

SOCIETY, CLUBS and MUSIC

Edited by HELENA FINE, Phone 4822

Entre Nous Card Party Gay Event

An interesting event of the week was the Halloween party given by the Entre Nous club Wednesday evening in compliment to a group of invited guests. The affair was given in the Entre Nous club house.

Eight tables of cards were in play throughout the evening hours in the attractive club rooms, which were decorated with huge baskets of autumn leaves and bright-colored autumn leaves. The Halloween motif was carried out in the refreshments.

Guest prizes for the evening of cards went to Mrs. A. A. Krueger and Charles L. Unruh. Club members holding high honors included Mrs. William E. Moses, Mrs. H. C. Hummel, Mrs. H. A. Smart, Mr. and Mrs. William Burke, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibson.

Marion Federation To Convene Thursday

The following program for the fall meeting of the Marion county Federation of Women's clubs to be held in Woodburn Thursday, October 27, has been announced by the president, Mrs. B. E. Fowler.

MORNING SESSION
9:30—Registration of delegates
9:45—Convention called to order
10:00—Invocation
10:15—Address by the president, Mrs. B. E. Fowler

AFTERNOON SESSION
2:00—Report of executive committee
2:15—Report on literary matters by Mrs. Shannon Moore
2:30—Minutes of resolutions committee
2:45—Invitation for service meeting
3:00—Adjournment

The meetings will be held in the Presbyterian church at Third and Garfield streets, with the Woodburn Woman's club and the Woodburn Rural club as joint hostesses.

The speaker, Annie Shannon Moore, is one of Oregon's best known authors and an interesting speaker.

Corvallis Matrons Complimented

Mrs. C. D. Byrne was hostess at an attractive bridge luncheon at her home Tuesday afternoon in compliment to the Tuesday bridge club of Corvallis.

Mrs. Roy Keene was an additional guest for the afternoon. Prominent Corvallis women motoring over for the affair included Mrs. H. E. Rodgers, Mrs. Fred Siderer, Mrs. P. J. Schuster, Mrs. Roy Lamb, Mrs. C. P. Irvine, Mrs. Ray Dair, Mrs. Ralph Coleman, Mrs. Robert Hall, Mrs. William Mynatt, Mrs. C. V. Langston and Mrs. A. L. Sinter.

Mr. and Mrs. Byrne formerly made their home in Corvallis, moving to Salem early in September to take up their residence here.

Don't Trifle With Coughs

Don't let them get a strangle hold. Fight germs quickly. Creomulsion combines the 7 best helps known to modern science. Powerful but harmless. Pleasant to take. No narcotics. Your druggist will refund your money if any cough or cold no matter how long standing is not relieved by Creomulsion. (adv.)

BARGAINS YOU'LL TALK ABOUT FOR MONTHS!

ORIGINAL 1¢ SALE

FRIDAY SATURDAY

PERRY'S
115 So. Com'l St.
The Jexall Drug Store

Berean Class Meets With Mrs. C. A. Park

The Berean class of the First Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. C. A. Park Wednesday for the first meeting with the class teacher as hostess.

A pleasant afternoon was spent in the attractively appointed rooms of the Park home. Gay baskets of autumnal flowers were used in the decorative scheme. Biblical games were played and informal conversation was enjoyed by the group.

At the tea hour the Halloween motif was carried out in the appointment of the tea table. Mrs. Clark was assisted by members of her class in the serving.

Presbyterian Women To Meet

Presbyterian women from western Oregon will arrive in Salem October 31 to attend the round table session which is being held under the auspices of the Presbyterian board of Christian education. The meeting is one of twelve which are being held in Oregon and Washington during the latter part of October and early November under the direction of Dr. W. L. Van Noy of Portland, field representative of the Presbyterian Education in the Synod of Oregon.

Miss Mary Amelia Steer, director of Women's Work, Presbyterian Board of Christian Education, who has recently come from Philadelphia with many new and stimulating ideas for workers in the church, will lead the discussions.

The round table session will center around the topic of "The Relationship of Women to the Presbyterian Program for Christian Education," under the leadership of local women. The session will be followed by a devotional service, given with a discussion of the church and to the Christian education.

O. N. S. Club Elects Officers

The O. N. S. club was entertained with an interesting Halloween party Tuesday evening by Mrs. Sylvia Knaps at her home at the Ambassador. Games and fortunes were enjoyed after the election of officers.

New officers of the club are Miss Marie Westhoff, president; Mrs. Helen Prange, vice-president; Mrs. Elsa Thomas, secretary-treasurer and Miss Mable Dotson, publicity.

The club will be entertained November 15 by Miss Dorothy Taylor and Miss Sylvia Paulson as hostesses at the Glendora apartments.

At a late hour supper was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Inez Reifmeyer. The guests included Miss Lois Reed, Miss Dorothy Taylor, Mrs. Mabel Goodrich, Miss Grace Geibel, Miss Isabel Bartlett, Mrs. Mildred Samuelson, Miss Helen Fietcher, Miss Sylvia Paulson, Mrs. Elsa Thomas, Miss Helen Prange, Mrs. Bernice Duncan, Miss Frances Graham, Miss Marie Westhoff, Miss Mable Dotson and Miss Inez Reifmeyer.

Mill City—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ross and Robert Faust of Yoncalla, were week-end guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Faust in Mill City. They motored to Salem Sunday where they visited at the Ross home before returning to Yoncalla, where they are located with the state highway engineers.

Farmer's Public MARKET

356 North Liberty Street Phone 9456
4 Deliveries Daily

The displays of fresh fruits and vegetables from the Farmers' booths have never been better. It will pay you to give this place a visit. They also have dressed hens and fryers for Saturday.

The Grocery Dept. will have some very attractive prices for the week-end

Crown "Best Patent" Flour—49 lb. sack	$1.12	Sweet Potatoes, No. 1 grade, 6 lbs. for	13c
This price is good all week. Buy your winter's supply now.		Fresh Peanut Butter, 2 pounds for only	17c
Just received a new shipment of 3 lb. M. J. B. coffee with 2 lbs. rice, both for	89c	Darkee's Mayonnaise, 1 pint jars, only	21c
Crown Poultry and Dairy Feeds are second to none. We have a complete line. Eggs are a good price, it will pay you well to feed a good egg mash. Crown Complete Lay is the best money can buy at per 100 lb. sack	$1.75

Crown Poultry and Dairy Feeds are second to none. We have a complete line. Eggs are a good price, it will pay you well to feed a good egg mash. Crown Complete Lay is the best money can buy at per 100 lb. sack

Zonta Club Has Dinner Meeting

The members of the Zonta club met at the Marion hotel for dinner and a program Thursday evening at 6:15 o'clock with 14 members in attendance.

Informal talks were given by members of the group and plans for the winter service work of the club were discussed. The service project will be "Individual Service for High School Girls."

Miss Eleanor Moore In Recital Friday

Miss Eleanor Moore, soprano, will be presented in concert in the lobby of the Y. M. C. A. Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Moore returned early in the summer from a year's stay in Chicago, where she studied at the Chicago Musical college with Herman De Vries, music critic for the Chicago American.

The charming young soprano won a scholarship at the beginning of the year and later won a contest to sing at Orchestra hall with the Chicago Symphony orchestra. Miss Moore also gave Sunday afternoon concerts at the Alberston hall and sang as soloist at the First Methodist church.

Since her return to Salem she has been the soloist at the First Methodist church here. She has also done solo work with the Nevin club in Portland.

Miss Moore will be assisted on the program by Miss Virginia Graham, violinist and daughter of William Wallace Graham of Portland, and Miss Carolyn Parker, a student of Prof. T. S. Roberts, who will act as accompanist for Miss Moore.

Miss Claire Wright will act as accompanist for Miss Graham. The program is as follows:
Cello and Violin—Lauda Beal
Solo—Down in the Forest
Solo—I Have Won You
Solo—Drift Down the River
Solo—De dans le fort from "Louise"
Solo—Carpenter
Piano Solo—The Berlin
Cavatina—D'Amore
Solo—Vivace
Solo—The Nightingale
Solo—A Memory
Solo—Love's A Merchant

Memorabilia—A joint miscellaneous show was given in compliment to Mrs. Glenn Lute and Mrs. Glenn Robinson, both brides of recent date, Tuesday evening in the social rooms of the Evangelical church by former school mates and friends.

The guest list included the Misses Edith Clark, Elvie Bond, Oma Davis, Marion Good, Barbara Powers, Margaret Cochran, Earla Mae Murdock, Winnifred Ebert, Helen Robinson, Helen Blodgett, Ruth Allen, Hazel Robinson, Bernice Blodgett, Pauline Morlan, Mildred McKern, Myrtle Miller, Gladys McKeen, Junetta Nelson, Mollie Geyer and Mrs. Elwyn Hill.

Fewer Colds, less severe colds for you this winter with Vicks Plan for better Control-of-Colds.

Use VICKS VapoRub DROPS To PREVENT many Colds To end a Cold SOONER

Mrs. Goughmour Entertains Club

Mrs. W. Goughmour entertained the members of her bridge club and a few additional guests at her home on E street Wednesday afternoon.

Baskets and low bowls of autumn leaves and flowers made an attractive setting for the two tables of bridge in play. Mrs. Chris Butte was awarded the high score prize.

Halloween favors, marked places for Miss Gertrude Goughmour, and Mrs. L. Berry, additional guests, and for the club members including Mrs. Roy Binegar, Mrs. Carl Hulstener, Mrs. M. Briggs, Mrs. H. Fournier, Mrs. Chris Butte, Mrs. G. W. Porter, and the hostess, Mrs. W. Goughmour.

Halloween Party Given by Rebekahs

The Rebekah lodge enjoyed a gala evening Monday when the members of the organization were hostesses with a Halloween party.

Grace Robertson is chairman of the attendance contest which is now in progress, and her committee includes Lora McGee, Flora Turpin, Josephine Erickson, Hazel McElroy, Essie Townsend and Luella Engstrom.

About 25 members attended the affair in costume. Marcella Carpell and Hazel McElroy, dressed as Halloween twins, received first prize. S. A. Harris received the prize for the most comic costume.

The evening was spent informally with music and readings by the members and at a late hour supper was served.

Senior Dance Friday Evening

The members of the senior class of Salem high school are entertaining with a sports dance in the gymnasium Friday evening from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Hogue, Miss Marjorie Christensen and Walter Bowman will act as patrons and patronesses for the evening.

Miss Ruth Johnson is in charge of the affair. Miss Evelyn Haig has been named chairman of the decorating committee and her assistants include Rachel Pemberton, Helen Trindle, Grace Peters, Helen Ware, Francis Barclay, Elmer Brownell, Francis Barnes, Elmer Parkins and Bob Reed. Miss Betty Reed is program chairman for the event.

Mrs. Karl Becke Club Hostess
Mrs. Karl Becke entertained with a smart bridge luncheon at her home on North Summer street Thursday afternoon in compliment to her bridge club and a few additional guests.

Mrs. Otto F. Johnson was awarded the guest prize for the afternoon and Mrs. John Carson held high honors for the club group.

The luncheon table and rooms of the Becke residence were artistically decorated with small zinnias in autumnal colorings. Additional guests for the afternoon included Mrs. P. C. MacDonald, Mrs. Donald Young, Mrs. Wallace Carson, Mrs. Arch Jerman and Mrs. Otto F. Johnson. Club members included Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. Allan Carson, Mrs. Carl Nelson, Mrs. Homer Egan, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Mrs. Hollis Huntington and the hostess, Mrs. Karl Becke.

Dallas Woman's Club Entertained

Dallas—Officers of the Woman's club entertained Wednesday afternoon with new members in the clubrooms for a reception in the clubrooms with refreshments. The rooms were decorated with clusters of Oregon grape and baskets of autumn flowers. Presiding at the tea were Mrs. H. B. Cooper and Mrs. Cynthia Henkle. A delightful musical program was provided by Mrs. R. Fisher in a violin solo, accompanied by Mrs. Gilbert P. MacGregor at the piano; a vocal solo by Harold Wilcraft and a reading by Mrs. K. E. Burke. There were about fifty members and friends present.

Jefferson—A family dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Pease of Albany, who were married recently, was held Sunday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pease on Third street.

Covera were placed for Mrs. Sylvia Knaps, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Williams Duckyworth of Eugene, Mrs. Myra Reed and Mrs. Ruth Reed of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Apperle and daughter Elizabeth, J. A. Apperle and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pease.

Corvallis Oct. 21—Margaret Turner and Eleanor Wright of Salem, students at Oregon State college, have been chosen as first altos of the Madrigal club, women's chorus of the college.

Prof. Paul Petr, instructor in music and director of the chorus, has planned a varied program for this year's work and rehearsals will start immediately.

Independence Delphians Meet

Independence—"The Book of Judith," taken from the Apocrypha, was the lesson study for the Delphians Monday at their regular meeting. This was discussed from its various angles, Mrs. D. A. Hong supervising the lesson period.

The following women took part in the discussions and program which followed:
Mrs. L. Mory, teacher in the high school, played two violin solos, accompanied by Mrs. R. D. Elliott; Mrs. Chester Hinkle of Dallas, was also a guest for the afternoon. Mrs. W. H. Cooke, Mrs. M. J. Butler, Mrs. L. I. Bursell, Mrs. H. W. Hagemeier, Mrs. H. N. Mattison, Mrs. Ardella Butler, Mrs. J. H. Hart, Mrs. H. G. Hanson, Mrs. A. B. Robinson, Mrs. Mabel Riddell, Mrs. E. M. Wauder, Mrs. C. O. Sloop, Mrs. Francis Saunders, Mrs. R. D. Elliott, Mrs. Ellen Davis.

Halloween Party Given by Rebekahs

The Rebekah lodge enjoyed a gala evening Monday when the members of the organization were hostesses with a Halloween party.

Grace Robertson is chairman of the attendance contest which is now in progress, and her committee includes Lora McGee, Flora Turpin, Josephine Erickson, Hazel McElroy, Essie Townsend and Luella Engstrom.

About 25 members attended the affair in costume. Marcella Carpell and Hazel McElroy, dressed as Halloween twins, received first prize. S. A. Harris received the prize for the most comic costume.

Senior Dance Friday Evening

The members of the senior class of Salem high school are entertaining with a sports dance in the gymnasium Friday evening from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Hogue, Miss Marjorie Christensen and Walter Bowman will act as patrons and patronesses for the evening.

Miss Ruth Johnson is in charge of the affair. Miss Evelyn Haig has been named chairman of the decorating committee and her assistants include Rachel Pemberton, Helen Trindle, Grace Peters, Helen Ware, Francis Barclay, Elmer Brownell, Francis Barnes, Elmer Parkins and Bob Reed. Miss Betty Reed is program chairman for the event.

Mrs. Karl Becke Club Hostess

Mrs. Karl Becke entertained with a smart bridge luncheon at her home on North Summer street Thursday afternoon in compliment to her bridge club and a few additional guests.

Mrs. Otto F. Johnson was awarded the guest prize for the afternoon and Mrs. John Carson held high honors for the club group.

The luncheon table and rooms of the Becke residence were artistically decorated with small zinnias in autumnal colorings. Additional guests for the afternoon included Mrs. P. C. MacDonald, Mrs. Donald Young, Mrs. Wallace Carson, Mrs. Arch Jerman and Mrs. Otto F. Johnson. Club members included Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. John Carson, Mrs. Allan Carson, Mrs. Carl Nelson, Mrs. Homer Egan, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Mrs. Hollis Huntington and the hostess, Mrs. Karl Becke.

United States Government Tea Examiners

You can't expect Government officials to recommend any particular brand of tea, and yet they do say this:
"Teas packed in high vacuum... would naturally be the best method of packaging." Schilling is the vacuum packed tea—the only truly fresh tea you can buy.

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Schilling

United States Government Tea Examiners
You can't expect Government officials to recommend any particular brand of tea, and yet they do say this:
"Teas packed in high vacuum... would naturally be the best method of packaging." Schilling is the vacuum packed tea—the only truly fresh tea you can buy.

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Salem Woman's Club Hold All-Day Session

The Salem Woman's club will hold an all-day meeting at the club house Saturday with the legislative committee headed by Miss Helen Louise Crooby and composed of Mrs. George Rossman, Mrs. J. U. Campbell, Mrs. Ronald Glover, Mrs. W. D. Smith and Mrs. Seymour Jones, in charge.

The October meeting had been scheduled as Past President's day with a covered dish luncheon at noon and an interesting program planned. Because of the inability of Mrs. Charles Bilyeu, state president, to be present the meeting scheduled for November 12 is being held Saturday and the originally planned Saturday meeting will be held in November with a luncheon and program.

The meeting Saturday will open at 10 o'clock with group singing. Charles H. Gram of the Labor Commission will speak on "Child Labor and Its Allied Problems." Mrs. Esther Kelly Watson of Portland, who is the supervisor of the children's department of the Portland Public Welfare bureau, will also speak on child problems.

The afternoon session will open at 1:30 with a regular board meeting of the Salem club. At 2 o'clock the regular meeting of the club will be held and the ballot measures for the coming election will be discussed by Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith after which an open forum

Pollan-Yeater Nuptials

Menmouth—An event of interest Saturday night at the home of Mrs. C. C. Yeater was the marriage of her daughter, Mabel Yeater to Mr. Benjamin R. Pollan, son of Mrs. W. C. Pollan of Seattle, Wash. The impressive service was read by Rev. W. A. Elkins in the presence of a number of relatives and intimate friends of the bride couple. The colorful combination of gahlias and tapers lighted by the soft glow of lamps added charm to the setting.

The bride was attired in a frock of pastel flowered chiffon with a shoulder corsage of roses and orchids. Harold Haley was best man. The wedding music was played by Miss Mabel Johnson and Mrs. A. E. Thom of Portland sang.

At the reception which followed Mrs. John Fuller cut the loaves and Mrs. George C. Bayne the cakes. Mrs. Velma Pearson, Mrs. Frances Saunders, Mrs. Glen Lee Rowell and Mrs. E. Hamar assisted about the rooms. Among the several out-of-town guests were Mrs. and Mr. George P. Pollan from Rosevelt, Wash.

Basement Special Purchase And Sale of SILK and WOOL HOSIERY!

Pure Silk And Wool. Full Fashioned! Regular $1.00 Pair

50¢ PAIR

COLORS:
Gunmetal... Tan Beige... Nutria
Winter... Kasha... Grain

500 pairs of silk and wool, full fashioned hose on sale in Miller's basement Bargain Square tomorrow morning at just half what they sell for regularly!

Here's a well-known brand of stocking that Salem women have been buying for years. Especially this number in fine quality silk and wool for fall and winter wear. Knitted to fit... reinforced at all points of wear. Each pair guaranteed first quality!

All Sizes... Bargain Square!

Miller's Basement

Miller's Basement

Miller's Basement

Miller's Basement

Miller's Basement

Miller's Basement

Miller's Basement

Miller's Basement

Teachers To Speak At McKinley P. T. A.

The McKinley Parent-Teachers association will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock. An exceptionally interesting program has been arranged for the evening, including talks by the teachers of the school and musical numbers.

Each subject will be given an explanation as to objectives sought in teaching it. Mrs. Erma Pfister, will tell of arithmetic; Miss Esther Long, will be on spelling; Miss Schroeder, spelling and writing; Miss Ruth Draper, music; Mrs. Mele Devenport, reading; Mrs. Enza Godley, health work; and Miss Dorothy Taylor, English and geography.

Miss Charlotte Hill will give a group of piano solos.

Marion—The homework division of the 4-H club met at the home of the leader, Frances Barber, Thursday afternoon. The following members were present: Luella Mae Morgan, Jessie Brown, Ruth Overholzer, Alla Mae Morgan, Hazel Larson, Iris Spencer and Betty Olson. Mrs. Morgan was chosen president, Betty Olson, secretary.

United States Government Tea Examiners

You can't expect Government officials to recommend any particular brand of tea, and yet they do say this:
"Teas packed in high vacuum... would naturally be the best method of packaging." Schilling is the vacuum packed tea—the only truly fresh tea you can buy.

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

United States Government Tea Examiners

You can't expect Government officials to recommend any particular brand of tea, and yet they do say this:
"Teas packed in high vacuum... would naturally be the best method of packaging." Schilling is the vacuum packed tea—the only truly fresh tea you can buy.

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee

Always FRESH sealed in VACUUM like coffee