

THREE QUEENS IN FETE RACE

Woodburn—May 11 is the day set for the annual May day fete at Woodburn high school and the election of the May queen will take place at the student body meeting April 28.

Candidates chosen by the senior class are Misses Edith Shrock, Roma Kallak and Lila Ashland. Joe Serres and Charles Treadwell are candidates for the position of manager and Tom Evans, who was student body president during the first semester, will be the Lord of May. Two attendants will be chosen by the queen from each class. Miss Helen Allen is in charge of the organization plans and Miss Nelma Saylor will direct the dances. The program this year will be more simple than has been the custom for the past few years and will return to the Maypole dances and probably a number by the grade pupils. Music will be furnished by the glee clubs, boys' quartet and girls' quartet.

The exercises will be held on the lawn if weather permits in the afternoon and will be followed by a ball game which has been arranged between the regular high school team and the business and professional men of Woodburn.

"The thing I like most about Chesterfields . . . is the neat way they're made. It may sound fussy . . . probably does . . . but I just can't bear to get little crumbs of tobacco in my mouth.

"I never really enjoyed smoking until I discovered Chesterfields. Perhaps you have noticed how nicely they're filled. Every one of them is rolled just right.

"And do you know . . . the more I smoke Chesterfields, the better I like the taste. It's not raw . . . and it's not over-sweet. It's just sweet enough so that you never tire of it. I find Chesterfields are really milder, too!"
