Dalziel-Chapman Nuptials Saturday

Mrs. Jean Chapman and Glen Dalziel were quietly married Saturday evening at 5 o'clock at a simple ceremony with Dr. Grover C. Birtch of the First Presbyterian church officiating in the church study. The only attendants were Miss Catherine McRae and Norman Purbrick. The bride wore a modish ensemble of dark blue and a corsage of pink rosebuds and sweet peas.

Following the ceremony, the wedding party drove to Corvallis for the wedding dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalziel are making their home in Salem, where Mr. Dalziel is employed at a local garage. He formerly lived in Marysville, Calif. Mrs. Dalziel is the daughter of Mrs. William McRae of Salem.

Social Events Over Week-End

A variety of social events were inspired in the capital city this past week-end by the state high school basketball tournament. Added to the return of Salem young folk who have been away to college, social circles were busy.

Among the social events revolving about the tournament were the luncheon for visiting coaches, tournament officials, and newspaper men given by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Keene at their home Saturday afternoon, with Mrs. W. Connell Dyer and Mrs. W. L. Phillips assisting the hosts; the supper party Saturday night given by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Phillips for 20 guests a 35-cover buffet luncheon given by Miss Josephine Cornoyer at the H. C. Cornoyer home Saturday afternoon complimenting Robert Finch of Baker, house-guest at the Cornoyer home, and members of the Baker basketball team; a dancing party given by Ralph Stearns at the Stearns home Saturday night for 38 young folk, including members of the Salem, Baker and Astoria basketball teams; and three dances, the "S" club dance at the armory Saturday night, the "tournament ball" at Castilian hall Friday night and the private tournament dance given by a group of Salem high school boys and alumni Thursday night at the Salem Golf club house.

A. A. U. W. Plans for State Convention

Announcement of the state convention of the American Association of University Women here October 15 and 16 and of the Pacific Northwest A. A. U. W. biennial April 29 to 30 at Tacoma, Wash., was made at the March luncheon meeting of the Salem branch, A. A. U. W. Saturday afternoon at the Gray Belle. Arrangements also were made for the nomination of officers for the Salem group to be made at the April meeting and for the election of officers at the May meeting. Miss Beryl Holt, Mrs. Asa Fisher and Mrs. George H. Alden was announced as the nominating committee.

The March luncheon was an outstanding meeting for the section members, with a large number of guests and members attending. Rev. Bernard Geiser, of Portland, noted mural artist who is regarded as an authority on religious paintings, gave an interesting discussion of art as the featured program attraction of the afternoon. He traced the development of art and the layman's reaction to it. Rev. Geiser is now engaged in painting murals for the new St. Mark's Episcopal church at Portland. Vocal numbers were given by Miss Myronne Goddard of Monmouth, with Miss Gladys Edgar playing her accompaniment.

The Salem branch also decided to assist the local branch of the National Council for the Prevention of War in bringing Prof. Aiden Alley of Dana college, New Jersey, to Salem to speak at the First Methodist church this Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, and members of the international relations section have postponed their meeting Monday night to attend Prof. Alley's talk. Mrs. Roy Klein and Mrs. George H. Alden discussed the Margaret Snell fellowship to which the local A. A. U. W. branch contributes. Mrs. Vergil Golden was introduced as a new member.

Mrs. J. A. Jelderks, branch president, presided and Miss Helen Louise Crosby, program chairman, served as hostess.

Woodburn—Wallace M. Williams and Mrs. Emma Hill, both of Woodburn, were married at the parsonage of the First Christian church in Salem Wednesday afternoon, March 17. Rev. D. J. Howe, pastor of the church, officiated. They will reside at the home of the groom, 276 East Lincoln street.

TO ADDRESS CLUB

Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, assistant attorney general of Oregon, who will address members of the Salem Woman's club at the regular club meeting Saturday afternoon. Miss Smith will discuss phases of national legislation especially relating to women. A tea meeting will follow the club business and program session, with Mrs. Harry J. Wiedmer, tea chairman, assisted by Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. E. B. Gabriel, Mrs. Ray W. Hartman, Mrs. L. H. McMahana, Mrs. U. Scott Page, Mrs. Anna Thompson, Mrs. Frank Power, Mrs. Charles V. Galloway, Mrs. Mark D. McCallister, Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Mrs. Hal D. Patton and Mrs. Ida Shade.

Further Plans for Academy Dance

Arrangements have been made during the week-end for several feature attractions for the semi-formal dance which the Salem Riding Academy will sponsor on April 2 at the Hilahee clubhouse. Two feature numbers, one especially appropriate to the organization sponsoring the dance, will be given by students of the Barbara Barnes school of the dance. The popular Black Knights orchestra from Corvallis has been secured for the dance. Mrs. Breyman Boise, president of the Crop and Spur Hunt club of the academy, is heading the list of club members who will serve as hostesses during the dance.

The Crop and Spur Hunt club, in addition to its activity for the dance, has a full calendar otherwise, arranged by Mrs. Harold Hughes, officer for feature rides for the Hunt club. Outside rides are being planned for every Sunday from now on, weather permitting, and the tanbark ring in the horse show pavilion at the state fairgrounds also will be available for the Hunt club members and all others interested. Sunday a group of riders practised jumps at the pavilion ring. The Hunt club also will hold open house for members of the academy and their friends the first Tuesday night in each month.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Spittler of Salem celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on March 12 at the home of their daughter, Mrs. A. G. Kraus, in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Spittler were married in St. Marie, Ill., March 8, 1882, and lived in Indiana until coming to Oregon 23 years ago. They settled on a farm in the Willamette valley. They moved to Salem on their retirement from farm life 10 years ago. They are the parents of three children, Sam Spittler of Salem, Mrs. A. G. Kraus of Portland, and Mrs. Albert Colten of Kentland, Ind.

Mrs. Grover C. Birtch will speak on her experiences in and impressions of South America at the Etokta club meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mason Bishop.

Mrs. Angie Dayton of Astoria, senior vice-president of the Oregon department, Daughters of Union Veterans, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nash over the week-end. Mrs. Dayton, accompanied by Mr. Dayton and a group of Astoria high school boys, motored to Salem early Saturday morning and attended the Astoria-Salem basketball game at the Willamette gymnasium Saturday evening.

War Mothers Plan Trip to Portland

The annual pre-Easter pilgrimage of the Salem chapter, American War Mothers, to the United States Veterans' hospital at Portland will be held Thursday of this week. The general public is invited to contribute home made cookies, jams and cakes, also fruits and flowers for the War Mothers to take with them to Portland. The articles will be accepted at the armory from 9 to 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

The pilgrimage has been a feature of the week just preceding Easter for the past several years. War Mothers who have not previously visited the veterans' hospital are especially invited to make the trip. Transportation will be provided. Those planning to make the pilgrimage are asked to register with Mrs. Elizabeth Waters, telephone 4821, before Wednesday evening.

Miss Irma Bolander will leave Wednesday night for Long Beach, Calif., where she will spend Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Bolander.

The Salem Woman's Press club will be entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Stephen A. Stone at her home, 373 Leslie street.

Clear Lake—A surprise was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Herrold Thursday evening in honor of Mr. Herrold's and Mrs. Ross Hammack's birthday anniversaries. The evening was spent playing cards and games. Mrs. Hammack and Mr. Herrold were both presented with a gift. Luncheon was served at a late hour.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hammack two and sons of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Coonse, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Orey, Mr. and Mrs. (Additional Society on Page 10)
