFEAT PERKINS

Robin Reed, claimant of the welterweight wrestling crown of the United States, had enough reserve Tuesday night to come back and take two straight falls from Art Perkins and win the match after the latter had dealt considerable punishment to take the first bout with a so-called "surfboard" hold after clamping on a series of head scissors. Perkins took the first fall in 21 minutes.

A string of whip wristlocks proved the undoing of Perkins and Reed took the second fall in 21:18, while the champion took the evening's entertainment in 18:10 with shoulder butts and a body press.

Prof. Newton of Oregon City and Art O'Reilly of Eugene went 20 minutes to a draw.

Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 13 (AP)—The University of British Columbia basketball team, Canadian champion basketball squad, toyed with the Portland Multnomah team and downed them 35-21 here last night. At half time the Southern aggregation was trailing 20-1.

Trojan Center To File Slander Suit

Los Angeles, Jan. 13 (AP)—Declaring that he was unable to obtain an apology from officials of the University of Southern California, William Hawkins, substitute center of the Trojan football squad, has quit the university with the announcement he plans to carry his demand for vindication to the courts.

Richard H. Cantillon, an attorney, said he would file a suit against the university charging either "false imprisonment, or slander." The smallest possible damages will be sought, vindication alone being the purpose of the suit, Cantillon said.

Hawkins submitted to confinement in a mountain cabin for three days prior to the U. S. C.-Notre Dame game, guarded by detectives, when it was believed by coaches of the football team he might be giving Trojan plays to the Notre Dame team.

CHEMAWA BEATS BULLDOGS, 50-11

Chemawa—The Chemawa basketball team which has been in a slump for the past two weeks snapped out of it with a vengeance Tuesday night when it defeated Woodburn 50 to 11. With accurate shooting, good team work, absolute confidence and with no wasted efforts the Indians outscored the hard-playing Bulldogs who fought every inch of the way.

Chemawa made a good percentage of their field goal tries and all of their free throws while Woodburn, which had evidently hit one of its off nights, missed plenty of field goals and about half of the free throws.

Woodburn shot the first goal, then Chemawa started off and maintained a lead throughout. At half time the count stood 30 to 8.

Starting the second half the Bulldogs showed their teeth and growled so hard that during the third period the Indians only got two baskets out of many attempts.

The Chemawa B team defeated the Woodburn B's 26 to 19.

Lineups:

Woodburn (11)	(50) Chemawa
Neison 3	F 7 Dogeagle
D. Ramsdell 3	F 16 Vivette
Pardy 2	C 7 Hatfield
M. Ramsdell	C G Shoulderblade
Jackson	C G 4 DePoe
Evans 3	S 5 Pratt
	S 5 Hall
	S 6 Bobb

WEBFOOTS EVEN COUNT WITH WSC

Pullman, Wash., Jan. 13 (AP)—With the count evened 18-18 at the half, University of Oregon's quintet stepped out in the second half to defeat Washington State 42 to 29 here last night in the second game of the series, after bowing to the Cougars 33 to 21 in the initial contest. Washington State showed only spurts of the flashy playing displayed in Monday night's game, while Oregon looked like a different team. With Jack (Spook) Robertson, sophomore forward leading the way, Oregon fired a barrage that shot it far into the lead. Robertson scored seven field goals and a free throw for 15 points, while his teammate, Calkins, also ran up 15. McFarney, Cougar guard, was high man for his team, with nine.
