fast to be given at Mrs. Hobart's home Wednesday morning June 8 at 9 o'clock. The speakers selected for the occasion are Mrs. Gertrude Schumacker, Salem, general secretary of the W. M. S.; Mrs. Ella Day Eugene, superintendent of the young people's division of the state W. M. S.; and Mrs. Thomas Bailey, Eugene, state president of the W. M. S.

Members of the committee were Mrs. J. A. Bennett, local president, Mrs. John Wolford, chairman of division No. 1, Theodore Hobart of division No. III, and Mrs. I. L. Stewart of division No. III.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Robey S. Ratcliffe entertained a group of members of headquarters battery, 249th Coast Artillery, Oregon, national guards, and their wives at an evening of cards and a buffet supper Saturday night in the Ratcliffes' new home on Fairmount avenue. High score prizes for the affair went to Mrs. Bruce D. Willis and Roy Finster, and low score prizes to Mrs. Roy Finster and Carl Finster. Mrs. Ratcliffe was assisted in serving by her sister, Mrs. Walter R. Bush.

After the late supper, the guests informally inspected the Ratcliffe home.

Guests of Lieutenant and Mrs. Ratcliffe for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Unruh, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce D. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Heenan, Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Finster, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard I. Greig, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Schultz and Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Finster.

Miss Phyllis Van Kimmell of Portland was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Hayden Walker over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Brazier Small, accompanied by little Miss Suzanne Small, and Miss Pauline Eyerley and Lyle Page spent the week-end visiting the Oregon beaches. They returned to Salem Monday evening.

Bethel—Mrs. Bert Smith will be hostess to the Bethel Dorcas club at an all day quilting on Thursday at her home in Salem. Mrs. Smith will serve luncheon.

The Salem Zonta club will hold a social evening and installation of officers Thursday night at the home of Miss Dorothy Pearce. Miss Helen Louise Crosby, who will be installed as president of the club, is also chairman of the social committee for the evening.

Sidney—The Ankeny Woman's club held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. M. J. Davidson Thursday afternoon. During the usual business meeting it was decided to discontinue the regular club meetings after June 23 until

These three little girls from school—the college of law at the University of Utah—will hang up a shingle in Salt Lake City soon after graduation bearing the legend: "Meagher, Seare & Seare." They are the only women members of the class. Left to right: Virginia Seare, Mary Alice Meagher and Donna Seare.

September. Mrs. L. B. Smith and Mrs. William Wiederkehr finished the imaginary trip around the world which the club started last fall. Mrs. R. H. Farr furnished the amusement game for the afternoon and Mrs. C. F. Johnston was awarded the prize.

Farr, and daughter Nettie Jean, Mrs. William Wiederkehr, Mrs. L. B. Smith, Mrs. Elsie Daugherty, and the hostess, Mrs. M. J. Davidson.

The next regular club meeting will be held June 9, at the home of Mrs. William Wiederkehr.

Mrs. Marion Mulkey will present the students of her rhythmic kindergarten in a demonstration program Friday morning from 10 to 11:30 o'clock at the Nelson building class rooms. Parents of the children and all interested in pre-school work are invited to attend. Mrs. Clifton Mudd will assist Mrs. Mulkey in presenting the program of musical, games, songs, dances and dramatizations.

Members of the "Hi Patrol" of the Jason Lee church will meet Friday night at 8 o'clock in the Jason Lee church. The group was first organized by the sophomore girls of the church on April 30, the membership consisting of Clara Belle Burnside, Anna Graber, Wilma Godsey, Willa Ellis, Loretta Pro, Florence Estleman, Marie Graber, Blanche Baumgartner, Ruby Eschelman, Gatha Bressler, Helen Marcy, and Irene Heath. Members pledged at a second service held May 29 at the church were Dorothy Miller, Helen Smith and Hallie Chamberlain.

Officers of the club are Gatha Bressler, Loretta Pro, Blanche Baumgartner, Hallie Chamberlain and Florence Estleman. Miss Louise Benjamin is advisor to the group.

Floral Program for Brush College Group

Brush College—A special feature of the last meeting of the Brush College Helpers at the home of Mrs. Ferdinand Singer was a visit to the rose garden of 725 rose trees consisting of 30 named varieties all in bloom. The 100-foot rocky back of the home was also viewed. Mrs. Joe Singer and Mrs. M. Pocht were joint hostesses with Mrs. Ferdinand Singer.

Mrs. Esther Oliver led devotionals. Mrs. A. R. Ewing read a patriotic article and led the flag salute; Mrs. Frank Rivet had charge of the book review, and Mrs. Joe Singer and Mrs. M. Pocht were the program committee. Mrs. Oliver Whitney, president, presided at the business meeting. An invitation has been received by the club to enter the flower show to be held in Salem June 4 and 5 and in regard to investigation and arrangements for an exhibit in case it is decided to enter one. A committee consisting of Mrs. V. L. Gibson, Mrs. Paul B. Wallace and Mrs. M. Pocht was appointed.

Two flower games were played. Mrs. A. R. Ewing winning the prize of flower seeds for the first one.

and Mrs. George Meier winning the second game, the prize for it being a bouquet of roses.

The next meeting of the group will be in two weeks and will be the last before the summer vacation. This will be a picnic held in the picnic grounds, each member sharing the responsibility for the lunch and annual election of officers will take place at that time.

At the tea hour the hostesses were assisted in serving by Mrs. Walter Johnson and Mrs. Louise Singer.

The following were present: Mrs. Oliver Whitney, Mrs. J. D. Walling, Mrs. Joe Hadespek, Mrs. Peter Krall, Mrs. C. Linton, Mrs. John Schindler, Mrs. V. L. Gibson, Mrs. A. R. Ewing, Mrs. L.
