Women Throng Golf Links As Sunny Day Opens Sports Season

Social circles which have been somewhat stagnant since before Lent are showing signs of returning animation, and the calendar for the next few days appears more interesting than for several weeks past.

The two golf links near the capital city showed exceptional activity Friday, and the colorful sweaters and smart sporting togs made an impressive prompt fashions parade on the greens.

Women members of the Salem Golf club held their second week's play at the links, their season having started last Friday. The lovely spring day brought out 22 golfers, a larger group than played on the nine holes all last year.

The first of a series of three plays for a cup offered by Mrs. Ercel Kay was held, with Mrs. J. H. Garnjost winning the day's play. A no-host luncheon at the clubhouse followed.

Those present were Mrs. Fred Ritter, team captain; Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. E. S. Lampart, Mrs. Guy Vincent Smith, Mrs. Harry Willett, Mrs. Van Weider, Mrs. A. S. Hussey, Mrs. H. K. Stockwell, Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. Wayne Loder, Mrs. Roy Simmons, Mrs. E. N. Gillingham, Mrs. R. H. Savage, Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Mrs. J. H. Garnjost, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. Chester Cox, Mrs. B. F. Pound, Mrs. Graham Sharkey, Mrs. H. J. Wiedner and Mrs. Gus Hixson.

Forty women were for the opening of the club's ladies' day series, a promising start. Plans for future activities were made, including arrangements for luncheons to be served each Friday and for a series of tournaments. Mrs. A. D. Woodmanse was named team captain.

Luncheon was served Friday, arrangements being made by a committee composed of Mrs. Woodmanse, Mrs. Robin Day, Mrs. Kenneth Bell and Mrs. Brazier Small.

The handicaps committee was named as Mrs. Frank Shafer, chairman, Mrs. C. N. Needham, Mrs. Cephus Starr and Mrs. Jake Fuhrer. A tournament for fewest putts will be held next Friday and hostesses for the luncheon that day were named as Mrs. G. C. Bellinger, Mrs. W. J. Braun, Mrs. Alice Blake Butz and Mrs. Fred Bernard. The qualifying round of the annual spring handicap will be held a week from next Friday.

Bridge Tea for Mrs. N. Wicker

Mrs. Niles Wicker was honored with a bridge tea and shower Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. George Grabenhorst and Mrs. Charles Greene entertaining at the Grabenhorst home on Fir street. Four tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon with the high score prize going to Mrs. C. W. Biener and the second prize to Mrs. Henry Kropp.

Nuptial Vows To Be Exchanged In Pretty Candlelight Service

Fragrant white cherry blossoms and delicately tinted apple blossoms, combined with daffodils and Oregon grape, will form an effective setting for the pretty wedding when Miss Lolita Robinson will become the bride of Lee Graber at the country home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Robinson, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

The nuptial vows will be read by Rev. S. Darlow Johnson, pastor of the Leslie Memorial church, before a fireplace banked with blossoms and spring flowers. A candelabra with white cathedral tapers will center the fireplace mantel and candlelight will be used about the rooms. Approximately 50 people, including several from out of town, will be present for the ceremony.

Miss Robinson will wear a wedding gown of white satin of simple, modish lines, sleeveless, the tiny bell buckled with brilliantia, and the floor-length skirt bound with a net hem. She will carry a shower bouquet of roses and sweet peas.

Her twin sister, Miss Lorita Robinson, will be the bride's only attendant and will wear an orchid satin frock made in matching style to that of the bride's gown. She will carry an arm bouquet of orchid sweet peas.

Raymond Graber, brother of the groom, will serve as best man. Preceding the services LeRoy Robinson of Portland, a brother of the bride, will sing "O Promise Me." His accompaniments and the wedding marches will be played by Karl Wenger.

A reception will follow the ceremony. Mrs. A. E. Brown and Mrs. Andrew Vincent, sisters of the bride, will cut loaves and pour. Assistance in the serving will be Mrs. Kenneth Graber, Mrs. Eugene Fisher, Miss Dorothea Cannon and Miss Gretchen Thielen. The serving table will be centered with yellow flowers and yellow tapers.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple will leave for a brief wedding trip before making their home at their new house at 23rd and Market streets. For her going away costume, Miss Robinson has chosen a smart Chinese red silk dress and hat with black accessories.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding will include Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Vincent of Eugene, and from Portland, Mrs. Nona Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Horion Robinson and daughter Louise, Mrs. Cora Robinson and daughter Betty, LeRoy Robinson, and Mrs. Klopfenstein.

Both the bride-elect and Mr. Graber are graduates of Salem high school and exceptionally popular with the younger set. Mr. Graber is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Graber of Salem.

Mrs. F. R. Clark was hostess to members of the Fringe Pleasant Point social club Thursday with several guests present. Each person has been asked to come dressed in some unusual style and a number of unique costumes were in evidence. A pot-luck luncheon was served at the noon hour followed by a business meeting in charge of Mrs. William McCarroll.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. H. Grabenhorst April 21, with Mrs. A. Cassellus as joint hostess.

Members and guests present were Miss Grace Robertson, Mrs. Rue Drager, Mrs. F. E. Brown, Mrs. Ford, Mrs. A. Cassellus, Mrs. Harry Wechter, Mrs. Olive Shafer, Mrs. J. W. Yates, Mrs. L. W.
