

CHURCH HOLIDAY PROGRAMS WAIT PROPER PERIODS

Silverton—The young people of the Methodist church are planning Christmas festivities for the church. Friday night at 7:30 the Sunday school will have charge of the Christmas tree party to which the congregation and friends are invited. Saturday evening the intermediate and junior Epworth Leagues will form groups and go about the residential districts singing carols. The seniors will sing Sunday evening.

The complete program for Friday night follows: Piano solo, Mrs. Fern Davenport; selection, orchestra; Sunday school choir, Mrs. Ethel Hardie director; reading, Lester Green; junior choir, Fred Baker director; vocal duet, Oriol and Dorothy Parker; orchestra; girls' chorus, Kathryn Morrison director; vocal solo, Miss Morrison; junior choir, and reading by Fred Baker.

Sunday school pupils of the Christian church will observe Christmas with a program at 10 o'clock Sunday. Program numbers will be given by the various classes. Among them will be a Christmas exercise, by the primary department, a reading by Mary McCall, a vocal duet by Eva Sawyer and Laura Shields, a violin trio and a recitation by Elaine Hamre.

Immanuel Lutheran church Sunday school is sponsoring a Christmas program to be given Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at the church. In charge of the affair will be Miss Clara Bragger, Miss Hannah Olson, Miss Hilda J. Olsen, Mrs. Arthur Dahl, Mrs. Jonas Byberg, Mrs. Oscar Johnson. Among the numbers will be served by pupils of the primary department.

The Champion Sunday school class of the M. E. church is giving a Christmas party Thursday evening at the parsonage. About a dozen guests have been invited. An evening of games is planned. Mrs. Harold Davis is teacher.

CHEMAWA GRANGERS HEAR OF BROWN ROT

Chemawa—H. S. Van Trump delivered an illustrated lecture on "brown rot" Monday night at the Kelzer schoolhouse. It was the second meeting of its kind that is being sponsored by the agricultural committee of the Chemawa grange of which Fred McCall is the present chairman. The next meeting will be held on the third Monday in January and the subject will most likely be "taxation." Further announcement will be made after the installation of the newly elected officers of the grange, Thursday, December 22. Van Trump pointed out the advisability of dragging the orchard along in June and eliminating the tiny toddlers that have appeared, intensive and proper pruning and the use of sprays at the right time. Suggestions along these lines were also made by Seymour Jones, Charles Weathers, Leslie Evans and others, from experiences in their own orchards.

Retire More Bonds

Dallas—The most important feature of Monday night council meeting was the announcement that two more of the city water bonds had been retired, making the total retired in a little over a year $6,000 worth of bonds. Routine business took up the balance of the session which was of short duration. Monday's meeting was the last one of the year for the city council.

Program Thursday

Bethel—Mrs. Carmelle Weddle and pupils of Bethel school will present a Christmas program at 8 o'clock Thursday night. Parents and friends are invited to attend. The community club will hold a brief session before the program. The pupils will exchange gifts and have a Christmas party Friday.

SUBSTITUTE DRIVER

Silverton—The school bus over the Marquam and Evans Valley route was out of repair Tuesday. The pupils were taken to and from school by means of private cars. The regular driver, C. J. Towe, is ill at a Portland hospital and his brother, Orville Towe, is substituting.

MRS. CLARK ILL

Rickey—Mrs. Bobbie Underwood underwent an operation for appendicitis Sunday at the Salem general hospital. Mrs. Clark is a graduate nurse from the Mayo Brothers hospital in Rochester, Minn.

LODGE HAS FROLIC

Silverton—Pylthian Sisters entertained Tuesday night with a Christmas program at the K. of P. hall.

Silverton—Miss Rita Rahn, student nurse of the Emanuel hospital at Portland, plans to spend Christmas at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rahn. She will come home Saturday.

Candle Ceremonial Held Independence

Independence—The candle lighting Christmas program held Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church was well attended. A large chorus of voices gave several Christmas carols and other vocal numbers, solos, trios and quartets.

The regular Christmas tree program will be given Wednesday evening in the church where there will be gifts and candles for the children. A program by the grade pupils and special features by the primary classes will make up the larger part of the evening's program.

NEW OFFICERS DIRECT GRANGE

Silverton—The new officers presided at a meeting of the Silverton Hills grange with L. O. Hadley, master; Mabelle Towe, lecturer; and Mary Murray, secretary.

The special committee, John Tschantz, Charles Alexander and L. O. Hadley, who attended the taxpayers session at Salem reported on the resolutions, and told of making arrangements for the handling of meat products in Silverton, instead of at Salem as formerly. Norris Ames of the Ames Hardware company will be allowed to place the permit-to-sell tags on the veal, mutton and other meats sold from the farms of the Silverton Hills residents.

Under the auspices of the home economic committee of the grange of which Mrs. L. O. Hadley is chairman, three dozen-two quart cans of fruit have been sent to the boys' farm home at Corvallis. A grange benefit "Wear your old clothes" party is planned for Wednesday, December 28. The women are to bring lunches for two in a paper bag. The party is being arranged by Mrs. Eima Mulkey and Mrs. Mary Murray.

YULETIDE PROGRAM GIVEN ST. MARY'S

Mt. Angel—An exceptionally large crowd attended the Christmas program which was given Sunday afternoon in the St. Mary's school auditorium by the students of that school. Each class which took part in the program was instructed by the teacher of that class. The program which was given is as follows: Opening song, composed by the late Rev. Father Dominic, O. S. B., by fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades; recitations, first grade, Yvonne Le Doux, James Webb, Doris Burger and Rosemarie Bigler; Rhythm band, "Christmas Bells," Boy Scouts, second grade; recitation by Myra Kaiser; song, first and second grades; song, fifth grade; playlet, third grade; song by Lawrence Sandfield; recitation by Ralph Osborn; dialogue by fifth grade; recitation by Aloysius Nuttman; dialogue by fourth grade; song by Vincent and Florence Smith; play by sixth grade; song by eighth grade; song by all.

Livestock Circuit Completed by Dahl

Silverton—Kenneth Dahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto A. Dahl of the McLaughlin community, has returned from a trip to the middle west where he went from the Pacific International Livestock Exposition as helper to Harry Grandall, large sheep fancier of Michigan. He attended the stock exhibitions at Omaha, Wichita and Kansas City. Their original plans were to also attend the fair at Chicago but a week's delay would have proved too expensive, so they returned home. Millard Shelton and Eldon Fox were at the same shows earlier for the Fox sheep that won such splendid records this year. Dahl returned with the Fox cars of sheep.

Among the numerous prizes won by Kenneth and Frederick Dahl in Portland was a scholarship for summer school work at the Oregon State college in course in animal husbandry. He will take advantage of the scholarship.

Forum To Banquet

Silverton—Announcements are out for a chamber of commerce luncheon and business meeting to be at the Reo restaurant Wednesday evening. The new president, Ernest Starr, will outline his plans for the coming year's work and attend to other matters necessary for carrying on the work. George Hubbs is secretary, re-elected from the previous term.

TEACHERS TO GATHER

Silverton—Among the Silverton teachers who will appear on the Oregon State Teachers' association program in Portland during the Christmas holidays are Harry Wells in the foreign languages department. Miss Olivia DeGuire as a member of the research committee, and Mrs. E. Moore Nease as chairman of the committee on Oregon State college of geography teachers. Robert Goetz will be one of the speakers at the University of Oregon alumni banquet.

RECOVERS FROM BURNS

Macleay—Irwin Bartels has returned to his home after being confined to the Willamette sanitarium for seven weeks with serious gasoline burns. Bartels is not able to be up and around as the burns have not completely healed.

Catching Cold?

Quick Relief... Start taking Licoquid at the first sneeze or sniffle. Relief comes quickly. Many say in 30 minutes. Licoquid is the popular new liquid cold prescription.

PERRY'S DRUG STORE LIQUOCOLD

INFLUENZA is remedied by our CHINESE HERBS Free Consultation CHARLIE CHAN 122 N. Commercial St.

CHURCH WOMEN ASSIST NEEDY

Woodburn—The Christmas program of the Federated Women of the Methodist Episcopal church was given Tuesday afternoon in the league room, which was appropriately decorated with evergreens, holly, bells and lighted Christmas trees.

The meeting opened with a hymn by the assemblage, after which a short business meeting was held and reports given by Mrs. Oscar Allen and Mrs. S. E. Brune on the preparation of the Christmas basket for a needy family.

Mrs. James H. Livesay, president of the home missionary society, was in charge of the program. "Jesus, the Prince of Peace," for which the scripture was read by Beatrice Brown, Mrs. Glenn Hartong and Freda Hall. Characters depicting the action were S. E. Brune, B. O. Brown and James Livesay, shepherds; Donald Gillanders, C. J. Rice and George Landon, wise men; Rev. Glenn S. Hartong, prophet. Christmas carols by Miss Carol Mankner and Mrs. Paul Pemberton interspersed the action with Mrs. Joyce Woodfin at the piano during the entire performance.

A Christmas play was given by the fifth grade pupils of the Lincoln school, directed by Miss Georgia Albee, and readings were given by Virginia Williams, Betty Losey and Billie Gidson of primary department. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. G. V. Rice, Mrs. Myrtle Hall, Mrs. Theron Finch and Mrs. C. D. Smith.

HONOR ROLL LIST OF MOLALLA HIGH

Molalla—Members of the Molalla union high school on the honor roll for the last six weeks' period are: Roalbe Novak, Margaret Ischner, Julia Foglesone, Elmer Switzer and Marvin Runyan, freshmen; Zornath Cutting, Ruth Gordin, Ivan Maklister, James Bligdon, Lola Pflue, Ruth Yoder and Ida Rodgers, sophomores; Hazel Bracken, Anna Eysman, Geraldine Avison, Irene Avison, Viola Cruzon, Douglas Marsden, Margaret Syster and Regina Schnack, juniors; and Leth Jackson, Earl Ellis, Margaret O'Janpera, Norma Shaver, Lorraine Reed and Esther Miestinen, seniors.

Those on the honor roll earning grade one in all subjects are Letha Jackson, Geraldine Avison, Anna Eysman, Earl Ellis, Julia Foglesone, Margaret O'Janpera, Douglas Marsden, Ida Rogers, Norma Shaver, Regina Schnack, Margaret Syster, Ruth Yoder and Elmer Switzer.

CHURCH SURVEY IS SLATED TO START

Silverton—Rev. J. M. Jensen, pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran church called a meeting of the ministers of town Monday evening at the Methodist church to complete plans for a church canvass to determine the number not regularly attending any religious services and their church preference. Harvey Hallett, president of the Silverton district Sunday school association, was responsible for the arrangement. The ministers and their assistants have mapped the town into districts and the workers will call at each residence and ask the preference of the people.

The canvass will be started after the Christmas holidays. This is said to be the first church survey of the town for a number of years and is creating much interest in the outcome.

Clothing Is Made For Needy People

Silverton—The high school home economics club, Royal Order of Home-makers, is making clothing for needy children. The garments will be distributed by the local welfare committee. At present they have been making over old clothes. They will start soon making garments from the cloth furnished this community by the Red Cross.

Miss Mildred Grant, sewing instructor, is advisor for the sewing project. Dorene Davis is president of the club, and Helen Way is chairman of clothing distribution. The girls meet every other Monday for a business meeting, and sew in class time daily. The group was organized a month ago.

Home Owned Theatre HOLLYWOOD

Home of 25c Talks Today & Thursday Tonight Beauty Cream Nite Each Lady Attending the Theatre Tonight on a Full Paid 25c Admission. Receive a $1.00 Jar of Glenn Yvonne Beauty Cream Free (Tonight We Give Melting Cream)

Home Owned Theatre Grand

Last Times Today Zone Gray's GOLDEN WEST GEORGE O'BRIEN FOX PICTURE TOMORROW A SENSATIONAL DRAMA OF PART-TIME WIVES and TWO-TIMING HUSBANDS!

Home Owned Theatre Grand featuring Helen Twelvetrees. Includes names Robert Young, Lewis Stone, John Hersholt, Jean Miljan.

Rooms Will Observe Their Own Yuletide

Turner—There will not be a school Christmas program in the afternoon as has been the custom in former years. Each room will have its own tree and exchange of gifts.

An operetta, "Santa's Air Line," will be given at the Turner high school auditorium December 23 at 8 o'clock. It will include 20 songs and dances. The leading characters are Charlotte Parr, Robert Hatfield and Lois Gunning. Every grade school child will have a part and will be in costume.

MILLER CHOSEN CLUB PRESIDENT

West Salem—An unusually large crowd assembled in the community hall Monday evening for a triple meeting of the Community Club, Parent-Teachers' association and the Sunday school of Ford Memorial church.

The community club held a short opening session and ran through the routine work. President A. G. Henningsen then read a letter from the West Salem American Legion Post concerning the erection of a building in the city park. As this was the closing meeting of the year for the club election of officers for the new year was in order.

Henningsen was nominated to succeed himself but he declined saying it was impossible for him to serve. The secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Claudine Elbert, also declined re-election. Those elected were: President, E. L. Miller; vice-president, P. O. Needham; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Robert E. Pattison; directors, George W. Chapman, W. L. LaDue, E. A. Dickson.

Following the election the programs of the P. T. A. and Sunday school were given. They consisted of songs, drills and plays by the children and a few numbers by the young people.

A special feature was several numbers by a boy scout's band under the direction of Henry Stoudenmeyer. The climax of the evening was the appearance of Santa Claus, who called on a number of boy scouts present to assist him in passing treats to all the children.

AUXILIARY PLAYS HOSTESS TO POST

Silverton—At the regular business session of the American Legion Auxiliary Monday night, preceding the social hour, the president, Mrs. Alta Hall, appointed the standing committee to serve, socially, for a period of three months. The hospital committee will send remembrances to the local boys who are at the Veterans' hospital. Plans are under way for preparation for the district conference to be held here in January.

During the social hour at which the legionnaires were guests, a program especially for the children and a Christmas tree, Santa Claus, and gifts for all present, were the special events. Appearing on the impromptu program, in charge of the committee of which Mrs. Charles Johnson is chairman, were Raymond Hall, Evelyn Hall, Barbara Jean McDonald, Billie Hutton, Dona Claire Alm, Joan Cooper, Elma and Julia Hutton, Bettie and Dorothy Towe, Elmira Haugen and Billie Johnson.

Program Doubtful

Central Howell—A Christmas program will be given by the pupils of the Central Howell school either Thursday or Friday evening, depending on the condition of Miss Torhild Brautic, teacher of the primary room, who is ill at her home in Salem. Many people in this district are ill or have been, including Mrs. W. A. Roth, Leonard, Bobby and Erwin Roth, A. E. Kuenzi and Harold Kuenzi, junior in the Silverton high school.

Home Owned Theatre HOLLYWOOD

Home of 25c Talks Today & Thursday Tonight Beauty Cream Nite Each Lady Attending the Theatre Tonight on a Full Paid 25c Admission. Receive a $1.00 Jar of Glenn Yvonne Beauty Cream Free (Tonight We Give Melting Cream)

Home Owned Theatre Grand

Last Times Today Zone Gray's GOLDEN WEST GEORGE O'BRIEN FOX PICTURE TOMORROW A SENSATIONAL DRAMA OF PART-TIME WIVES and TWO-TIMING HUSBANDS!

Home Owned Theatre Grand featuring Helen Twelvetrees. Includes names Robert Young, Lewis Stone, John Hersholt, Jean Miljan.

MITCHELL NOW GRANGE MASTER

Turner—The annual Christmas party and program of Turner Grange was held in conjunction with installation of officers. Arthur Brown of Salem, installing deputy with his installing team was present to exemplify the work. His assistants were Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. Townsend and Mrs. S. H. Van Trump, all of Salem grange.

Officers installed were: Fred Mitchell, master; Ulwin E. Denyer, overseer; Mrs. Anna Farris, chaplain; Mrs. Edith Mellis, lecturer; Bert Peebles, steward; Mrs. Ulwin E. Denyer, lady assistant steward; Mrs. T. Palmer, secretary; Mrs. Stella Miller, Flora; Mrs. Fay Webb, Cora; and G. W. Farris, chairman of the executive committee. Officers that were not present and will be installed at the regular meeting in January are Thomas Little, treasurer; Raymond Tibus, assistant steward; and Hildred Bones, Ponona.

The Christmas tree and program was in charge of the newly installed lecturer, Mrs. Edith Mellis with the following numbers: Biblical reading of the first Christmas by Mrs. G. W. Farris; vocal duets by Mrs. Clark and Ed Wallace of Astoriaville; recitation by Peggy Palmer; reading by Mrs. Ulwin E. Denyer, Arthur Brown and W. Townsend of Salem gave short talks on the cooperation in the grange. Treats of home-made candy and apple were given. Following adjournment a chili supper and social hour was held in the grange dining room.

The Christmas tree and program was in charge of the newly installed lecturer, Mrs. Edith Mellis with the following numbers: Biblical reading of the first Christmas by Mrs. G. W. Farris; vocal duets by Mrs. Clark and Ed Wallace of Astoriaville; recitation by Peggy Palmer; reading by Mrs. Ulwin E. Denyer, Arthur Brown and W. Townsend of Salem gave short talks on the cooperation in the grange. Treats of home-made candy and apple were given. Following adjournment a chili supper and social hour was held in the grange dining room.

HUGHES IS MASTER WOODBURN MASONS

Woodburn—Everett J. Hughes was elected worshipful master of Woodburn lodge No. 106, A. F. and M. W., at the annual election held Monday night. Other officers elected and appointed are Charles Ray Shaner, senior warden; Jess Fred Fikan, junior warden; Fred G. Evenden, treasurer; Frank E. Proctor, secretary; H. M. Austin, building trustee; L. R. Gilbert, junior deacon; Earl W. Gibbons, senior deacon; Elmer Mattson, senior steward; W. P. Lessard, junior steward; Howard M. Sayre, chaplain; Thomas Sims, marshal; W. J. Davenport, tyler.

Installation will be held jointly with Evergreen chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, December 26 with the Masonic lodge as guests. The retiring master, L. R. Tweedie, will act as installing officer of the Masons and Miss Elra Lytle, retiring worthy matron, will install for the Western Star.

High scores for women were held by George Miller and Miss Marie Kirsch; and for the group singing, Smith and Jack Coleman. Maurice Smith also drew the door prize.

After cards lunch was served by the following committee in charge: Mrs. Peter McDonald, Mrs. Sebastian McDonald, Mrs. Ray Manegre, Mrs. John Manegre, Mrs. Jesse Manegre, Mrs. Lester Kirk, Mrs. Urban Kirk, Mrs. Peter Kirk, Mrs. Anna Kaufmann, Mrs. Frank Kirsch, Mrs. Ben Keunastig, Mrs. Frank Keunastig and Miss Mary Kirk.

Cantata Arranged

Independence—The Baptist Sunday school will hold its Christmas tree and program Wednesday night in the church at 7:30 o'clock. Christmas carols will be sung and a program of readings, recitations and a Christmas cantata will be given.

Bethel—Mr. and Mrs. Jess Davis and family drove to St. Helens Monday to spend the Christmas holidays with Davis' mother and brother.

GUESTS AT MILLERS

Aurora—Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Dupris and daughters, Freda and Kathryn, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Miller. Dupris is superintendent of the Hawley Pulp and Paper company at Oregon City.

Conflicts Avoided In Xmas Programs

Orchard Heights—There will be a community Christmas tree combined with the regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of the Mountain View school district Friday night, at 8 o'clock. For this evening's entertainment there was no program committee appointed, as the teachers and pupils wished to present the numbers. The refreshment committee consists of Mesdames James B. Smith, Walter Bruce and James P. Smart, who have chosen Christmas treats of candies and popcorn balls for refreshments. The entertainment at the Popcorn schoolhouse will be held Thursday night to avoid conflicting dates for those wishing to attend both programs.

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

SHE WAS ONLY A THRILL TO HIM... But to Her He Was Life Itself!

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

Starts Today

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

YOUNG BRIDE She Expected a Penthouse... and Wound Up With Two Rooms and a Baby... But She Never Quit Loving Him. HELEN Twelvetrees ERIC LINDEN ARLINE JUDGE CLIFF (Ukelele Ike) EDWARDS ROSCO ("Cimarron") ATEZ ALSO Zasu Pitts and Thelma Todd in "Show Business"

Catholic Pupils To Give Program

Silverton—Among the larger Christmas parties will be that sponsored by the members of the St. Paul's Catholic church Friday evening with a program given by the pupils of the parish school. The affair will be at the hall with a Santa Claus and a large tree in evidence. Both St. Paul's Altar society and the Catholic young people's group are sponsoring the party. Committee members active on arrangements are Mrs. L. B. Schaback, Mrs. Ben Zolner and Mrs. W. Stürber.

SILVERTON PTA HEARS ADDRESS

Silverton—Rev. C. J. Hall was the guest speaker for the Silverton Teachers' association at its regular session Tuesday evening. He told of educational customs in Sumatra, where the Bible served a number of years as missionaries, stressing the British idea of the "gram" system, and the training for clerical work only among the pupils of many nations. "No Oriental will work with his hands if educated," stated Rev. Hall, showing the comparative lack of practicality of the system there as compared to the methods in the United States. The Cambridge plans are similar to our high school courses, Rev. Hall explained. Miss Blanche Hubbs, president of the association, was chairman of the meeting, and Miss Ruth Elliott was secretary.

Ethel Hardie as program committee chairman, arranged an informal songfest of carols with Miss Bertha Alm leading as violinist, and Mrs. Fern Davenport at the piano as accompanist for the group singing. The rooms were dimly lighted with tall red candles and a blue and silver tree. Barley audible chimes from a radio phonograph record added to the seasonal spirit of the Christmas tide. Miss Alm and Mrs. Davenport contributed two instrumental numbers.

Assisting Miss Hardie as program committee members were Mrs. May Wells, Olga Johnson and Mildred Wharton. Serving on the professional committee were Elaine Clower, Mildred Grant, Mary Alfred and Muriel Bentson.

THIRTEEN TABLES PLAYED AT SERIES

St. Paul—Owing to the very stormy and unpleasant weather on Sunday evening only 13 tables of "500" were in play at the fourth of the series of the seven card socials held in the K. of C. hall and sponsored by the Ladies' Catholic Altar society of St. Paul.

High scores for women were held by George Miller and Miss Marie Kirsch; and for the group singing, Smith and Jack Coleman. Maurice Smith also drew the door prize.

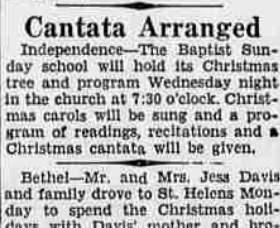

After cards lunch was served by the following committee in charge: Mrs. Peter McDonald, Mrs. Sebastian McDonald, Mrs. Ray Manegre, Mrs. John Manegre, Mrs. Jesse Manegre, Mrs. Lester Kirk, Mrs. Urban Kirk, Mrs. Peter Kirk, Mrs. Anna Kaufmann, Mrs. Frank Kirsch, Mrs. Ben Keunastig, Mrs. Frank Keunastig and Miss Mary Kirk.

WARNER BROS. Elsinore

2 SMASHING! 2 FEATURES!

Starting TODAY BRANDED... A love cheat! Is it a crime to play the love game by a man's rules? See the amazing answer in

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

THEY CALL IT SIN with LORETTA YOUNG GEORGE BRENT and MORE DAME SO CALIF. EXCLUSIVE PICTURES OF THE ENTIRE From Kick-off To Final Gun! Every play, pass and punt—in fast and slow motion—running account by noted sports experts! New MICRO-LENS camera puts you in the thick of the game! All the color of varsity bands, songs and cheers.

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

SACRED MUSIC AND SERVICES WILL BE HELD

Silverton—The cantata, "The Coming of the Christ," by Ira B. Wilson, will be presented Christmas night by the choir of Immanuel Lutheran church. Mrs. J. P. Dullum is director. Final plans will be made for the event at a practice Wednesday night. The public is cordially invited to attend the event, which will commence at 8 p. m.

Among those having leading roles are Mrs. Stanley Swanson who with Ernest Byberg will sing a duet, one of the principal musical numbers. Mrs. Swanson will also sing a soprano obligato in two chorus numbers, Miss Myrtle Thorikildson and Mrs. Oscar Johnson, both contraltos, will sing in another number, both solo parts. Carl Thorikildson, bass, will sing an obligato to one of the chorus numbers. Louis Larson will sing a tenor solo.

There will be a double quartet, including Cora Severson, Agnes Nelson, Mrs. Oscar Johnson, Alice Balengrud, Louis Larson, Elmer Johnson, John Overlund and Ernest Byberg.

Mrs. Dullum, contralto, will sing a solo. There will be a male chorus number. Mrs. Arthur Dahl will be pianist, with Jonas Byberg at the pipe organ. Miss Bertha Alm, violinist, will assist the accompanist.

St. Paul—Services in the St. Paul's Catholic church on Christmas day will be at 6:30, 8:30 and 10:30 o'clock, Rev. Father Chabot officiating. The first and third are high masses, music by the St. Paul choir under the direction of C. A. Pelland. The choir has chosen the Mass of Our Lady of Loretta by H. Mentzel. Before mass, Miss Erma Gooding will sing O Holy Night. During offertory the Adeste Fideles will be sung by Mrs. Lester Kirk and Mrs. Ray Kerr. Hymns at the 8:30 service will be sung by the children of the grade school under the direction of Sister M. Mildred.

Woodburn—The Christmas entertainment at the Christian church will be held Sunday evening, Dec. 25, and will consist of two plays, "Danny's Christmas," by the Juniors and "The Governor's Shoes," by the young people of the church, directed by the pastor, Rev. J. Merlin Hill. The program will be interspersed with church numbers and vocal solos. It will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Molalla—A Christmas cantata will be presented at the Methodist church by the choir on Christmas night. The cantata "Hail Messiah," is being rehearsed by a choir of 20 voices. On New Year's night it will be presented at the Methodist church at Carus. Mrs. Lotta Bowlin is musical director.

Business Houses At Hubbard Fade

Hubbard—In a recent survey of Hubbard it was found that the town has approximately one half the businesses now than it had 20 years ago. Good roads and popularity of automobiles is attributed as the cause of the change of status of many of the rural trading centers. Twenty years ago Hubbard had better than 30 thrifty and prosperous business shops, stores and offices, according to the survey, which was made by E. A. McKey and Cobie de Lespinasse.

GLEAR LAKE WAITS CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Clear Lake—The Sunday school will give a short program Sunday morning at the close of the Sunday school by the Sunday school children as follows: readings, Lawrence Beckner and Russel Truitt; song group of girls; readings, Evelyn Cain, Mary Hammack, Jack Robertson and Estelene Smith; music, Loretta Smith; readings, Marion Robertson and Doris Richtie; playlet, "Goodbye," Linda Lee and Shirley Ghrod; reading, Delbert Garner; playlet, Lawrence Boston and Doris Richtie; music, Lumelle Chapin; reading, Fiene Truitt.

Clear Lake—The following program will be given at the school house Friday evening by the school children in both rooms under the supervision of the teachers, Miss Neal and Mrs. Bostrack, commencing at 8 o'clock: Play, "The Christmas Dinner Party; arctic, primary room; play, "Waiting for the Christmas Carol"; play, "Helen's Dream";

Mt. Angel—William and Fred Prosser left Monday evening for Clifton, Kan., by train, to visit their mother, Mrs. Fred Prosser who is seriously ill at the Clifton hospital. Prossers are employees at the Ficker Motor company here.

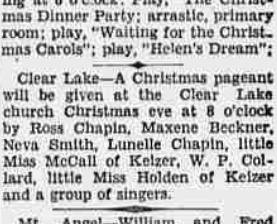

for COLDS Put Mentholatum in nostrils to open them, rub on chest to reduce congestion. MENTHOLATUM

WARNER BROS. Elsinore

2 SMASHING! 2 FEATURES!

Starting TODAY BRANDED... A love cheat! Is it a crime to play the love game by a man's rules? See the amazing answer in

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

THEY CALL IT SIN with LORETTA YOUNG GEORGE BRENT and MORE DAME SO CALIF. EXCLUSIVE PICTURES OF THE ENTIRE From Kick-off To Final Gun! Every play, pass and punt—in fast and slow motion—running account by noted sports experts! New MICRO-LENS camera puts you in the thick of the game! All the color of varsity bands, songs and cheers.

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL