OREGON STATE GRANGE SESSION TO OPEN MONDAY

SILVERTON ALL READY AS HOST TO HUGE CROWD

Silverton—The largest number of convention visitors ever in Silverton will be here next week when the 69th annual convention of the Oregon state grange will be a five-day event, with the actual order of grange business covering four days from Tuesday until Friday, Monday being devoted to preliminaries. The number being planned for is probably in excess of those who will attend, but a safe estimate seems to be around 3,000 grangers.

Orders near Silverton which are assuming heavy responsibilities in helping the various Silverton organizations make the week's visit in the home town one of comfort and pleasure, and their officers are: Silverton grange — Ed Overlund, master; C. Bowen, overseer, and Alta Haberly, lecturer; North Howell grange—Mrs. A. T. Cline, master; Martha Vinton, overseer, and Ena Harmon, lecturer; Silverton Hills grange—Oscar Loe, master; Charles Mulkey, overseer, and Alma Mulkey, lecturer; Union Hill grange—J. O. Darby, master; W. Tate, overseer, and Mrs. Vernie Scott, lecturer; Scotts Mills grange—George Haynes, master; A. Rich, overseer, and Mrs. Elizabeth Kinzer, lecturer; and Macleay grange—H. E. Martin, master; Frank Bowers, overseer and Mrs. H. E. Martin, lecturer.

A definite daily program of events for the five days is as follows:

MONDAY

4:30—Horseshoe pitching contest in city park

TUESDAY

8:30—Lecturers' conference directed by Mrs. Marie Flint-McCall, state lecturer, in the senior high school auditorium

8:30—Deputies conference, room 1, Eugene Field buildins, Arthur Brown, district deputy, chairman

10:30—Opening state grange in sixth degree; roll call of officers, passing to fourth degree; appointment of committees; report of credential committee; adoption of official program; report of division of labor committee; special announcements; address of welcome by Earl J. Adams, president Silverton chamber of commerce; response by State Master M. C. Glover; announcements; noon recess

1:30—Singing led by Isaac Staples; roll call of officers; master's address; reports of state officers and state grange committees; closing in the fourth degree

8:30—Lecturers' program, open to public

WEDNESDAY

8:30—Lecturers' conference, Mrs. Marie Flint-McCall, presiding

8:00—Deputies conference, Arthur Brown, chairman

9:15—Opening of grange in fourth degree; roll call of officers; reading and adoption journal of previous day's session; reports of officers

11:00—Nomination of state officers

12:00—Noon recess

1:30—Roll call of officers; reports of sessions committees

5:00—Recess

7:00—Election of state officers

8:30—Business session; report of officers or committees

THURSDAY

8:00—Home economics committee conference, Mrs. E. B. Harlow, chairman, presiding

8:30—Deputies conference, Arthur Brown, presiding

9:15—Opening in fourth degree; roll call of officers; reading and adoption of journal of previous day's session; reports of officers or committees

12:00—Noon recess

1:30—Memorial service, open to public

2:30—Competitive drill at the armory

7:30—Fifth degree exemplified by selected team from Marion county

8:30—Sixth degree exemplified by state officers

FRIDAY

8:00—Home economics committee conference, Mrs. E. B. Harlow, presiding

8:00—Deputies conference, Arthur Brown, presiding

9:15—Opening in fourth degree; roll call of officers; reading and adoption of journal of previous day's business; reports of committees

12:00—Noon recess

1:30—Installation of state officers; selection of meeting place for 1933 session; unfinished business

5:30—Recess

7:30—Call to order; roll call of officers; unfinished business; closing.

Only two sessions, the lecturer's program at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening and the memorial service at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, are open to the public.

Named For Lodge

Independence — Elvin Calbreath, young merchant of the city, has been elected noble grand of Valley Lodge, I. O. O. F., for the coming six months, and Felix Wattenberg elected vice-grand for the same period. The secretary and treasurers hold their office for a year, hence no election to those offices at this time. Installation will take place at the first meeting in July. Next Thursday evening the lodge will have installation.

MARTIN BROUGHT HOME

Macleay—Harry Martin, who has been confined to the Salem general hospital since June 3, by a fractured hip, was sufficiently improved to be moved to his home Friday but will be forced to remain in bed for about six weeks.

WRIGHTS ARE GUESTS

Stayton—Mr. and Mrs. M. Wright and two sons of Placerville, Calif., are making an extended visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wright and other relatives. They made the trip by auto. Word has been received from Mrs. Glen E. Fox and children, who left for San Francisco Sunday, May 29, that they arrived in the city Tuesday evening. They made very good time and with the exception of a punctured tire had no trouble on their trip. Dixon Parry broke out with the chickenpox shortly after arriving there and was quite ill for several days but at the last report was enjoying the sunny south immensly.

MOVE FROM PRATUM

Pratum—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Silke and baby moved to Hubbard Wednesday. Mr. Silke is the newly elected principal of Hubbard schools.

Pratum—James Cernik formerly of Salem, but now of Palo Alto, Cal., leaves for home today after a two weeks' visit with his wife and daughters, other relatives and friends.

Male Chorus Will Sing Over Radio

Mt. Angel—The Grieg Norwegian male chorus of Monitor, under the direction of Dr. A. F. Scheirbaum fo Mt. Angel, will sing over KGW at 9 o'clock Sunday morning on the Colins and Erwin half hour from 9 to 9:30 o'clock. This will be the first experience of the chorus on the air, but members feel that they will not disappoint their many friends. The Jantzen Beach Amusement company has extended their invitation for the chorus to sing at Jantzen beach in the afternoon.

TEACHERS TO BE REHIRED

At a meeting of the school board, in which president-elect J. A. Churchill, concurred, the critic teachers for the ensuing year in the Independence training school were hired. The board followed largely the recommendations of M. Churchill, although some minor changes were made in the interest of economy.

The kindergarten department is to be eliminated after the summer sesion, heretofore this department has been maintained entirely by the state and has met with a measure of approval.

Miss Oma Belle Emmons will be retained as principal and will be given class work as well. Other teachers who have been rehired are Mrs. Milford Nelson, Miss Mary Donaldson, Miss Henrietta Wolfer, Mrs. Harry Keeney, Miss Helen Lawrence Martin, Miss Howe, Mrs. Elsie Bolt, Mrs. Clara Thompson. Two teachers were dropped from the faculty on account of their qualifications not measuring up to the standard set by the board of higher education.

The number of teachers has been reduced by two over last year, including the kindergarten. There is still one vacancy to fill.

OFFIICERS ELECTED BY REBEKAH LODGE

Amity—Industry Rebekah lodge of Amity has elected the following staff of officers for the half year term beginning July 2:

Mrs. Lenna Harrison, noble grand; Miss Mildred Harrison, vice grand; Mrs. Bessie Sorensen, recording secretary; Mrs. Gertie Richter, treasurer. The present noble grand, Mrs. Mattie Hess, who has been unable to attend lodge for some time on account of illness, was able to preside at the meeting.

Mrs. A. W. Newby and Mrs. Mamie Yarnes who were delegates to the Rebekah assembly which met recently in Eugene, gave interesting reports of the assembly program. Mrs. Nellie Rogers of the Amity Rebekah lodge will be district deputy president of the Industry lodge this year.

Turner Club Will Hold Last Session

Turner—The last regular meeting of the Turner Community club will be held Monday evening in the high school auditorium, adjourning until fall. Annual business meeting and election of officers will take place and a short program will be presented. The main feature will be "The Circus Parade," originated by a group of children who will be dressed in various costumes portraying circus folk.

Ivy Club Is Guest Conkey Residence

Suver—Mrs. Earl Conkey entertained the Ivy club at her home in Monmouth Wednesday with an all-day meeting. At noon a delicious dinner was sered to th efollowing members: Mrs. B. R. Douglas, Mrs. Miles Davis, Mrs. W. J. Kerr, Mrs. Henry Lamb, Mrs. A. J. Bagley, Mrs. E. G. Harris, Mrs. Otto Hilke, Mrs. Ralph Kester, Miss Ruth McCuistion, Margaret, Helen and Thelma Douglas, Patay and Ernest Kester, Agnes Lamb, all of Suver, Mrs. M. H. Gentemann of Independence and the hostess, Mrs. Conkey.

In the afternoon a short business meeting was held. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Joe James.

BOYS ENJOY COMPANY

Silverton—Three Silverton boys, Bill Kleeb, George Smith and Norman Jensen and Rees John of Salem have spent the week on the Abiqqua river on a mountain camping trip. Gifford Smith, father of George and Miss Marjorie Smith, his sister, plan to spend Saturday at the boys' camp and they will all return home late in the evening. Jensen is a pupil in the Lutheran college at Parkland, Wash., and is home on his vacation for the summer.

PATIENTS ARE VISITED

Mt. Angel—Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. De Doax motored to Portland to visit several patients from Mt. Angel at the St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, Thursday. Among them were Mrs. Lawrence Schneider, woh had a major operation on her appendix, and is getting along as well as can be expected. Edward Hammer had a serious goitre operation and in a few days will have his tonsils removed. Mrs. Forrest Sauvain, who was operated on June 1, will be able to come home within a week.

ATTEND SUMMER SCHOOL

Turner—Preparatory plans are being made by the five 4-H club members who won scholarships in the achievement day contest, enabling them to attend the two weeks' summer school at Oregon State college at Corvallis. Those leaving in a few days are Eloise Mellis, Norman Whitehead, Margaret Schifferer, Lucille Bones and LaVerna Whitehead.

DELEGATES TO BE GREETED AT CHURCH SUNDAY

Mt. Angel—Some 50 delegates from all parts of the state are expected to be in Mt. Angel Sunday for the annual conention of the D. R. K. Staatserband of Oregon. While here they will be the guests of the St. Joseph society, which is affiliated with the Staatsverband.

Delegates will convent on the steps of St. Mary's school and march to St. Mary's church in a body to attend the 10:30 o'clock high mass. The Mt. Angel boys' band will play for the procession.

Following mass a dinner will be served in the school dining hall. The business session will convene at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon in the auditorium. Frank Saalfeld of Salem, president of the organization, will open the meeting. The business session will conclude with election of officers of the Staatsverband, and adoption of resolutions. A lunch will be served at 6 o'clock. Should the convention last until late in the evening the meeting will adjourn before the auditorium show starts, and reconvene at the St. Joseph's hall.

The committee in charge of arrangements included Henry Baker, Joseph Weisner and Alfred A. Huber of the St. Joseph's society. The St .Ann's will have charge of the meals, with Mrs. Joseph Stadler and Mrs. John Diehl as committee heads.

AID FOR BONUS MARCHERS ASKED

Silverton—At the regular meeting of Delbert Reeves Post No. 7, American Legion of Silverton this week probably the most definite feature of the business session fas the passing of the resolution requesting the state department to send $1000 to Washington, D. C., to aid the marchers in their mission and to extend to the "bonus army" the Silverton's Posst most earnest moral support in their undertaking.

The Silverton division of the American Legion baseball players have taken two defeats, gracefully. One was from Woodburn, the other from Salem. The boys merely say that they were outclassed. They also say that they learned several things and are fully determined to list on the other side of the score in the two games here, one Saturday afternoon on the Eureka field diamond with Salem an the other with Stayton Sunday afternoon.

BROOKS AID PLANS FOR EVENING PARTY

Brooks— The Brooks Methodist Ladies' Aid society members were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Malcolm Ramp, Mrs. Monroe Ward, president, conducted the devotions and presided at the business session. The women are preparing a program to be given at the Methodist church Tuesday evening, following which strawberries and cake, and strawberry short cake will be sold. Mrs. Ramp was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. A. E. Harris and Mrs. Earl Streeter.

Those present were the Mesdames A. J. Rasmussen, Harry Bosch, C. A. Bailey, Earl Streeter, A. E. Harris, O. L. Bailey, Monroe Ward, Nancy McFarland, Sylvester Harris, Wayne Gibson, A. M. Dunlay, Misses Laonne Harris and Arlene Rasmussen, and the hostes, Mrs. Malcolm Ramp.

The next meeting will be in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Ward.

Civil War Veteran Independence Guest

Independence—L. M. Butler of Wheeler spent the last week at the home of his granddaughter here, Mrs. Grant Byers. He left yesterday with his son, J. H. Butler, for a short visit in Portland. Butler formerly resided in this community on a small farm on the Independence-Monmouth highway and is a Civil War veteran.

He enlisted in the Missouri regiment in 1862, when but 16 years of age. In the 70's the family came overland to Oregon. He is 85 years of age, mentally and physically alert; has written several booklets during the past few years and declares that he is getting a fair share of real enjoyment out of life. He makes his home with his youngest daughter at Wheeler, but spends much of his time visiting around among other members of his family, having five children, all living in Oregon.

CALIFORNIA CALLING

Hazel Green—Mrs. Mildred Kittleson has returned to her home, following a months' sojourn in Berkley, Calif., where she was called following the illness of her sister, Mrs. Jack Rucher. Guy Looney left for California recently with his family physician. Looney will remain for an indefinite period in the hopes of regaining his health.

MRS. RICHTER HOME

Amity—Mrs. Will Richter, who has been taking treatment at the sanitarium near Salem for the last two years, is much improved and has been brought to her home in this city where she will spend the summer with her family. Richter is employed at the Amity meat market.

Mill City—Operations at the Hammond lumber plant were halted Thursday morning by a broken log haul and again Friday by a broken saw. Work was resumed after a short delay, the prompt action of Herbert Maags prevanting injury to any of the workmen when the saw broke.

Hadley Is Retained Brotherhood Leader By Group At Turner

Turner—The June meeting of the Turner Methodist men's brotherhood was held in the church with a good attendance of members. Rev. Wayne Wright of the Stayton Methodist church was present and gave a short talk on "Going Forward." Circle prayer followed the devotionals led by the chaplain, H. S. Bond. At the business session, presided over by the president, Ivan Hadley, election of officers for another year took place, resulting in the reelection of Ivan Hadley as president; F. G. Gunning, vice-president; secretary-treasurer, E. Robinson; chaplain, H. S. Bond; gospel team leader, F. P. Rowley. Alvin Garner was elected leader of the junior gospel team until fall.

E. Robinson gave the yearly secretary report and F. P. Rowley, leader of the gospel team, reviewed the work accomplished during the past year. This was the last meeting of the brotherhood until September.

OFFICERS ELECTED FOR MOLALLA CLUB

Molalla—The Civic club held their regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. O. Staats. This was the last meeting until September and the election of officers were held.

Mrs. Alfred Olsen was elected president; Mrs. Harold Ridings, vice-president; Mrs. George Blatchford, secretary; Mrs. Glenn Kirkwood, treasurer. The outgoing officers who have served for the past year are Mrs. George Case, president; Mrs. Ralph Holman, vice-president; Mrs. J. W. Moore, secretary; Mrs. Frank Dicken, treasurer.

Plans for the flower show were discussed and the date will be announced later. Those on the committee in charge are Mrs. George Blatchford, Mrs. Frank Dicken, Mrs. W. W., Everhart.

Mrs. W. G. Masterton, who attended the meeting of the State Federation of Women's clubs in Portland made a very interesting report.

OFFICERS RETAINED BY CASEY COUNCIL

Mt. Angel—A meetmg of the Knights of Columbus was held this week and election of officers held. All officers of the Mt. Angel council were re-elected.

Officers are: Sidney Jackson, grand knight; Lawrence Rothenfluch, deputy grand knight; Otto Oswald, chancellor; Joe Brockhaus, recorder; Joseph Hauth, treasurer; Fred J. Schwab, advocate; Stanley Duda, warden; Albert Schmitz, outside guard; John Beyer, inside guard; J. T. Bauman, trustee.

Father Damion, O. S. B., spoke briefly on the Layman's retreat movement and urged all those who could to attend the 12th annual laymen's retreat at St. Benedict's Abbey June 17, 18 and 19. The next meeting of the knights, when the officers will be installed, will be held July 5. During the summer months only one meeting will be held a month instead of two.

Hay Raker Receives Fracture Of Arm

Silverton—T. J. Miller, farmer, whose home is in Silverton on Grant street, sustained a single fracture of the right wrist in an accident while raking hay in a field near the Southern Pacific tracks. Miller was driving close to the fence when one wheel of the hayrake caught a post, swerving the machine in such a way as to break the tongue, throwing him backward, clear of the rake. He fell with his arm bent under the weight of his body, causing the fracture. The horses were stopped after running about the distance of a block by Miller's son, Tom, who was at work in the field.

Quilting In Order

Turner—Members of the Grange Work club gathered at the Odd Fellows hall for a special all-day meeting to complete the grange double wedding ring pattern quilt. The piece of work will be auctioned off this summer. A waffle dinner with strawberries was served at noon. In attendance were Mrs. T. T. Palmer and daughter Peggy, Mrs. J. L. Webb, Mrs. George Crume, Mrs. Stella Miller, Mrs. Fay Webb and daughters, Bonnie Fay and Beverly Jean, Mrs. G. W. Farris and Mrs. Curtis Mellis.

GLEN HARRIS HOME

Suver—Glen Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Harris, arrived home Thursday after a stay of the past year at the home of his uncle, O. C. Fields of Oakland, Calif. Young Harris graduated from the Oakland high school this June. Before going south he attended the Corvallis high school.

PRIESTS TAKE LEAVE

Mt. Angel—Rev. Father Alcuin, O. S. B., rector of Mt. Angel college, left this week for the University of Washington in Washington, D. C., where he will study for three months until school will begin next September. Rev. Father Alphonse, O. S. B., left for Marshfield where he will remain for two months.

Molalla—The Rural Letter Carriers association of Clackamas county will hold their annual meeting Saturday night in Molalla at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Olsen. Mrs. Olsen is vice-president of the auxiliary. This is the first time the meeting has ever come to Molalla.

Eola—T. W. Brung is the elected democratic central committeeman and Mrs. Mattie I. Carr, republican committee woman for the Eola precinct.

SOUP PROJECT HEALTH TOPIC OF GATES CLUB

Gates — Mrs. A. D. Scott, Miss Gwen Johnson and Mrs. Floyd Boyington of Mehama were hostesses for one of the largest improvement club gatherings of the year Thursday afternoon at the club room in the high school building. Nearly 60 were served refreshments.

A high light of the afternoon was a talk by Dr. W. W. Allen of Mill City on the importance of retaining a health nurse for the communities of Mill City and Gates. He stressed the idea of modern ideas of prevention of sickness and epidemics over the old idea of trying to cure after the attack. Also the importance of looking after the well and healing the children of the community.

Official business for the afternoon was the talking over of the hot soup project for the coming year to be sered during the winter months to the school children. Mrs. Irvin Lawson was appointed chairman of a committee to make plans for the work, others on the committee being Mrs. Ed Davis, Mrs. Linn Young, and Mrs. A. E. Carey. Further plans will be made at the first meeting in the fall.

It was voted to have a summer picnic the second Thursday in August, two invitations being extended to the club, one by Mrs. Chas. Moore to Moore's grove, and another by Mrs. Floyd Boyington to the Swimmin' Hole on the Boyington ranch at Mehama. The club made no decision on the matter.

A feature of the afternoon was the drawning of three names for each meeting of the coming year, this making an entertainment committee for that meeting. This is not the hostess committee, but a program or entertainment group. The hostesses committee for the coming year are arranged by the executive committee.

Among those present for the afternoon were, besides the hostesses, Besdames C. D. Johnson, Ed Davis, Roy Taylor, A. B. Horner, Ed Collins, E. V. Collins, W. Evans, Claude Sellard, Ruby Winters, Glenn Hennes, Lincoln Henness, Wilson, Wes Houghton, Spoolstran, Harry Keiser, Tilman Rains, Chas. Moore, Gerald Heath, Cecil Wriglesworth, Walter Decker, Merle Devine, Norris Thomas, Clyde Thomas, Herbert Schroeder, Albert Milsap, Glen Acker, Irvin Lawson, Blanch Syverson, and Miss Nona Lyndes, school nurse, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Lyndes, who is he rguest from Montana. Special guests for lunch were Ed Davis, Cecil Wriglesworth, Lincoln Hennes, Tilman Rains and A. E. Carey.

MISSION ASSOCIATION TO JOIN WITH SALEM

Hazel Green—The Woman's Missionary association held its quarterly business meetin at the home of Mrs. Margery Looney. The program subject was Japan, and Mrs. Orville Luckey presided as leader. Rev. Samuel Long conducted the devotional services. Assisting in the program were Mrs. C. E. Long and Mrs. Louis Wampler. Mrs. Margery Looney conducted the stewardship ceremonial, while Mrs. Iris Van Cleave presided as pianist.

Mrs. Orville Luckey conducted the business session at which time reports were given by the various officers and the society voted to have an offering taken at each meeting to be used for literature.

The August meeting will be a combined one with the Salem W. M. A. and will be in the form of an all day picnic.

Members present were Mrs. Orville Luckey, Mrs. Ellen VanCleave, Mrs. Robert Massie, Mrs. Iris Van Cleave, Mrs. Pearl Van Cleave, Miss Ruby Woodard, Rev. and Mrs. S. E. Long, Iola Lucky, Charlotte Van Cleae, Edna Luckey and Mrs. Louis Wampler and daughter, Marion.

The Otterbein Guild will meet Sunday at the Looney home with Alice Cook in charge.

Barley Seed Taken

Pratum—Thieves recently broke into Fred de Vries' warehouse and stole a quantity of barley that he had bought for sowing. Thieves also visited the John Roth cellar and stole fruit, also clothing and the laundry basket.

RECOVERS FROM ACCIDENT

Mill City—Miss Catherine Brown, who received a badly injured knee in an auto accident early in the spring, is now able to walk without the aid of crutches, although still limping a little.

Rock Crusher Aid In Offering Work

Gates—The rock crusher on the Linn county side of the river is working at present, giving employment to several men and a few teams. The road is being widened at some points and a coating of new crushed rock is being spread at other points. The work is under the supervision of Ed Davis. The Adam Shepherd Logging company is running with a small crew, and logs are hauled to Mill City by truck. Several local men are going to Camp No. 26 to work, and some others have work on the clearing contracts above Detroit.

LEGION AUXILIARY HOSTESS TO GIRLS

Dallas—Members of the Sacayewea group of Camp Fire Girls headed by Miss Mabel Teal, were guests of the American Legion Auxiliary, their sponsors, Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Clifford P. Helgerson.

The girls went through the ceremonial work and rank honors were afterwards presented to a number of the girls as follows:

First rank—Lunee Norris, Helen Hamilton, Dorothy Palmer, Martha Jean Kurre.

Second rank—Jean Tharp, Doris Riggs, Margaret Riggs.

Torchbearer rank—Bernice Elle.

Refreshments were served to the gathering at the close of the evening. Approximately 30 auxiliary members were present in addition to 21 camp fire girls.

CHILDRENS PROGRAM JEFFERSON SUNDAY

Jefferson—Sunday services in the local churches are scheduled as follows:

Methodist—Sunday school at 10 a. m. with the superintendent, Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle in charge. Sunday is Children's day and the day is given over to the cause of Christian education. During the morning worship hour at 11 o'clock a special children's day program will be given by the Sunday school. The Sunday school offering will be for the student loan fund of the board of education of the church. Epworth League will be conducted at 7 a.m. with Muriel Thomas as leader. The topic will be 'How Educated Are We?" This is the second in the series on Education. Evening worship at 8 o'clock conducted by the pastor, Rev. T. H. Downs, whose subject will be "Christian Education," or "Equipment for Life." Public installation of newly elected officers of the league will be conducted during this period. Officers to be installed are: Mary Louise Fontaine, president; Muriel Thomas, first vice-president; Marjorie Fontaine, second vice president; Benson Spragg, third vice-president; Verdo Harris, fourth vice president; Alice Harris, secretary-treasurer.

Evangelical— Children's day will be observed. Special program at the Fruitland charge at 10 a.m. Christian Endeavor at 7 o'clock and at 8 o'clock the following Children's day program will be presented: Song by choir; scripture and prayer by the pastor, Rev. G. F. Liening; welcome, Barbara Weddle; recitation, Mary Wilson; song, Edith Wilson; exercise by primary class; song, choir; recitation, Elsie Doughty; dialogue, Beulah Wilson and Florence Liening; motion song, juniors; recitation, Virgil Wilson; piano solo, Shirley Jones; song, choir; exercise, junior girls; recitation, Frances Weddle; reading, Rosalie Pullen; offering, recitation, Gladys Oakley; recaition, Marjorie Weddle; reading, Helen Kihs; song, choir benediction.

Church of Christ—Sunday school at 10 a.m. Preaching services at 11 by the minister, Rev. Ard Hoven; Christian Endeavor at 7 o'clock. Evangelicistic service at 8 o'clock.

Pratum—Miss Nellie Kleen, who has been visiting for some time at Denair, Calif., is expected home this week.

FLOWER MISSION DAY CELEBRATED BY WCTU ORDER

Woodburn— Flower Mission day was observed by the Woodburn W.C.T.U. at the home of Mrs. Carrie Young on Young street Friday afternoon. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Young, Miss Ina Bonney and Mrs. John D. Woodfin.

Miss Daisy Frederick conducted the devotional exercises, reading from the fourth and fifth chapters of the Songs of Solomon, and prayers were offered by Mrs. Young, Mrs. Gtrtrude Belcher and Mrs. Woodfin.

The rooms were very attractive with roses and lupin in profusion and a special feature of the decorations was a large bowl of Frances Willard roses, cut from a bush donated by Mrs. Libbie Morcom, charter member and first president, on her departure from Woodburn some years ago. This bush has been cared for in the garden of Mrs. Young.

The program for the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Young who is superintendent of the flower mission department. A number of interesting papers were read by members. Mrs. Annettie Simmons read "Origin of the Flower Mission"; Mrs. Belcher gave Frances Willard's tribute to Jennie Casaldy, founder of the flower mission work; Miss Frederick read "Dropping Flowers"; Mrs. Oscar Allen gave a reading entitled "We Answer No"; and Mrs. Woodfin gave an article 'The World Needs Flowers Today, not Tomorrow." The annual state flower mission report was given by Mrs. Young. Each member present read a Bible verse relative to flowers and these verses were attached to bouquets which were sent out to the sick and shut ins after the meeting.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. J. Rice on East Cleveland street July 8.

PIONEER BUSINESS PARTNERSHIP ENDED

Aurora—After being in the general merchandise business for 27 years here, the firm of Sadler and Kraus has dissolved partnership. J. W. Sadler retires from the firm and hereafter the style name of the firm will be "Kraus' Store," A. W. Kraus, manager, who will do business at the same location, and continue to serve the public in the same courteous manner as heretofore.

Sadler will continue to reside in Aurora, where he and Mrs. Sadler have a home on Main street.

Silverton—Albert Carlson of Silverton has left for his former home in Milinor, S. D., to visit relatives for the summer vacation. He plans to return in the fall.

Hayesville Chosen For Junior Program

Hazel Green — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cady and son LaVerne of the Auburn district were guests recently at the local Sunday school. Mr. Cady gave a short talk concerning the annual exhibits for the Sunday school booth at the state fair. This booth was Mr. and Mrs. Cady's idea and they have been in charge from the first giving much time and care to collecting and caring for the booths and exhibits. Mrs. Cady who assists with the junior division of the program of the Hayesville Sunday school district, assigned work to the local juniors who will take part in the junior program to be held at the Hayesville church the last Sunday in June.

SCHOOLMATES STAY THROUGHOUT CAREER

Rickey — Four members of the original class that attended Rickey school together, this year graduated from Salem high school. Elizabeth Fitzpatrick, a fifth member, graduated from the Sacred Heart academy, and Anna Parsons, another member of the original class, will graduate from the high school in Salinas, Calif. Those graduating at Salem high were Ann Fitzpatrick, Margaret Magee, Roy Crabb and Troy Crabb.

While attending Salem high, Roy Crabb was a member of the commercial club; Ann was a member of the Girls' League cabinet, a big sister her senior year, and a member of the Clarion staff during her senior ear; Margaret Magee who was named among the 30 outstanding graduates, was a member of the Clarion staff during her entire high school career, a member of the Quill and Schroll, international honorary society of high school journalism, assistant editor of the Clarion her senior year, senior Clarion editor, big sister her junior and senior years, member of the Techne club, member of Clarion Annual staff and a member of the Girls' League.

The original class membership included Anna Parsons, now in Salinas, Calif., Allie Franke, Ann and Elizabeth Fitzpatrick, Margaret Magee, Roy and Troy Crabb, Raymond Wallace, Arthur Franke and Clarence Schabb.

Auto Park Opened On Pudding River

Aurora—Lester R. Reed has opened an auto park on the Pudding river, just off the highway. He has done considerable work in getting the ground in readiness for the summer trade. This place is ideally located and will undoubtedly be well patronized as it affords good, shady camping places and natural "old swimming holes" where both young and old can swim. Many picnic parties will be held there this summer.