

SOCIETY, CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by Ruth Mae Lawrence, Phone 4843

Golden Anniversary Celebrated

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. Straw was brilliantly celebrated Sunday afternoon with a dinner and reception at their home on South 13th street.

The attractively decorated table was centered with a large white and gold wedding cake topped with the figures of a tiny bride and groom. Covers were placed for the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Straw, and for Mr. and Mrs. John Eddy and children, Mr. and Mrs. Dana Seelye and Miss Norma Engle of Marshfield, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Dana Straw, Mr. and Mrs. Arleigh Straw and Jessie Geraldine, Gerald, and Junior Straw, all of Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Straw and Wilbur, Mabel, Charles, Lloyd and Lawrence Straw, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Straw, Wayne and Naideen Straw, Mr. and Mrs. K. T. Arnold and James Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Straw, Mr. and Mrs. John Eddy and Cecil Evans and Earl and Eddy and Miss Phyllis Anderson of Cathlamet, Wn.

The living rooms of the Straw home were decked with baskets of gold and white flowers, and with this attractive background Mr. and Mrs. Straw received the guests who called during the afternoon to greet them upon their anniversary.

Guests for the afternoon included Mr. and Mrs. Leon Du Bois, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brunkal, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rust, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Orey, Rev. and Mrs. Britton Ross, Mr. and Mrs. A. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. Duleigh P. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Fiehan, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Gontekow, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hagedorn, Mrs. Bertha Ray, Mrs. F. H. Runcorn, Mrs. Louise M. Ahry, Mrs. Walter Kennedy, Mrs. Dora Arnold, Mrs. E. B. Taylor, Mrs. T. H. Clare, Mrs. P. J. Blessing, Miss Mabel Russell, Miss Verma Smith, Miss Dorothy Dicks, Miss Alice Irene Du Bois and Chester C. Starr.

Mr. and Mrs. Straw were married at Plainfield, Wis., 50 years ago Sunday. All of their children and grandchildren were present to help them celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage.

Mrs. E. C. Richards Honors Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Richards was hostess for an attractively appointed dinner at the Richards' home on Center street Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doney of Carlisle, Pa., who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of snap dragons and roses in delicate pastel hues. Covers were placed for nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Doney will be Salem visitors for a short time before going on to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Doney's parents before returning to their home in Pennsylvania.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph Carrothers.

Mrs. R. A. Van Cleave is in charge of the program. Mrs. Carrothers will be assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Oren Stratton, Mrs. B. L. Stevens and Mrs. Bryan.

Those wishing transportation call Mrs. John Robins at 3543.

Mrs. E. C. Richards Honors Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Richards was hostess for an attractively appointed dinner at the Richards' home on Center street Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doney of Carlisle, Pa., who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of snap dragons and roses in delicate pastel hues. Covers were placed for nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Doney will be Salem visitors for a short time before going on to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Doney's parents before returning to their home in Pennsylvania.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph Carrothers.

Mrs. R. A. Van Cleave is in charge of the program. Mrs. Carrothers will be assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Oren Stratton, Mrs. B. L. Stevens and Mrs. Bryan.

Those wishing transportation call Mrs. John Robins at 3543.

Mrs. E. C. Richards Honors Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Richards was hostess for an attractively appointed dinner at the Richards' home on Center street Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doney of Carlisle, Pa., who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of snap dragons and roses in delicate pastel hues. Covers were placed for nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Doney will be Salem visitors for a short time before going on to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Doney's parents before returning to their home in Pennsylvania.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph Carrothers.

Mrs. R. A. Van Cleave is in charge of the program. Mrs. Carrothers will be assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Oren Stratton, Mrs. B. L. Stevens and Mrs. Bryan.

Those wishing transportation call Mrs. John Robins at 3543.

Mrs. E. C. Richards Honors Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Richards was hostess for an attractively appointed dinner at the Richards' home on Center street Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doney of Carlisle, Pa., who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of snap dragons and roses in delicate pastel hues. Covers were placed for nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Doney will be Salem visitors for a short time before going on to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Doney's parents before returning to their home in Pennsylvania.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph Carrothers.

Mrs. R. A. Van Cleave is in charge of the program. Mrs. Carrothers will be assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Oren Stratton, Mrs. B. L. Stevens and Mrs. Bryan.

Those wishing transportation call Mrs. John Robins at 3543.

Word has reached Salem that Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shafer (Eugenia Ziebert) will arrive in Salem the first of July from their home in San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Shafer are always popular visitors here and will be the inspiration for several interesting affairs during their visit.

Albany Matrons Honor Miss Davis

Miss Hester Davis, bride-elect of Robert S. Cosgrove of Pasadena, Calif., will be the honor guest at a luncheon to be given by a group of prominent Albany matrons at the home of Mrs. O. D. Austin, Wednesday afternoon.

Those motoring down from Salem for the affair will be the honor guest, Miss Elizabeth Gilbert and John Schoenbecher, who are united in marriage. The service was read by the Rev. P. W. Ferguson before an improvised altar of roses and delphinium.

The bride, a lovely brunette, wore a becoming gown of white lace made in long princess lines, with tiny puff sleeves. She carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas, carnations and roses.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mrs. J. L. Harrison of Baker, the bride's mother, and Mr. and Mrs. Ailsup and Miss Betty Becke of Gervais.

After July 1 the young couple will be home to their friends in Salem.

Miss Gilbert Married

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Wood when Miss Elizabeth Gilbert and John Schoenbecher were united in marriage. The service was read by the Rev. P. W. Ferguson before an improvised altar of roses and delphinium.

The bride, a lovely brunette, wore a becoming gown of white lace made in long princess lines, with tiny puff sleeves. She carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas, carnations and roses.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mrs. J. L. Harrison of Baker, the bride's mother, and Mr. and Mrs. Ailsup and Miss Betty Becke of Gervais.

After July 1 the young couple will be home to their friends in Salem.

Townsend's Return From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Townsend, accompanied by the Misses Dorothy and Phyllis McCumber of Burke, Mont., returned to Salem Sunday after a month's trip in the middle-west and Rocky mountain states.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend spent two weeks as the guests of Mrs. Townsend's mother, Mrs. George Satterlee in Billings, Mont., before proceeding to South Dakota, where they were the guests of friends for several days. They also spent some time in Denver and Salt Lake City before returning by motor to Salem.

The Misses McCumber are cousins of Mrs. Townsend and will be her house guests for the next two weeks at the Townsend home on North Cottage street.

Silverton Maid Welcomes Roseburg Man

Silverton—A very pretty wedding was an event of Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Sylvia Rantz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Rantz of Mt. Angel, became the bride of Prentice Hovde of Silverton, son of Ole Hovde of North Dakota.

The ceremony was performed at the church parsonage with Rev. Father Berchold officiating in the single ring ceremony. Leonard Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Graham of Silverton was best man and Miss Anna Rantz, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Other attendants were Christiana Zerr and George Hovde, Little Delores Rue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rue, was flower girl.

The bride's gown was of taffeta of a pale green color heavily trimmed in real lace, designed in semi-formal style of princess type. She wore a veil and carried a large bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas. Her two attendants were gowned in pastel shades of silk and carried similar bouquets of roses in yellow and pink colors.

After a two weeks' wedding trip the young couple will make their home in Roseburg.

A reception and wedding dinner was held at the home of Mrs. Hovde's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Rantz, on Main street in Mt. Angel, immediately following the ceremony. The rooms were beautifully decorated with baskets of various colored flowers. Assisting were Mrs. Will Graham of Silverton, Mrs. N. Laudany and Mrs. Elmer Rue of Mt. Angel.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Rue, Mr. and Mrs. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ficker, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rantz, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Hermann and son George, Jr., of Seattle, Mrs. Henry Lavigne, San Francisco, Mrs. Gregory Lance of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. John Rice of Silverton, Miss Viola Schokner of Woodburn, Miss Lydia Gehreg and Anton Rantz, Jr.

Mrs. Helen Goodenough will be hostess to the members of the Security club at her home on West Rural avenue Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. E. C. Richards Honors Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Richards was hostess for an attractively appointed dinner at the Richards' home on Center street Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doney of Carlisle, Pa., who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of snap dragons and roses in delicate pastel hues. Covers were placed for nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Doney will be Salem visitors for a short time before going on to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Doney's parents before returning to their home in Pennsylvania.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph Carrothers.

Mrs. R. A. Van Cleave is in charge of the program. Mrs. Carrothers will be assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Oren Stratton, Mrs. B. L. Stevens and Mrs. Bryan.

Those wishing transportation call Mrs. John Robins at 3543.

Mrs. E. C. Richards Honors Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Richards was hostess for an attractively appointed dinner at the Richards' home on Center street Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doney of Carlisle, Pa., who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of snap dragons and roses in delicate pastel hues. Covers were placed for nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Doney will be Salem visitors for a short time before going on to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Doney's parents before returning to their home in Pennsylvania.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph Carrothers.

Mrs. R. A. Van Cleave is in charge of the program. Mrs. Carrothers will be assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Oren Stratton, Mrs. B. L. Stevens and Mrs. Bryan.

Those wishing transportation call Mrs. John Robins at 3543.

Mrs. E. C. Richards Honors Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Richards was hostess for an attractively appointed dinner at the Richards' home on Center street Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doney of Carlisle, Pa., who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of snap dragons and roses in delicate pastel hues. Covers were placed for nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Doney will be Salem visitors for a short time before going on to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Doney's parents before returning to their home in Pennsylvania.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph Carrothers.

Mrs. R. A. Van Cleave is in charge of the program. Mrs. Carrothers will be assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Oren Stratton, Mrs. B. L. Stevens and Mrs. Bryan.

Those wishing transportation call Mrs. John Robins at 3543.

Mrs. E. C. Richards Honors Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Richards was hostess for an attractively appointed dinner at the Richards' home on Center street Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doney of Carlisle, Pa., who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of snap dragons and roses in delicate pastel hues. Covers were placed for nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Doney will be Salem visitors for a short time before going on to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Doney's parents before returning to their home in Pennsylvania.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph Carrothers.

Mrs. R. A. Van Cleave is in charge of the program. Mrs. Carrothers will be assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Oren Stratton, Mrs. B. L. Stevens and Mrs. Bryan.

Those wishing transportation call Mrs. John Robins at 3543.

Mrs. E. C. Richards Honors Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Richards was hostess for an attractively appointed dinner at the Richards' home on Center street Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doney of Carlisle, Pa., who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of snap dragons and roses in delicate pastel hues. Covers were placed for nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Doney will be Salem visitors for a short time before going on to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Doney's parents before returning to their home in Pennsylvania.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph Carrothers.

Mrs. R. A. Van Cleave is in charge of the program. Mrs. Carrothers will be assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Oren Stratton, Mrs. B. L. Stevens and Mrs. Bryan.

Those wishing transportation call Mrs. John Robins at 3543.

Mrs. E. C. Richards Honors Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Richards was hostess for an attractively appointed dinner at the Richards' home on Center street Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doney of Carlisle, Pa., who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of snap dragons and roses in delicate pastel hues. Covers were placed for nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Doney will be Salem visitors for a short time before going on to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Doney's parents before returning to their home in Pennsylvania.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph Carrothers.

Mrs. R. A. Van Cleave is in charge of the program. Mrs. Carrothers will be assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Oren Stratton, Mrs. B. L. Stevens and Mrs. Bryan.

Those wishing transportation call Mrs. John Robins at 3543.

Mrs. E. C. Richards Honors Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Richards was hostess for an attractively appointed dinner at the Richards' home on Center street Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doney of Carlisle, Pa., who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of snap dragons and roses in delicate pastel hues. Covers were placed for nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Doney will be Salem visitors for a short time before going on to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Doney's parents before returning to their home in Pennsylvania.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph Carrothers.

Mrs. R. A. Van Cleave is in charge of the program. Mrs. Carrothers will be assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Oren Stratton, Mrs. B. L. Stevens and Mrs. Bryan.

Those wishing transportation call Mrs. John Robins at 3543.

Mrs. E. C. Richards Honors Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Richards was hostess for an attractively appointed dinner at the Richards' home on Center street Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doney of Carlisle, Pa., who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of snap dragons and roses in delicate pastel hues. Covers were placed for nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Doney will be Salem visitors for a short time before going on to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Doney's parents before returning to their home in Pennsylvania.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph Carrothers.

Mrs. R. A. Van Cleave is in charge of the program. Mrs. Carrothers will be assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Oren Stratton, Mrs. B. L. Stevens and Mrs. Bryan.

Those wishing transportation call Mrs. John Robins at 3543.

Mrs. E. C. Richards Honors Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Richards was hostess for an attractively appointed dinner at the Richards' home on Center street Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doney of Carlisle, Pa., who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of snap dragons and roses in delicate pastel hues. Covers were placed for nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Doney will be Salem visitors for a short time before going on to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Doney's parents before returning to their home in Pennsylvania.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph Carrothers.

Mrs. R. A. Van Cleave is in charge of the program. Mrs. Carrothers will be assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Oren Stratton, Mrs. B. L. Stevens and Mrs. Bryan.

Those wishing transportation call Mrs. John Robins at 3543.

Mrs. E. C. Richards Honors Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Richards was hostess for an attractively appointed dinner at the Richards' home on Center street Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doney of Carlisle, Pa., who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of snap dragons and roses in delicate pastel hues. Covers were placed for nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Doney will be Salem visitors for a short time before going on to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Doney's parents before returning to their home in Pennsylvania.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph Carrothers.

Mrs. R. A. Van Cleave is in charge of the program. Mrs. Carrothers will be assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Oren Stratton, Mrs. B. L. Stevens and Mrs. Bryan.

Those wishing transportation call Mrs. John Robins at 3543.

Mrs. E. C. Richards Honors Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Richards was hostess for an attractively appointed dinner at the Richards' home on Center street Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doney of Carlisle, Pa., who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of snap dragons and roses in delicate pastel hues. Covers were placed for nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Doney will be Salem visitors for a short time before going on to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Doney's parents before returning to their home in Pennsylvania.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph Carrothers.

Mrs. R. A. Van Cleave is in charge of the program. Mrs. Carrothers will be assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Oren Stratton, Mrs. B. L. Stevens and Mrs. Bryan.

Those wishing transportation call Mrs. John Robins at 3543.

Mrs. E. C. Richards Honors Visitors

Mrs. E. C. Richards was hostess for an attractively appointed dinner at the Richards' home on Center street Saturday evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Doney of Carlisle, Pa., who are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney.

The dinner table was centered with a bowl of snap dragons and roses in delicate pastel hues. Covers were placed for nine guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Doney will be Salem visitors for a short time before going on to California, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Doney's parents before returning to their home in Pennsylvania.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Joseph Carrothers.

Mrs. R. A. Van Cleave is in charge of the program. Mrs. Carrothers will be assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Oren Stratton, Mrs. B. L. Stevens and Mrs. Bryan.

Those wishing transportation call Mrs. John Robins at 3543.

Beta Chi Group Feted

Miss Minnie Shrode will be hostess for one of the most interesting affairs of the week Tuesday evening at the Shrode home on Mission street, when she will entertain the active members of the Beta Chi sorority with an informal party.

Gray summer flowers will be arranged effectively about the rooms and at the supper hour Miss Shrode will be assisted by Miss Rosalind Van Winkle.

Active Salem girls of the chapter include Miss Lila Cation, Miss Fay Cornutt, Miss Marvella Edwards, Miss Ethel Adams, Miss Alice Bartholomew, Miss Carolyn Braden, Miss Helen Boardman, Miss Florence Marshall, Miss Dorothy Dak, Miss Genevieve Emmons, Miss Ruth Pick, Miss Jean Peterson, Miss Sallia Phelps, Miss Margaret Purdum, Miss Earl Crokey, Mr. and Mrs. Hattie Ramp, Miss Doris Ross, Miss Eloise White, and Miss Shrode.

Miss Florence Young, Miss Rosalind Van Winkle, and Mrs. Mildred Emmons will be among the alumnae of Beta Chi to attend the affair.

Mrs. Elliott To Visit in East

Mrs. F. A. Elliott will leave on the first lap of an interesting trip Wednesday evening. Her first stop will be in San Francisco, where she will visit for two weeks as the guest of friends. From there Mrs. Elliott plans to go to New Orleans, and then on to Illinois, where she will spend the remainder of the summer visiting with relatives. She expects to return to Salem the early part of September.

J. U. G. Club Entertained

The J. U. G. club was entertained by Miss Lillian Kayser recently with a delightful evening party at her home.

Miss Kayser used as her decorative scheme sweet peas in the dainty pastel shades. At the supper hour the hostess was assisted in serving by her sister, Miss Louise Kayser.

Guests for the evening were the Misses Della Steward, Lenora Dennis, Frances Williams, Nova Bussey, Dorothy Walker, Hallie Lynch, Mina Olmstead, Pearl Richmond, Bessie Strong, Ruth Dake, Louise Kayser, and the hostess, Miss Lillian Kayser.

The garden of Mrs. Cora Hendry was the scene of a surprise party Saturday afternoon when a group of Mrs. Hendry's piano pupils called to compliment her upon the occasion of her birthday. Those who honored Mrs. Hendry included the Misses Elsie Seaborn, Janita Klingler, Joyce Liley, Evelyn Peterson, Eunice Johnson and Virgil Johnson and Mr. Bushnell.

Dimmer Card Club Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Knapp and Mr. and Mrs. George Moorhead are entertaining with an informal dinner party in the garden of the Knapp home on Chemeketa street Tuesday evening in compliment to the members of their evening card club.

Members of the club include Dr. and Mrs. Ruskin Blatchford, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crokey, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. George Rhoten, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Knapp and Mr. and Mrs. George Moorhead. Mrs. L. C. Kinsey will be an additional guest.

Three tables of bridge will be in play later in the evening.

Mrs. Emery Debut was Complimented

Mrs. Emery Debut was complimented Friday evening with an informal birthday surprise party by a group of intimate friends. During the evening the guests presented the honor guest with many lovely gifts, and at a late hour a supper was served.

Those hidden to wish Mrs. Debut a happy birthday were Mr. and Mrs. John Enslin, Mrs. J. S. Enslin, Miss Mary Enslin, Austin Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Kurth, Miss Helen Kurth, Miss Alice Kurth, Mr. and Mrs. William Munkers, Miss Lucille Munkers, Miss Bernice Munkers, Howard Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. George Combs, Miss Wilma Combs, Miss Merna Leah Combs, Merle Combs, Verlin Combs, John Combs, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dehut, Miss Alma Dehut, Lawrence Dehut and Emmanuel Hogate.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Steiner, and little Miss Jean Steiner spent the week-end at the Steiner summer home at Neakowin.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Robins are spending a month camping along the banks of the Metolius river. Accompanying them are several friends from Palo Alto and Berkeley, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Robins will return to Berkeley in the early fall where Mr. Robins has a teaching position.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Ohling and their two young daughters, Sarah Ann and Alice Louise, are spending the week at their summer home at Neakowin.

Miss Lois Jean Rasch of Portland is the guest of Miss Helen Darby at the W. H. Darby home on North Winter street for a few days. Miss Darby and Miss Rasch are former classmates at the University of Oregon and are members of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Miss Frances Richards of Berkeley, Calif., is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Richards, at the Richards' home on Center street. Miss Richards spent nine years as dean of women at Willamette university and her visits here are always the incentive for much entertaining in the university group. Miss Richards will visit here until early fall.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Steiner, and little Miss Jean Steiner spent the week-end at the Steiner summer home at Neakowin.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Robins are spending a month camping along the banks of the Metolius river. Accompanying them are several friends from Palo Alto and Berkeley, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Robins will return to Berkeley in the early fall where Mr. Robins has a teaching position.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Ohling and their two young daughters, Sarah Ann and Alice Louise, are spending the week at their summer home at Neakowin.

Miss Lois Jean Rasch of Portland is the guest of Miss Helen Darby at the W. H. Darby home on North Winter street for a few days. Miss Darby and Miss Rasch are former classmates at the University of Oregon and are members of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Miss Frances Richards of Berkeley, Calif., is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Richards, at the Richards' home on Center street. Miss Richards spent nine years as dean of women at Willamette university and her visits here are always the incentive for much entertaining in the university group. Miss Richards will visit here until early fall.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Steiner, and little Miss Jean Steiner spent the week-end at the Steiner summer home at Neakowin.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Robins are spending a month camping along the banks of the Metolius river. Accompanying them are several friends from Palo Alto and Berkeley, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Robins will return to Berkeley in the early fall where Mr. Robins has a teaching position.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Ohling and their two young daughters, Sarah Ann and Alice Louise, are spending the week at their summer home at Neakowin.

Miss Lois Jean Rasch of Portland is the guest of Miss Helen Darby at the W. H. Darby home on North Winter street for a few days. Miss Darby and Miss Rasch are former classmates at the University of Oregon and are members of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Miss Frances Richards of Berkeley, Calif., is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Richards, at the Richards' home on Center street. Miss Richards spent nine years as dean of women at Willamette university and her visits here are always the incentive for much entertaining in the university group. Miss Richards will visit here until early fall.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Steiner, and little Miss Jean Steiner spent the week-end at the Steiner summer home at Neakowin.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Robins are spending a month camping along the banks of the Metolius river. Accompanying them are several friends from Palo Alto and Berkeley, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Robins will return to Berkeley in the early fall where Mr. Robins has a teaching position.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Ohling and their two young daughters, Sarah Ann and Alice Louise, are spending the week at their summer home at Neakowin.

Miss Lois Jean Rasch of Portland is the guest of Miss Helen Darby at the W. H. Darby home on North Winter street for a few days. Miss Darby and Miss Rasch are former classmates at the University of Oregon and are members of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Legion Auxiliary Elects Delegates

The American Legion Auxiliary met at the Fraternal Temple Monday evening to elect delegates to the state convention, preceding the national convention which will open in Portland September 12.

Mrs. M. J. Mecklor was elected president of the group, and Mrs. F. N. Waters and Mrs. H. R. White will go as delegates.

Alternates selected were Mrs. Elbert Bradford, Mrs. Christopher Butte, and Mrs. J. T. Delaney.

The meeting Monday night will be the last one until the early fall. Plans were made to help in the Fourth of July celebration, which is being sponsored by the Legion.

Mrs. Elliott To Visit in East

Mrs. F. A. Elliott will leave on the first lap of an interesting trip Wednesday evening. Her first stop will be in San Francisco, where she will visit for two weeks as the guest of friends. From there Mrs. Elliott plans to go to New Orleans, and then on to Illinois, where she will spend the remainder of the summer visiting with relatives. She expects to return to Salem the early part of September.

J. U. G. Club Entertained

The J. U. G. club was entertained by Miss Lillian Kayser recently with a delightful evening party at her home.

Miss Kayser used as her decorative scheme sweet peas in the dainty pastel shades. At the supper hour the hostess was assisted in serving by her sister, Miss Louise Kayser.

Guests for the evening were the Misses Della Steward, Lenora Dennis, Frances Williams, Nova Bussey, Dorothy Walker, Hallie Lynch, Mina Olmstead, Pearl Richmond, Bessie Strong, Ruth Dake, Louise Kayser, and the hostess, Miss Lillian Kayser.

The garden of Mrs. Cora Hendry was the scene of a surprise party Saturday afternoon when a group of Mrs. Hendry's piano pupils called to compliment her upon the occasion of her birthday. Those who honored Mrs. Hendry included the Misses Elsie Seaborn, Janita Klingler, Joyce Liley, Evelyn Peterson, Eunice Johnson and Virgil Johnson and Mr. Bushnell.

Dimmer Card Club Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Knapp and Mr. and Mrs. George Moorhead are entertaining with an informal dinner party in the garden of the Knapp home on Chemeketa street Tuesday evening in compliment to the members of their evening card club.

Members of the club include Dr. and Mrs. Ruskin Blatchford, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crokey, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. George Rhoten, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Knapp and Mr. and Mrs. George Moorhead. Mrs. L. C. Kinsey will be an additional guest.

Three tables of bridge will be in play later in the evening.

Mrs. Emery Debut was Complimented

Mrs. Emery Debut was complimented Friday evening with an informal birthday surprise party by a group of intimate friends. During the evening the guests presented the honor guest with many lovely gifts, and at a late hour a supper was served.

Those hidden to wish Mrs. Debut a happy birthday were Mr. and Mrs. John Enslin, Mrs. J. S. Enslin, Miss Mary Enslin, Austin Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Kurth, Miss Helen Kurth, Miss Alice Kurth, Mr. and Mrs. William Munkers, Miss Lucille Munkers, Miss Bernice Munkers, Howard Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. George Combs, Miss Wilma Combs, Miss Merna Leah Combs, Merle Combs, Verlin Combs, John Combs, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dehut, Miss Alma Dehut, Lawrence Dehut and Emmanuel Hogate.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Steiner, and little Miss Jean Steiner spent the week-end at the Steiner summer home at Neakowin.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Robins are spending a month camping along the banks of the Metolius river. Accompanying them are several friends from Palo Alto and Berkeley, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Robins will return to Berkeley in the early fall where Mr. Robins has a teaching position.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Ohling and their two young daughters, Sarah Ann and Alice Louise, are spending the week at their summer home at Neakowin.

Miss Lois Jean Rasch of Portland is the guest of Miss Helen Darby at the W. H. Darby home on North Winter street for a few days. Miss Darby and Miss Rasch are former classmates at the University of Oregon and are members of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Miss Frances Richards of Berkeley, Calif., is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Richards, at the Richards' home on Center street. Miss Richards spent nine years as dean of women at Willamette university and her visits here are always the incentive for much entertaining in the university group. Miss Richards will visit here until early fall.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Steiner, and little Miss Jean Steiner spent the week-end at the Steiner summer home at Neakowin.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Robins are spending a month camping along the banks of the Metolius river. Accompanying them are several friends from Palo Alto and Berkeley, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Robins will return to Berkeley in the early fall where Mr. Robins has a teaching position.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Ohling and their two young daughters, Sarah Ann and Alice Louise, are spending the week at their summer home at Neakowin.

Miss Lois Jean Rasch of Portland is the guest of Miss Helen Darby at the W. H. Darby home on North Winter street for a few days. Miss Darby and Miss Rasch are former classmates at the University of Oregon and are members of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Miss Frances Richards of Berkeley, Calif., is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Richards, at the Richards' home on Center street. Miss Richards spent nine years as dean of women at Willamette university and her visits here are always the incentive for much entertaining in the university group. Miss Richards will visit here until early fall.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Steiner, and little Miss Jean Steiner spent the week-end at the Steiner summer home at Neakowin.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Robins are spending a month camping along the banks of the Metolius river. Accompanying them are several friends from Palo Alto and Berkeley, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Robins will return to Berkeley in the early fall where Mr. Robins has a teaching position.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Ohling and their two young daughters, Sarah Ann and Alice Louise, are spending the week at their summer home at Neakowin.

Miss Lois Jean Rasch of Portland is the guest of Miss Helen Darby at the W. H. Darby home on North Winter street for a few days. Miss Darby and Miss Rasch are former classmates at the University of Oregon and are members of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Miss Frances Richards of Berkeley, Calif., is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Richards, at the Richards' home on Center street. Miss Richards spent nine years as dean of women at Willamette university and her visits here are always the incentive for much entertaining in