An interesting program by pupils of Mrs. M. C. Gingrich will entertain members of the Eastern Star at the social afternoon of Chadwick chapter Tuesday at the Masonic temple. The program will consist of an interpretative group number by Louisa Klumpff, Betty Lou Hansell, Margery Bach, Sarah Molsan, Josephine Sexton, Mildred Beach and Evelyn and Edith Walker. Miss Helen Purkin will be violinist; Miss Marie Patton, pupil of Prof. R. W. Hans Heitz, will be soloist; and Oscar Gingrich, Jr., will be accompanist. Faye Scott, blind dancer, will give several numbers, with her sister, Mrs. Hazel Magnuson, at the piano. A butterfly dance will be given by Betty Lou Hansell, with Oscar Gingrich, Jr., as accompanist. The program close with a group of Indian numbers by Mrs. Gingrich, with Mrs. J. O. Russell and Oscar Gingrich, Jr., as the Royalty. The latter is the pupil of Roy J. White.

A tea hour will follow the program.

An impressive ceremony was held last Wednesday when the officers of Willamette auxiliary No. 2681, Fraternal Order of Eagles, were installed by a delegation from the Portland auxiliary No. 4. Mrs. Gladys Hall was installing officer, and Mrs. Berberick was installing conductress assisted by Mrs. Blanche Brady, captain, and her drilled team of eight. The team appeared for the first time in new uniforms.

Mrs. C. Sibyl Roberts for the third consecutive year was installed as president. Other officers installed were: Mrs. Hazel Shaw, past president; Mrs. Gussie Marshall, vice-president; Mrs. Fern Crozier, chaplain; Mrs. Luville Tumbleton, secretary; Mrs. Hazel Manguson, treasurer; Mrs. Malinda Parson, Mrs. Monima Wesolowski, and Mrs. Mena Lutz, trustees; Mrs. Rachel Lantz, inside guard; Mrs. Elva Coons, outside guard; Mrs. Frances Hoyt, conductress. Mrs. Roberts was presented with a gift by the retiring officers.

Following a luncheon, the Portland Aerie and auxiliary drill teams gave an exhibition drill. The Portland aerie team is the champion drill team among Eagles' lodges in the northwest.

Aerie officers were installed by the state president, D. D. Hall, with Robert Vorhees and the Portland team assisting. Officers installed were: Earl Pflinger, past president; H. G. Courcy, president; Cecil Lantz, vice president; A. L. Tumbleton, secretary; G. E. Walters, treasurer; P. W. Cooper, conductor; Frank Hoyt, inside guard; H. B. Scofield, outside guard; Cash Roberts, trustee; Dr. Burton A. Myers, aerie physician.

Mrs. Clifford Baker and son, Bobby, of Richmond, Calif., arrived Sunday night to be guests of her sister, Mrs. Roy Keene, for a week.

SWIM CHAMP GETS A DEGREE

Jennie Cramer, a Los Angeles Athletic club swimming champion, is to be graduated from the University of Southern California soon with a master's degree. She is shown with two of her teammates, Josephine McKim, left, and Marjorie Lowe, right. All three are Olympic prospects.

Hathaway-Sherwood Nuptials Saturday
Miss Francis Sherwood of Providence, R. I., became the bride of Romaine Hathaway, naval officer from San Francisco, Calif., at an attractive ceremony Saturday night at the home of the groom's brother, Jack Hathaway, in North Salem.

Ragged sailor blooms, emblematic of the groom's profession, were combined with other flowers in effectively decorating the rooms of the Hathaway home for the event. The ceremony was read by Rev. Martin Ferrey before the fireplace banked with roses and ferns.

The bride wore a modish semi-formal frock of blue and carried an army bouquet of American Beauty roses. She was attended by her mother, Mrs. Ernest Sherwood, of Providence, R. I.

Jack Hathaway acted as best man for his brother.

An informal reception in the gardens surrounding the Hathaway home followed. The gardens were decorated with gay Japanese lanterns.

Guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. John Linderman, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Meeks, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shay, Mr. and Mrs. Alton D. Hurley, Mr. and Mrs. Hal D. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Miss Sylvia Larson, Harry Levy, Mrs. Grace Bracken, Floyd Kinzer and Dr. E. H. Hobson.

Mr. and Mrs. Hathaway will remain in Salem and the Pacific Northwest for about 10 days before leaving for California to make their home. Mr. Hathaway has been in service with the U. S. Navy for 26 years and at present is chief pay master, stationed at Goat Island.

Miss Elma Weller will present her piano pupils in recital and in a demonstration of the Dunning method Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in her residence studio. Friends of the young pupils and all others interested are invited to attend.

Berenice Eigin and Dorothy Barham are graduating from the Dunning course, having completed four years work in three years, and will receive their diplomas as a feature of the evening's program.

Contributing to the recital program will be Elaine Murray, Kay McGuire, Gordon Merriott, Delores Parker, Mabel McGuire, Bernice Elgin, Dorothy Barham, Imogene Valentyne, Maxine Holt, Muriel Brown, Dorothy Dahlberg, Janet Murray, Ruth Armstrong, Lorna Barham, Alice Barham and Naida Carroll.

Miss Louise Nunn of Portland was a week-end guest at the J. J. Nunn home on North 19th street. Miss Nunn is a former Willamette university student and motored to Salem to participate in the commencement week-end festivities.

Beta Chi Alumnae Name New Officers

One of the interesting affairs of the commencement week-end for alumni of Willamette University was the Beta Chi annual alumnae breakfast at the Marion hotel Sunday morning. The event was in the nature of a reunion for the group, with a host of out-of-town folk to participate in the festivities.

Officers for the coming year were elected including Miss Frances Hodge of Portland, president; Miss Florence Power, vice president; Miss Phoebe Smith of Vancouver, Wn., secretary and treasurer; and Miss Elaine Oberg of Portland, member at large. Officers of the group during the past year were Louise Nunn of Portland, president; M. W. Walker of McMinnville, vice president; Miss Grace White of Portland, secretary and treasurer, and Miss William Spence, member at large.

The U-shaped breakfast table was centered with baskets of roses and blue delphinium, flanked by pink tapers in crystal candelabra. Covers were placed for Miss Eva Roberts, Miss Florence Power, Miss Loretta Fisher, Miss Ruth Smith, Miss Lola Millard, Miss June Gaines, Miss Lela Johnson, Miss Florence Young, Miss Rosalind Von Winkle, Mrs. A. Dorothy Palmer Thomas, Mrs. Esther Palmer Day, Mrs. Mildred Pugh Emmons, Mrs. Jennelle Vandervort Moorhead, all of Salem, Miss Jean White, Miss Elma White, Miss Grace White, Miss Grace Goudy, Miss Elaine Oberg, Miss Carolin Stober, Miss Mabel D. La Bare, Miss Margaret Carmine, Miss Frances M. Hodge, Miss Winifred Tobben, Miss Louise Nunn, Mrs. Frances McGilvra Litchfield, Mrs. Ethelwynne Kelly McIntyre, Mrs. Charlotte Tebbel Wilson, Mrs. Elizabeth Tebbel Harris, Mrs. Velma Baker Legge, Mrs. Winifred St. Clair Rogers, Mrs. Lorna Lovett Knotz, all of Portland, Mrs. Helen Gaitke Warren of Santa Cruz, Calif., Mrs. Helen McPherson Pemberton of Woodburn, Miss Mildred Hartley of Coquille, Mrs. Ruth Hewitt Nunn of Marshfield, Miss Carolin Tallman of Gresham, and Mrs. Marguerite Wibbe Walker of McMinnville, Miss Poebie Smith and Miss Laura E. Rogers, both of Vancouver, Wn.

Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Edwards were hosts for a group of Salem folk with a delightful house party at their summer home on the Santiam this week-end. Among those who motored up for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Linn Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pierce, Miss Mary Schultz, Andrew Duncan and the hosts, Dr. and Mrs. Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kaufman, Miss Boby Laughlin and Ralph Schomp were among the Salem folk who spent Sunday at the Oregon beaches.

Miss Marylee Fry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., returned this week-end from a week's visit in Eugene as the guest of her cousin, Miss Priscilla Walsh, at the Raymond Walsh home there.

The Women's Union of the First Congregational church will close the present season with a meeting Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. F. W. Steusloff, 607 North Commercial street.

THEY'RE CONVENTION HOSTESSES

A committee headed by Mrs. Fredric Upham (left), a republican, and Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank, democrat, will have charge of entertainment of the wives and relatives as well as women delegates to the conventions of the two parties in Chicago. The group is equally divided between both parties.

Picnic Dance at Salem Golf Club

About 35 couple attended a smartly informal picnic supper at the Salem Golf club house Saturday night. An impromptu song-fest and dance followed the supper. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hemenway of Portland.

Arrangements for the informal event were made by Erel Kay and Graham Sharkey.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Brougher sailed from Seattle Monday for Sitka, Alaska.

Ivan White, son of Dr. and Mrs. Bert H. White, left Sunday morning for Washington, D. C., where he will take the diplomatic service examination.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Darby motored to Eugene Monday to attend the commencement exercises at the University of Oregon campus. Their daughter, Miss Helen Darby, was a member of the graduating class.

Miss Gladys Rose of Eugene was the house guest of her mother, Mrs. Jacob S. Rose at the Rose home on Center street over the week-end.

Distinguished Club Woman Guest Here

Mrs. Cora M. Davis of New York City and Long Island, New York, was the house guest over the week-end of her aunt, Mrs. Lucile Sweeney. Mrs. Davis is president of the New York City Woman's club and past president of the Business and Professional Women's club. She also is recent president of the New England states for the Soroptmist club and came west to attend the convention of the American Federation of Soroptmist clubs in Sacramento, Calif., the first week in June. Mrs. Davis is returning home by way of Seattle and Vancouver, B. C.

The distinguished club woman is well known in business and professional circles in New York and has a cosmetic salon on Fifth avenue.

The Women's Democratic club will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Marion hotel for a program that promises to be of special interest at this time. William A. Dellert will discuss the new federal tax bill just enacted by congress, and a general discussion will follow. The meeting is open to all interested. Miss Mattie Beatty is president of the club.

Brush College Group Re-Elect Officers

Brush College—All of last year's officers were re-elected at the meeting Thursday afternoon of the Brush College Helpers in the local picnic grounds. Mrs. Oliver Whitney is president, Mrs. Fred Olson is vice-president, and Mrs. Fred Ewing is secretary-treasurer.

The meeting is the last one to be held until October and the usual routine was dispensed with, and visiting and games and a picnic lunch featured the later afternoon. The last chapter of the book "From Jerusalem to Jerusalem" which the club has been reviewing, was given by Mrs. Carl Harritt.

In the group were Mrs. Oliver and daughter and son, Ruth and Loyal, Mrs. John Schindler, Mrs. Victor Olson and son Junior, Mrs. George Meier and daughters, Gertrude and Myrtle, Mrs. Joe Hadespek, Mrs. C. Lintin, Mrs. Jake Singer and daughters, Elizabeth, Kathryn and Sadie of Salem, Mrs. Fred Ewing and daughter, Margaret, Mrs. Ferdinand Singer, Mrs. Fannie Cox of Salem, Mrs. Joe Fanger and daughter Josephine, Mrs. Walter Johnson and daughters, Pauline, Ruby and Juanita, Mrs. Barbara Pocht and daughter, Irene Cutler, Mrs. Esther Oliver, Mrs. Theodore Bernard, Mrs. V. Resinol DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

Save at Capital Drug Store

J. H. Willett
Corner State and Liberty Street

It sometimes requires a crisis to bring a thought home to some of us—We hope that sickness never strikes you but if it does, please remember that the chain store can not fill that all important prescription. If you rely on the home druggist to fill your prescriptions you should most certainly give him your support when making other purchases. Your local druggist is required to carry thousands and thousands of dollars worth of drugs to enable him to fill any prescription that any doctor might prescribe. These drugs are YOUR insurance against acute sickness and are kept in stock year in and year out for your protection. The chain store is not a drug store and cannot fill prescriptions, why not patronize a local druggist that takes care of your EVERY want.
