Group Insurance For Silverton 4-L To Be Discussed

Silverton—The families of the local 4-H organization have planned a "500" card party to follow the regular business session of the group to be held Friday evening at the Silverton Knights of Pythias hall.

The main feature of the business meeting will be the discussion of the group insurance subject in an effort to decide if the Silverton 4-L's will carry on their group insurance as they have been doing or adopt other methods for protective insurance. Visiting insurance men will include "W. L. Smith" and Chisholm, both of Portland, who will aid in the decision of the local 4-L's. These men are field organizers for the order.

Officers of the Silverton division are C. B. Bonney, president; B. Bennett, vice president, and J. H. McCullough, secretary treasurer.

OWNERS OF MACHINE ASSUME LIABILITY

Silverton—The owners of the large car that shoved the Drake car into the ditch, Sunday, about one-half mile toward Silverton on the Woodburn-Silverton highway, have assumed the blame for the accident and will stand for the damage done the Silverton automobile, according to a report from Knute Barntson, now living in Idaho, and a passenger of the car that caused the trouble.

Barntson was in Silverton Sunday to visit a brother who lives here and he and his companion were on their way to Portland when the accident occurred. Mr. and Mrs. John Drake and Drake's aunt, Mrs. Della Smith were in the Drake car, travelling at a moderate rate of speed when the large car swerved around them and turned into the right of the road too soon, striking the hub cap of the front wheel sending the car into the ditch.

The driver then quickened his speed and failed to make a square corner about 100 feet ahead, and turned over, pinning the two occupants in the mud and water under the car. Barntson escaped injury, but his companion was taken to the hospital with severe face and scalp wounds, which did not prove serious. The car bore a Washington license.
