O. N. S. club members made arrangements for a picnic May 25 at the country home of Miss Helen Prang, when they held a business and social session Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Fred Duncan. Confests and amgrams entertained the group. Later in the evening Mrs. Duncan was assisted in serving by her sister, Miss Vivian Schroeder of Portland.

Among those present at the club meeting were Sylvia Paulsen, Helen Prang, Lois Reed, Laura Eaton, Ruth Goodrich, Elva Nissen, Marie Westhoff, Grace Allen, Mabel Goodrich, Grace Pullen, Mildred Wyatt, Dorothy Taylor, Mabel Allen, Grace Hendrickson, Ermine Fruk, Edith Sparrett and the hostess, Mrs. Duncan.

Set Date for Polk Country Club Picnic

Rickrall—The members of the Ladies Aid society met Wednesday afternoon to be entertained by Mrs. George Wait and Mrs. H. M. Wait at the former's home. Thirty women were present.

Preceding the business meeting Miss Margaret Hogg played two piano numbers and Mrs. Jessie Beattie, of Salem, sang a group of songs accompanied by Miss Hogg at the piano. Mrs. E. Konzelman gave two readings. The afternoon was spent in sewing for the Doernbecher hospital.

The annual picnic of the Polk county federation of Rural Women's clubs which was scheduled for Oak Point, June 24 was announced for June 22 instead on account of conflicting dates.

A flag day roll call was requested by Mrs. H. H. Wait, president of the Aid, for the June meeting which will be at the home of Mrs. N. S. Burch with Mrs. J. F. Vaughn as assisting hostess.

At the tea hour the hostesses were assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Charles Wait, of Albany and Mrs. Lloyd Springer of Salem. Special guests were Mrs. G. P. White, Mrs. B. P. Lucas both of Portland, Mrs. Jessie Beattie and Mrs. W. E. Judson, of Salem, Mrs. Georgia Heidick, and Miss Cora Knowles of Oak Point, Mrs. E. Konzelman of Albany, and Miss Margaret Hogg of West Salem.

Mrs. George Wait presented each one present with a package of gladiolus bulbs from her gardens.

The Salem branch, Women's organization for National Prohibition Reform, will meet at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Hotel Marion. Plans will be made to observe National Repeal Week, May 15 to 22.

Hayesville—Miss Mary Reynolds of Beverly, Ohio, arrived a short time ago and will stay for an indefinite period with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lloyd Reynolds. Miss Reynolds is well known in Salem and vicinity as she taught in the academy of Willamette university for a number of years before the academy was discontinued.

Smart Bridge Tea At Siegmund Home

Mrs. Floyd Siegmund was hostess to her card club and several additional guests with an attractive bridge party Friday afternoon at her home. Colonial bouquets were arranged about the rooms where four tables of cards were in play and centered the small tables at the tea hour. The floral motif was complimented in the card accessories.

Additional guests bidden by Mrs. Siegmund for the afternoon were Mrs. Elmer McKee, Mrs. A. Hewitt, Mrs. William E. McKee and Mrs. Paul Ficke.

In the club group were Mrs. Keith Brown, Mrs. T. T. Mackenzie, Mrs. Max Rodgers, Mrs. O. D. Adams, Mrs. Stanley Burgess, Mrs. A. D. Adkisson, Mrs. George Hug, Mrs. George Rhoten, Mrs. Charles McElhenny, Mrs. Fred Wolf, Mrs. V. A. Douglas, Mrs. Alex Jones and Mrs. Siegmund.

Woman's Club Elections Saturday

Members of the Salem Woman's club will hold their annual election of officers Saturday afternoon at a business session to be held in the Woman's club building. The business session at 2:30 o'clock will be preceded by a board meeting at 2 o'clock and a program at 3:30 o'clock when Mrs. Sarah Prentiss of Oregon State college, Corvallis, will speak on gifted and defective children, and musical numbers will be given by the Misses Marie and Jeanne Patton. Members of the A. A. U. W. radio homemakers club and the Y. Menettes club have been invited to attend the program hour.

While nominations will be open from the floor, it is expected that the elections will be without special incident. Nominees placed before the club at a meeting held April 9 were: for president, Mrs. Hannah Martin, who has served as vice-president for the year just closing; for vice-president, Mrs. Clifford Mudd; for financial secretary, Miss Eula McCully; for treasurer, Mrs. J. A. Brownson; for parliamentarian, Mrs. F. H. Crosby; for director, Mrs. J. M. Devers, who has served as president during the year just closing; for trustee, Mrs. C. C. Clarke.
