

GERVAIS PLANS FOR GRADUATES ARE COMPLETED

Gervais—Next week Gervais high, Sacred Heart and the grade school are holding graduation exercises in the new city auditorium.

The Sacred Heart school will hold graduation exercises Tuesday evening with ten students to graduate, and the Sisters have arranged the following program: Chorus, school; "Millionaire Janitor," boys' dialogue; "Rose of the Rileys," girls' chorus; "Ten Little Chinese Girls," colonial minuet and a tableau.

Walter Hempstead Jr. of the department of English, at the University of Oregon, will deliver the address. His subject will be "The Next Big Game." The balance of the program will be a musical reading by Evelyn Exson, Miss Patterson and Lena Riggl will sing two duets and the girls' club will also sing.

J. A. Ferschweiler, chairman of the school board will present the diplomas to Lena Riggl, Dorothy Minkler, Marie Daniels, Catherine Mutter, Maxine Phillips, Ewald Sussner, Antone Schlechter, Loyd Seely, Stanley DeJardrin, Clarence Durrette, Evaneln Exson, Carl Francis, Evelyn Henry, Louise Lemery, Bradford Sypher, Edward and Charles Naffziger, Kenneth Manning and Lawrence Adelman, members of the class.

This year a baccalaureate address will be given for the seniors in the new auditorium. Sunday evening, May 22. The address will be given by Rev. Father Buck of Salem. The invocation and benediction will be by Rev. Mochel of Woodburn. The Presbyterian choir will sing.

Sewing Club Plans Display On Tuesday

West Salem—The Willing Workers 4-H sewing club will have an achievement day meeting, Tuesday afternoon at the home of the instructor, Mrs. Lyle Thomas on Edgewater street. The club members have all finished the prescribed amount of sewing which they elected to do, in place of taking up the study of agriculture, and at this meeting they will demonstrate and exhibit their work. Each member will be given a 4-H club pin in recognition of having completed their project.

Little Girls Guest At Home of Pounds

Stayton—Mrs. Joe Pounds was hostess to a group of little girls on Wednesday afternoon, the occasion being her daughter Frances' 10th birthday anniversary. Games were played until the lunch hour when the youngsters were delightfully surprised to see the decorated table. A huge peppermint stick centered the table for a May pole, while little dolls held the streamers. Each doll stood on a candy bar and later this together with a doll were given to each girl.

Closing Program Is Held, Brush Creek

Silverton—The Brush Creek school, Miss Margaret Gizek teacher, closed the terms' work Wednesday, giving a program with the patrons of the district as guests, and an all-day picnic on Tuesday. Miss Gizek will spend the summer attending the Monmouth Normal.

Stars To Gather

Scio—The district meeting of Eastern Star lodges will be held at Albany Tuesday, May 24, according to word received by the Jefferson chapter. A grand officer is expected to be present. Scio members of the Jefferson chapter plan to attend.

REVIVALS UNDER WAY

Scotts Mills—Rev. Robert Shattuck of Bellingham, Wash., together with his wife, are holding revivals at the Friends church here, beginning last Sunday. They expect to continue throughout the coming week. Mrs. Shattuck leads the singing and plays various musical instruments.

Ladies' Aid Sevens Dinner, Election Event For Turner

Turner—The chicken and noodle dinner served cafeteria style on election day by the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church was a success financially, netting the treasury over $16. Those assisting in serving the dinner were Mrs. I. H. Small, president of the society; Mrs. C. A. Bear, Mrs. F. C. Gunning, Mrs. W. S. Burgoyne, Mrs. Emma Gunning, Mrs. H. S. Bond, Mrs. J. W. Ransom, Mrs. Emma Gunning, Mrs. John R. Cox, Mrs. Olive Catterlin, Mrs. Earl Prather, Mrs. J. L. Webb, Mrs. C. W. Williams, Mrs. W. A. Martin and Miss Carol Kiser. A general committee on arrangements was Mrs. T. T. Palmer, chairman; Mrs. Prathy O. Watkins and Mrs. Earl S. Prather. The dinner was served in the Governor building which was thoroughly cleaned the Wednesday before election by members of the aid society.

COMEDY GIVEN STATE WARDS

Hubbard—"Lilac Time," a musical comedy was presented at the state training school Thursday evening. In addition to the students there were many Hubbard, Woodburn and other non-resident folk in attendance. The play, which is of the home-talent variety, made a decided hit with the audience.

The cast of characters included Marie de Lespinasse, Louise Grimps, Jean McKey, Pearl Bates, Marion McKenzie, Neva McKenzie, Dorothy McKey, Sadie Rich, Tava Morgan and Cobie de Lespinasse. The latter wrote to comedy while Dr. A. F. de Lespinasse made up the musical score.

JEFFERSON SUNDAY SCHOOL IS WINNER

Jefferson Sunday school at the Church of Christ will convene at 10 a. m. Preaching service at 11 a. m. by the minister, Rev. Ard Haven. Christian Endeavor will meet at 7 p. m. The Sunday school contest between Not and Jefferson was won by Jefferson with a score of 2600 to 2100 points. Sunday morning the services will be brief so that all may go to the Benton Lane park for a picnic and beach dinner with the Not church. The Methodist Sunday school will be held at 10 o'clock in charge of the superintendent, Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle. Morning worship at 11, the sermon subject being, "The Incarnation of Christ," by the pastor, Rev. T. H. Downs. Epworth League will be held at 7 p. m. Evening worship at 8 p. m.

Changes Are Made In Turner Places

Turner—A number of recent changes have been made in residences here, among them being the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bones left vacant when they moved to Salem, and now rented by Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Riches. Mr. and Mrs. Fay Webb and daughters, Beverly and Bonnie, have moved into the Turner brothers garage and living in the Turner makes it more convenient to their work.

Dramatic Club Has Outing On Creek

Turner—Members of the Turner Dramatic club were feted with a picnic and wicker roast on Mill creek with James and Vernon Coates as joint hosts. Many outdoor games were participated in around the bright bonfire until a late hour. In June Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Martin will entertain the group. Members in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Dean Tucker, Miss Lydia Swift, Miss Mildred Tucker, Maxwell McKay of Salem, Harold Smith of Marion, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Martin, Mrs. Stella Miller, Miss Mabel Walker, Miss Helen Poetz, Miss Josephine Gilstrap, Miss Mabel Tucker, Herbert Briggs, Archie Rankin and the hosts, James and Vernon Coates.

Farewell Assembly Slated at Molalla

Molalla—There will be a farewell assembly of the Molalla grammar school held Friday morning at 10 o'clock in the auditorium of the union high school. At this time the awards for the point system which has been worked out in the school, will be given.

Will Sing Sunday

Silverton—Mrs. Helen Gordon-Ambler of Portland, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Gordon, of the Methodist Episcopal church, is a Silverton visitor at the home of her parents and will appear in a sacred solo at the morning services Sunday. Mrs. Ambler is well known as a vocalist, being a graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music.

ROAD WORK STARTS

Scotts Mills—Work was begun this week on the Crooked Finger road. According to reports there will be about one mile of market road built this year which will bring it as far as the Hettwer corner. This will be a very much longed for needed improvement.

OSBORNS ARE HOSTS

Turner—Mr. and Mrs. Lotus C. Osborn entertained at their dinner guests recently Miss Irene Sudtera and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Curtis of Oregon City. Osborn is former local manager of the Cherry City mill branch here, known for many years as the Oregon Feed and Flour company before a taken over by the former organization less than a year ago.

SENIOR CLASS CEREMONY SET TUESDAY NIGHT

Stayton—Mrs. Mary L. Fulkeron, county school superintendent, will deliver the address at the eighth grade graduation exercises which will be held Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

The professional will be followed by reading of the class history and will, June Keyes, the class representative, will give as her talk, "Why I am going to high school." The entire class will sing the class song, the words of which were written by Emice Jordan who with the aid of Clarence Tobie composed the class prophecy. Vera Burmeister, Hortense Stanton and Clarice Tobie will give several musical numbers. Grant Murphy, chairman of the school board will give a talk. The class colors are pink and blue and their motto is "Tint Your Own Sky."

SHERIDAN SENIORS STAGE "SNEAK DAY"

Sheridan—Wednesday was annual "sneak" day for the senior class of Sheridan high school. The class set out on a picnic to a favorite beach resort near Devil's Lake, as the proper place to loaf from school duties, after 720 days of hard work.

Sneak day is one of the treasured traditions with Sheridan seniors, and is looked forward to as a day owed them by school authorities. The day is approved by instructors, who alone know of the day chosen and accepted by the superintendent.

Miss Loretta Mason, commercial instructor and senior home room advisor, accompanied the group, who left early in the morning by auto, and returned late in the evening. Harold Ladd is senior class president, and Beatrice Riggs is secretary. Commencement will be Monday, June 6 in the American Legion hall with a speaker from the University of Oregon at Eugene.

Changes Are Made In Turner Places

Turner—A number of recent changes have been made in residences here, among them being the home of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bones left vacant when they moved to Salem, and now rented by Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Riches. Mr. and Mrs. Fay Webb and daughters, Beverly and Bonnie, have moved into the Turner brothers garage and living in the Turner makes it more convenient to their work.

Dakotans Purchase Acreage In County

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. John Loftus, who came here last fall from North Dakota with their family, have purchased the Anderson-Rue 36-acre tract in the Evans Valley community two and one-half miles east of Silverton and will take possession the first of June. Mr. and Mrs. Loftus looked over different locations in the Willamette valley and decided in favor of the Silverton district. They plan to follow diversified farming, specializing in dairying and poultry. The deal was made through the Homeowners' agency.

Goetz Is Honored

Silverton—At the monthly meeting of the Oregon-Washington Schoolmaster's association which convened at the Earlwyne the last of the week for a banquet and business session, Robert Goetz, superintendent of the silverton schools, was elected president of the group for the coming year.

HELPING WITH BANKS

Mt. Angel—Nicholas M. Lauby, former cashier of the First National bank, has been appointed by A. A. Schramm, state superintendent of banks, to help with the liquidation of assets of the State Bank of Hubbard and Aurora State Bank.

GRAND

Sun, Mon, Tues. 11:00 CAROLLO First Showing in Salem Last Day Tom Keene in Partners

Star LAUREL & OLIVER HARDY "BEAU HUNKS" Their 2nd LONG COMEDY!

Miller Defeated Woodburn Vote

Woodburn—W. C. Miller, constable at Woodburn for more than a dozen years, was snubbed under by W. J. Uppesahl in elections held for that office Friday. The vote cast stood: Uppesahl, 246; Miller, 151.

EVERGREEN YEAR CLOSED

Waldo Hills—While the South Silverton precinct was carrying on its voting in the front room of the Evergreen school house, the children of the school district were celebrating their "last day of school" in the other room. A basket dinner was served and a program prepared by the two teachers, Madron Overton and Helen McCullough, was given in the afternoon. Both of the teachers will return next season.

The program given included the following numbers: song by school; recitation, Rosina Yetter; song, eighth grade graduates; recitation, Calvin Kaser; song, school; recitation, Rosina Yetter and Miriam Gering; piano and violin duet, Doris and Kenneth Towns; songs, primary division; recitation, Paul Batcheller; song, grammar grades; recitation, Nellie Schockley; recitation, Edna May Roop; song, school; playlet, "Spring is the Playlet," by 12 primary girls.

Centerville school will close its year's work Wednesday when the pupils and teacher will hold a picnic in the city park at Silverton. Mrs. Helen Paget has been teacher at Centerville for the past two years. She will teach at McAlpin next year and Miss Edna May Koodnecht will teach at Centerville. Miss Goodnecht, who has been teaching at Mountain View this year, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Goodnecht of this district.

ETHEL MORLAND TO HEAD REBEKAH LODGE

Monmouth—Agate Rebekah lodge entertained McCoy chapter at the regular meeting Thursday evening. Visitors from Falls City were also present. At the election of officers Ethel Morland was chosen noble grand; Marian Chambers, vice-grand; Mina Cornelius, secretary, and Mabel Staats, treasurer.

During the program Mrs. F. E. Chambers sang, accompanied by her daughter Harriet; Miss Allie Burr and Kenneth Mulkey gave readings; John Murdoch, piano solo; a quartet composed of Arne Jensen, Al Snider, Max Dietrich and John Murdoch rendered instrumental selections and tap dances were given by Dorothy Priesan, Lila Hamar and Alex Hays.

Poppies In Demand During Dallas Sale

Dallas—Mrs. Amelia Bolton, chairman of the local "Poppy" sale for the American Legion, auxiliary, is directing the sale of the little flowers which is being held Friday and Saturday. Early reports indicate that good work is being accomplished by the members of the auxiliary. Another crew will be on the streets Saturday to dispose of the remaining "poppies."

HOLLYWOOD

A Home Owned Theatre HOME OF 350 TALKIES LAST TIMES TODAY

with Charles Rogers "Buddy" Charlie Ruggles Peggy Shannon Richard Bennett and Frances Dee

Added Attraction RIN-TIN-TIN in "The Lightning Warrior"

Coming Sunday, Monday and Tuesday TWO BIG FEATURES! HOOT GIBSON in The LOCAL BAD MAN By Peter B. Kyns

GRAND

Sun, Mon, Tues. 11:00 CAROLLO First Showing in Salem Last Day Tom Keene in Partners

Star LAUREL & OLIVER HARDY "BEAU HUNKS" Their 2nd LONG COMEDY!

ODD FELLOWS OF STATE TO MEET EUGENE TUESDAY

Silverton—Many Silverton members of the I. O. O. F. lodge and the Rebekahs are planning to attend the grand sessions of the grand encampment and the state assembly that will begin Tuesday in Eugene. The Silverton Rebekah team will put on the initiatory work Wednesday. All sessions close by Thursday evening.

The first charge of Gregory on Tuesday failed and after five hours deliberation the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. The second count or that of Bennett, was called for trial Wednesday morning and submitted to the jury late in the afternoon. After an hour and a half spent in deliberation a verdict was again not guilty.

There are still other charges pending but it is believed they will not be pushed for trial at this time.

Official delegates from the local Rebekah lodge are Mrs. F. B. Renwick, Mrs. Charles Hartman, Miss Lola Riches, and a fourth delegate will be chosen from the alternates, Mrs. Roy Skaffe, Mrs. Clay Allen, Mrs. Mollie Riches, and Mrs. L. Stewart. Miss Lois Riches is recommended for office of district deputy by the Silverton delegation.

Aside from those taking part in the work a large number plan to go from Silverton. On the transportation committee are Clay Allen, George Winchell and S. A. Gay.

On the degree team in charge of initiation are Mrs. Skaffe, Mrs. Myrtle Stewart, Mrs. Alice Egan, Mrs. F. E. Sylvester, Mrs. Esther Truman, Mrs. Wynona Ottoway, Miss Helvie Silver, Mrs. Bessie Goetz, Miss Catharine Cuddy, Mrs. Helen Mulkey, Mrs. Martha Winchell, Mrs. F. B. Renwick, Mrs. Della Fitzgerald, Mrs. Minnie Bennett, Mrs. Ora Larson, Mrs. Elza Reed, Mrs. Jessie Rainis, and Miss Ruth Lorenzen.

Herald of Health Buttons Available

Hubbard—The herald of health buttons or pins have arrived in the Hubbard schools from the office of the county superintendent. Thirty-eight pupils out of a possible 150 will receive pins, each teacher giving them to the pupils in her room. According to those in charge, this is a low percentage for the school.

Turner Lodge Has Officers' Election

Turner—Turner Ideal Rebekah lodge met in regular session Wednesday evening in the Odd Fellows hall with a good attendance of members. Following the usual business, the remainder of the time was spent in election of officers to serve for the next six months, resulting in Gayette Barnett elected noble grand; Lucille McKinney, vice-grand; Muriel Salisbury, recording secretary, and Mabel Martin, treasurer.

Class Entertained

Monmouth—Mr. and Mrs. Everett Evans were hosts to the Dolve class of the Evangelical Bible school Thursday evening. A social evening followed the usual business meeting. Class members present were Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Schweizer, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ebert, Mr. and Mrs. James Tilton, Rev. A. L. Lonsberry, Miss Arletha Lonsberry, Mrs. B. L. Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. F. Good, Mr. and Mrs. Orval White and E. Stebbins.

hot diggedy-dog!

All the nuts of Hollywood gathered together to make scenes for this funniest of all pictures... and you'll see them doing their stuff at the famous Cocoanut Grove and other Hollywood hot spots... Wow, what a laugh the whole thing is! DON'T MISS IT!

GEORGE SIDNEY in CHARLIE MURRAY

COHENS and KELLYS HOLLYWOOD

Frank Albertson June Clyde Norman Foster "Last Times Today" SLIM SUMMERVILLE with LOUISE FAZENDA in "RACING YOUTH"

Sechrist Cleared In Circuit Court; Others Are Slated

Sheridan—The trial of Joe Sechrist, which has been running since last November, when he was accused of unlawfully disposing of grain stored in his mill here, was ended Wednesday afternoon in circuit court at McMinnville with Judge Bagley presiding.

The first charge of Gregory on Tuesday failed and after five hours deliberation the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. The second count or that of Bennett, was called for trial Wednesday morning and submitted to the jury late in the afternoon. After an hour and a half spent in deliberation a verdict was again not guilty.

PLAY SERIES SET, SUNDAY

Mt. Angel—Under the direction of Sister M. Rose, the Mt. Angel Normal school will present their senior class play Sunday afternoon in the academy auditorium. The program will consist of three one-act plays, and the Mt. Angel academy orchestra will furnish the musical interludes, under the direction of Sister M. Beatrice. The musical numbers will be "Blue Monday," "Gilding Swans," "Violets," and "College Boys Dream."

In the first play, "So's Your Aunt Anna," the cast of characters will include Justine Hunt as Aunt Anna; Daphne Orwald as Aunt Lake; Arlene Simon as Lucille Lake; Emilie Koutney as Jean; Claudia Hasing as Mrs. Knox; Dora Syota as Miss Gardner; and Carol May as Nellie Blake.

GRADUATION SLATED FOR TURNER PUPILS

Turner—The Turner eighth graders will hold their graduation exercises in the high school auditorium Wednesday evening with 10 students to receive their diplomas. Ruth Robinson will be the valedictorian and Norman Whitehead the salutatorian. Other class members graduating are Clarissa Gark, Bernice Shoen, Eloise Mellis, Mildred Bones, Albert Robertson, Roe Westfall, Leland Greenlee and Dale Pitman.

Turner Lodge Has Officers' Election

Turner—Turner Ideal Rebekah lodge met in regular session Wednesday evening in the Odd Fellows hall with a good attendance of members. Following the usual business, the remainder of the time was spent in election of officers to serve for the next six months, resulting in Gayette Barnett elected noble grand; Lucille McKinney, vice-grand; Muriel Salisbury, recording secretary, and Mabel Martin, treasurer.

Class Entertained

Monmouth—Mr. and Mrs. Everett Evans were hosts to the Dolve class of the Evangelical Bible school Thursday evening. A social evening followed the usual business meeting. Class members present were Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Schweizer, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ebert, Mr. and Mrs. James Tilton, Rev. A. L. Lonsberry, Miss Arletha Lonsberry, Mrs. B. L. Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. F. Good, Mr. and Mrs. Orval White and E. Stebbins.

BACCALAUREATE TURNER SLATED SUNDAY NIGHT

Turner—Rev. D. J. Howe of the First Christian church in Salem will deliver the baccalaureate sermon Sunday night at 8 o'clock at the Turner Methodist church in the graduating class of Turner high school. Mrs. Mae Hadley will play a violin solo; Rev. E. J. Gilstrap will give the invocation and Rev. W. S. Burgoyne the benediction.

Saturday, May 21 the seniors will make the class trip to Multnomah Falls, accompanied by their class advisor, Thurlio W. Smith. Senior class members are Opal Mickensham, Margaret Robertson, Gladys Martin, Wilfred Harrison, Mildred Bones and Katherine Schmapler.

Monday the seniors will motor to Hager's grove in company with other high school students for the annual picnic. A jolly time is anticipated on, with games, a bountiful basket dinner with ice cream and other activities. Members of the faculty staff will chaperone the group of high school students.

Senior class day will be Thursday afternoon, the program beginning at 2:15 o'clock. A humorous skit by class members will be presented and the class will, history and prophecy will be read. The letters will be awarded to the athletes at this time.

EVENING OF MUSIC GIVEN AT MEHAMA

Mehama—A musical program was held at the Presbyterian church Thursday evening under the leadership of Mrs. Arthur Landers. The following program was given: Piano duet, "Humoresque," Miss Oltines and Mrs. Landers; vocal duet, "Dear Little Home of My Dreams," Lorraine Landers and Clara Dana; violin and piano duet, Mrs. Frank and Mrs. Landers; quartet, "Carey Me Back to Old Virginia," Mrs. J. Blum, Mrs. Luther Stout, Harold Woolley and Luther Stout; reading, "The Volunteer Ovenside," Mrs. Alice Bodeker; guitar duet, Mrs. Marvin Berry and Shirley Bass; vocal duet, Ards Landers and Harold Stout; medley, "Southern Melodies," Mrs. Alta Bodeker, Mrs. Martin Berry, Mrs. Frank and Mrs. Landers; violin solo, "Red Wing," I. A. Dixon; "I Love a Cottage," Mrs. J. Blum, Mrs. Wilma Apple, Mrs. Luther Stout, Lorraine Landers, Harold Woolley and Luther Stout; guitar trio, Mrs. Frank Bass and children; musical reading, "Robbery Knave," Mrs. Arthur Stout; quartet, "The Little Old Church in the Valley," Mrs. Blum, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Stout and Harold Woolley; piano duet, "Melody in F," Miss Oltines and Mrs. Landers.

MAYO LEAVES STATON

Stayton—J. W. Mayo, who was formerly with the Bank of Stayton, has accepted a position with a banking concern in Portland. The family will move to the city some time during the summer.

Ward Will Speak At Commencement Of Sheridan High

Hubbard—The commencement address at Sheridan will be made by Chester Ward, superintendent of the Hubbard schools, Tuesday evening. The class is composed of 17 graduates. Ward will speak on some phase of the teacher's responsibility to the community.

According to the local newspaper the speaker for Memorial day will be Milt Scheper of Portland. In addition to the Memorial address there will be readings, flag drill, songs by the quartet and music by the Hubbard band. Mrs. Ella Stauffer of General Rusk Relief Corps is in charge of the program. Byron Grimm, the only surviving member of the G. A. R. in this district, will be honored during the day.

MRS. LAIS CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF PTA

Silverton—At a recent meeting of the Parent Teachers' association in the Silver Cliff school district the newly elected officers for the year were Mrs. Roney Laks, president; James Mulkey, vice-president; and Mrs. Mae Mulkey, secretary-treasurer. The retiring officers are Paul Jaquet, president; Elmer Hubbard, vice-president; and Mrs. Elmer Hubbard, secretary. There were more than 150 members in attendance for the session which included the following program:

Vocal duet by Mr. and Mrs. Casper Tow; instrumental trio, J. Amack, A. Amack and James Mulkey; instrumental duet, Harold Moon and Harvey Stage; solo dance, Dorothy Tow; playlet, Alice and Ruth Brewer, Anna Strom, Frances Warnock, Alice Chappilow; instrumental music, Louis Platum, Carl Platum; dialogue, Mrs. C. J. Howe and Paul Jaquet; male quartet, Abel Chappilow, J. Mulkey, P. Chappilow and H. Strom; boys' vocal quartet, Bill Chappilow, Harvey Stage, Orlin Moser; and a guitar and harmonica number by Harold Moon and Art Amack. Serving on the refreshment committee were R. Lais, W. Chappilow and Muriel Chappilow. Mrs. J. Mulkey, Abel Chappilow and Mrs. R. Lais were in charge of the program.

Officers Selected By Future Farmers

Molalla—The Future Farmers of America of the Smith Hughes department of the union high school have elected Walter Dreher president; Darrel Cole, vice president; Ivan Morris secretary-treasurer; Elton Austin, reporter; Clayton Ray, sergeant at arms. The outgoing officers are Earl Ellis, president; J. B. McIntosh, vice president; Richard Waldorf, secretary; Kenneth Fredrick, treasurer; Lynn Payne, reporter.

MISS COONEY HOSTESS

Fruitland—Miss Katherine Cooney invited several of her neighbors Thursday afternoon for a social chat. Those present were Mrs. J. Stauffer, Mrs. William Stalenow, Mrs. Chris Gruentfelder, Mrs. Frank Zeren and little daughter Dorothy, and Miss Cooney. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

WARNER BROS. Elsinore Preview Tonite 11:30 PREVIEW TONITE 11:30 Marching down the Hall of FAME! Only once in a decade comes such a picture... a great story... perfect cast... masterful direction... and superb production. No other age could have told this story... No other world has known such a man-fighting humanity's battles... his steadfast heart clinging to the woman whose love he lost in his hour of triumph. SAMUEL GOLDWYN presents RONALD COLMAN HELEN HAYES RICHARD BENNETT and A. E. Anson... "Ends Today" John and Lionel BARRYMORE "ARSENE LUPIN" Added: THE NAGGERS in "Movie Dumb"