

EASTER BRINGS FINE PROGRAMS TO CHURCH FOLK

Sheridan—An outstanding event in the Easter celebration in the local Methodist church was the dramatic presentation, "The Upper Room," by William Emerson Jones. This dramatic worship was given in the evening under the auspices of the Epworth League, with Miss Frances Keady as chairman from that organization. She was assisted by Mrs. Jack Power, Rev. R. A. Fenstra, announced the scenes and the music was in charge of Mrs. R. A. Fenstra and the church choir.

Characters were as follows: The maid, Wauwatah Burd; Judas, Wilbur Elliott; James, Donald McIntyre; Thomas, Howard Branson; Bartholomew, Bethel Jones; Simon, Barbara J. Graves; Matthew, Charles Yeo; Alphaeus, Eugene Ritter; Thaddeus, Napoleon Thompson; Peter, James McCoy; John, Kenneth Mendenhall; Philip, Kenneth Karstens; Nicodemus, Kermit Karstens; Centurion, Jack Power; Mary Magdalene, Thelma Brown; Mary, the mother of James, Varel Jones; Salome, Elsie Yeo; Mary, the mother of Jesus, Mrs. Mildred Guy.

Outstanding in speaking parts were: Jack Power as the Centurion, Judas as portrayed by Wilbur Elliott, Howard Branson as Thomas, and Mary Magdalene as portrayed by Thelma Brown.

A large crowd greeted the young people. Brooks—Easter was observed by special exercises at the Brooks Methodist church Sunday morning. Song by the young people's class, Elizabeth Clark, Bernadine Wheeler, Lena Rigli, Lela Hall, Inez Allison, Bessie Aspinwall, Ray Siedel, John Reed, Ralph Chastain, Bob Hamp, Bill Hall, Bill Cole, George Cole, Edith Prenz, song, Misses Lena Rigli, Inez Allison, Lela Hall, Elizabeth Clark, Bessie Aspinwall, Bernadine Wheeler; reading, Jeanette Evans; song by the young people's class, with Mrs. Cecil V. Ashbaugh playing the piano accompaniment. A special Easter sermon was presented by the pastor, Rev. Everett Cole. Mrs. Earl Streeter and Mrs. Malcolm Hamp sang a duet at the church hour.

Roberts—After the regular Sunday school work Sunday morning an Easter program was given as follows: Song by the primary class; recitation by Dorothy Brown, class; recitation by the junior class, duet by Mrs. W. C. Pettijohn and Mrs. McGee, Bible verses by the Thunder Bird class, duet by Helen and Dorothy Brown, song by the Young People's class, pageant directed by Mrs. W. C. Pettijohn and played by Dorothy Rice, Dorothy Salchenberg, Janice Higgins, Maxine Pettijohn, June Edwards, and Rose Ann Goodrich. The singing for the pageant was given by Mrs. W. C. Pettijohn, Mrs. Ed Goodrich and G. S. Higgins accompanied at the piano by Mrs. P. V. Edwards.

Falls City—Sunrise prayer services were held both in the Methodist and Christian churches Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock, which was followed by breakfast at the church. At the Christian church, Miss LaVern Morgan gave a talk about the new life. Mrs. J. I. Bailes gave the Easter story. Covers were laid for the following, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Bailes, Misses Georgia Saunders, June Saunders, Ethel Good, Ethel Phillips, Vera Wheeler, Thelma Robinson, Wilma Robinson, Irene Inman, Lucille Herlihy, Della Ames, Edith Herlihy, LaVern Morgan, Hazel Ward, Gilbert Morgan, Hugh and Paul Herlihy, Lloyd Goode, Lawrence McCutcher, Mrs. Naomi Whittier and Henrietta Jobs.

Lyons—An 8 o'clock mass was held at the Catholic church Sunday morning with an Easter service. Father Gabel officiating. A sunrise service began the day at the Community church Sunday morning with breakfast at 7 o'clock. A large crowd attended the Easter program presented by the Sunday school at 11 o'clock.

Lafayette—Easter was celebrated here in the Evangelical church with special services. The Rev. F. E. Fisher conducted the morning service. A program was held in the evening. The Sunday school pupils presented most of the numbers.

Arlie—Special Easter services were held in the Arlie church Sunday. Rev. A. V. Oliver delivering the sermon. Miss Laura Lee, Mrs. E. Whitaker, Charlotte Banta, Doris Whitaker and LaVerne Tartar furnished special music.

Turner—A record attendance of 100 was present at the Easter morning Bible school classes at the Turner Christian church. The early sunrise prayer service on the hillside was attended by 18 young people of the church. En-avor society, followed by breakfast in the church dining room with Miss Josephine Giltner leading the latter service. Rev. E. J. Giltner's adult Bible class registered 60 Easter morning and the evening church service was also largely attended. A program of readings, special music and exercises was presented. The pastor, Rev. Giltner delivered a special Easter message. At the evening Christian Endeavor meeting 42 young people attended.

Silverton—Special services at St. Paul's Catholic church of Silverton included sacred chorals at the morning 8 o'clock mass by a chorus of 30 school children of the intermediate and advanced grades. An adult choir of 12 voices sang a high mass at the noon services beginning at 12:30 o'clock. The Easter address was given by Father Charles Raymond.

Marquam—The Easter program of the Methodist church at Marquam was held at 11 o'clock with Mrs. Edith P. Parker in charge. The church was beautifully decorated with greens and seasonal flowers.

The following program was presented: organ prelude by Mrs. Edith

Liberty Boy Scout Troop Scheduled

Liberty—At the last meeting of the boys' chorus plans were made to organize a Boy Scout troop to further carry on the chorus work. Don Douris, scoutmaster of troop No. 13 of Salem was present and made an interesting talk to the boys. He will again be with the chorus at their meeting Thursday night and will bring two troops from Salem to entertain the prospective scouts. The meeting will be held at the community hall at 7:30 o'clock.

BIRD HOUSES ARE DISPLAYED

Sheridan—Keen interest was manifested Saturday in the awarding of money prizes by the Civic Improvement club to the winners in the bird house contest sponsored by that organization. The bird houses were displayed from 2 to 5 o'clock in the city hall, and after the awards were made were taken for further display to the show room of the Houser Chevrolet company on Main street, where they attracted much attention and comment.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Elly Townsend, Mrs. Frederick Daniels, and Mrs. Jack Laffler. The judges consisted of Mrs. R. C. Field, Mrs. Howard Houser and Mrs. A. A. Donbrava. The project covered a period of two weeks and was presented to the third, fourth and fifth grades in one division, and to the sixth, seventh and eighth grades in another division. The project is one of several similar projects to be undertaken by the Civic club, whose president is Mrs. R. C. Field.

Those entering the contest consisted of the following: First division, Gene Hamstead, Ray Henry, Helen Johnson, Leonard Schatz, Dean Brown and Clayton Markee, with two entries; second division, Frances Kelly, Josephine Laffler, Phillip Brown, with three entries; Ray Hare with two, and Dale Power. Prizes were awarded as follows: First, Gene Hamstead, fourth grade; second, Ray Henry, fourth grade; honorable mention, Helen Johnson, all in first division; second division—first prize, Frances Kelly, seventh grade; second prize, Josephine Laffler, honorable mention, Phillip Brown, eighth grade.

P. Parker, song by the congregation; recitations by Bonita Nicholson, Albert Larson and Kathleen Swarthout; vocal duet by Eleanor Ridings, Bonita Nicholson; recitation by Leta Jackson and Jack Rice; song by the Sunday school; recitation by Clifford Swarthout; exercise by Dolly Olson, Eleanor Ridings, Lucille Mortensen, Catherine Chico, Bonita Nicholson and Beryl Sanderson; recitation by Marquitta Rice; vocal solo by Mrs. D. George Cole; recitation by Paul Jones. The Easter message by Rev. D. George Cole, pastor, and a song by the congregation.

Donald—Sunday school was held as usual on Easter and in the evening the members presented an appropriate program composed of songs and dialogues. This was followed by an hour of singing from the song books recently purchased and used for the first time. Henry Goode acted as leader, assisted by Paul Erb, Rev. Carl Blachier was unable to be present on account of illness and no regular church service was held.

Scotts Mills—Easter services at both the local churches, Friends and Christian, were well attended Sunday. Six o'clock sunrise prayer meeting was held at the Christian church with special orchestra music. Bible school at 10 a. m. and church service at 11 o'clock with special numbers. The church at 10 o'clock at the Friends church followed by a program and Easter service.

Richland—The children of the local Sunday school presented the following program at the close of a study of the Easter lesson at the church here Sunday morning: song, scripture reading, Rev. Rescue Ploughman; Easter greetings, Betty Henry; Easter drill, Wilma Ellis, Katherine Lowry, June Parker, Nola Cunningham; song, Elsie and Wilma Ellis, Katie Whaley and Katherine Lowry; Easter gifts, Amund Brown, Junior Bullock, Walter Hill, Kenneth W. George; Easter message, Katie Whaley; reading, Armand Brown; song. At the close of the program Carl Cording, a student at Willamette university, delivered an Easter sermon from the text, "To Be Dead Unto Sin," and Rev. Rescue Ploughman, the local pastor sang "Nailed to the Cross." He was accompanied by Mrs. Ploughman at the organ.

Ballston—Sunday school pupils of the Community church presented the Easter program Sunday. Recitations and readings were given by Cassie Sechrist, Charles Shafter, Myrtle Smart, Josephine Murphy, Alan Sechrist, Omer Reuten, Jean Sechrist, Ernest Lens and Arlene Richards. An exercise was presented by Allice Sechrist, Donald Gregg and Ora May Bowman and another by Helen Morris, Thelma Winters, Betty Gregg, Helen Sechrist, Mary Sechrist and Alda Miller. Dorothy Covey offered violin numbers while there were songs by the audience and the choir.

GRAND A HOME OWNED THEATRE LAST DAY
DANIELS HONOR OF A FAMILY
Wednesday Thursday
HARRY WARD

MOLALLA HOST TO SECTIONAL F.F.A. CONTEST

Molalla—The Columbia river sectional contest of Future Farmers of America which was held Friday and Saturday at the Molalla union high school, under the direction of E. E. Jackson, Smith-Hughes instructor of the high school, was one of the largest sectional conventions of the state. There were seven schools represented and 70 contestants registered. The schools that were here were Rainier, Knappa, Cloverdale, Canby, Gresham, Forest Grove, and Molalla.

The public speaking contest was held in the auditorium Friday evening. Reed Fendall of Forest Grove won first and his subject was "Development of Rural Leadership through Future Farmers of America." Trailing, second place, John Denison of Gresham, "Cooperative Marketing as a Solution of Economic Farm Problem"; third, Everett Rainwater of Rainier, "Development of Leadership Through Future Farmers of America." Fourth, Albert Craft of Canby, "Cooperative Marketing as a Solution of Economic Farm Problem." The judges for the speaking contest were H. H. Chindgren, Maurice Buxton, both of Molalla; Earl R. Cooley of Salem who is state supervisor of vocational education. The winner of this contest will go to Corvallis and compete in the public speaking contest at the state Future Farmers of America convention to be held there in April.

EVANS VALLEY CLUB KEEPING BOYS BUSY

Silverton—One of the most active 4-H clubs in the Silverton community is that of Evans Valley of which Ruby Down-Schultz is leader. They are doing camp cookery work this year, and are meeting each Saturday for extra practice and review of work completed in order to make a good showing on achievement day which is early in April. Saturday the group met at the private club home of one of the members, Earl Johnson, who built a rustic cabin in the woods on the farm of his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Johnson. Mrs. Johnson surprised the guests of her son with a country supper served in the cabin.

Club members and invited guests that were present included: Frances Ness, club president, Earl Johnson, vice president, Doris Brenden, secretary-treasurer, Lawrence Brenden, Virgil DePiro, Bill Ness, Clayton Langness, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schmitt, Alfred Down, Mrs. Conrad Olson, and James Olson. The camp cookery group are finishing the plans for their achievement day program and making sure of the studied projects for the year.

Students Invited For Card Evening

Silverton—Miss Frances Nelson was hostess to a group of friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alf O. Nelson at 712 Oak street, Saturday evening in a supper and card party. Present were Miss Cora Goplerud, home for a short vacation from her teaching work at Chambers, Prairie, Wash. Perry Larson, Silverton; Norman Jensen, a student of the Pacific Lutheran College of Parkland, Wash.; Irene Gayette of the Monmouth Normal; Walter Claus, of the Oregon State College, Corvallis, and Shirley Exenson and Frank Pettijohn of the Silverton high school. Two tables were in play during the evening.

Whites Are Hosts

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford T. White entertained Saturday evening at their country home with a party. During the evening three tables of "300" were in play. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Julius Krenz of Victor Point, Mr. and Mrs. Morris E. Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Townsend of Anney, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gulvin of Jefferson, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford T. White.

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richards spent the week end at Kelso, Wash., where they were Easter guests at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Magnuson. Miss Edith Rind of Woodburn was a guest at the Magnuson home from Thursday to Saturday.

HOLLYWOOD Home of 25c Talks
LAST TIMES TODAY — MATINEE TODAY 2 P. M.
You've Always Wanted to See it Again—Well, Here It is—Its Thrills and Romance Greater Than Ever in Sound!
A PICTURE THAT LIVES THROUGH THE AGES
BEN-HUR
NOW IN SOUND
See the Chariot Race, the Sea Fight, the Wreck, the Romance and Hundreds of Other Thrills
SPECIAL
The Hollywood Will Have a Special Bargain Matinee Today at 4 P. M. — All School Children, High School and All, 10c — This Matinee Only

Roosevelt's Photo Received By Black

Dallas—Lynne M. Black, president of the local "Roosevelt for President" club was the recipient Monday of a personally autographed cabinet photograph of Franklin D. Roosevelt. Enclosed with the photograph was another likeness of New York's governor designed especially for newspaper and other advertising purposes. The picture carries the autograph in the lower right hand corner with these words: "To my friend the Honorable Lynne M. Black, from Franklin D. Roosevelt."

ROBERTS TAKES CLUB VACATION

Roberts—There was a good attendance Saturday evening at the last meeting of the Community club which adjourned until fall. On account of sickness the play which Mr. Davenport was directing had to be given up, he hopes to be able to give it when the club starts up again. An impromptu program was given consisting of songs and numbers from each family. The following numbers were given: "Billy Burdick," by Mary Jane Osborne and Colleen Marret; the Clough-Barrick male quartet of Salem sang several selections; reading by George Veal; vocal solo by Mrs. W. C. Pettijohn accompanied by Maxine Pettijohn on the telephone and George Veal on the radio; radio skit by Gordon Greenstreet and Lloyd Davenport, duet by Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Higgins accompanied on the piano by Janice Higgins, burlesque, "Keeping Their Date," by Mrs. F. V. Edwards and Mrs. W. C. Pettijohn; duet by Helen and Dorothy Brown; play, "Judge First," by Mrs. T. J. Young; by Mr. J. Salchenberg as the judge; Dorothy Salchenberg, stenographer; Bennie Salchenberg, office boy; Louis Salchenberg, Donald Salchenberg, and Lawrence Cooper, laid-birds; song by Coranell and Elsie Ferguson accompanied by Frances Blanchard on the harmonica; comedy skit, "Pigs in Pigs," Maxine Pettijohn, the farm-house maid; a chorus of voices from the Methodist and Presbyterian churches, assisted by a trio from Buena Vista and a violin orchestra furnished an interesting program.

GEORGE JOSEPH TREE WILL BE DEDICATED

Woodburn—The Woodburn Rural club will dedicate their tree at the Washington school Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with the president, Mrs. Jay Pelmudler in charge. A patriotic program will be given by the club members in honor of George Washington and the tree will be named in honor of the late George W. Joseph. Everyone is invited to attend this service. In case of rain the ceremony will be postponed one week.

UNION SERVICE IS HELD, INDEPENDENCE

Independence—A large attendance was present at the Union Easter services in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. A chorus choir of voices from the Methodist and Presbyterian churches, assisted by a trio from Buena Vista and a violin orchestra furnished an interesting program.

Jefferson People Motor to Carlton

Jefferson—A group of local relatives and friends motored to Carlton Sunday and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Denison, former Jefferson residents. The occasion was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Denison. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McKee, Jean McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKee and daughter, Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Kester, Mrs. Maude Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McKee and son, Teddy and T. A. McKee, all of Jefferson; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Denison and son, Jimmy of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Denison and sons, Tom and Jerry of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoyt of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. William North and Billy of Portland and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Denison.

Observe Birthday

Turner—Mrs. U. S. Talbot was complimented Saturday evening with a surprise party when a group of friends gathered, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. Three tables of bridge was in play during the evening, music and a social time held, with refreshments served at a later hour. The guest group included Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Bean, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Whitehead, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Douglas B. Parkes, Mr. and Mrs. M. May Webb, Miss Gladys Burgess of Aumsville, Kenneth Bear, Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Riches.

Grange Has Party

Turner—The Turner Grange is sponsoring an April fool party Friday evening in the Odd Fellows hall with all grangers and their friends invited to attend. A social time of April fool games, stunts and jokes will be enjoyed and the amusement committee is busy. The public is invited. The social committee consists of Mrs. Clifford T. White, Mrs. W. F. Gulvin and Earl E. Cook.

EGGS HUNTED FOR MEHAMA

Mehama—The Mehama Union Sunday school held its Easter program Sunday immediately following the usual routine. The following program was given under the direction of Miss Ottlinger: Recitation, Emma Carter, recitation, Wilma Harris; Duet, Lois and Hally Stevens; recitation, Chester Blum, Jr.; march and song by seven boys; recitations, Ruth Harris and Vera Carter; song by the lower grades; exercise, nine girls; recitations, Marjory Testen, Gilbert Wagner; exercise and song, June Dickson and Gertrude Grace; recitation, Dickie Wagner; exercise, ten children.

Following the program there was an Easter egg hunt on the hill by the schoolhouse in which the three lower classes participated. The prize of a live bunny donated by Dale Menzies, was won by Wilbur Blum for finding the most eggs. In the evening the young people's meeting was omitted and a short program held in its place. A pantomime was given and a special song by the young people. The evening service was in charge of Rev. L. A. Lange of Eugene who is retiring from the field as Sunday school missionary. Rev. Lange preached his last sermon in this capacity Sunday evening, and incidentally he was celebrating his 75th birthday anniversary.

GEORGE JOSEPH TREE WILL BE DEDICATED

Woodburn—The Woodburn Rural club will dedicate their tree at the Washington school Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with the president, Mrs. Jay Pelmudler in charge. A patriotic program will be given by the club members in honor of George Washington and the tree will be named in honor of the late George W. Joseph. Everyone is invited to attend this service. In case of rain the ceremony will be postponed one week.

UNION SERVICE IS HELD, INDEPENDENCE

Independence—A large attendance was present at the Union Easter services in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. A chorus choir of voices from the Methodist and Presbyterian churches, assisted by a trio from Buena Vista and a violin orchestra furnished an interesting program.

Jefferson People Motor to Carlton

Jefferson—A group of local relatives and friends motored to Carlton Sunday and were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Denison, former Jefferson residents. The occasion was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Denison. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McKee, Jean McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKee and daughter, Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Kester, Mrs. Maude Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McKee and son, Teddy and T. A. McKee, all of Jefferson; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Denison and son, Jimmy of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Denison and sons, Tom and Jerry of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoyt of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. William North and Billy of Portland and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Denison.

Observe Birthday

Turner—Mrs. U. S. Talbot was complimented Saturday evening with a surprise party when a group of friends gathered, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. Three tables of bridge was in play during the evening, music and a social time held, with refreshments served at a later hour. The guest group included Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Bean, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Whitehead, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Douglas B. Parkes, Mr. and Mrs. M. May Webb, Miss Gladys Burgess of Aumsville, Kenneth Bear, Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Riches.

Grange Has Party

Turner—The Turner Grange is sponsoring an April fool party Friday evening in the Odd Fellows hall with all grangers and their friends invited to attend. A social time of April fool games, stunts and jokes will be enjoyed and the amusement committee is busy. The public is invited. The social committee consists of Mrs. Clifford T. White, Mrs. W. F. Gulvin and Earl E. Cook.

Aurora Lodge Has New Spring Dress

Aurora—Mrs. Nettie Hardesty, grand chief of the Fythian Sisters, paid Una Temple, No. 26 an official visit last week. New uniforms have been secured. Officers exemplified the work of the order for the inspection of the visiting grand chief. A committee composed of Madge Stoner, Amy Snyder and Leona Will, had charge of all arrangements. The social part of the evening centered around the table where a supper was served. Una Temple has among its members, Miss Emma J. Snyder, past grand chief.

CARELESS DRIVING BLAMED FOR CRASH

Jefferson—Two accidents due to careless and fast driving occurred near the D. H. Looney residence, four miles north of Jefferson on the highway Monday afternoon. A car driven at a high rate of speed crossed the road driven by Mrs. Percy Kelly of Albany, accompanied by Miss Cornelius, off the highway, causing it to turn over. They were on their way home and as Mrs. Kelly was driving slow no one was injured and the car was not damaged. A wrecker was called from Jefferson to put the car back on the highway. While the men from the Highway garage were working with the Kelly car, Mrs. H. G. Gerdes of San Francisco, with her two children, traveling south, came around the curve at too great a speed, and in slowing down her car skidded on the wet pavement and hit the wrecker. The glass in the windshield of the Gerdes car was shattered and the car slightly damaged. Mrs. Gerdes' small son sustained a light cut on the forehead. The others were uninjured.

MAGLEAY WILL SEE PROGRAM AND PLAY

MacLeay—The home economics club is giving a program, bazaar, dance and social evening Friday night at the hall. Mrs. Edith Foster Weathered will give a talk, "Early Oregon History" and R. Raymond will sing several vocal numbers. Mr. and Mrs. J. Richards, Station grangers, will play for the dance. The entire evening's entertainment will be open to the public with no admission charge. Saturday night the present-teachers' association of the Popcorn district will give a three act comedy, "That's One On Bill," with a dance following. This play has been given several times and the entertainment promises to be especially good. A small admission charge will include both the play and dance.

Return of Seizure Filed For Machine

Dallas—The state of Oregon filed a return of seizure Monday in circuit court relative to one Chrysler sedan, 1932 model, and in which Paul Remaly, Bertha Remaly and the Commercial Credit Corporation are interested. In the document, Walter Lansing, lieutenant in the state police, states that he seized the car on the highways of Polk county where it was being used for the transportation of intoxicating liquor, namely moonshine whisky. The car was seized on March 20 and was handed over to the sheriff of Polk county on March 21, in whose possession it now is. The state seeks to hold the car pending action of the circuit court.

Farm Deal Made

Unionvale—A deal has been made whereby R. C. Kid, Hopewell general merchandise dealer, became the owner of the 101-acre fruit farm of his father, G. A. Kidd of Dayton. It was a cash deal. O. W. Modernier, the present tenant, and his family who have lived on the place one and a half years, will continue to farm it. The farm adjoins the Dayton-Salem market road. Ten acres is upland and the balance is Willamette river bottom land.

Auto Firm Sues

Dallas—The Salem Automobile company has filed suit against Thomas Yacum and Mrs. T. G. Yacum seeking to secure a judgment in the sum of $102.50 with interest at eight per cent from December 16, 1929. In addition to the principal sum the costs and disbursements of the suit are also asked. The costs include $50 attorneys fees.

Central Howell—Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bye entertained at dinner on Easter Sunday in honor of Mr. Bye's cousin, Mr. Roy Hinkler and Mrs. Minnie Davis and daughter, Doris of Albany. Additional guests in the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Chris Lichty and daughters, Muriel, Gladys and Esther.

Play Is Presented

Scotts Mills—The play, "Go Slow, Mary," given here by the local high school was well attended. The cast received many compliments on their playing. The proceeds of the evening were $33. Plans have been made to give it at MacLeay soon.

Central Howell—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Warner, Jr., of Silverton, have purchased the property where the old Central Howell church has stood for so many years. It was formerly owned by Earl Simmons and contains 40 acres. Their young daughter, Mary Ann will start to school at the local school next term.

North Santiam—Miss Pearl Miller of Boise, Idaho, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller.

GRANGE PLANS BIG CEREMONY

Silverton—The Silverton Grange plans to have opening night for their newly completed building Friday and Saturday, April 8 and 9. The people of the community have added a stage and dressing rooms and a full finished basement containing a modernly equipped dining room and kitchen, making their building now 82x26 feet.

A play, "The Cheerful Liar," will be the main feature of the program for Friday evening with Roy Keller, Bryon Gordon, Glenn Parrish, Elmer Peterson, Clifton Hadley, Vera Beugli, Norma Livingston and Edna Goodknecht taking the character parts, and Mrs. Anna Powell, Mrs. Josephine Lake and Marshall Powell furnishing instrumental music between acts. There will be a dance after the play. The regular meeting of this grange will be the third Friday in April at 8 o'clock. Oscar Lee is master, and Elma Mulkey, lecturer. The Home Economics club held an all day session Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Walter Parrish, finishing a quilt to be given as a door prize, later by the club. Fifteen members comprise the club group of which Mrs. Anna Hadley is matron and Mrs. Sarah Mulkey secretary.

CHEMAWA GRANGERS TO HELP BALL TEAM

Chemawa—The grange baseball benefit program and dance will be held at the hall Thursday at 8 o'clock to which the public is invited. Mrs. Ott Beatty, lecturer, has arranged a program including community singing, which will be followed by a dance. A small admission charge will be made. Mrs. Harry Oldenburg, assisted by her committee, will serve refreshments. Sig Harris, director, with his co-workers are busily engaged eliminating unresponsive bare spots about the hall. The first game will be played April 17. Kelly Mason, manager, predicts a successful season. Mrs. Oldenburg announced the visiting committee for April will be Mrs. Anna Claggett, Mrs. Francis Gairard, Miss Mabel Page, Mrs. Ward Russell and Mrs. Ethel Bliven.

Howe Seeks Place As Polk Treasurer

Dallas—The ranks of the intending office seekers in the county received additional reinforcements Monday when William R. Howe announced his intention to contest the nomination for county treasurer. Howe is a republican and will have as his opponent at the primaries E. Hamilton of Rickreall, the present incumbent. Reports are current that Will Boydston of this city will seek the office on the democratic ticket.

Eldon Fox Returns

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Fox, recently residing near Spokane, Wash., have moved to Silverton to make their home. They are guests of Fox's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fox, for a few days while they are finding a suitable location. Fox is a graduate of Silverton high school and a student of Washington State college for two years, taking a course in animal husbandry. He was one of the first ten Oregon boys to receive the state Future Farmers' degree. With two other Silverton boys, Fox won a gold key symbolizing the outstanding achievement of vocational agricultural work. James Neal and Palmer Torvend are the other Silverton boys who have won gold keys.

Play Is Presented

Scotts Mills—The play, "Go Slow, Mary," given here by the local high school was well attended. The cast received many compliments on their playing. The proceeds of the evening were $33. Plans have been made to give it at MacLeay soon.

Central Howell—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Warner, Jr., of Silverton, have purchased the property where the old Central Howell church has stood for so many years. It was formerly owned by Earl Simmons and contains 40 acres. Their young daughter, Mary Ann will start to school at the local school next term.

North Santiam—Miss Pearl Miller

of Boise, Idaho, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller.

East Hill Grocery Is Prowled Again

Silverton—Ballangrud's East Hill grocery was robbed of approximately $55 worth of staple groceries, flour, sugar, coffee, etc., late Sunday night by someone entering thru the back window. Ballangrud reports the theft to be done by adults. This is the second robbery of the store within two months. The other was done by Silverton boys who were apprehended and sent to the state training school.

JOINT CLUB PICNIC AND PARTY PLANNED

Hazel Green—The Better Eats 4-H cooking club held a social and business meeting at the home of Hilda Slottum. This was the last social meeting to be held by the division 1 members as most of them have completed their projects. Plans were discussed for an evening party and combined picnic with the Royal Cooks 4-H cooking club. Competition of both projects has been set for April 1 in order that the eighth grade club members may receive their credit in agriculture which is the subject the members would have taken had they not taken cooking club work.

Refreshments were served by the state committee to Hilda Slottum, Maxine Wolfe, Beatrice Johnson, Daisy Rutherford, Donald Dunnigan, Neil Ellis, Marvin VanCleave, Bernice Lehrman, Dorothy Dunnigan, Alice Moutandon, Melvin Lehrman, Clinton Wampler, Question Zielinsky and the club leader, Mrs. Louis Wampler and daughter Marion Lou.

DRAMA IS OFFERED SILVERTON CHURCH

Silverton—Easter Sunday morning services at First Christian church were in charge of the Bible school pupils, with James Bonner, Sunday school superintendent, directing. The sermonette was the last in a series of six talks given by various members.

At the evening services short preliminary and subsequent programs were conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. O. Livingston, with Mrs. Ben Gifford as vocal soloist. The main feature was the sacred drama, "The Challenge of the Cross." Appearing in character were Mrs. William Egan, Mrs. Max Houck, Mrs. Lynn Neal, Mrs. John Hoblit, Mrs. L. L. Stewart, Mrs. John Cagle and Mrs. Qua Herr. Costumes were furnished by the Loyal Friends class. The drama will be given at Barlow Sunday night. Mrs. Livingston is pastor there.

Card Series Will Resume Wednesday

Silverton—Another series of four card parties will be begun Wednesday night at 8 o'clock under sponsorship of the St. Monica Altar society of St. Paul's parish in the church parlors. Mrs. Thomas Reffling is general chairman for the entire series with Mrs. Joseph Schneider chairman of the Wednesday night affair. Mrs. Schneider will be assisted by Mrs. L. B. Scharback, Mrs. Ben Zollner, Mrs. Felle Coyette and Mrs. J. Klein. The party is open to the public. The meetings will be held each two weeks during the series on Wednesday evenings.

RADIO STAR in Person
ALLEN DANIELS
and his 7 Radio Artists
Coming Friday Night and Saturday Matinee and Night
GRAND

WARNER BROS. Elsinore
JAMES CAGNEY
ENDS TODAY
You will put this show down in your memory as one of the season's best!
with LORETTA YOUNG
Guy Kibbee
Geo. Stone
SHE WANTED TO LIVE AS LOVE COMMANDED! and they called her —
"WAYWARD"
NANCY CARROLL
RICHARD ARLEN
PAULINE FREDERICK

WARNER BROS. CAPITAL
LAST TIMES TODAY
It Stabs the Heart... It Stirs the Soul!
It may change your whole outlook on life, see it!
BROKEN LULLABY
Lionel BARRYMORE Nancy CARROLL Phillips HOLMES
STARTS TOMORROW
Can a pretty girl get away with murder?
DISORDERLY CONDUCT
Sally Eilers Spencer Brendel
It's a wise crackin' comedy!