

PARADE OPENS ARMISTICE DAY AT SILVERTON

Silverton—Frank E. Goulter, candidate of the Liberty party of Oregon for United States senator, will be the speaker at the Armistice day program planned by the Legionnaires of Delbert Reeves post, to be given at 11 o'clock Friday at the armory. Musical numbers have been arranged.

The parade will form at Allen's garage on North Water street at 10:30 o'clock and will proceed to the armory where the program will be given. The local school band will lead the parade. An early afternoon no-host dinner will be served in the social rooms of the armory, with the war veterans and their families as guests.

The principal attraction of the celebration will be the intermission program and dance in the evening. The Lucille French radio girls will furnish the music for the dance and the intermission program numbers will be given under direction of Zeimay Luthy Sweeney of the Barbara Barnes school of dancing of Salem. The program which will be made up of five acts, and will be presented by Silverton's and Salem's favorite dancers: 1. Song and dance, Pauline Zoe Chambers; 2. Off rhythm buck, Eugene (Buddy) Sewell; 3. Adagio routine, Betty Reid and Elmer Lowell; 4. Contortion acrobatic, Miriam Cooley; 5. Song and dance duo, Pauline Zoe Chambers and Eugene Sewell.

The committee in charge are arranging the program to be more in the nature of a victory celebration than of a memorial event.

SENIORS OBSERVING ARMISTICE TUESDAY

Woodburn—The annual Armistice day program will be sponsored by the senior class at Woodburn high school Tuesday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock. Dr. Levi Pennington, president of Pacific college of Forest Grove, will be the principal speaker. A group of numbers will be given by the boys' quartet, Barbara Egan. The committee in charge of the program includes Lois Seely, Dorothy Lee, Wesley Eby, Carroll Olson and Miss Virginia Mason, class advisor. Patrons of the school are invited.

Howell Bee Hive Club Entertained

Howell—Friday evening a program and social was held at the Howell school by the women of the Bee Hive club. The main part of the program consisted of various recitations and songs. A traveling contest was held with a pie as the reward of first place. Rex Kinsey, Elmer Ruff and Tex Kinsey and Gladys Ruff, all tied for first place. At a late hour pie was sold and coffee served by the women.

Buena Crest Girls Form Sewing Club

Quincy—The older girls of the Buena Crest school met at their teacher's home and organized a 4-H sewing club Friday afternoon. Dolores Buchanan was elected president; Ruth Franke, vice-president; and Helen Diem, secretary. The girls are very enthusiastic over the work and are anxious to get started. It is hoped that the outline of their work will be here for their next meeting which will be held Friday afternoon after school. Those present were Dolores Buchanan, Rosie Franke, Helen Diem, Elsie Diem, Lora Weese, Catherine Diem, Margorie Bressler, Marie Penny, Edith Melton, Betty Futrell, Bobby Becker and Mrs. A. L. Gird.

Club Meets Friday

Waldo Hills—The Waldo Hills Community club is planning to hold its regular meeting November 11. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knight were recent hosts to the members of the program committee for November. The committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Miles Ottaway, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Hillman, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Finley and Mr. and Mrs. Knight.

EXTRA HELP NEEDED

Donald—Extra help employed Saturday in the Farmers' Relief Insurance company's office included Miss Lois St. Helen, Miss Florence Fowler and Miss Dorothy Lee, who assisted in getting notices ready for mailing.

NUSOMS LEAVE FARM

Wacunda—Mr. and Mrs. Frances Nusom and two children, Rosemary and Ronald, have leased a farm at Shaw and are moving there this week. Francis Nusom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Nusom and has lived at Wacunda all his life. His brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Becker and their family plan to occupy the Nusom home here. They recently came to Oregon from Oakland, Calif., but plan to make their future home in Oregon.

Surprises Slated At Chapter Hour

Independence—Members of Adah chapter will have their regular meeting Tuesday evening, and for diversion, following the business session, a surprise box will be opened for the members and visitors to select their packages, by paying a small sum of ten cents. Each member will contribute some inexpensive useful article to the surprise box, and the proceeds of the sale will go as a benefit to the fund of the chapter. A special call is made by the worthy matron for all past matrons to be present to arrange for a future program by them.

ROOSEVELT WINNER HAZEL GREEN CLUB

Hazel Green—The Sunshine Sewing club was entertained recently by Mrs. Virgil Perrine of Middle Grove. Quilting on the club quilt occupied the afternoon. A short business meeting was presided over by President Luella Van Cleave. Names were drawn for an exchange of Christmas gifts. An invitation to the Nemo Sewing club of West Hazel Green was extended and the combined meeting will be held at the Tom Van Cleave home November 16 with Mrs. Tom and Mrs. Alvin Van Cleave as hostesses.

A straw vote for presidential candidates results in a strong democratic poll of 13 for Roosevelt and five for Hoover. The president appointed Mrs. Clifford Glenn as Mrs. Dorothy Zielinski as leaders of an attendance contest, the losers to treat the winners at the last meeting in the spring.

At the tea hour the hostesses served refreshments to the following guests: Mrs. Kenneth Walker and daughter of Portland; Mrs. Carrie Gilbert; Mrs. Lee Clark; Mrs. Joseph Cook; Mrs. Milo Barnett; Mrs. Dorothy Wacken; Mrs. Charles Kobart; Mrs. Dewey Hammett; Mrs. Ben Clark; Mrs. Clifford Glenn; Mrs. Dorothy Zielinski; Mrs. Luella Van Cleave; Mrs. Rudolph Wacken; Miss Hulda Stripling; Mrs. Lester Van Cleave and Mrs. Dorothy Zielinski.

RICE KEEPS PLACE AS GRANGE MASTER

Woodburn—C. J. Rice was re-elected master of Woodburn grange at the annual election of officers held at the grange hall Saturday morning. Other officers elected are: Elmer Alvine, overseer; Peter Herr, lecturer; Ivan Magee, steward; Peter Larson and Mrs. B. L. Carothers, assistant stewards; August Reichel, doorkeeper; Mrs. Mary Huggill, chaplain; B. L. Carothers, treasurer; Wynell Freeman, secretary; Mrs. A. R. Alvine, Ceres; Mrs. Julia Seely, P. Mason; Mrs. O. F. Larson, Flora; Trustee; Mrs. Ray Galt for three years; B. L. Carothers for two years; and O. F. Larson for one year. Officers will be installed by Past Master O. F. Larson at the December meeting.

Dinner was served at noon and the afternoon program, which was open to the public, was a discussion of the Zorn Macpherson consolidation bill with Frank Morgan of Nyssa speaking for the bill and L. T. Thomas, mayor of Marshfield, speaking in opposition.

Sunnyside People Hosts for Parties

Sunnyside—Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Heckart were hosts to the Red Hills Birthday club Friday evening at their country home in Sunnyside. Nearly all members were present and the evening was spent in conversation and games. As it was the first meeting since early spring, many interesting subjects were conversed. Mrs. T. D. Trick and Mrs. Ellis Cannoy composed the refreshment committee, and at the close of the evening they served pie and coffee. The next meeting will be at the Barnett home.

DYNAMITER EMPLOYED

Gates—Ed Collins, who has been in government forestry work since July, spent the week-end with his family in Gates. After being home a few days he was again called to work east of Detroit where he expects to have work for the winter. Collins is dynamiter in the government service.

SCHOOLMATES CALLED

Silverton—The next session of the Oregon-Washington School Men's club is scheduled to be held in the gold room of the Evergreen hotel at Vancouver, Wash., Saturday. Robert Goetz, superintendent of the local schools, is president of the association for the year. The speaker announced for the coming meeting is J. R. Jewell, dean of secondary education for the University of Oregon and the Oregon State college. Dean Jewell will lead the discussion on the subject, "What Shall We Look Forward to as Sound Educational Theory?"

INDEPENDENCE CARD CLUB HAS ELECTION

Independence—The Kill Kare club met Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Robble on West Monmouth avenue, after a no-host chicken dinner at the Ray and Fry restaurant. Mr. and Mrs. Robble received the guests at the dinner home which was about 7 o'clock and following the dinner the guests were escorted to the Robble home with "300" in the honor of the club. The evening punch was served at a late hour by the hostesses and following the game a short business meeting was held. This being the first meeting following the holiday season, officers as follows were elected: president, Mrs. E. E. Addison; vice-president, Mrs. P. L. Hedges; secretary, Mrs. Stella Calbreath.

The club voted Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Mattison into its membership to fill the vacancy made by Mr. and Mrs. George Carney. Mr. Mattison, by his proxy, made a very fitting speech, acknowledging their reception as members into the club. A full attendance of the members were present, excepting Mrs. B. F. Swope, whose substitute was Mrs. Evelyn Davis. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Elmer Addison, November 10.

MONTHLY TEA HELD FOR AID SOCIETY

Turner—The monthly silver tea of the Methodist Episcopal Ladies' Aid society was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Earl S. Prather with Mrs. T. Palmer and Mrs. John R. Cox assistant hostesses. Devotional was led by Mrs. H. S. Bond, followed by a program arranged by the committee. Little Peggy Jean Palmer gave a welcome to guests. Marion Parkes and Stanford Prather sang a Halloween song and readings were given by Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Prather and Mrs. Palmer. Mrs. N. Sherman Hawk, Mrs. E. G. Gunning and Mrs. Henry Barnett received prizes in contests. A silver offering was taken at the close of the program. Refreshments were served at the tea hour to nearly 35 guests.

Those present were Mrs. Clifford O. Ensey of Astoria, Mrs. Douglas B. Barker and daughter, Marion; Mrs. Carl Booth, Mrs. E. J. Harrison and son, Ira Neal; Mrs. J. L. Webb, Mrs. P. C. Gunning, Mrs. O. P. Given, Mrs. H. S. Bond, Mrs. Lee Barber, Mrs. Ted Whitehead, Mrs. C. A. Bear and grandson, Billy Bear; Mrs. Emma Gunning, Mrs. N. Sherman Hawk, Mrs. Fay Webb and daughters, Bonnie and Beverly; Mrs. Henry Barnett, Mrs. J. S. McKinnis, Mrs. S. S. Prather, Mrs. I. H. Small, Mrs. J. W. Ransom, Miss Katherine Hawk, Mrs. R. O. Witzel and the hostesses, Mrs. T. Palmer and daughter, Peggy Jean; Mrs. John R. Cox and Mrs. Earl S. Prather and children, Stanford, Jr., and Margaret Ann.

Play Shed Topic For Fox Valley

Fox Valley—Fox Valley P. T. A. held its regular meeting Friday evening. The principal discussion of the evening was building a play shed. So far it is an undecided problem. A program was enjoyed by all after the business meeting as follows: recitation, Neal Trank, Dorene Taylor, Deane Downing; reading, Bobby Wales; recitations, Lois Perkins, Roland Martin; army drill by David Paragov; shadow play by school; solo, Mrs. McRae.

Shower Is Given At Hahn Residence

Mrs. H. A. Hahn entertained with a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Claude Hupp. Mrs. Hupp received many beautiful and useful gifts. Mrs. Albert Girod and Mrs. W. A. Matthes assisted Mrs. Hahn with refreshments. Those present were Mrs. Ladd, Mrs. Lillian Carter, Mrs. Buchler, Mrs. Harry Bressler, Mrs. John Zielinski, Mrs. Albert Girod, Mrs. W. A. Matthes, Mrs. H. A. Girod, Mrs. Christman, Mrs. Claude Hupp and the hostess, Mrs. Hahn.

MRS. LIPP GUEST

Hazel Green—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman had as their guest the past week Mrs. Emma Lipp of Chemawa. Mrs. Lipp, who has been a resident of Chemawa for many years is dismantling her home preparatory to leaving for Los Angeles where she will make her home.

West Stayton—The new home of O. O. Lacy is almost completed. They expect to move in next week.

THE QUESTION ASKED IN SALEM TODAY IS NOT

Who Is Going To Be the Next President?

But All Salem Is Asking

Have you seen the Greatest Of All Thrillers?

THE WHITE ZOMBIE

WEEK...ALIVE... A ghastly love tale told on the borderland of life and death!

THE BELA LUGOSI HALPERIN PRODUCTION

UNITED ARTISTS

Today and Tuesday

At Home Owned Theatre HOLLYWOOD

Home of 35c Talkies

Society Sponsoring Another Card Party

St. Ann's—The St. Ann's society will hold its card social Tuesday evening in the St. Mary's school auditorium with "500" and pinocchio to be played during the evening with separate awards to the men and women. A luncheon will close the social with the following on the committee: Mrs. M. J. Dardis, chairman, Mrs. John W. Ebner, Mrs. Eva Erwert, Mrs. Anna Engelhart, Mrs. Christine Eberle, Mrs. Margaret Endres, Mrs. John Erwert, Mrs. Joseph Erwert, Mrs. Mike Frenson, and Mrs. Anton Gilles.

CLUB STARTS WORK FOR THIRD PERIOD

Silverton—Mrs. Glenn Howe, leader of the 4-H cooking club, was hostess to the members at her home Saturday afternoon in a party carrying out the Halloween and Thanksgiving ideas in the decorations and articles of food served. The guests all appeared in costume and masks.

Girl guests were Muriel Stamey, Cherry Sypher, Virginia Brown, and Betty Lou Heidenstrom. The regular members included Lucille Benson, Vera and Jean Heidenstrom, Maydelle Frazer, Norma Sletton, Lydia Hubertan and Jean Tomison.

This concludes the year's club work, and also the second year's accomplishments. Last Saturday the girls served a tea to the mothers at the home of Mrs. Howe as a part of their club project requirements. They are beginning the third year sometime in November.

GRANGE WILL NAME NEW OFFICERS SOON

Silverton—The members of the Silverton Hills grange feel that they are now better informed as to how to vote on the measures. An exceptionally large crowd was present at the regular grange meeting at the community and grange hall Friday night and a short time debate by different members bringing out the affirmative and negative arguments, was the special feature of the evening's program.

The legislative committee which is composed of C. V. Murray, chairman, Alfred Lee and C. J. Towe made interesting reports on legislative matters pertaining to the grange, state and nation. Mrs. Anna Hadley and Mrs. Geo. Benson served a refreshment hostesses for the group. At the next meeting which will be held in two weeks, nomination and election of officers for the year will be a part of the proceedings.

Hubbard Freshmen Hosts For Affair

Hubbard—The freshmen of the Hubbard high school were hosts for the upper freshmen at a party held at the school Friday evening. Mrs. Nellie Cornell of the high school faculty acted as chaperone for the evening. The committees who worked to make the evening a success were Gladys Ingals, games; Frieda Voigt, program; Iris Moomaw, refreshments; Howard Looney, cleanup man after the party.

The program was short and consisted of a reading by Iris Moomaw; a piano duet by Marjorie Wolfer and Dorothy McKee; a vocal duet by Mary Hartzler and Helen Paulsen. After the games a generous lunch was served in the downstairs lunch room under the direction of Mrs. Cornell and Frieda Voigt.

Rally Set Sunday

Unionvale—The Unionvale Evangelical church and Sunday school annual rally day program will be given Sunday, November 13 and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Spar Pole Breaks

Silverton—A spar pole on the log decker of the Silver Falls Timber company pond was broken early Saturday afternoon, hindering the pond work for several days. A new pole was cut in the mill, 64 feet long, 33 inches square at the butt and tapering to two feet. This will be put in place the first of the week.

RALLY DRAWS CROWD

Falls City—The Polk County Roosevelt for President club held a Roosevelt rally in Victory hall Friday night with a number of candidates and speakers present. About 100 people attended.

RIVALRY CONTESTS DECIDED FOR CLUB

Tabish Center—The Scotch Kilt band of Salem was enthusiastically greeted by a large crowd at the meeting Friday night of the Community club, held at the schoolhouse. The Highland fling and the sword dance was ably presented by the group of six entertainers dressed in kilts. Included in the group were William McGilchrist, Sr., James McGilchrist, the Hutcheon brothers and John Chargo.

During the business meeting, presided over by the president, J. Fred Pugh, the club decided to hold the program rivalry contests between the men and women as in the past two years. Committee appointments for December include: program, Mrs. W. R. Daugherty and Mrs. Harry Lovre; refreshments, Mrs. Gray Dow and O. G. McClaughry; January committee, program, Frances Klampe; refreshments, Harvey Aker and Gus Harris.

LIST INDEPENDENCE PLACES FOR VOTERS

Independence—The voters of Independence who are interested in voting the city election will go to the city hall to vote for city officials, that being the only poll open for city election.

For the county, state and national election there are four voting places: First Independence at the home of Arthur G. Baker, in North Independence on the highway; second Independence at the city hall; third Independence at the Woman's club building on Monmouth street, near the city library, and fourth Independence, at the steam laundry near the Southern Pacific depot.

The city election is held on the same day as the general election, and the hours are the same from 8 o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock in the evening. There will be a mayor, recorder and three councilmen to elect. The names that will appear on the city ticket for mayor, A. L. Thomas; for recorder, B. F. Swope and A. H. Phelps; for councilmen, R. W. Craven, Harry G. Keeney, and A. W. Foster.

Political Speakers Appear At Hubbard

Hubbard—A rather small but very enthusiastic audience greeted Central committee men, Chris Kowitz of the Republican party and Ralph Emmons, president of the young republicans league of Salem, at the city hall Friday evening. The meeting was for the purpose of a non-partisan discussion of the measures to be voted on at the coming election. This part of the program was handled by Kowitz. After this the tariff question as practiced by Emmons who stressed the benefits which Oregon as a lumber and agricultural state derived from the protective tariff. Both men were given close attention throughout their discourses. Some of the members of the Hubbard band played a short concert before the speaking began.

Bartels Suffering From Petrol Burns

Macley—Irvine Bartels is confined to the Willamette sanitarium, with serious gasoline burns. He was pouring gasoline from a large drum into a five gallon can when a lantern standing nearby ignited gasoline which had been spilled.

Hair on the Face

Mr. Angel—J. R. Spurgeon, relief agent at the Southern Pacific depot during the absence of Robert J. Welton, returned to his home at Eugene.

ACIDITY

NEW FACTS ABOUT HEADACHES, SLEEPLESSNESS, DEBILITY, ETC. Acidity is a danger signal. Don't be satisfied merely to correct the condition in your stomach. Your entire system is concerned. Take Gold Medal Haarlum Oil Capsules and stimulate your kidneys so that they free your whole body of more acids. See if they don't relieve ALL your acidity troubles. Insist on GOLD MEDAL 35c & 70c.

GOLD MEDAL HAARLUM OIL CAPSULES

Grand

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday

Laugh at Will as he kicks off the Family high hat!

WILL ROGERS

DOWN TO EARTH

with DOROTHY JORDAN Irene RICH

Merry Kemp

Story by Homer Croy

Screens play by Edwin Burke

FOX Picture

Upper Grade Rooms Join 4-H Club Work

Gates—4-H clubs have been organized in the upper grade rooms for the girls and boys. Mr. Powers will be leader for the club for the boys. The work will be either in forestry or camp cooking with Collis Heath, president; John B. Herron, vice-president, and Allen Henderson, secretary.

WEST STAYTON CLUB PRESENTED PROGRAM

West Stayton—The regular business meeting of the community club was held Friday evening. A potluck supper will be held November 19 at the schoolhouse. The following program was given: "The story of the Little Red Hen" by Miss Butcher, primary room; grammar display by the Intermediate rooms; health play, "Milk Against Coffee," by the fourth and fifth grades.

Mr. Jensen, the principal, announced that you have all heard the political speeches of Hoover, Roosevelt and others—but he wanted us to hear Walter Olson of Marion who gave a comical speech in a German dialect and gesture. Mr. Wright of Jefferson gave two numbers. The speaker of the evening was Mr. Lyndon of Jefferson, his topic being "Building up Your Community." Mr. Wright was called on for another number which he gave, "A Swiss Yodeling song," also a piano solo.

TRINITY LUTHERANS ARE GIVEN PROGRAM

Silverton—The principal speaker of the afternoon program of the Trinity Lutheran Young People's society was Rev. Melvin Holm of the Portland Y. M. C. A. work. In a well received lecture of "Spiritual Inspiration." Others who were out-of-town guests and were heard in short talks were Dr. Oscar Tingstad, president of the Pacific Lutheran college, Rev. R. Bogstad of Eugene, superintendent of the Sunday Home of the Lutheran churches; Edwin Tingstad, editor of the Pacific Lutheran Herald, and remarks were also made by Rev. Carl Foss, pastor of the local congregation. Mrs. Alvin Legard gave a vocal selection, with Mrs. E. E. Johnson at the piano; and Alice Jensen was heard in a reading. Luncheon hostesses for the day, assisting the young people, were Mrs. Hans Jensen, Mrs. John Moe and Mrs. Martin J. Hatterberg.

Clinic Is Tuesday

St. Mary's—An infant and preschool health clinic will be held Tuesday afternoon from 1 to 3 o'clock in the St. Mary's school auditorium. Mrs. Rose Ebner will be in charge. All parents are invited to bring their children of this age.

DULL HEADACHES GONE SIMPLE REMEDY DOES IT

Headaches caused by constipation are gone after one dose of Adlerkin. This cleans all poisons out of BOTH upper and lower bowels. Gives better sleep, ends nervousness. Sold in Salem by Perry's drug store. adv.

• Hair on the Face •

or on the body is safely and surely removed by women attendants using our method. Skin left smooth and free from blemish. Consultation, select and write for literature. MARTON LABORATORIES 604 1st Nat'l Bank Phone 4127 Salem, Oregon for COLDS

Put Mentholatum in nostrils to open them, rub on chest to reduce congestion.

MENTHOLATUM

Grand

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday

Laugh at Will as he kicks off the Family high hat!

WILL ROGERS

DOWN TO EARTH

with DOROTHY JORDAN Irene RICH

Merry Kemp

Story by Homer Croy

Screens play by Edwin Burke

FOX Picture

NORTH HOWELL GRANGER FAIR HUGE SUCCESS

North Howell—The North Howell grange fair was a big success with all booths complete and a large attendance.

The 4-H club booth was the main attraction. It was built by the 4-H corn club boys of cornstalks with the leaves removed. It was a small house with sloping roof. Only seven exhibits were on display.

R. C. Jefferson, Jr., received first, Robert Drake second, Carl Ditchen third and Wayne Wisener fourth. Cash prizes were given.

In the agricultural booth in corn display R. Drake received first, Rand second, D. Schnap third and M. Dunn fourth. E. G. Welner first on potatoes, Martha Venton second. Joe Ross received first on Prunelle and Mayette walnuts; Rand first on Da Chilly and Barcelona filberts, second on Prunelle and Mayette walnuts.

Joe Ross received first on canned tomatoes.

A good display of sheep grams and grasses, all kinds of fruit, vegetables, canned goods, grains and nuts was made.

In the candy division Mrs. Cline received first on nougat and white fudge, Mrs. P. Oddie first on light brown fudge, Mrs. M. Dunn second on white and light brown fudge, dark fudge, Mrs. McIlwain first, Mrs. K. Coomer second.

The mass of gorgeous flowers of all kinds were massed on piano and stage with a background of evergreens and ferns. A bird bath with rock garden lily pool and gold fish was a main attraction for all.

In potted plants Mrs. J. E. Wallman received first on a Belle fuchsia that was 4 feet in diameter. Mrs. F. Oddie second on display of tuberoses, Mrs. P. Oddie first on pink and red. Amy Beer received first on collection, first and second on basket of dahlias and first on vase of mums. Mrs. A. Cline second on mums; baby mums, Mrs. Oddie first, Mrs. Albert Schmidt second; mixed flowers, Mrs. S. Coomer first, Mrs. Pete Schmidt second; vase of dahlia, Mrs. A. T. Cline first, Mrs. E. Stevens second; Mrs. K. Coomer first, Mrs. Oddie second.

Mrs. T. Bump received special mention on rock garden construction. Mrs. Percy Brown and Mrs. Thomas of Silverton were judges of flowers, candy and canned fruits. Max Gehlhar and Mr. Hogg of Polk county were judges of agricultural displays and Mr. Hogg judged the corn.

Dinner was served to 60 persons. In the fancy work booth Mrs. Helen Weisner won subcommittee baby quilt; Mrs. Fred Manning won basket quilt. After dinner hour music was furnished by Schneider orchestra.

A quartet, Oscar Flytlet and Sam and George Sherman of North Howell, and Alvin Sherman of Salem.

SORE ON FACE DOCTOR SAID, "USE RESINOL"

"For two months I had a small sore spot on my face which would not heal. Then I remembered that when my daughter was a small child the doctor told me to use Resinol for a similar condition from which she was suffering and it healed very quickly. I decided to try Resinol for myself. Being flesh colored I could keep it on during the day as well as at night, and in a few days the results were delightful." (Signed—Mrs. G. N. Young, 2712 Deane Ave., Berkeley, Cal.)

Grove's LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE

Relief comes quickly if you take Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine immediately—because this cold remedy does the four things necessary. It opens the bowels—kills the cold germs and fever in the system—relieves the headache and gritty feeling—tones the entire system and fortifies against further attack.

No worry about what you're taking when you take Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. It contains no narcotics and produces no bad after-effects. Does not upset the stomach or make the head ring. For years Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine has been the stand-by of thousands in the treatment of colds and grippe. You're playing safe when you take this famous cold tablet. Every drug store in America sells Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. Handy, pocket-size box, cellophane-wrapped. Beware of substitutes. adv.

Warner Bros. Elsinore

SENSATIONAL! YESTERDAY...

Audiences Gaped at What They Sensed was the "Truth About Washington"

Unfolded Before Their Very Eyes

DON'T MISS

WASHINGTON MERRY GO ROUND

4 Stars From LIBERTY MAGAZINE

with LEE TRACY

Sensational Star of "Bless