

WOODBURN HIGH SENIORS GIVEN CLOSING EVENT

Woodburn—The high school gymnasium was taxed to capacity with relatives and friends of the class of 1932 in the 25th annual commencement exercises at Woodburn high school Friday night. The 50 members of the class made an attractive picture as they took their places on the stage, the daily dresses of the girls and conventional suits of the boys blending harmoniously with the background of blue and white flowers and greenery.

The procession was played by Mrs. Fern Tweedie Davenport of the class of '26, followed by the invocation by Rev. Glenn S. Hartung of the Methodist Episcopal church. The class was presented by Delmar Ramsdell, class president, and a vocal trio, "On Song's Bright Pinions," was given by Misses Opal Dickey, Edith Shrook and Zola Schwab. Winfield Atkinson, '27, gave a talk in remembrance of the address to the class was given by Judge Arlie G. Walker, circuit judge of district No. 12, who is a native of Woodburn and a graduate of the high school in the class of 1913. The class response was made by Charles Tresidder.

Awards and scholarships were announced by Superintendent V. D. Bain. Torch honor seniors who received gold pins for high scholastic attainments were Clara Eder, Lois Eley, Helen Stanton, Ren Peck, and Charles Tresidder. The outstanding senior boy and girl to have their names engraved on the Pagan cup in recognition of scholarship, leadership, character, and service, were Ren Peck and Charles Tresidder. This cup was presented to the school several years ago by the retiring superintendent, Frank E. Pagan, who is now superintendent at McMinnville high and each year the two outstanding seniors are chosen for the honor of having their names engraved thereon. The Powell scholarship of $100 was presented to Charles Tresidder with Joe Serres as alternate.

Miss Vesta Carothers was awarded a three months' scholarship in the Capital Business college at Salem for outstanding work in the commercial department, with Earl Lively as alternate. Three scholarships in the Decker business college were awarded, one to Allen Stanton of $34 value, one to Lenore Nendel of $30 and one to Fred Hall of $25.

Following the address of Judge Walker a mixed quartet sang "Come Where the Lilies Bloom." In the quartet were Zola Schwab, Edith Shrook, Willis Thurman and Chester Berg.

Diplomas were presented to the 50 seniors by Dr. T. K. Sanderson, chairman of the school board, and the closing number was a vocal solo, "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," by Theodore Rostvold '28, with Elizabeth Miller accompanying.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. D. J. Gillanders and Mrs. Davenport played as the recessional, "March from Nutcracker Suite."

SHERIDAN STUDENTS GUEST OF FRESHMEN

Sheridan—In return for the party given the freshmen class of the high school last October by the upper classmen, the entire student body were guests of the under classmen at a picnic in Buell picnic grounds Wednesday afternoon from 1 to 3 o'clock.

Buses and cars conveyed over 150 of the students and members of the faculty to the open grounds where games were enjoyed. The chief attraction was a tug of war, in charge of Coach Ernest Heinbach, between the boys of the freshman and junior classes, in which the freshmen won. The tug between the sophomores and seniors resulted in victory for the younger class, but when sophomores tugged with the winning freshmen, the greater number of boys in the "baby" class again overpowered and the hosts for the afternoon received the victory prize of a bag of sweets. The juniors then tugged with the seniors and won only through desperate effort. Lunch was served by classes and was in charge of Loretta Kratochew, Arlene Barber and Dorothy Parker, assisted by Coach Heinbach and Mrs. Allison Fox, who have charge of the freshmen.

The committee received much praise for the excellent management shown in serving over 150 people to sandwiches, cookies, ice cream and punch. Verne Markee is president of the freshman class.

Club Entertained Near Victor Point

Shaner Is Winner In Poetry Contest For Spring Topic

Mt. Angel—L. C. Shaner of McKee was the winner of the spring poetry contest, sponsored by the Mt. Angel News, by contributing the poem, "Beautiful Spring." Louise Stecklein and Leonard Ficker were given honorable mention.

From the many offerings the three judges, Miss Therese Dahler, principal of St. Mary's school, Alois Klecker, and Sydney Jackson, picked the winner with some difficulty. The response for the first week was so gratifying that the News will continue the contest another week. The poem must be about spring, it must not be longer than eight lines and it must be original.

CLUB MEMBERS TO SHOW STOCK

Dallas—Jersey calf club members are planning on exhibiting their stock at the annual Jersey show in Independence June 4. Several of them had their animals tested for infectious abortion so that they would have a clean health certificate.

Dr. H. D. Peterson and J. R. Beck, county agent, made the rounds and took the blood samples for the several boys. It is hoped that all of them will be found free from disease so that they can go ahead and exhibit. There will probably be 14 calf club members exhibiting their animals at Independence.

Those who had their animals tested are Earl and Raymond Johnson and Glen and Jesse Louisa of the Elkins calf club; Hesel Peyce of Independence and Marvin Jenkins, Hal Fox, Elbert Ragsdale and John Brown of the Greenwood calf club. The other club members have either had their animals tested or are in accredited herds so that testing is not necessary.

Dallas—Mary Roberts has been appointed administratrix of the estate of Henry Roberts, deceased. Real property is estimated at $1000 and personal at $2400. J. E. McDonald, Aleck Courter, Bert Webb were also named administrators.
