

SENATORS DEFEAT WEST SIDE CLUB, PORTLAND, 5-4
WOODBURN JUNIORS SMOTHER SALEM LEGION TEAM, 17 TO 4 SUNDAY

FOREMAN'S HIT IN 9TH INNING CINCHES GAME

The Salem Senators broke into the win column of the State baseball league when they defeated the West Side club of Portland, 5 to 4 at Olinger field Sunday afternoon in a slow but nevertheless well played game.

The absence of three regulars from the team—Gribble, Hibbard and Asay, necessitated a big shift in the Senator lineup. The absence of the trio did not weaken the infield a bit although it slowed up the outfield to some extent.

"Squeak" Wilson on the mound for Salem, fanned 13 batsmen and yielded but seven hits. He turned in a nice game and deserved to win.

Treadway Charles for the visitors was not quite as effective and was forced to leave the hill in the fifth after filling the bases. Folk, his successor, yielded but two hits in the three and a fraction innings he pitched.

The West Side youngsters collected two runs in the first inning on two hits and an error. They added two more in the fifth, when Charles hit for three bases over Rogers' head and then Joe Gordon hit for four bases in the same location, the ball hitting in front of the fielder and then bounding past him for a home run.

After being held to two hits and no runs in the first two innings, the Senators broke the spell in the third when George Scates connected with a fence ball and sent it rolling to the grove in right field for a home run. The locals knotted the score in the fourth. With two away, Pete McCaffery was hit on the arm and went to first. It looked like a double play or a force out on Wilson's shot into second base but Gordon juggled Leach's throw and both runners were safe. Scates was walked but Adams came through with a single to score McCaffery.

The visitors went ahead once more in their half of the fifth, but the Senators came right back to tie it up. Walt Erickson singled to right field and Foreman walked, Bashor and Rogers flew out while Erickson scored on McCaffery's single. With Foreman on third and with McCaffery on first they proceeded to pull a double steal out of the box with Trux scoring. Wilson was walked and then Ray Brooks decided to make a change. He sent Folk into the box. Scates got his second walk on the day but Adams made the third out when he fanned. The score remained tied until the last half of the ninth. Erickson, the first man up, was given a base on balls and promptly pliffed second. A moment later he clattered home with the winning run when Foreman sent up a Texas leaguer which three men were unable to field.

ST. LOUIS JINX HOLDS, SENATOR DEFEATED TWICE

By Associated Press. For the information of American league pitchers, the one sure way of stopping the Washington Senators is to put on a St. Louis Browns uniform. The Senators can hold their own with the rest of the league but as soon as they see one of Bill Keller's elbows take the mound they roll over and play dead. So far they have played the Browns seven times, and the Browns have won six games, three of them by shutouts.

Keller's outfit won both games of a double-header yesterday, 6-3 and 4-0, and boosted their average above the .500 mark for the first time this season. The first game was a disconcerting affair, what with Carl Fischer, former Senator, in a Brown uniform, and Dick Coffman, former Brown, pitching for the Senators. Fischer had all the better of the argument as he held Washington to seven hits, Coffman gave way to a pinch hitter in the fifth after allowing six hits and five runs. Walter Stewart pitched his second shut-out over the Senators in the night-cap, allowing only three hits.

In the national league, the Chicago Cubs stretched their lead to a game and a half by winning a wild 13-inning battle from the Boston Braves, 5-3. The Cubs won out on doubles by Jurgas and Herman and a single by Moore. Guy Bush went the route for the leaders and allowed only ten hits. Art Shires' homer in the seventh sent the game into extra innings.

SILVERTON TEAM WINS 2 GAMES IN JUNIOR RACE

Silverton—The Silverton Junior American Legion team has won victories to its credit out of four games played. Silverton outscored Salem, 6 to 5, Saturday at Eureka avenue diamond here. The intensely hot weather didn't stop one of the best kames ever witnessed on the home field. Getchel showed poor control against Silverton's good control. Silverton scored 5 runs off Salem's first pitcher, Getchel, and 1 off the second pitcher, Serdotz. Keuzni went fine for six innings, then became tired under the heat and allowed 3 Salem runs, bringing the score to 6 to 5 in Silverton's favor, which remained final. After the 3 runs on Keuzni, Jell pitched and held the visitors pat. Silverton didn't get or give any breaks but good base running; by them and poor fielding on Salem juniors' part when errors means runs, gave Silverton the margin.

Silverton juniors have only six errors in four games. The two losses for the local team have been to Woodburn and Salem. Two more games are scheduled, one with Woodburn Saturday here and the other at Stayton Sunday. If Salem outscore Woodburn in their game scheduled for next Sunday and Silverton beats Woodburn Saturday, the results will throw three teams into a tie. Schwab, father of the well known high school baseball stars, is Silverton's coach.

SEATTLE SPLITS SUNDAY GAMES TO WIN SERIES

Junk Walters, Seattle pitcher, looked back today on the feat of pitching two Sunday baseball games against Portland, the team that sold him for $1000 as "old junk." He was only fifty percent successful, however, in his private warfare, winning the first game 4 to 2, but dropping the second 0 to 4.

Elated by the promise he would be allowed to pitch the second game if he won the first, Walters started out well. He allowed seven hits, the same number his teammates gathered, but Seattle made two safe blows in the fifth inning count for three runs, which clinches the game. Despite a scorching sun, "old junk" did well in the second game until the seventh inning, when Portland touched him for three runs. The Indians gathered only four hits. Seattle took the series four to three.

Los Angeles beat Hollywood 6 to 4 in their Sunday afternoon game after losing the first six games of the series. The Stars won the first half of the doubleheader, 3 to 1. In the first game the Stars got six safe hits off LeRoy, Herrmann, three of them bunched in the seventh inning, while Fred Ortman held the Angels to four scattered hits. Los Angeles won the last game by gathering five hits from two pitchers in the seventh and final inning to tally four runs.

The tall-end Missions gave the downtrodden Sacramento Senators two more setbacks, 10 to 9 and 11 to 8. In the opener the Missions tied the score at 9-all with six runs in the seventh inning, and pushed over the winning tally in the tenth. In the seventh inning nightcap the Reds scored six runs in the sixth to put the game on ice.

Oakland took the opener from the Seals 2 to 1 when Bill Ludolph, Acorn pitcher, drove out a single to score the winning run in the 12th inning. The Seals won the second game, 3 to 2, when Hunt, right fielder, hit a homer with one on in the final, seventh inning.

FINNIGAN HERE FOR JONES BOUT

Pat Finnigan, who says he did not run out on his match with Henry Jones recently, will return to Salem Tuesday night for an engagement with the Utah farmer. Failure to notify Finnigan of his contest here is said to have caused the mixup. The other half of the evening's performance will be a match between "Buildup" Jackson, known for his rough tactics, and Art Smertz. Smertz was beaten by Jones a week ago after he had injured a rib when he fell from the ring.
