

WILLAMETTE OPENS CONFERENCE SEASON TONIGHT

Albany Furnishes Strong Opposition To Bearcat Hopes

Fully realizing that so-called "upset spots" in football schedules have the bad habit of upsetting all dope and developing into affairs ruinous to championship hopes, Coach "Spec" Keene of Willamette university is preparing to send his strongest aggregation against Albany college when the Pirates invade Salem Friday night at 8 o'clock for the first Northwest conference contest on Sweetland field. A perusal of the starting lineup shows that Weisser and Jocklich, two of the sweetest tackles in the conference will be on the field at the opening whistle.

PROBABLE LINEUP

Willamette	Albany
Kaiser 5	ler Wilson 43
Jocklich 7	lr Miller 40
Felton 21	gr Kaffer 25
Granillo 16	c Leflar 42
Boyd 18	rpl Sudteli 24
Weisser 14	rli Hauswirth 33
Gribble 17	rel Lewelling 38
Prantz 1	q Dowling 22
Jones 9	lhr Keith 26
Oravec 2	rhl Buchanan 23
Olsen 24	f Woodring 41

while Boyd and Felton, guards who have displayed a world of fight in games to date, will be in there too. Granillo will hold down his regular berth at center with Kaiser, Gribble or Connors on the wings. Whether Gribble or Connors will start at right end depends upon which side wins the toss at the start of the game.

In the backfield will be Olson, fullback, Oravec and Jones has and Prantz quarter. Olson hit his stride with a bang at Caldwell last week and displayed a drive equal to 200 pounds of concentrated dynamite. Jones, playing his first year behind the forward wall, has not had much opportunity to carry the ball but has picked up the duties of blocking half remarkably well. Learning that Oravec is an extremely dangerous open field runner, posing kickers, are doing all they can to keep this fleet footed freshman from catching punts. Whether Albany has a man who can place his kicks remains to be seen.

The Bearcats displayed a lot of fight during their mid-week work-out, apparently having cast off the feeling of inertia which seized them after the game against Idaho last Friday night.

Coach Lappenbusch of Albany, starting at the bottom to build a strong foundation of defense is now branching out in the matter of offense and will invade Salem with his players in the frame of mind to put everything they have in to the fight. Each successive game the Pirates have played this year has been a better one and there is nothing in the cards to show that the contest Friday night will be anything but a real battle. Willamette cannot afford to lose while the Pirate have everything to win by staging an upset.

CARDS FAVORED TO TAKE GAME WITH TROJANS

San Francisco, Oct. 21 (AP)—Headling important Pacific Coast conference football games tomorrow, University of Southern California Trojans and Stanford university Cardinals, rivals in many years of bitter grid competition, will meet at Palo Alto.

An almost-capacity crowd of approximately 40,000 fans is expected to watch Pop Warner's red and white warriors take the field as favorites to defeat their southern opponents for the first time since 1926.

The game is regarded here as probably the football "natural" of the coast this season. Both teams are unbeaten this year. U.S.C. is last year's defending champion, and Stanford, with a list of increasing impressive showings, appears to be headed toward the top. The outcome of the contest may be a critical point in the conference race.

Three other well-matched conference games also are listed on the week-end slate.

The Washington State Cougars invade Corvallis for a tussle with Coach Schissler's Orangemen while Oregon will attempt to break into the win column at the expense of the University of Idaho Vandals at Moscow.

Skits and Scratches

Although humbled by the College of Puget Sound Loggers a couple of weeks ago, Eldon Jenne's Pacific university Badgers should not be counted out of the Northwest conference picture for the season, Saturday's game between Pacific and Whitman in Portland, however, should determine whether the Loggers will be in the running. Jenne has a wealth of backfield material. Jack Kilfitts, one of the fastest men in the conference, plays one of the halfback positions while Al Weinel, quarter, is a triple threat man of considerable ability.

Pacific was defeated last week by Ashland Normal, but at that time Jenne used his second string most of the way. The contest with the Loggers resulted in the Badgers receiving many injuries. These will have almost entirely disappeared by the time they meet the Missionaries in Portland. With Whitman and Pacific each having been beaten by the Loggers, the loser in Portland Saturday will virtually be out of the running.

Coach Keene at Willamette is having a tough time impressing his players that Friday night's game with Albany college will be a real contest. The Pirates have been cuffed around all season by opposing teams and they will doubtless come here in no amiable frame of mind. Last year when the Pirates came here rated as having less than no chance at all against the Bearcats, they caused Coach Keene no end of nervousness by their passing attack which resulted in two touchdowns. Willamette won 25 to 13 but it was a ball game all the way.

Wanted: One goal post. Same to be erected on the south end of Leslie junior high's football field. The original uprights and crossbar were stolen some time during the early fall by some unnamed miscreant. The goal post was not needed Wednesday, however, since neither the juniors nor Dallas was able to score.

Gurnee Flesher, coach at Leslie, is having a hard time to finance his team. With no student body organization in existence there is no fund to draw upon for incidental expenses. In spite of the lack of money, members of the squad make a good appearance. Some one evidently has been taking care of the equipment which was left over from last year. The players run to small sizes this year, a pair of guards weighing 130 pounds each. They are hustlers, however, and make their presence felt.

Injured Gridman Expected To Live

Moraga, Cal., Oct. 21 (AP)—Henry Lawler St. Mary's College sophomore, will recover from injuries received yesterday in an intra-mural football game between sophomores and juniors, physicians believed today.

Lawler suffered fractured fourth and fifth vertebrae while making a tackle.

He is not a member of the Gael's varsity squad and donned a suit only for yesterday's class game.

Hot Soup Program Starts, Fairview

Fairview—Children attending the Fairview school will have a daily treat awaiting them starting next Monday. Mrs. Nellie Wiederkehr, superintendent of the Sunday school; Mrs. Kerney Stoutenburg, a teacher, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dixon were the adults assisting.

PURCHASE BOYS' HOME.
Turner—Rev. E. J. Gilstrap, pastor of the Turner Christian church, with his family, has moved from the Davis property into the beautiful Turner boys' memorial home which he recently bought. It had not been occupied for the past six months since the boys' home was closed, and the matron, Miss Bernice Souder, returned to her home in the east. The new home of the Gilstrap family will be known as "Mill Creek Home" and plans are being worked out to have a convalescent home in the future. The structure is of tile and has 12 spacious rooms.

Taffy Pull Staged

Unionvale—Thirty young people of this neighborhood attended a Halloween party and taffy-pull at the Evangelical Ladies' Aid room Tuesday evening. Mrs. D. E. Bart-ruff, superintendent of the Sunday school; Mrs. Kerney Stoutenburg, a teacher, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dixon were the adults assisting.

FOOTBALL TODAY!

The first Northwest conference football game of the season for Salem fans will be played Friday night at 8 o'clock under the arc lights on Sweetland field. Willamette, with a fair chance to win the title this year will meet the Albany college Pirates. The Pirates are expected to "take to the air" in an effort to upset the dope and trim the Bearcats.

BEAVERS REST IN ANTICIPATION OF COUGAR GAME

Corvallis, Ore., Oct. 21 (AP)—Just a light work-out today, then the Orangemen of Oregon State college will retire to rest until tomorrow afternoon when they will meet the Washington State Cougars in a Pacific Coast conference football game on Bell field here.

Coach Paul J. Schissler cast an apocalyptic eye over his men today and found them all in the best of condition, with the exception of the veteran center, Curtin, injured last Sunday in an automobile accident in Portland.

Local fans were let in for a little surprise when Coach Schissler announced today the lineup he will start against the Cougars. Joslin will start at fullback instead of Little, and Blacone was switched from quarter to left half.

The struggle Saturday will be the 22nd game between the two schools. Oregon State has won 11 victories, Washington State 9 and one game was a tie.

Lappenbusch Makes Changes In Lineup

Albany, Ore., Oct. 20 — Coach Charles Lappenbusch and his entire squad of 30 football players, supported by a concourse of Albany college students and Albany people will descend upon Sweetland grid-iron in Salem Friday night, when the Albany Pirates tangle with the Willamette University Bearcats under the flood lights.

Coach Lappenbusch has made several changes in his lineup, having shifted Les Wilson, backfield man, to end to fill a hole left by injuries to Ray Rich and Merwin Speer. Lappenbusch has been pleased with the work of Graham Buchanan in the backfield and will start him at one half back position, with Keith or Martin at the other.

PRESIDENT'S CUP TOURNEY STARTS AT ILLAHEE CLUB

The fall tournament for the president's cup of the Illahee Country club will get under way Saturday, Frank Shafer, professional at the hill top course announces. Due to the fact that the tournament is getting away to a late start, Shafer states here will be no postponements in the matches and the players will forfeit to their opponents.

There will be no qualifying rounds, the pairings for the most part being arranged as the result of the scores turned in during the Corvallis tournament two weeks ago.

Players will have until Sunday night, October 30, to complete their first round matches. The following rounds will be run off at intervals of one week. Play in all rounds except the finals will be 18 holes.

The course is in the best condition of the year. Recent rains have softened the fairways and made the greens exceptionally fast.

There will be no handicaps used during the tournament. Pairings for the first round include:

Cliff Parker vs. J. C. Kimball; Dewey Scarnrough vs. Brazier Small; Jack Nash vs. Sephus Starr; Walt Robinson vs. Dr. H. H. Olin-gers; Wm. Stacey vs. Carl Garrison; Clay McDowell vs. V. E. Kahn; Frank Meyers vs. Fred Williams; W. E. Chandler vs. Frank McPar-land; G. Hara vs. Fred Bernard; Orrin Chase vs. O. L. Collins; Roy Day vs. Harry T. Collins; Roy Remington vs. C. N. Needham; Max Flannery vs. E. L. Fisher; Joe DeSouza vs. Glenn Paxton. Dr. Geo. Kuoth vs. Jim Young; Ernie Skelley vs. Dr. Williams.

WOODS TAKES ON NOVAK TUESDAY

The first of a series of elimination wrestling matches, with the final winner due for a crack at Henry Jones' world championship welterweight belt, is booked for next Tuesday night at the armory. The principals in this affair will be Curley Woods of Centralia and Bobby Novak who hails from Cleveland, Ohio. Jones has beaten Novak once, but according to the records it took him an hour and 15 minutes to turn the trick.

The preliminary bout on Tuesday night's card will be between Floyd Wolfgang and Spike Ashby. It will be Wolfgang's first appearance here.

COPULOS BEHIND

San Francisco, Oct. 21 (AP)—Jay N. Bonenna, Vallejo, added to his lead over Gus Copulos, Eugene, Ore., by winning the eighth block of their 600-point three cushion billiard match here last night 50 to 32 in 46 innings. The total score now stands 400 to 321 in 352 innings.

WOODBURN WOMEN END COMPETITION

Woodburn—Much interest has been taken by the women of the Woodburn golf club this year in play for position on the board. Twenty-four entered the contest, which started May 13 and ended Friday, Oct. 21. Positions were awarded according to the best 18 holes contestants shot in any one week. It has been interesting to watch the names of players moved up and also down on the board each week. Women's par for the nine holes of the course is 40, or 18 holes par is 80.

Positions and scores in the final outcome of play are as follows:

No. 1—Mrs. F. G. Evenden, 80.
No. 2—Mrs. B. Elaine McCord, 81.
No. 3—Mrs. Carl Hande, Miss Naomi Mosberger, Mrs. Robert Harper, all 85.
No. 4—Mrs. A. J. Becke, Mrs. H. M. Austin, both 86.
No. 5—Miss Mary Scollard, Mrs. L. H. Shorey, 87.
No. 6—Mrs. John Smolinsky, Miss Louise Shorey, 89.
No. 7—Mrs. Frank Proctor, Mrs. Gerald Smith, Mrs. E. T. Sims, 91.
No. 8—Mrs. W. B. Gill, 92.
No. 9—Mrs. Glenn Blair, 94.
No. 10—Mrs. John Hunt, Mrs. W. P. Lessard, 96.
No. 11—Mrs. R. L. Gules, 101.
No. 12—Mrs. John Shaw, 103.
No. 13—Mrs. Clyde Cutsforth, 106.
No. 14—Mrs. Ray Glatt, 107.
No. 15—Mrs. A. E. Austin, 117.
No. 16—Mrs. Burton Willford, 121.

Women's handicaps during the year have been based on their score on the board.

Eola—Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Shelton of Seio were dinner guests Wednesday evening at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Ferguson.

Gurnee Flesher, coach at Leslie, is having a hard time to finance his team. With no student body organization in existence there is no fund to draw upon for incidental expenses. In spite of the lack of money, members of the squad make a good appearance. Some one evidently has been taking care of the equipment which was left over from last year. The players run to small sizes this year, a pair of guards weighing 130 pounds each. They are hustlers, however, and make their presence felt.

Freshman Gridders Meets at Corvallis

Corvallis, Ore., Oct. 21 (AP)—The annual Oregon Frosh-Oregon State rook feud will be resumed here tonight in the first of a two-game series to decide the freshman championship of the state. The second game will be played at Eugene November 4.

Little is known of the comparative strength of the two teams. Both have defeated Chemawa Indians by overwhelming scores. Plenty of action is promised in tonight's game.

FISTIC TOBOGGAN FOR ERNIE SCHAAF

Boston, Oct. 21 (AP)—The fistic toboggan slide appears well greased for Ernie SchAAF.

This once-promising youngster took a long rest after a disastrous summer season, during which he was beaten by Stanley Poreda and Max Baer, and last night he tried to get back into his winning stride against unknown Winston, a negro battler from Hartford.

SchAAF weighed 206 pounds, 22 more than Winston, but put up such a sorry showing that he finished on the short end of a divided decision. The Boston Viking was slow and sluggish. He fought without the advice of Champion Jack Sharkey, his co-manager, who was unwilling to give up a Nova Scotia hunting trip to second his protégé, thus lending credence to the reports that he and Ernie are on unfriendly terms. There were many times during the bruising struggle against Winston when a verbal lash from Sharkey might have whipped SchAAF into point-gaining action.

SPORT HEROES TO 'TELL THE WORLD'

New York, Oct. 21 (AP)—America's greatest sports heroes and heroines will tell the world of spectacular moments in their careers, during a nationwide broadcast next Sunday.

The broadcasts will be through networks of both the National and Columbia systems. It is part of the effort of the welfare and relief mobilization of 1932, of which Newton D. Baker is chairman, to focus attention on local drives being made in every community for unemployment relief, hospitalization, nursing, orphanages, care of youth, the aged and the infirm.

Jack Dempsey will tell his views on the seventh round of his second fight with Tunney.

Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig will discuss the art of hitting home runs. Ted Coy, who threw the first forward pass, will swap football yarns with Albie Booth.

WOMEN OF ILLAHEE START FALL PLAY

Play in the women's fall handicap tournament at the Illahee Country club started Friday with several feminine club wielders participating. It is expected several others will join in the affair before the end of the first round.

Pairings for the first flight, with the handicaps of the players are: Mrs. Stacey, 9, vs. Mrs. Baldock, 22; Mrs. Bernard, 16, vs. Mrs. Shafer; Mrs. Needham, 16, vs. Mrs. Newmeyer, 20; Mrs. Small, 15, vs. Mrs. Burch; Mrs. Flannery, 18, vs. Mrs. Gustoff, 24; Mrs. Day, 14, vs. Miss Schwaubauer, 13.

Pratum—The children of Mrs. Matilda Hersh gave a birthday surprise party for her Wednesday evening, bringing gifts and lunch. Mrs. C. O. Sipe, whose birthday is one day before, entertained with a dinner. Additional guests were Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Rounds, Evelyn Hersh and Don Morris.

Officials Guests

Monmouth—Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Christenson were hosts Thursday evening with a dinner at their home for state and district officers of the American Legion who included Carl Moser of Portland, state adjutant; Jack Eakin of Dallas, state commander, and Mrs. Jack Eakin, state vice-president of the auxiliary of the American Legion. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lorenzen and L. Wolfe.
