that liquor "rained everything it has ever touched."

The outcome was a foregone con-clusion from the start, but it was pressed as part of the wet campressed as part of the wet cam-paign being conducted by the anti-prohibitionists of the house. The amendment was offered by the Tammany leader, Representative Cullen, New York. It proposed a tax of three cents a pint on all beer, porter, lager and ale of less than 2.75 per cent alcoholic content by rolume. It would have been been volume. It would have legalized that type of beer. The Volstead act now restricts beer to less than one-half of one per cent.

In a vote on repeal last Monday ets mustered 187 votes. Acting Chairman Crisp of the ways and means committee took the floor in opposition to the amend-ment at the close of debate.

"I have been against this beer proposal because I do not believe prohibition ought to be injected into the tax bill," he said.

CROP LOANS TO

Washington, March 2 (A)-Secre-

Washington, March 2 (47)—Secretary Hyde today notified Senators Carey, republican, Myoming, and Thomas, republican, Indaho, that western farmers on irrigation projects could use their crop production loans to pay for water and maintenance charges.

The senators explained the production loans were those provided for in the $200,000,000 agriculture fund of the Reconstruction Finance corporation and would be available for farmers in all irrigation projects, whether federal or private. Hyde's decision to change the rules on 'se of the crop production loans came as the request of the western senators, who had pointed out the necessity for water on the irrigation projects, equally as vital as the seed, feed and fertilizer for which the loans originally were so confined.
