

ORCHESTRA TO GIVE PROGRAM FOR MUSIC WEEK

Mt. Angel—The Mt. Angel college and seminary orchestra, working under the direction of George Barrett, will present its annual musical Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the St. Mary's school auditorium, in honor of National music week. The musical will be held in conjunction with the annual high school elocution contest of the college and seminary.

Those who will take part in the elocution contest are: Elmer Bauman, William Brockhaus, Anton Kalberer, James Kerner, Hugo Marzocchi, Walter Roethlin, and Ralph Schwab. As in the past, judging will be according to definite rules. Judges as announced by Father Alcibi, O. S. B., rector of the college, are: the Rev. Father Raymond, Silvertown; Prof. Fisher, Chemawa, and Henry Gagnon, Portland, an alumnus of Mt. Angel college, who took part in oratorical contests here while a student. The boys have been showing a great deal of interest in the contest and while many of them are taking part in the contest for the first time this year, they are expected to make a very creditable showing.

Special selections are being rehearsed by the Mt. Angel college and seminary orchestra for the annual musical. Besides the instrumental numbers, Jack Kelly, popular soloist of M. A. C., will sing. A general invitation is issued to the public to attend the musical and elocution contest. No admission will be charged.

SILVERTON SCHOOL ELECTION DELAYED

Silvertown—Much political agitation is being manifested in the coming student body election of Silvertown senior high school, which was to have been held Friday afternoon, but was postponed on account of a large number of pupils playing baseball, going to Portland to broadcast, and other extra-curricular activities.

There are two tickets slated. The Orangemen are sponsoring for president, Louise Latham; vice president, Wayne Hatchwell; secretary, Dorothy McKinnis; treasurer, Una Lee; sergeant at arms, Frank Pettyjohn. An independent ticket has listed: For president, Fred Fischer; vice president, Helen Davis; secretary, Pauline Henjok; treasurer, Joseph Oeder; sergeant at arms, Bill Klech. Instead of the election the students were dismissed one period early to witness an exhibition tennis match in which Steve Stayer and Eddie Johnson met in singles. Stayer and Philip Himmel in doubles vs. Eddie Johnson and Elvin Almquist, and a challenge match between Philip Himmel and Clarence Johnson.

HOME MISSIONARY CONVENTION HELD

Silvertown—The home missionary convention of this district of the Methodist Episcopal church was held Friday at the Silvertown Methodist church with a large delegation in attendance. Salem contributed 22 delegates from the First Methodist church, Woodburn 22, Jason Lee 7, Portland 11, Springfield 10, Eugene 11, Albany 9, McMinnville 8, Leslie of Salem 12, Corvallis 1, Dallas 12 and Silvertown 21.

New officers installed by Mrs. Ruth Reed of Portland, were: President, Mrs. H. J. Iverson, Silvertown; first vice-president, Mrs. Oren Stratton, Salem; second vice-president, Mrs. J. L. Shumaker, McMinnville; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. C. Bray, Albany; recording secretary, Mrs. J. B. Ulrich, Salem. Department secretaries—youth peoples, Mrs. George Morehead; children, Mrs. E. O. Miller; mitebox, Mrs. Charles Lucas; supplies, Mrs. Emma Huddle; spiritual, Mrs. Faith Friday; Christian citizenship, Mrs. J. Lisle; conference, Mrs. Hugh Farmer; Lenten, Mrs. Maude Polson.

Shaw Community To Witness Play

Shaw—The play, "Bertie's Cave Woman" sponsored by the Liberty community club, will be given Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Shaw public school. The play is under the supervision of Mrs. Adeline Free and is coached by Mrs. Ted Gordon. This is a benefit play and the fund is to be used by the Shaw public school and the Liberty community club.

School Proposed
Zena—A large number have signified their intention of attending the meeting to be held in the Zena church Sunday when a Sunday school will be re-organized and services will be held. The meeting will open at 10:30 o'clock, a basket dinner will be served at noon, and services by Captain G. L. Hall of McMinnville will be held in the afternoon, and special music will be given.

Biographies Are Kiwanian Feature Of Club At Dallas

Dallas—The biography of A. A. Wagner, owner and operator of the local creamery, was presented in detail Friday at the noon luncheon of the Kiwanis club by Maurice Dalton.

It is planned to feature more biographies of the members in the near future.

The host built by the manual training class at the high school to the order of the club was named the LaCroix and will have painted on the bow beneath the name the Kiwanis insignia.

Details of the hobby fair sponsored by the club were submitted and the fair will take place in the Gail hotel annex June 4.

MILL CITY HAS BIG OPERETTA

Mill City—A well-filled auditorium greeted the presentation of "Bally," the grade school operetta sponsored by the Mill City Women's club and directed by Miss Zella Halley and Mrs. Velma Pearson, teachers in the Mill City grade school. Little Miss Margaret Carter as "Bally," was well cast and ably supported by the other children.

A maypole dance, a group of sunflowers, an umbrella dance, a tap number and a toe number were danced with charm and the rhythmic orchestra with Master Don Hoeye, a first grader, as leader.

The operetta was composed of Mary Walters, Lowell Fleetwood, Jack Olin, Annabell Dunn, Virginia Harris, Kenneth Atwood, Gwendeth Bruder, Joe Drapella, Dan Hoeye, Don Hoeye and Clyde Rogers. The dancers in the Maypole dance were Betty Jane Barrett, Patricia Ralfeins, Nyla Phillips, Frances Stone, Elberta Libby, Virginia Moore, LeVode Barrett, Jane Chance, Rita Turner, Al Roberts, Hazel Gouge and Ruth Haman. The sunflowers were Alfred Knowles, Ronald Swan, Gerald Leisy, Herbert Mag, Robert MacDonald, Billy Gail, Raymond Duffy, David Carier. The umbrella dancers, Betty Cavasough, Betty Jane Alwood and Mary Bell Faust. Members of the quartet which gave numbers between the acts were Rudolph Rada, tenor; Esther Mason, alto; Roberta Cline, soprano, and Harriett Bradford, soprano. Two specialty numbers were a toe dance, French doll by Jennie VanDahl and a tap number by Charlene Gentry and Margaret Schroeder.

COUNTY CLUBS GIVEN ACHIEVEMENT EVENT

Dallas—Two of Polk county 4-H clubs celebrated Achievement day Friday in recognition of having completed their club work one hundred per cent.

Joshua Wills, county school superintendent and J. B. Beck, county agent, county club leaders, attended both of the meetings, going to Buena Vista in the afternoon and to Valley Junction in the evening.

The club at Buena Vista is a cooking one and its leader is Mrs. Herbert Thurston and Miss Dorothy Locke is president. Members of the club are Anna Kazakoff, Dorothy Locke, Henrietta Richards, Lillian Thurston, Vivian Pendarvis, Margery Locke and Ruby Richards. The Sewing club at Valley Junction has Mrs. D. J. Melner as leader and Frances Kiers as president, and is composed of Ethel Davis, Kathleen Floyd, Frances, Enid McQueen, Mary Rose Melner, Hilda Schuerch, Verla Schuerch and Viola Woods.

Combination Event Slated Hazel Green

Hazel Green—An elaborate program is being planned and rehearsed by the local school for observance of May day and Child Health Day combined during the first week of May. An outdoor pageant and program with a basket dinner at noon and the afternoon devoted to competitive sports. Middle Grove school students will be guests of the local students for the entire day and will furnish part of the program. Further announcements will be made later.

Bethel—The Farmers' Union will meet at the schoolhouse Monday night. Delegates will be appointed to the state convention.

SCIO OBSERVES MUSICAL WEEK ON FINE SCALE

Scio—National music week, May 2 to 7, is to be sponsored in Scio by the Parent-Teacher association under direction of Mrs. E. Phillips, Mrs. Asa Eastburn and Miss Doris Elmdorf, according to announcement of an officer of the local organization.

A musical program is sponsored for each evening of the week. It was stated Monday evening various members of the P. T. A. will present at their homes music of different nations, each home representing one nation.

Tuesday evening the I Will Community club will have a musical program at the Richardson Gap school house.

Wednesday evening the Baptist church will hold a vesper service of sacred songs, along with the prayer meeting.

Thursday evening Caechodovaki, an music, under direction of Frank Nadovnik, will be given for visitors at the Z. C. B. J. hall.

Friday evening Dr. H. C. Epley will conduct a community sing in the high school auditorium.

According to announcement, the week will conclude with a musical program Saturday afternoon. The countries whose music will be presented Monday evening are: America, at the Christian church; Spain, at Mrs. Fred Bilyeu's; Holland, by Geraldine Rodgers; Germany, by Mrs. Fred Mespelt and Mrs. R. V. Carleson; Ireland, at Mrs. E. P. Galside's home; Hawaii at R. M. Cull's home.

The Monday evening music-of-nations program at each home will occupy 15 minutes and will be presented from 8 to 10 o'clock. Visitors will be met at the Christian church by Mrs. F. A. Galleghy. Guides will conduct each group along the route of procedure. Refreshments suggestive of the nation represented will be served at each home.

LOLGE CONVENTION PLANS DISCUSSED

Silvertown—E. B. Kottek, Jr., district grand chancellor, accompanied by E. Z. Kaufman, Fred Mehl, Geo. Cluiter and Fred Knight, grand master at arms of Oregon, of the Knights of Pythias Home lodge No. 35, Silvertown, visited Aurora Hermes No. 56 lodge Friday night for the purpose of completing arrangements for the program of the district convention to be held at Independence May 16.

One feature of the tentative plans of the convention is to make the annual affair a permanent organization.

The district includes Home lodge No. 35, Silvertown; Central No. 18, Salem; Hermes No. 56, Aurora; Marion No. 96, Dallas; Arion No. 57, Hubbard, and Homer No. 45, Independence.

The convention session will be a closed program of about two and one-half hours with entertainment featuring lodge work.

RURAL PROTECTION FROM FIRES TOPIC

Mt. Angel—The problem of rural fire protection formed the storm center of a mock trial staged by the Silvertown fire department and American Legion post for the Mt. Angel department and legionnaires, in the Mt. Angel fire department quarters.

The meeting was in the nature of a get-together between the two fire departments. Emil Schaubert of Independence, formerly of the local department, was chairman and assessed fines right and left. Members of the audience found themselves digging up dimes and nickels for laughing, being serious, insulting the fire department, smiling, etc. Paul Schwab, local chief, was Emil's right hand man.

Rural fire protection was facetiously discussed by Art Dahl, Silvertown chief. Charles Johnson of Silvertown, however, struck a more serious note when he discussed the plight of the taxpayer and urged that installment paying of taxes be allowed.

UNITY LOCAL CALLED
Dayton—The Unity local farmers union will meet at Lafayette May 5. D. Lynn Gubser of Dayton will be one of the speakers.

Oregon Lutheran Circuit Meeting Is Held With Woodburn Church Host

Woodburn—The semi-annual meeting of the Oregon circuit of the Lutheran church was held here this week and the capacity of the Lutheran church in this city was taxed to accommodate the large crowd which attended all the services.

Rev. J. M. Jensen, district president of the circuit, presided at the meetings and the opening sermon was preached by Rev. Carl Foss of Silvertown. The theme for the meeting was taken from John 14, 1-14, the farewell address of Christ from the cross, "Let not your heart be troubled." Ministers who took prominent part in the discussion were Rev. A. H. Towse of Portland, Rev. Christian of Astoria, Rev. J. Berke, Brush Prairie, Wash., Rev. R. Bogstad, manager of the Sunset Home at Eugene; Rev. P. O. Bruland city missionary of Portland, Rev. Carl Foss of Silvertown, and Rev. H. Rogen, pastor of the Woodburn church.

The meeting of the women was held in the Christian church Wednesday and included representatives from 18 societies. Seven pastors' wives were in attendance, 26 delegates and about 150 visitors. The meeting was opened by Mrs. H. Rogen, president of the circuit, and the address of welcome was given by Mrs. P. Brachmann of Woodburn, president of the local Dorcas society; Mrs. A. H. O. Erickson of Aberdeen, Wash., district president, conducted the workers' conference. The nominating committee included Mrs. Clara Millen of Canby, Mrs. A. E. Forness of Astoria, Mrs. A. O. Grimstad of Portland, with Mrs. J. M. Jensen of Silvertown as chairman. Officers elected were Mrs. H. Rogen, Monitor, president; Mrs. P. A. Bruland, Portland, vice-president; Mrs. Henry Torvold Silvertown, secretary; Miss Gertrude J. Forness, secretary of the mission; Mrs. A. E. Forness of Astoria, thank offering secretary; Miss Christine Magnuson, Hubbard, secretary of self denial; Mrs. A. J. Towse of Portland, cradle roll; Mrs. J. Jensen, Portland, life and in memoriam; Mrs. Erick Johnson, Eugene, historian.

Miss Gertrude Bjornas of Woodburn spoke on "The Spirit of Friendship" and Miss Emma Larsen, Jewish missionary from Chicago gave an interesting talk on the work in Chicago.

The committee on resolutions included Mrs. M. G. Gunderson of Silvertown and Mrs. M. A. Christensen of Astoria. The credentials committee was Mrs. Gus Block and Mrs. Andrew Presthus of Woodburn.

Mrs. P. O. Bruland, district vice-president, gave a talk on the changes in women's work during the past 20 years. Reports were given by departmental secretaries. Welcome was extended to three new ministers' wives, Mrs. Paul Foss, Mrs. A. E. Forness, Mrs. Carl Foss, and Mrs. H. Rogen.

"Closer Still to Three" by Mrs. Alvin Legard of Silvertown and a selection, "Hear My Prayer," by a group of high school girls.

Wednesday evening the program included the invocation by Rev. Bogstad of Eugene; report on credentials by Mrs. Gus Block; vocal solo by Mrs. C. Hendrickson of Portland; the church paper by Miss Hilda Olson of Silvertown; solo by Mrs. Alvin Legard; talk by Mrs. A. H. O. Erickson on the subject, "God's use of men and women with a handicap"; address, Rev. H. L. Foss of Seattle, president of the circuit; vocal duet, Walter Trygstad and Rev. A. H. Towse; talks by Rev. Trygstad, former missionary in China, and Rev. Towse of Portland.

An offering was taken to be divided into three parts for the benefit of the Lutheran welfare work in Portland, the endowment fund of Parkland college in Washington and for Jewish missionary work. A paper on Bible study by Miss Bruland was presented to be printed in the Pacific Lutheran Herald.

During the entire session meals were served by members of the local Dorcas society at the Lutheran hall with the executive committee, Mrs. A. E. Barstad, president; Mrs. M. Christensen, secretary; and Mrs. H. Ashland, treasurer, in charge.

Among the special musical numbers were several selections by the Greig chorus of Monitor which were greatly enjoyed.

Surprise Offered Society's Member

Monmouth—A surprise shower of gifts for one of their members, Mrs. K. Wilson, was the occasion for an afternoon of merry making by the women of the Baptist Missionary society Thursday when they gathered at the social rooms of the church for the event.

Present were Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. F. C. Stannard, Mrs. S. Williams, Mrs. M. Hubbard, Mrs. W. Horton, Mrs. O. P. Calf, Mrs. A. Miller, Mrs. Briscoe, Mrs. A. B. Moran, Mrs. P. Lamb and Mrs. R. Tourtellotte.

PLAY OFFERED AT MT. ANGEL
Mt. Angel—A large crowd attended the play, "Dust of the Earth," a comedy, given by the St. Paul's dramatic club of Silvertown, given at Mt. Angel in the St. Mary's school auditorium Thursday evening. Each character played his part exceptionally well and received much applause. The play was given under the direction of Rev. Father Raymond.

EIGHTH GRADE PUPILS GUEST OF WOODBURN

Woodburn—About 100 eighth grade pupils from 15 districts were entertained at the annual "Eighth Grade Day" at Woodburn high school Friday.

The pupils from the visiting districts came in on the high school buses in the morning and a special program in their honor was held during the assembly period, with Miss Pauline Nelson in charge. A welcome was extended by Superintendent V. D. Bain, Manly Rommelt, student body president, and Robert Barion, president of the freshman class. Music was furnished by the glee clubs, the boys' and girls' quartets and clogging and tumbling acts were put on by girls of the athletic department directed by Miss Alma Taylor.

Guides from the freshman class took charge of the visitors during the second and third periods, giving them an opportunity to see the high school in action. Registration for the next school term was held during the fourth period and at noon the group adjourned to the Legion park for a picnic dinner.

In the afternoon ball games between the eighth grade boys and freshmen boys at the park was won by the eighth graders and a game between the visitors and freshmen girls on the school diamond was also won by the eighth grade team. A pep assembly was held at 2:10 and a ball game between Woodburn high and Lebanon brought the day's activities to a close.

GRANGE HEARS ABOUT THISTLES

Chemawa—The grange held its regular business meeting Thursday night. Fred McCall of the agricultural committee spoke on thistle control and cooperative buying of material. State officers were voted on. Much discussion centered on the drill team as the team is supposed to compete at the state meet at Silvertown in June and it seems questionable whether time will permit the grange to put a worthy contender on the floor.

The secretary was instructed to write the Salem school board commending the action they have taken in regard to "secret societies" in the high school. This community send a great many students to Salem schools, many of whom have complained about the ruthless treatment received at the hands of these "societies" which culminated in the recent Vic Delardin case.

Sig Harris, local farmer and political aspirant, explained a way to cut taxes. C. A. Ratcliff connected Shanghai with present conditions here. F. H. Zinner of Red Hills grange spoke on grange work.

LOONEY BUTTE TO SPONSOR SINGING

Jefferson—In observance of Music week and close of the school year, Looney Butte school will hold a community sing and program Saturday night, at 8 o'clock at the schoolhouse. Rowell Wright will lead the singing and the following program under the direction of the teacher, Mrs. Ethel Galvin, will be presented:

Concert recitation, four boys; play, "Patriotic Mother Good"; vocal duet, in Korean costume, Evaline and Earline Woods; boys' quartet; tap dance, Louise Looney; song, eight girls; solo, Rowell Wright; play, "Marriage Under Difficulties"; four boys; song, 11 girls; piano solo, Evelyn Gulvin; quartet, four Woods children; recitation, James Anderson; solo, Erlene Bainter; song, six girls; music memory contest; play, "When George and Martha Return." Pianists for the evening will be Mrs. R. S. Bainter and Arthur Bainter.

Silvertown—Two Silvertown business men whose hobby is aviation, took off for Los Angeles Friday morning at 6 o'clock in the morning in Al Adams' plane for a three or four days' visit in the city.

May Day Feature Will Be Sports; Entrants Wanted

Mill City—Instead of another day of play and May day the occasion will be carried out along the lines of child health with play and sports combined, with the greater part of the day devoted to this effort.

An elimination contest in archery was held Wednesday afternoon, with another scheduled before Monday when the final elimination will be held. Both boys and girls will take part in the races, kite flying, ball throwing, three-legged races, sack races and other games scheduled for the day, among the Mill City grade school pupils.

H. M. Aspinwall, principal of the school, is in hopes of being able to secure some one to teach the pupils who are interested in the art of fly casting and the proper use of a fishing rod, this section of the country being especially adapted for such sports.

DELEGATES ARE NAMED

Scotts Mills—Elected as delegates from Ivy Rebekah lodge to attend Rebekah assembly at Eugene the latter part of May were Mrs. Addie Smith and Mrs. C. B. Sanders. Odd Fellows delegates elected from Butte lodge to attend grand lodge held in Eugene at the same time were Robert Seaman and Albert Barth.

NEW OFFICERS GIVEN PLACES

Mt. Angel—The Catholic Order of Foresters held a meeting with installation of officers Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Joseph Obermiller.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Rose Ehner, chief ranger; Henrietta Ehner, vice-chief ranger; Mrs. Magdalena Miller, recording secretary; Mrs. Leo Barr, financial secretary; Miss Marie Ehner, Mrs. Valeria Beggs, and Mrs. Elizabeth Sealford, trustees; Miss Marie Schmitt and Miss Mary Wechter, sentinels; Miss Audrey Ehner and Miss Dorothy Schwab, conductors. Those appointed on the sick committee were Mrs. Bertha Schwab, Mrs. Elizabeth Sealford and Mrs. P. N. Smith.

After the meeting "500" was played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Leo Barr and Miss Henrietta Ehner. After cards lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Dorothy Miller.

SOCIAL TUESDAY NIGHT
Sublimity—The Women Foresters will sponsor a social Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the C. O. F. hall. Prizes will be awarded and music furnished.

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL
TOM'W COME ON!
You're Going Out Where the Laughs Begin To See The Year's Cyclone of Comedy and Music
WITH BERT WHEELER and ROBY WOOLSEY
GIRL CRAZY
And Look Who's In It!
EDDIE QUILLAN
DOROTHY LEE
MITZI GREEN
Ends Today
Final Edition
Pat O'Brien
Clarke
GEORGE GERSHWIN'S SMASH SONG HITS!

WARNER BROS. PREVIEW
Tonight 11:30 p. m.
BE THERE AT ANY COST!
Sit with the crowd that roars... At the sport of Auto Speed Kings! Shudder at the sound of screaming brakes, of roaring engines, of crashing cars!
SOME THING'S GOING TO HAPPEN and...
THE CROWD ROARS
with JAMES CAGNEY
JOAN BLONDELL
"Beauty & The Boss"
Marian Marsh
Warner William

SALEM WED 11TH MAY
AT OLINGER ATHLETIC FIELD
BARNES CIRCUS
5 RING
AND PAGEANT OF GOLD A GORGEOUS FIESTA
TITANTIC IN SIZE
PREMIER PERFORMERS FROM ALL NATIONS
3 HERDS PARADE (ELEPHANT)
THE SHOW IS DIFFERENT!
WORTH TRAVELING MILES TO SEE THIS SUPER CIRCUS!
TENTS
DOORS OPEN AT 1 AND 7 P.M.—PERFORMANCES AT 2-3-8 P.M.
ONE TICKET ADMITS TO EVERYTHING
RESERVED AND ADMISSION TICKETS ON SALE CIRCUS DAY AT CENTRAL PHARMACY—410 STATE ST.

KEN MAYNARD
THE POCAHELLO KID
HOLLYWOOD
A Home Owned Theatre
Last Times Today
Coming Sunday, Monday & Tues.
Continuous Performance
Sunday 2-11 p.m.
No Thriller Ever Made Can Touch It
A FRIENDLY WARNING
If you have a weak heart and cannot stand intense excitement or even shock, we advise you NOT to see this production. If, on the contrary, you like an unusual thrill, you will find it in "Frankenstein."
FRANKENSTEIN
Also LAUREL—HARDY in "THE MUSIC BOX"