

ACADEMY WILL GIVE OPERETTA FOR MT. ANGEL

—Mt. Angel—Final preparations are being made for the operetta "In Old Virginia", which will be given at the Mt. Angel academy Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the vocal club, under the direction of Sister M. Beatrice. The play takes place on a southern plantation during the Civil War. The leading character, Virginia Longworth, becomes secretly engaged to a northern officer, Captain Norton, while visiting in the north. Captain Norton, disguised as a woman, goes into the southern territory and hides at the Longworth home while Virginia steals the plans for the next attack on the north and gives them to him. After the war was ended, Virginia and Captain Norton get married. The cast of characters is as follows: Virginia Longworth, Diana Moore; Captain Norton, Henrietta; Samford; Georgia; Agnes Walker; Uncle Rags (Pappy), Eleanor Schmidt; Mammy Lize, Mary L. DeSous; Harriet Longworth, Edna Moore; Martha Washington Johnson, Anna Bigler; Aunt Ellen, Claudia Donnelly. The pianists are Alene Dardis, Sophie Wiedinger, Mary B. Zoller and Maxine Berning. The chorus of girls are: Dorothy Schwab, Wena Jette, Emily Kautsky, Eustelle Bauman, Arlene Simon, Mary Wells, Clara Klinger, Mary Groesbeck, and Georiana Bourbonnais. Arlene Simon will be the Moon Moth, and the flowers will be: Anna May Scheid, Mary Stahl, Helen Brockhaus, Arlene Zoller, Cecilia Bochsler and Veronica Scheid. Dorothy Blake will be the accompanist.

Between the acts, the Mt. Angel academy orchestra will furnish the interludes, with the following numbers: "Silver Bell Overture", "Old Times Waltz", "Down South", and "Salute to the Colors".

STATE MEMBERSHIP FOR MONMOUTH PTA

Monmouth—Mrs. P. E. Murdock, newly elected president, presided at the monthly meeting of the parent-teacher association Tuesday evening. Group singing opened the session and as a program feature Edna and Clara Haller sang Christmas carols with Mrs. R. D. Elliott at the piano.

The decision was reached for the local unit to join the state association, which requires a fee of 10 cents per member. Donations were received for the school lunch fund and the sum expended at each meeting of the association for refreshments will be added to the lunch fund.

Because of the lateness of this hour the talk which was to be given by professor J. F. Santee was left over for a future meeting. In conclusion a light lunch was served by the members of Mrs. J. A. Cox's room.
