SEEK GANGSTERS FOR BOMBING JURIST'S HOME Chicago, Sept. 21 (AP)—Gangster Louis, principal of a militant campaign for their extermination, waged by Judge John P. McGoorty, were hunted today as the men who bombed the jurist's home, blinding a youth and injuring a young mother.

Continuation of—ROOSEVELT (From page one) special train to Portland during the night.

Continuation of—HANGMAN DIES (From page one) officiated in the administration of the death penalty when hanging, electrocution and the garrote were used.

Continuation of—FARM STRIKE (From page one) the strike of gaining relief and hence the cause is hopeless.

Continuation of—MAHATMA GANDHI (From page one) of the British government. He decided to fast for an hour and a half only water after his noon meal yesterday until he dies or a satisfactory settlement of the communal question is reached.

Continuation of—LA FOLLETTE LOSES (From page one) defeat because he had shared in the campaign to ward it off and because his fellow progressive, Senator John F. Blaine, according to the vote of 2,237 out of the state's 2,899 precincts, was trailing John B. Chapple, a young and militant editor of Ashland, by more than 15,000.

Continuation of—RUSSIA JOINS (From page one) ingress, curtailing its huge land forces, curtailing its general rearmament of world troops, particularly the German situation, accounts for the anxiety.
