LOGGERS BEATEN FRIDAY NIGHT BY SCORE OF 38-33

The battle of the titans, the first round of which resulted in the narrow victory of 38 to 33 for Coach Keene's warriors, will be resumed Saturday night at Willamette university when the Loggers from College of Puget Sound once more attempted to scale the defenses of the Bearcats.

Friday night's struggle, waged with a desperation and vigor seldom seen on the maple court, saw five players banished to the showers before the final gun. A better string of reserves enabled Coach Keene to avert the contest away.

The ponderosa pines from the north displayed a fast-breaking offense which did not seem possible considering the stature of the players, while their defense time and again withstood the assaults of the swirling Bearcats.

McCoy, a fast moving guard, scored the first point of the evening when he sank a gift shot. Willamette evened it up and then with Benjamin, Klossira and Allen finding the range, the Bearcats forged ahead to take a 9 to 3 lead.

The visitors, becoming accustomed to their surroundings, soon knotted the count at 11-all while Bowers, who proved to be one of the best fancy shooters seen here this season, soon had his team out in front 19 to 15. Poul shot by Carpenter and Faber put the Bearcats up even once more, but Garrison slipped through to force the Loggers ahead 21 to 19 just as the half ended.

During the first 10 minutes of play in the second half C.P.S. led the parade. Percy Carpenter went into the fray at this point and galloped down the floor to make the score read 26-all. McCoy added two points to the Logger string but Carpenter came right back to tie the game once more. McCoy converted two foul shots after Max Allen had fouled him to put the visitors in the lead again.

Benjamin connected and the score read 30 to 30. Burdette converted a cinch shot to give Willamette the lead which was not relinquished. With the crowd anxiously imploring and encouraging, the players roared up and down the floor during the final minutes, while one by one the regulars took their places on the bench or went to the showers as the referee tolled off the fouls.

All told there were 40 fouls called, 25 on Willamette and 17 on C.P.S. They came so fast that the scorers had to stop the game several times in order to keep their records clear while at one point, Referee Scott Milligan turned his back on the charging players, walked over to the scorers and called a foul.

Lindfield and Willamette freshmen squads will start Sunday night's performance at 7:15. The Chemawa Indians were to have filled the preliminary engagement but sickness prevented the Redskins from playing. The score:

SPEARS DISCUSSES FOOTBALL INJURIES

Albany, Feb. 13—Dr. Clarence W. Spears, football coach at the University of Oregon said that football dangers are overstated, when he defended the sport of college at the meeting of the Kiwanis club here yesterday, when he spoke before that group.

Dr. Spears pointed to the fact that out of 43 deaths attributed to football last fall that Peking Yost, Michigan university, was able to trace but 22 to the game itself. Of these many were due to infections and other indirect causes, which might have been prevented with proper care and but seven deaths were caused by fractures received in games.

Dr. Spears stated that awkwardness among sophomores, which is lack of co-ordination and fatigue were chief among the causes for injuries in the game.

Move the kick-off up to mid-field and the wedge will not have time for form, he said, thereby removing cause of a number of injuries.

All told there were 40 fouls called, 25 on Willamette and 17 on C.P.S. They came so fast that the scorers had to stop the game several times in order to keep their records clear while at one point, Referee Scott Milligan turned his back on the charging players, walked over to the scorers and called a foul.

WEBFEET AGAIN DEFEAT COUGAR SQUAD, 34-32

Eugene, Ore., Feb. 13 (AP)—The Oregon basketball team hasn't been much shaken this year, but last night they did, for the second time this year, what no other northwest team has been able to do—down the Washington State Cougars. The score was 34 to 32.

Not for years has a Webfoot team accomplished such close checking and speed as did the Lemon and Green in the closing minutes of play.

The Cougars took a three-point lead in the first minute but were soon passed by the Webfeet who ran up a 15 to 3 score before the Pullmanites were able to find the basket again. The half ended 19 to 11 in Oregon's favor, then the Cougars opened up with a furious attack which ran the score to 19 to 19 before Oregon scored again. Oregon was not headed after that. Summary:

JACK HAS GOOD CHANCE TO WIN BACK TITLE SAYS FORMER FEATHER CHAMP

Detroit, Feb. 13 (U.P.)—Jack Dempsey has a better chance to win back the heavyweight title this year than he did when he fought Gene Tunney the second time in 1927, according to Jimmy Kilbane, former featherweight champion, and Matt Hinkel, veteran referee.

But Kilbane and Hinkel believe Dempsey must quit his barnstorming and adopt a new training program. They agree that Dempsey's punch is as good as the day he beat Jess Willard.

"Dempsey must avoid sleeping in hotels, making sleeper jumps and keeping irregular hours if he wants to come back," said Kilbane.

"He should retire to a training camp and begin a long siege of conditioning. He needs steady work over a long period to build his strength back to the maximum. He needs the proper rest, and he needs to concentrate on the task before him. He can't continue his present program and hope to make a real bid for the title."

Hinkel referred the Dempsey-Christner bout at Cleveland Thursday night. He suggests the following program for the champion:

- 1. Pick a camp with pure air and favorable climate.
2. Forget speed. Build up the legs, body, and reserve strength.
3. Train slowly but steadily for five or six months before fighting.

Since resuming the second phase of his tour, Dempsey has done little training. He looks tired and drawn about the face when he does not get his proper rest.

Hinkel thinks Dempsey can win back the title in two bouts—by beating Primo Carnera and Max Schmeling.

Dempsey's next appearance on his exhibition tour will be at Flint, Mich., Monday night when he meets Pat McLaughlin, Racine, Wis., and Joe Kohler, Chicago, in two bouts of two rounds each.

The 43 year old Englishman hopes that his improved car running over a course lengthened to give him a better start than when he set the present record will enable him to attain a speed of 260 miles per hour.

"Just what my speed will be this time, I do not know," he said. "I do know this: Under favorable conditions the machine is capable of a speed of 260 miles per hour or better, and I intend to give her the full throttle—to set a new record—or else!"
