

BONDHOLDERS OF FISCHERS WILL HOLD INTERVIEW

Silverton—The committee appointed by John Hoblit, temporary chairman of the meeting of the bondholders and Fischer at a recent session, included John Hoblit, Alf O. Nelson and Ed Nelson, for the purpose of interviewing the bondholders and reporting back their findings.

The report includes information that the insurance on the buildings has expired, and that the bondholders do not favor the Fischer plan of reorganization as submitted by Attorney Winslow on behalf of Fischer at the recent meeting.

The plan, briefly, provided for a reorganization of the group with an exchange of bonds for preferred stock, no stock to be sold, and the exchange to be dollar for dollar.

Only about half of the bondholders were present at the meeting and the general sentiment of those seemed to favor the Fischer plan, but the dissenting came from the majority on the interviews from the committee.

DUNNIGAN HONORED BY SURPRISE PARTY

Hazel Green—A group of relatives and friends gathered Wednesday evening for a surprise party for Will Dunnigan, Jr., at the home of his parents the occasion being his birthday anniversary. Games and music were played during the evening. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Edward Dunnigan, Jr., Mrs. Maurice Dunnigan, Mrs. Lloyd Hawley and Mrs. Adolph Kittleman.

The guest list included Clara La Valley, Margaret Dunnigan, Helen Way, Nora Rutherford, June Dunnigan, Doris Masole, Marion Wampler, Hazel Weston, Edna Rutherford, Harriett Dunnigan, Lucille Dunnigan, Harry Way, Leonard Paist, Jack Fassett, Vernon Chapman, Donald Dunnigan, Clinton Wampler, Leonard Rutherford, Orville Dunnigan, Sanford Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Royd Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Kittleman, Mrs. Maurice Dunnigan, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dunnigan, Jr., Mrs. Louis Wampler.

Africa Missionary To Speak Sunday

Scotts Mills—Mrs. Thomas Bailey of Eugene, president of the Oregon Christian Missionary organization, who gave a talk on the missionary work at the Christian church here a short time ago, has arranged to have Miss Hattie Mitchell, returned missionary from Africa, speak Sunday at both morning and evening services. She will sing and speak in the native language, besides telling many things of interest. Miss Mitchell is a Salem girl, supported in her foreign work by the First Christian church of Salem, her home church.

Depot At Marion Open Nights Only

Marion—Mr. Harding of Independence is serving as night operator at the depot during the absence of S. E. Roland. Mr. and Mrs. Roland are taking a ten-day vacation. The S. P. depot has been closed here, only a night operator being retained. Roland has been agent for 14 years. W. O. Simons, who was night operator here, has a similar position at Junction City.

Mrs. Olin Hostess

Mill City—Mrs. F. R. Olin was hostess Tuesday at a 1 o'clock luncheon at her home when she entertained in honor of Mrs. F. L. Dille of Portland and Mrs. A. C. Charters of Sacramento, Calif. Following the luncheon two tables of contract bridge were in play. The guests being Mrs. Andrew L. Baker, Mrs. W. W. Allen, Mrs. C. C. Cline, Miss Ethel Mickey, Mrs. R. C. Sauter, Mrs. A. A. Holthaus and the guests of honor, Mrs. Dille and Mrs. Charters.

MRS. WORKING INJURED

Kingwood—Mrs. Evelyn Working, who lives with her family in the McCall place on Cascade drive, fell in the yard Wednesday afternoon, severely injuring, spraining and breaking the bones in one limb. The children ran for assistance and Mr. and Mrs. Bert B. Flack, a neighbor of Dr. White of Salem, Mrs. Working's brother succeeded in getting the injured woman into Dr. White's car and he took her to a Salem hospital.

RESIDENCE IS MOVED

Solo—The residence building used at the Solo cannery has been moved to an opening a short distance south of the former location and will be repaired and remodelled. J. D. Demore, Jr., and family will occupy the building, it is stated. Hobart Hoagland had charge of the moving of the building.

HAILETS ARE HOSTS

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hallett were hosts to the group of evangelists of which Mrs. Edith Clark is leader at their home Thursday afternoon. A large number of friends attended. The Clarks are conducting a series of services at tent meetings here.

HOLDEN IS RECOVERING

Silverton—Ed Holden, who has been in the Silverton General hospital for more than two weeks, under treatment for a crushed shoulder, sustained when he fell between the mill dock and a car loaded with lumber, was able to have his shoulder and a portion of his body placed in a cast Wednesday. His condition is satisfactory and hopes are entertained for his speedy recovery.

Aumsville—Miss Leota Bradley is spending a two weeks vacation at the home of her parents. She is a student nurse at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland.

Silverton Makes Convention Plans

Silverton—Fred Mehl of the Homeowners' Agency, and Dr. A. J. McConnell, commander of the local post of the American Legion, went to Portland Wednesday and completed arrangements for the Silverton headquarters at the Legion National convention to be held from September 12 to 15. A Silverton community exhibit is planned for, by way of advertising the farm products, especially, that are grown in this part of the valley.

DALLAS LODGE HOLDS SOCIAL

Dallas—Mistletoe Circle No. 33, Neighbors of Woodcraft, held a meeting Wednesday night.

A regular business session, short and brief, occupied the early part of the program, after which the members of the circle thimble club took charge of the affair with Levin Patterson as master of ceremonies. M. C. started the ball rolling by calling upon Grand Advisor Edith Parks to deliver the address of welcome to the neighbors and friends who were present.

This was followed by everyone singing the first verse of "America." Other numbers on an excellent program were readings by Freda Peterson and Gertrude Dowling and the singing of an up and down song by two teams, each of three members of the order.

CARD PARTY GIVEN SILVERTON PARISH

Silverton—At the card party given at the church hall of St. Paul's Catholic parish Wednesday evening by the St. Monica's Altar society, Father Charles Raymond and Mrs. W. Stibber scored high.

Another social night of the series will be given in two weeks with the local committee, including Mrs. T. Reeling, chairman, assisted by Mrs. W. Fry of Scotts Mills, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. J. H. McCullough and Frank Irons of Salem won consolation.

The entire congregation is interested in the ice cream social that is open to the public to be given on Sunday evening August 21, on the porch lawn, with Mrs. Lillian De Rye in general charge of the committee, assisted by the following sub-chairmen: Mrs. O. H. McCullough, Mrs. Otto Schwab and Mrs. L. B. Scharback.

Three Table Card Evening Enjoyed

Mt. Angel—Mrs. Alfred A. Klingner entertained her bridge club Wednesday evening at her home. Three tables of bridge were in play during the evening with high score honors being awarded to Mrs. Frank Aman, Mrs. Nick G. Mickel received the draw prize. Luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Letitia Zollner, Miss Olive Klingner and Miss Gertrude Berning of Woodburn. Members of the club include Mrs. P. N. Smith, Mrs. R. O. Appleby, Mrs. Henry Saffeld, Mrs. G. D. Ebner, Mrs. Frank Meid, Mrs. John T. Bauman, Mrs. Frank Aman, Mrs. Clement J. Berning, Mrs. Robert Zollner and Mrs. N. G. Mickel.

MAKES TRIP WITH TEAM

Hazel Green—Ellsworth Luckey, who has been a guest at the home of his brother, Orville Luckey, for the past month, has left for his claim at Brownville. He was accompanied by his nephew, Ernest Luckey, who will remain with his uncle indefinitely. Following the trend of others Luckey has abandoned his car and made the trip with his team.

MRS. ANTRIM INJURED

Unionvale—Mrs. George Antrim of this neighborhood, while a guest Wednesday at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lawrence at Grand Island, fell in the yard, breaking her right arm just below the shoulder joint. She was taken to Salem where she received surgical care and was then taken to the home of another son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Thornton.

VISITING AT HOMER

Hopmore—Miss Constance Buchanan of Portland is making an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Buchanan of South Prairie, and her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Buchanan of Hopmore. Mrs. Neva Kelly of Portland Sunday visited her father, who is recovering from a slight paralytic stroke, and to visit her mother and her son, Howard Kelly.

SAILED ON FUKUOCH

Hopmore—Edward T. Williams of San Francisco, who has a position at sea, is spending a six weeks vacation visiting relatives. He recently returned from south China and the Philippine Islands. He spent Friday at the home of L. H. Martin, visiting his brother, Alexander Williams, and his aunt, Mrs. Vera Keenan of Portland, and has gone on to his home in San Francisco for the remainder of his vacation.

RETURNING TO BAKER

Silverton—Mrs. J. C. Bowen and her son, Alton, of Baker, who have been guests of Mrs. Bowen's daughter, Annville Bowen, for the past month, will return to their home Saturday. Many social events have been given for Mrs. Bowen during her stay here.

SHAW—MR. AND MRS. J. ... TOWLE

Shaw and son George motored to Gresham to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Towle and Mr. and Mrs. George Towle of Minneapolis, Minn., who is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Towle. They also visited relatives at Portland and Troutdale.

CHUMAWA—WILLIAM SHERMAN

Chumawa—William Sherman has returned from a hurried trip to La Jolla, Calif., where he was called by the illness of his sister, Mrs. W. L. White. Mrs. White's condition is considered quite serious.

TENTH ANNUAL HATTON TRIBE REUNION HELD

Molalla—The tenth annual Hattton reunion was held at the Clear Creek park at Carver. This is on the donation land claim of Mark and Emily Hattton who came here in the early days and settled. The place is now owned by a son Charles Hattton and the reunion is held there annually.

At the business meeting Chester Hattton was elected president; James Hattton Jr. vice president; Mrs. E. K. Dart of Molalla secretary treasurer. Mrs. Ed Farr, Mrs. George Olm and Vera Hattton are the managing committee.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Hattton and Grant and John Hattton Junior, Mr. and Mrs. George Olm, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hattton, Ray and Vera Hattton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hattton, Chester, Doris and Alda Hattton, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Hattton, Arnold, Dallas, and Donald Hattton all of Carver; Mr. and Mrs. James Hattton, Beth, James Junior and Ted Hattton, Mrs. Edie St. Clair and sons Hal and Rex, Jack Bernard all of Portland; Mrs. Eliza Watts, Mrs. E. K. Dart, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cordill, Leona, Alvin, Idora, and Ross Cordill, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sowell and son Wallace, Clifford Phelps, Donald Schoenborn all of Molalla; Mr. and Mrs. E. Parr and son Marvin, Jerry Hemmings, Mrs. Emma Little all of Oregon City; Mrs. Harry Wilkins and son Billy of Woodburn; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McFarlane of Kelso, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Munpower, Ray Dillion all of Gladstone.

RHOTEN SELECTED TRIBAL PATRIARCH

Marion—Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Robbins and children, Harold and Lucille, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Barber and family and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Barber attended a reunion of the Rhoten family at Hager's grove.

Others present were Mrs. J. H. Rhoten, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Rhoten, Mrs. Zela Lisle and son Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Boyce and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Yocom and family, Mrs. J. L. Yocom and daughter Mary, Mrs. Harriett Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lewis, and Rex and Ray Rhoten, of Salem; Royal George of Macleay, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Yocom and family of Eugene.

A basket dinner was served at noon. Games and swimming were the diversion of the afternoon with lunch served in the evening. E. A. Rhoten was unanimously re-elected president and Mrs. Gladys Boyce as secretary-treasurer.

Book and Thimble Club Entertained

Kingwood—Members of the Book and Thimble club were invited to the home of Mrs. Robert Pattison of West Salem for a birthday surprise party for her mother-in-law, Mrs. Anna Pattison, a former member of the club, Wednesday afternoon. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Rollin Beaver and Mrs. Catharine Applewhite.

Club members present included the honor guest, Mrs. Anna Pattison, Mrs. L. F. Brown, Mrs. Hettie Simpkins, Mrs. Ross Danrell, Mrs. Mary Weaver, Mrs. Charles Hattton, Mrs. Ray Peterson, Mrs. Charles Schwartz, Mrs. Avery Applewhite, Mrs. Ray Lacey, Mrs. Edna D. Cook of Kingwood, and from West Salem Mesdames Guy Newgent, Jack A. Gosser, William L. Day, Nicholas Bradley, Miss Lettie McAdams and the hostess, Mrs. Robert Pattison.

MRS. BIGELOW STRICKEN

Molalla—Mrs. Alice Bigelow suffered a slight stroke of paralysis last night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. H. Newman, Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Walker and sons Raymond and Norman of Vale, Oregon, arrived Monday. Mrs. Walker is also a daughter of Mrs. Bigelow.

LEAVE FOR OHIO

Mill City—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Browning of Toledo, Ohio, who have been the guests of the Collins family in Gates, left for their home in Ohio Wednesday. While in the west Mr. and Mrs. Browning motored and saw hundreds of miles into the interior of Canada, visiting the Peace river country. While in Canada they were guests of the W. A. Carson family, parents of Mrs. Bud Collins.

DENVER MAN VISITS

Marion—C. E. Allen of Denver is a guest of his grandchildren, Miriam and Florence Allen, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Winn. Last week the girls met him in Portland and visited in Seattle and other places before returning to the Winn home this week.

PANTHORIUM SOLD

Silverton—Larry Carpenter, formerly of the Coopers' cleaners, has purchased the Panthorium, for a number of years managed by A. H. Carpenter's new place of business is located in the Digerness building on Oak street.

KINGWOOD—MR. ELMER E. HALL

Kingwood—Mr. Elmer E. Hall and daughter, Marie Louise, and son, Glenn of Glasgow, Mo., and her nephew, James Puck of Shelton, Wash., arrived here by motor to visit with Mrs. Hall's husband's parents the Robert Halls of Laurel Crest, Cascade Drive, for a few days visit. Mrs. Hall and the children have spent the summer in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Hall, having left Montana in May and will leave for her home soon. Before leaving here they will visit Mrs. T. A. Hauge, a former resident of Glasgow, in Salem. This is the second trip of the Halls to Salem, the whole family having vacationed here a year ago.

WEST SALEM—MR. AND MRS. GEORGE T. ANDY

West Salem—Mr. and Mrs. George T. Andy and daughter, Josephine, of Tandy avenue, are expected home Sunday from a fortnight's vacation at Cannon Beach.

NEW COMMERCE SECRETARY AND HIS FAMILY

Roy Dikeman Chapin, newly appointed secretary of commerce, is shown here at his home at Grossa Pointe Farms, a Detroit suburb, with Mrs. Chapin and their six children. Mrs. Chapin is holding the youngest child, Marian. The others from left to right are: Roy, Jr., Joan, Danny, Sally and Jack. (Associated Press Photo)

PARISH BUILDING AIDED BY PICNIC

Woodburn, Ore.—The annual picnic of the St. Lukes parish will be held Sunday, at the Woodburn city park. Father Rubis is in charge of the affair. A chicken dinner will be served at noon by the women of the parish, under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Nibler, president of the Altar society.

A baseball game between the St. Paul Millers and the Woodburn Junior American Legion teams will be played at Legion park at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Walter L. Toomey, Jr., Portland attorney and former Woodburn resident, will be the main speaker at the picnic. Proceeds from the affair will be added to the building fund for the new St. Lukes church.

Andersen Offered Birthday Surprise

Hayesville—Compiling her husband on his birthday anniversary, Mrs. C. E. Andersen entertained at four tables of cards Tuesday evening at her home. A winning high score for the women's prize for the evening was held by Mrs. Oscar Denner and for the men by L. M. Case. The honor guest also received numerous gifts. Refreshments were served by the hosts assisted by Mrs. Rose Lucas and Mrs. Leodora Jones.

Friends hidden by Mrs. Andersen in honor of her husband were Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Case, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Denner, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Siegmund, Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Andersen, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fiecke, Mrs. Rose Lucas and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Greig.

Stand Is Erected

Hopmore—Britt Aspinwall has built a four foot stand near his home and is shipping peaches to Portland. The warm weather caused peaches to ripen fast in this section. Peach growers have formed an association, called the Willamette Valley Peach Growers association, and practically all the growers have joined. It was organized Tuesday at the C. M. LaFlette place. Aspinwall expects to have about 5000 bushels of peaches.

MRS. BIGELOW STRICKEN

Molalla—Mrs. Alice Bigelow suffered a slight stroke of paralysis last night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. H. Newman, Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Walker and sons Raymond and Norman of Vale, Oregon, arrived Monday. Mrs. Walker is also a daughter of Mrs. Bigelow.

WALKS TO PARTY

Hopmore—Mrs. Benham, housekeeper at the Egan brothers ranch, celebrated her 68th birthday by walking from here to Salem to be present at a birthday party given for her and her great grandson, whose birthdays fall on the same date.

OSBORNES AT CAMP

Hopmore—Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Osborn motored to Gladstone park Sunday to the camp meeting and while there were the guests of Mrs. Mabel Smith of Salem. About 2000 people were in attendance. Donald Osborn of Wheatland, their grandson, drove the car. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Osborn and children, Leroy, Eldon and Richard, have moved from near St. Paul to the Egan place, where Osborn is employed.

Pioneer—Mrs. Hugh Clark and small son have been visiting Mrs. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Benson, for several days. Mrs. Benson was called to another daughter's home Sunday to care for this daughter who is ill.

MILL CITY—MR. AND MRS. GEORGE LEE

Mill City—Mr. and Mrs. George Lee and children, Ardella, George, Jr., and Olin of Prosser, Wash., were guests at the C. L. Atwood home Wednesday, enroute to Corvallis where they will visit.

Today Tomorrow

Back to the RIO GRANDE "South of the Rio Grande" Home Owned Theatre

Beall Will Give Services Sunday

West Salem—Rev. Hayes Beall will preach in Ford Memorial church on Sunday. A special music number in the evening will be a vocal solo "O Divine Redeemer", Gounod, by Miss Ruth Bedford.

LARGE ONION HOUSE BUILT FOR STUFFEL

Hayesville—C. J. Stuffel has just recently finished the construction of a building to be used as an onion storage house, located on the corner of his farm at the intersection of the Pacific highway and the Chumawa road.

The structure is 40x48 feet and is so constructed that it has 18 bins, nine on each side of the building, each having five shelves for storage which reach to the top of the building. The capacity of the 90 shelves is estimated at eight tons. Stuffel owns eight acres of lake land which is planted to onions this year; the stand being one of the best in this section. It will only be a matter of a few weeks until the onions will be pulled and left to dry before storing in the onion house for winter sale.

Dry Forces Called

Dayton—A mass meeting to organize the dry forces of Dayton and vicinity will be held at the Dayton Methodist church Monday evening, August 15. Rev. Roy W. Nelson, pastor of the McMinnville Presbyterian church, will be present to assist the local pastors.

HARRIS FAMILY LEAVES

West Salem—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wurm and children Thekla and Carl have had as their house guests for 10 days Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harris and sons Wayne and Richard of Montebello, near Los Angeles. Mrs. Harris is a sister of Mrs. Wurm and a former resident of this city. She will be remembered as Miss Lena Stanton. Saturday the two families motored to Tumwater, Wash., and visited with their cousins, the Homer Phillips family. They returned here Monday and Wednesday the Harris family started on the return trip home.

WALKS TO PARTY

Hopmore—Mrs. Benham, housekeeper at the Egan brothers ranch, celebrated her 68th birthday by walking from here to Salem to be present at a birthday party given for her and her great grandson, whose birthdays fall on the same date.

OSBORNES AT CAMP

Hopmore—Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Osborn motored to Gladstone park Sunday to the camp meeting and while there were the guests of Mrs. Mabel Smith of Salem. About 2000 people were in attendance. Donald Osborn of Wheatland, their grandson, drove the car. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Osborn and children, Leroy, Eldon and Richard, have moved from near St. Paul to the Egan place, where Osborn is employed.

Pioneer—Mrs. Hugh Clark and small son have been visiting Mrs. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Benson, for several days. Mrs. Benson was called to another daughter's home Sunday to care for this daughter who is ill.

MILL CITY—MR. AND MRS. GEORGE LEE

Mill City—Mr. and Mrs. George Lee and children, Ardella, George, Jr., and Olin of Prosser, Wash., were guests at the C. L. Atwood home Wednesday, enroute to Corvallis where they will visit.

Today Tomorrow

Back to the RIO GRANDE "South of the Rio Grande" Home Owned Theatre

ANNUAL RALLY OF LUTHERANS IS AUGUST 21

Silverton—The annual rally of the Lutheran churches will be held at the Sunset Home in Eugene in an all day meeting Sunday, August 21, with Rev. J. M. Jensen, pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran church of Silverton, presiding as chairman of the business session and of the program.

During the afternoon, Judge Lawrence T. Harris of Eugene will be the principal speaker and the visiting guests will be taken over the city in cars by the junior chamber of commerce.

Regular services of a devotional order will be the forenoon program with short sermons delivered by Rev. P. O. Bruland and Rev. C. L. Foss. Rev. Halvor Rogen of Woodburn, president of the board of directors of the Sunset home will dedicate the new chapel. Rev. J. D. Rundsvold of Portland will close the day's program with a description of his recent trip to China. Vocal and instrumental music will also be part of the entertainment.

An invitation to this rally is extended to all who are interested in this modern village of cottages for elderly people who wish to make their home there. Visiting families will bring their basket lunches. Coffee and cream will be served free by the Sunset Home. Confectionery and ice cream may be bought on the grounds. The members of the Sunset Home classify themselves as families of the home and individual cottages for residents of the home there is a 13 acre ranch from which vegetables and other commodities are furnished. The Immanuel and Trinity churches are dismissing for the occasion.

New Willing Worker Club Is Organized

Mechana—A number of women gathered at the Floyd Boyington home Wednesday afternoon and organized a club known as the "Mechana Willing Workers." The object of this club is to fix clothes for any needy family and to help the church in any way they can. Funds will be raised by small dues and quilting. Mrs. F. A. Boyington was elected president; Mrs. Clinton Phillips, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. LeRoy Ledgerwood, custodian.

Those present were Mesdames Giles Wagner, LeRoy Ledgerwood, James Blum, Boone Boyner, Floyd Monroe, Clinton Phillips, M. E. Phillips, L. A. Dickson, T. Cardwell and F. A. Boyington.

Marion—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. George

Marion—Mr. and Mrs. C. A. George attended the reunion of the Vick family on Croisan creek.

Molalla Residents Have Summer Visit

Molalla—Miss Laura Jarmon came Monday and is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Ridings. Miss Jarmon was home economics teacher in the Molalla union high school for two years while Mrs. Ridings was commercial teacher. Miss Jarmon has taught for two years at Alascadero, Calif., and will teach home economics next term at Newman, Calif. Mrs. W. A. Bean, mother of Mrs. Ridings whose home is at Silverton arrived Tuesday to spend several days with her daughter, Miss Helma Carpenter who also formerly taught in the Molalla union high school came from Portland Wednesday and was a guest of Mrs. Ridings.

CROWN MILLS BUY SILVERTON PLANT

Silverton—Negotiations were practically complete here Thursday night whereby the Crown Mills purchased the Longmiller flouring mills at Silverton. Announcement was made by Alf O. Nelson, president of Home Seekers' agency, handling the local end of the deal. Crown Mills will take possession the first of the week.

Rickey Sunshine Club Has Picnic

Rickey—Members of the Rickey Sunshine club and families motored to Coziers Picnic Beach Sunday, for a picnic.

Those attending the picnic were: Mr. and Mrs. C. McNeil and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hacke, Mr. and Mrs. J. Janner and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. Janner, Mr. and Mrs. C. Courtner and family, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Beard and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. Carothers and family, Mrs. G. Gilham, Mrs. F. Beth, George Gilham, and F. Carothers.

FARMER UNION MEETS

Marion—A large crowd was in attendance at the Farmers' Union meeting at the hall. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Roland were invited guests. A short program was given and refreshments were served.

FREE! FREE!

Cut Out Toys To All MICKEY MICE Saturday, 1:00 P. M. at WARNER BROS. ELSONORE

ADDED Roy Mack—Caroline Noud—Eleanor Brazau and other joy makers

WARNER BROS. Elsinore

STARTS Today Hollywood

YOU'VE BEEN DAMNED AND PRAISED!

through your gates stream the thousands—hopeful—desiring—never knowing where the road may lead—glory—despair—they want to be stars—famous—hear their prayer—

Monmouth—Leonard Nelson and Clarence Solberg arrived in Monmouth Thursday after nine days of hitch-hiking from Turtle Lake, Wis. Nelson is a nephew of N. A. Nelson and has a brother, Raymond Nelson, working in Monmouth. After a few days' visit the boys will start hitch-hiking back.

LEISURES ON TRIP

West Salem—Mr. and Mrs. Tillman Leisure have gone on a ten days' vacation trip to Dea and on about 17 miles farther into the logging neighborhood where they expect to meet acquaintances. They rode a motorcycle with side car as far as Dea and then boarded a speeder for the balance of the way.

Silverton—Dr. A. E. Wrightman, Jr., connected with the Multnomah hospital of Portland, is planning a visit of a week in Silverton at the home of his mother, Mrs. Helen M. Wrightman, and his father, Dr. A. E. Wrightman. He will be in Washington the succeeding week with friends, after which he will resume his practice in Portland.

West Salem—Mrs. A. C. Henning

West Salem—Mrs. A. C. Henning and niece, Miss Barbara Armstrong, have returned from a ten days' outing and visit with Mrs. Henningsen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Palmrose, and other friends at Seaside and Astoria.

FAME!

The harder he tried to be a great actor—the funnier he was... But fate and a pretty blonde kicked him into stardom!