

AUXILIARY TEA HONOR MOTHER; PRIZES GIVEN

Woodburn—About one hundred were present at the Mother's day tea given by the Woodburn American Legion auxiliary Friday afternoon at the Presbyterian church, including four gold star mothers and 12 mothers of veterans, auxiliary members and friends. Bouquets, in each of which was a symbolic red carnation, were presented to the mothers by little Beverly Hughes.

Nettie Frantz of the sixth grade was announced as the winner of the scholarship sponsored by the auxiliary in 4-H club work for the summer school. Other local and county prize winners in the 4-H club work introduced were Mary Jane Shaw, first; Barbara Eddy, second and Floris Nelson, third.

Cecelia Whitney received the first prize of $1 in the poppy poster contest for the seventh and eighth grades, and Joan Beck, first for the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. Other prize winners in the seventh and eighth grades were Mary Joe Weisnar, second, Joseph Kust, third, Floris Nelson, fourth, and Rita Rumschmeyer fifth, with honorable mention going to Daisy Kiesel and Mary Dooper. In the fourth, fifth and sixth grades, winners were Anna Kust, Gertrude Alcher, Margaret Gamero and Herman Halter, with honorable mention going to Caroline Halter, Oreta Long, Emma Halter and Roberta Miller.

Mrs. T. P. Otto, a member of the Hillsboro auxiliary, was presented with a gift in appreciation of the work she has done in the auxiliary. Mrs. Otto is the winner of the sun-bonnet quilt.

A musical program was presented which included a song by the fifth grade; solos by Opal Dickey and Helen Knight and a piano solo by Marybell Adams. Readings were given by Barbara Eddy and Joan Beck. Refreshments were served with Mrs. Walter V. Schoeller and Mrs. Richard Yates presiding at the punch bowl.

MRS. BARKER HEADS GERVAIS PTA GROUP

Gervais—A small attendance was present at the regular P. T. A. meeting, Mrs. Adkinson gave a short talk on her visit to the state convention in Salem. Plans were made for the local unit of P. T. A. to sponsor a card party and dance May 19, to be given in the new city auditorium for the benefit of some equipment for that place. The committee in charge consists of Mrs. Barker, Mrs. I. V. McAdoo, Mrs. S. Stevens, Mrs. William Allsup and Mrs. A. DeJardin.

Koppes Is Honored At Birthday Party

Mt. Angel—Mrs. Jake Koppes and Mrs. Andrew Knorr were hostesses at a party in honor of Jake Koppes' 33rd birthday anniversary at the Koppes country home. Playing cards and games were the diversions of the evening. At the close of the evening a buffet lunch was served by the hostesses, assisted by Miss Luella Koppes.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jake Koppes, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Knorr, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoffer, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Huth, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Selzer, Mrs. William Predeck, Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Dory Bisenius, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Bisenius, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boehler, Mrs. Therese Schleisinger, John Schleisinger, Louis Knorr, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bittler, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Koppes, Clement Klink, Edward Koppes and Miss Luella Koppes.

Dandelion Harvest Given Early Start

Hayesville—One of the first crops to be harvested this spring is in progress on the Louis Jory farm now. This is the picking of dandelion seed. Several girls are engaged in the picking of the seed and they are allowed to work just a few hours each afternoon, while the sun is shining brightly. Jory has his seed contracted with a large seed concern. It will take several days to finish the harvesting on account of the short hours which they can work.

Addison Will Open Independence Shop

Independence—Elmer Addison will reopen a new and second-hand furniture business in this city in the same location formerly occupied by Addison and Moore. The former firm sold their stock by auction last fall and the company was dissolved, Moore going to Salem and entering the confectionery and cafe business in North Salem. Addison was the junior member of the firm and an Independence man. The business will be operated under the name of the Addison Furniture company. There will be a repair shop in the rear of the building conducted by W. F. Campbell, who conducted a similar business here nearly 20 years ago.

PLAY PROVES ROUGH—Hayesville—Bobbie Ratzburg, who has been quite ill at the home of her parents is reported as being able to sit up a little each day. Bobbie was playing crack-the-whip on his roller skates with several of his school friends several days ago when he was thrown to the sidewalk with such force that it caused concussion of the brain.

Jefferson—Robert and Elmer Beach returned home from Los Angeles the first of the week, where they had been attending college the past year. They expect to spend their vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Beach.

Red Head Queen Candidate By Vote at Scio

Scio, Ore.—Scio's candidate for the honor of queen of the Lebanon strawberry fair has dark red curly hair, is a junior in high school and 16 years old.

She is Jerry Rodgers, who defeated her two nearest opponents by a wide margin, the others being Delores Godwin and Maxine Arnold. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Rodgers, prominent livestock raisers.

Scio has never provided a queen for the festival but hopes to do so this year. Final selection will be made at a dance to be held in Lebanon on May 26. The festival is scheduled for June 3 and 4.

DALLAS LEGION OFFERED TALKS

Dallas—Following the usual pot-luck supper which precedes the first meeting in each month of the American Legion and auxiliary unit members of both organizations had enjoyed a special program which had been arranged by the entertainment committee consisting of Carl Bales and Fred Thomas.

Three prominent citizens, each in a different line of endeavor, spoke on selected parts of the preamble to the constitution of the Legion. The speakers were Dr. A. B. Starbuck, R. B. Turner, superintendent of the city schools, and the Rev. James Alkin Smith, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Supporting the speakers were the following artists: Virginia Goodlow and Beverly Bales in a duet number; Mrs. E. Miller of Corvallis, two vocal solos, and two selections by a trio from the auxiliary glee club consisting of Mrs. Laura Cleveland, Mrs. Amelia Bolton and Mrs. Rena Bush. Accompanists were Miss Helen Morrison and Miss Mary Himes.

WEST SALEM PLANS PROGRAM TO MOTHER

West Salem—Mother's day will be observed in West Salem at Ford Memorial church Sunday evening with a service of vocal and instrumental music and readings. Rev. John Evans will preach in the morning, Rev. C. L. Dark will preach at the Jason Lee church in the afternoon but will be at home for the evening's program which will include the following numbers:

Vocal duet, Miss Beulah Edwards and Miss Harriet Adams; boys' vocal trio, Earl Heiser, Robert Martin and Louis Martin; musical recitation, Miss Ruth Whitney; readings, Miss Catherine Amelander; selections, Gideon quartet; vocal duet, Rev. Mrs. C. L. Dark; vocal solo, Mrs. Guy C. Newquist; readings, Mrs. A. C. Henderson; vocal solo, Mrs. C. L. Dark; violin solo, Mrs. Vina Emmett Coffey; piano solo, Miss Ruth Bedford.

Social Hour Club Members Will Rest

Monmouth—F. M. Roth of the local high school confirmed statements made in his talk to the Social Hour club, by showing rock formations found in the valley. His topic was "The Willamette Valley as an Inland Sea."

The club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Hill. Twenty-eight members and a number of guests were present. Included in the program were two readings by Miss Edith Dunn, Mrs. E. W. Staats and Mrs. A. F. Courter, who were in charge of the program, will be hostesses to the club's concluding meeting at the country home of Mrs. Staats.

Class Banquet Set Thursday Evening

Stayton—The junior-senior banquet will be held Thursday evening. Several committees, which will have charge of the affair, have been appointed and are as follows: Food, Maxine Huber, Jeanette Dillard and Nea Edgar; decoration, Germaine Smith, Julius Dreache and Ada Keyes. The profit gained from the "Junior Jinks" program, was $40 and will go to help finance the entertainment.

Social Postponed

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Otto A. Dahl, members of the committee on arrangements for the social night of the Silverton grange to have been held on Friday evening, May 13, have announced that the affair will be indefinitely postponed on account of numerous other social activities that interfere with the attendance.

Bridge Is Played

Mt. Angel—Mrs. A. J. Butsch entertained her club at bridge Wednesday evening in her home. High score honors were awarded to Mrs. A. J. Ficker and Mrs. William Klotz.

ZONING TOPIC PLACED BEFORE CITY COUNCIL

Mt. Angel—The feasibility of adopting a zoning ordinance to regulate construction of building in the city was discussed at the regular council meeting in the city hall. At present the city has nothing to say about the type, location or construction of a building outside of the fire zone, which is the business section. Councilman Young was instructed to investigate and see what neighboring cities are doing and report back to the council at a later meeting.

The question of the city's liability when firemen answer calls outside the city limits was also brought up. The state industrial accident commission recently ruled that the state industrial insurance did not apply when firemen are answering calls outside of the corporate limits. The many complaints that it is said to be seriously considering reversing its decision. The council instructed Recorder Smith to write the commission protesting the former ruling.

It was also decided to construct a water main from the Lauby residence in East Mt. Angel north for a distance of approximately 350 feet. Frank Gillette appeared before the council to request that the city improve the street in front of his residence in East Mt. Angel. The matter was turned over to the street committee for investigation.

MANY EASTERN STAR ORDERS REPRESENTED

Sheridan—The officers and other members of Sheridan chapter, O.E.S. attended the district meeting at McMinnville Wednesday evening, at which the grand worthy matron of Oregon, Mrs. Minnie White of Portland, was present. Other chapters represented were Dayton and Yamhill and McMinnville. Over 400 were present.

Sheldahl chapter, whose worthy matron is Alfreda Ivey, and whose worthy patron is C. M. Howard, opened and closed the district meeting. Mr. Howard had charge of the "good of the order" and Mrs. Ivey presiding. A supper was served jointly by the chapters at the close of the meeting.

Officers attending included Mrs. Alfred Ivey, C. M. Howard, Mrs. Herman Wilson, W. Ross Neely, Mrs. Edna Merrifield, Mrs. Lili Hamstreet, Mrs. Allison Fry, Mrs. Earl Burgess, Mrs. W. R. Neely, Mrs. George Cenaky, Mrs. Murch Russell, Mrs. Cecil Harrison, Mrs. Robert R. Ekridge, Mrs. Walter Ivey, Mrs. John Schuman, C. D. Lutrop, Mrs. Henry C. Smith, Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mrs. Henry Newell, Mrs. Harry E. Allen, Mrs. Wametha Burton, Mrs. R. A. Power and Miss Mary Burgoyne.

ZUMWALT RESIDENCE BURNED TO GROUND

Independence—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Chet Zumwalt at Jew and March streets in North Independence, was destroyed by fire Friday forenoon about 10 o'clock.

Before the fire department reached the scene of the fire the entire building was in flames and nothing could be saved from the inside of the dwelling. An electric washing machine on the front porch was carried to a place of safety.

An elderly man, who is a county charge, was making his home with the Zumwalts and he was the only one at home when the fire broke out. He took his suit case and walked leisurely away from the scene of the fire and when accosted by Mrs. Zumwalt, who was at a neighbor's place, what was the matter, made some trifling reply that the house was on fire and all he could do was walk out. He was being sought by the fire marshal after the fire for questioning.

The building, which was of frame construction, and one of the old landmarks of the community, was a total loss together with its contents. The family will move into a vacant house one block west, known as the Shelton property. Zumwalt was not at home, being in Portland for the day. Mrs. Zumwalt was formerly Sadie Graves, a sister of J. M. Graves, a fire marshal of this city. A son and his wife also made their home with the family.

Freak Hand Held

Mill City—Mrs. A. R. Roening of Mill City sent in a "freak" hand which was dealt in a card game, to the Culbertson contest, being conducted by a magazine and in the latest issue is given credit with having taken the third prize, which carries an award of $50. The prize winning hand is described in the magazine and the way it was played.

Grand

JOE L. BROWN
Last Day
James
Cagney
in
TAXI
Sunday
Monday
Tuesday
LOCAL BOY MAKES GOOD

Sacred Heart Choir Honored by Priest At Dinner, Gervais

Gervais—Father Walsh honored members of the Sacred Heart choir in the parish hall Wednesday evening with a banquet at 7 o'clock and served by Mrs. John Messer, Mrs. Marston, Mrs. Joe Kuhn and A. Hauptman. Those seated were Miss Joseph Nibler, Misses Mary and Gilda Mason, Miss Marie Mangold, Mrs. Maurice Susee, Rose Hauptman, Dorothy Miller, Rose Dietrick, Katherine Muller, Jennie Hauptman, Elizabeth Kuhn, Pauline Schindler, Elizabeth Schleicher, Elizabeth Susee, Gertrude Wiese, Elizabeth Messer, John Kline, John Messer, Pete Miller, Joe Schindler, Ewald Susee, Father Walsh, Mrs. Helena Kaudilla and Andrew Miller. A social evening was spent playing games. Those assisting at the table were Mary and Rose Miller, Clara Messer and Beatrice Wiegul.

CLUB PROJECTS TO BE STARTED BY MOLALLA PT

Molalla—One of the most interesting Parent-Teacher association meetings of the year was held Thursday at the Molalla grammar school building. Mrs. Oliver Buxton, president of the association presided at the meeting. A program was presented. Leroy Wright, Clackamas county 4-H club leader spoke to the boys and also to the mothers about 4-H club work. It was decided to have a 4-H calf club, 4-H potato club and a 4-H garden club.

Mrs. Leroy Wright who was secretary of Clackamas county council of Parent-Teachers association for the past year, made a report of the meeting of that organization held Wednesday at Milwaukie. The Molalla association extended an invitation to the Clackamas county council to meet here. This invitation was accepted and they will meet here in October.

Mrs. J. W. Moore gave a report on the meeting called by Governor Meier at Salem on Monday and Tuesday on "Child Protection and Health."

Last month a cot was purchased for the rest room at the grammar school. Mrs. Buxton appointed a committee consisting of Mrs. Frank Dicken, Mrs. Alfred Olsen and Mrs. E. E. Jackson to paint it and get a mattress and couch cover.

The 4-H club leaders of the girls of Molalla grammar school gave a brief outline of the work conducted. Mrs. Henry Welch is leader of the cooking class, Mrs. Earl Davidson and Mrs. Harry Pederson, of the sewing classes. The girls of the cooking class served cookies and chocolate that they had learned to make. The group then went into the kitchen where the work of both of the sewing groups was on display. A social time was held.

On May 20 there will be an evening meeting of the Parent-Teachers association at which time the men will be present. There will be a musical program and Louise Cottrell, executive secretary of safe child welfare commission of Oregon will be the main speaker.

Temperance Worker Will Speak Sunday

Monmouth—An address will be given Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Christian church by Mrs. Loea S. Le Mance of Lake Wales, Florida, under the auspices of the National C. T. U.

Mrs. Le Mance has given her temperance lectures from various platforms, including mining camps, ships, penitentiaries, cabarets, railroad shops, legislative halls, fire-barns, factories, fairs, picture shows, outdoor meetings, churches, lumber and mining camps, from the back of a railroad car, and on top of a whiskey barrel. A capacity house is anticipated.

Monmouth churches will observe Mother's day with characteristic morning sermons.

HOLLYWOOD LAST TIMES TODAY

Home of 23c Talkies
LAST TIMES
TODAY
Tom
Tyer
Also Final Chapter of
RED GRANGE
"Galloping Ghost"
Educational Torch Comedy
Cartoon Comedy & News
COMING SUNDAY

Laugh
General
Talent
Dramatic
CANTOR
Palm Springs
LOCAL BOY MAKES GOOD

POLK JUBILEE OF JERSEY TO BE HELD JUNE 4

Dallas—The Polk County Jersey jubilee which is scheduled for Saturday, June 4, is receiving the hearty cooperation of business people of Independence and Monmouth, as well as the Jersey breeders. The plans call for the showing of only animals that are tested and found free from infectious abortion. A sale of seven Jersey bulls will be one feature of the jubilee.

A special meeting of the cattle group was held this week at which time the plans for the conduct of the show and advertising it were discussed. The Independence chamber of commerce is contributing money and some of the materials for the noon luncheon. The noon luncheon will be handled by the Ladies' Guild of Independence. Officers of the Monmouth Cooperative creamery have also indicated their desire to cooperate with the Jersey breeders.

The committee in charge of the bull sale consists of H. D. Iliff, Levi McKee and J. R. Beck. These men are arranging for the printing of pedigrees of the seven young bulls and for distributing them to various points on the Pacific coast.

33 ARE NAMED ON HONOR ROLL

Dayton—The eighth month of the Dayton grade school closed with 33 names on the honor roll as follows:

First grade, Joyce Lee Goodrich, Shirley Fowler, George Frink, Jerry Clay and Rose Marie Lorenzen. Second grade, Eleanor Stuy and Marjorie Huttbrook.

Third grade, Bernice Sauer, Caroline Willard, Helen Jeanette Dower, Mary Vivian Muhl, Ross Duzan and Donald Willard.

Fourth grade, Peggy Shelburne, Phyllis Wright, Elsie Elsie Mitchell, Reida Mae Nelson, Wendall Willard, Phyllis Slank, Alice Hill and Rodger Slank.

Fifth grade, Lenabelle Dower and Betty June Deffenbaugh. Sixth grade, Gertrude Londerhausen, Betty Con nand Josephine Muhl.

Seventh grade, Elsie Wagner, Helen Hadaway and Edgar Hole. Eighth grade, Rose Teague, Tony Emmert and Lester Clark.

FIVE EIGHTH GRADE PUPILS TO GRADUATE

Brush College—Five pupils will take eighth grade examinations next Thursday and Friday. They are Angeline Polk, Donald Ewing, Mildred Hanson, Ruth Whitney and Lorin Dixon. School will close June 3.

No closing program will be given as the final exercises are always held annually in the Brush College picnic grounds. However, members of the 4-H clubs plan to hold a picnic sometime during the latter part of May, and an achievement program will be held a few days later, according to present plans. The clubs are just now finishing up their work preparatory to the closing of the school year.

Mrs. Mary Sehon and Miss Ruth Bennett have been secured to teach the school against next year. Mrs. Sehon has taught here for the past five years and Miss Bennett has been here three years, and both have given splendid satisfaction.

Field Man Speaks To Dallas Kiwanis

Dallas—Ernest "Sunshine" Lucas, was the speaker at the Kiwanis club Friday noon and he devoted his talk to suggestions as to what form an interesting program might take. Lucas is the International representative of the Kiwanis club on the Pacific coast and hails from Hollywood. He is credited with having organized 106 clubs. The members turned out strong and a 100 per cent attendance was reported and this number was augmented by six or seven guests. C. L. Crider, prominent member of the local club, celebrated his birthday and stood true to the organization by paying for the luncheon.

SUNDAY MASS IS COMMUNION

Mt. Angel—Forty-seven boys and girls will receive their first holy communion Sunday at St. Mary's church. The first communion class consists of 26 boys and 21 girls. Father Norbert, O. S. B., gave instructions and retreat to the class Friday and Saturday.

Members of the class are Donald Zollner, Arthur Mickel, Frederick Hauth, Donald Schaefer, James Bourbannais, Arthur Hassler, Joseph Lauby, Leonard Schmalz, Willard Paulbauer, Clemens Hauth, John Stroble, Martin Schneider, Louis Berning, Francis LeDoux, Billy Unger, Jack Travis, Claude Smith, Charles Walker, Clarence Hockett, Donald Butsch, Adolph Nison, Robert Frank, Joseph Miller, Joseph Beyer, Ralph Oster, and Albert Sprauer.

Marjorie Jewell, Robinette Aman, Marie Seiler, Frances Haggard, Margaret Mary Kraemer, Betty Lou Kehoe, Catherine Mary Neel, Marie Predeck, Anna Bell, Rita Wellman, Rosina Schaefer, Betty Margaret Griesenauer, Jeanette Ertel, Myra Kaiser, Rosemarie Hammer, Anna Stenger, Anna Drescher, Celia Turin, Mahalide Smolke, Eva Helvy, and Geneva Hubbard.

WOODBURN ARTISANS SEAT NEW MEMBERS

Woodburn—Fifty people from Salem attended the meeting of the Woodburn Artisans Thursday evening which was held in the Foresters hall. The Salem drill team was in charge of the work, five candidates from Salem were initiated and sixteen from Woodburn.

The Woodburn candidates who received degrees were Frank DuBois, Mrs. Alice Galt, Miss Olive Manning, James McCormick, Joe McCormick, Mrs. Louise McCormick, Albert Wengert, Paul Wengert, Mrs. Elizabeth Olson, Andrew Nelson, Lillian Telle, May Breed, Maria Breed, May Strike, Della Weisenberg and Doris Harlan.

Following the initiation a short program was given and lunch was served. The evening closed with dancing, music being furnished by the Cherrio orchestra.

SILVERTON PTA CLOSES SEASON MAKES DISPLAY

Silverton—One of the features of the closing program of the year of the Silverton parent-teacher's association, under the presidency of Mrs. William MacNeill that was held in the senior high school Thursday, was the social and demonstration hour that followed the regular order of business. Tea was served during the afternoon with Mrs. H. B. Latham and Mrs. William MacNeill pouring. Cash prizes were awarded by Mrs. Harry Wilson, president of the American Legion Auxiliary, for the best poppy sale posters in the senior high group, Blanche Moser won first place and Perle Bye, second. One prize only was awarded in the junior high division and that went to Michael Hannan. Mrs. Claire Jarvis was chairman of the contest committee.

Junior first aid certificates were presented by the local health nurse, Mrs. Irma LeRiche, to the following class members for achievement in home economic health work: Elizabeth Thurman, Helen Willig, Anna Overlund, Emma Olson, Gladys McNeer, Esther Larson, Ethel Knight, Mabel Huddleston, Ardith Drake, Borene Davis and Rita Canoy. Students serving on the decoration committee were Harriet Klein-sorge, Lucy Downing, Gladys Burch, Blanche Moser, Billie Johnson and Marjorie Smith. Vera Beugli was registration committee chairman. Assisting Mrs. McDermott and Miss Gunn on the home economic committee were Ardith Drake, Wilma Stanton, Verelley Benton, Lucy Downing, Gladys Burch, Blanche Moser and Harriet Klein-sorge.

Children's dresses and pajamas made by Esther Bailey, Edith Oberhul, Helen Stottman, Inga Thorndickson, Mildred VanBuren and Ellen Vinton were modeled by the following small girls: Zephine Givens, Ruth Melbye, Marian Lee, Doris McIlwaine, Phyllis Hedges, Patricia Hedges, June Ann Lucht and Mary McCall.

Spring cotton dresses for sports wear were modeled by the girls were Rita Canoy, blue wool suit; Anna Overlund, green wool suit; Ethel Knight, sport polo coat; Ardith Drake, Russian type of silk dress with wide sleeves; Myrtle Johnson, blue wool skirt and white silk blouse; Helen Willig, green silk ensemble suit; Dorene Davis, orchid tailored suit; Gladys McNeer, blue silk ensemble suit; Emma Olson, knit tailored suit of light green and white; Elizabeth Thurman, sports suit; Esther Larson, sports suit. During the

TALBOT CLUB YEAR IS BROUGHT TO END

Talbot—The camp cookery department of the 4-H club of Talbot school observed Achievement day Friday afternoon at the schoolhouse, with a large crowd of parents and friends present. A talk on 4-H club work was given by Mrs. Mary L. Pulkerson, county school superintendent. Mrs. Pulkerson also presented health buttons to Edon Turnidge, Elsie Dougherty, James Jorgensen, Frank Brown Jr., Evelyn Jellison, Wesley Jorgensen, Otto Brown, Neva Emmuns, Marjorie Cole and Dale Turnidge.

This completed the work for the 4-H club for the year, and plans are being made for an over-night trip to be taken some time this summer. The club members presented their leader, Mrs. D. E. Blinst, with a beautiful shrub.

Birthday Surprise Given Near Hubbard

Hubbard—A birthday surprise party was given May 3 at the Sonnen home west of here in honor of Mrs. Harry Hagen and Robert Sonnen. Four tables of cards were in play. The invited guests were Bertha and Marian Weisenberg, Margaret Becker, Rose, Amanda and Tillie Giles, Laura Sonnen, Walter Weisenberg, Matt Giles, Frank Wolfe, Edwin Becker, Pete Brassel, Harry Hagen, and the honor guests, Mrs. Harry Hagen and Robert Sonnen.

Quilt Display IS ATTRACTIVE

Dayton—A baby quilt more than 100 years old, pieced in England, treasured by its owner, Mrs. W. G. Hibbert of Dayton, was among the rare quilts displayed at the Dayton Evangelical Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. H. G. Ogden won first prize in the finished quilt division with Mrs. W. A. Owens taking second. Mrs. Hettie Stoutenburg took first and Mrs. Millie Riddes second in the embroidered bed spread division. The Dayton Prairie Women's club took first and Mrs. Nina Stevens second in pieced quilt tops, not quilted. Mrs. H. G. Ogden took second in the old quilt division with one 33 years old. Mrs. C. D. Conn was third, 43 years old. A number that had been used more than 25 years were displayed. The judges were Mrs. Ella Coburn, Mrs. Paul Londerhausen and Mrs. Jennie Murphy.

WARNER BROS. Elsinore

TONIGHT!

At 11:30 Preview

The "Trader Horn" of 1932 is here!

EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS
Mighty Epic of the Dark Continent

BEYOND THE OUTPOSTS OF
CIVILIZATION—

Deep into the heart of the primitive jungle, this pulse-hammering picture takes you. Here, there is no law except the survival of the fittest; might is right—and Tarsan establishes his mastery over man and beast!

More Thrills Than
"Trader Horn" plus

A Love Story That Does
Things To You!
—with—

Johnny
WEISSMULLER
(The Swimming Adonis)

NEIL HAMILTON
C. AUBREY SMITH
MAUREN O'SULLIVAN

The
Ape Man

ROBERT • Ends Today •
MONTGOMERY in
"BUT THE FLESH IS WEAK"

They Couldn't Swim—
BUT THEY WERE LIFE GUARDS!

They Couldn't Fly—
BUT THEY BECAME AIR HEROES!

Spencer Tracy and Wm. Boyd
AS TWO ROUGH NECK BUDDIES WHO GOT CAUGHT IN A DRAFT AND WERE BLOWN SKY
HIGH INTO THE MOST HILARIOUS COMEDY
SINCE YOU SAW "TWO ARABIAN KNIGHTS."

There Never Was ... There May Never
Again be ... Another Picture ... like

SKY DEVILS
HOWARD HUGHES
With
Ann
Dvorak

It's the Cockeyed World of the Air!
Topping EVERYTHING for Spectacle! Thrills! Laughs!

LAST TIMES TODAY
JACK HOLT in
"BEHIND THE MASK"