B. And P. W. To Honor Miss Moore

As a charming tribute to their president, Miss Ruth Moore, the Business and Professional Women's club will entertain with a large tea at the home of Mrs. Susan Voyer Sunday afternoon from 3 to 7 o'clock, with prominent Salem folk bidden to attend the interesting event.

Receiving in line will be Miss Ruth Moore, the honor guest, and Mrs. Susan Voyer, Mrs. Mona Yoder and Miss Meri Dimick, all past presidents of the organization.

The perfectly appointed tea table will be centered with a low arrangement of fireproof flanked with tall red tapers in silver candleabra. From 3 to 4 Miss Grace Giddens and Miss Julia Webster will preside at the urns and from 4 to 5 Mrs. Emma Hinz and Miss Leila Kinsey will pour. From 5 to 6 Miss Grace Taylor and Miss Helen Louise Crosby will preside at the serving table and from 6 to 7 o'clock Miss Julia Holmes and Miss Grace Smith will be at the urns.

Assisting about the rooms will be Mrs. Lillian Caldwell, Mrs. Billy Herberster, Mrs. Maud Ramseyer, Mrs. Myrtle Anderson, Mrs. Herick Howard, Mrs. Winifred Herick, Miss Clara Uriaub, Miss Irene Breithaupt, Miss Josephine Shade, Miss Ananda Schwabauer and Miss Edna Lucker.

62nd Anniversary Celebrated

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Steelhammer celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary and Mr. Steelhammer's 68th birthday anniversary with a 6 o'clock dinner at the family residence with their sons and families all present for the occasion. Mrs. Steelhammer was Miss Christina Anderson before her marriage at Winona, Minn., January 5, 1871. After living in North Dakota nine years the family moved to Silverton in 1891 where they have lived the past 42 years. "Daddy" Steelhammer, as he is known by his scores of friends, operated the Steelhammer Blacksmith shop, where sparks from the anvil attracted many children. He has been active in state and county politics. Both Mr. and Mrs. Steelhammer were charter members of Roman chapter No. 58 of the Eastern Star and he was a charter member of Silver lodge A. F. and A. M.

Members of the family present at the dinner Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. John Steelhammer and Mr. and Mrs. George Steelhammer and son, George, Jr., all of Silverton, Oscar Steelhammer of Salem, Dr. H. W. Steelhammer of Portland and Arthur Steelhammer of San Francisco.

Elkins Club at Tetherow Home

Monmouth—The Elkins Women's club held its first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Joe Tetherow with Mrs. Fred Schools as assisting hostess, Wednesday. The club perfected its plans for the all-day meeting to which the members are hosts for their families and friends each year. The date this year has been set for January 21. Mrs. Frank Loughary, the president, named the following committees for the day: Table, Mrs. W. Ockorn, Mrs. J. Tetherow, Mrs. A. Nelson Sr., Mrs. M. Lucas; kitchen, Mrs. W. Horton, Mrs. J. Johnson, Mrs. D. Tetherow, Mrs. R. Dodson, Mrs. U. Horton, Mrs. U. Crook, Mrs. H. Blodgett and Mrs. P. Schools.

An informal afternoon of visiting with tea served by the hostesses, completed the afternoon.

Jefferson—The marriage of C. A. Myers of Talbot and Miss Bessie Baltimore of Albany, took place at the courthouse in Salem Saturday, December 31. Judge Siegmund officiated. Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Myers motored to McMinnville where they spent the week-end with Mrs. Myers' mother, Mrs. Jane Jurick.

St. Paul's Dinner This Evening

The annual Epiphany dinner of St. Paul's parish will be held at 6:30 o'clock Friday evening. Episcopians who are students at Willamette university will furnish the program and after the dinner hour the annual parish meeting will be held, with reports from various committees and the annual address of the rector. The committee in charge of this year's dinner includes C. W. Bartlett, Mrs. V. G. Shipley, Mrs. Sarah De Lisle, Mrs. R. H. Robertson, Mrs. Homer Goulet and Miss Molly Gallagher.

An interesting event of this evening for the members of the young men's club will be the informal dance which the members of the Junior class of Salem high school are sponsoring in the high school gymnasium from 7:30 until 10 o'clock. Co-chairmen of the dance are Miss Iris Jorgensen and Norman Scott.

Decorations reminiscent of the winter season have been used as the motif for the affair with a committee including Miss Betty Stewart, Miss Geneva Barnes, Miss Barbara McDonald, Jean Doolittle and Mark Powell in charge of the decorations. Miss Margaret Hauser, Joe Baker and Ed Farrington are in charge of the publicity and Miss Cathrin Hendrick is arranging for the intermission feature. Miss Doris Drager, Miss Willa Ellis and Miss Floy Speers are in charge of the refreshments.

Miss L. Davis and Mr. Elie, Junior class advisors, and the faculty of all junior rooms have been invited to the affair. Miss Jean Doolittle is in charge of patrons and patronesses for the gay event. Junior class officers include Joe Baker, president; Norman Scott, vice-president; Jean Doolittle, secretary; Verne Adams, treasurer. All high school students are urged to attend the dance.

Oregon Products Campaign To Start

Silverton—As a result of a personal conference with Governor Meier in Salem Wednesday, Mr. O. B. Benton as instigator of the "Oregon Loyalty campaign" in connection with her chairmanship of the state committee of Oregon Products, won the governor's approval of the campaign. He gave a written endorsement of the movement, which continues through the month from January 9.

The Oregon Federation of Women's clubs and Mrs. Benton are using club leaders, merchants, growers, manufacturers and all individual buyers and consumers to use and boost Oregon-made goods and Oregon grown products, especially during this month.

"To sell Oregon to Oregonians is one certain means of bettering business conditions," the governor stated.

Victoria, B. C. Maid Weds at Dallas

Monmouth—The marriage of Miss Mary McTavish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. McTavish, of Victoria, B. C., and G. M. Prime, son of N. Prime of Monmouth, took place in Dallas Tuesday evening, January 3, with Rev. Petre officiating. The bride is a graduate of Oregon Normal school and until recently was teaching at Cushman.

The art appreciation section of the Salem Arts League met Tuesday evening, January 3, at the home of Mrs. Elsa Ebsen on State street. Anton Piers of Portland gave the first of a series of lectures. The next meeting will be held on February 7.

Silverton—Friends of Miss Jennie Brenden are interested to learn of her marriage last Saturday to George Williamson of Westport, near Astoria. Mrs. Williamson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Iver Brenden of the Evans Valley community.

Shattock-Thomas Nuptials Solemnized

Jefferson—Word has been received of the marriage of Miss Muriel Thomas on the evening of December 22, to James V. Shattock, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor T. Shattock in Oakland, Cal. Rev. Doran, officiated at the M. E. church, officiated.

The bride was attractive in a gown of white satin and carried a bouquet of pink roses and maiden hair fern. Elsie Shattock, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and the groom's brother, Ronald Shattock acted as best man.

Following the ceremony supper was served to the relatives and friends of the family who attended the wedding.

After a wedding trip the young couple will go to Arizona where the groom is employed with the Southern Pacific company.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thomas of Tangent, former residents of Jefferson and is well known in this community where she has a host of friends.

Hubbard Club Entertained

Hubbard—The Hubbard Women's club met at the rural home of Mrs. Margaret Anderson Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Cora Smith, Mrs. Laura Jackson and Mrs. Elizabeth Fobert assisted in entertaining. Refreshments were served after the business session and the usual educational program of the club.

Roll call was responded to with "My hopes for the New Year." The national anthem was sung with Mrs. Neva McKenzie at the piano. Papers were read by Mrs. Ethel Bell and Mrs. Ida Garland, the former of "Daughter of the Sun" and the latter on "Kewtown," by Princess Der Ling. As the songs of Stephen Foster are featured in the year's program the members sang "Old Black Joe," as a closing number.

It was decided at the meeting to give a "500" party open to the public, February 11, at the Pythian hall if the hall can be secured for that evening. Nervous, Pains in Side

Junction City, Oregon—"A few years ago I became very nervous, also suffered from headaches and pains in my back, side and limbs. I was in bed about one month. The doctor gave me very little help," said Mrs. John Wright of Greenwood St. "I started taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and noticed a big change after using the second bottle and when I had finished the sixth bottle I can truthfully say my nerves were normal. I slept fine at night, felt strong and well again and the pains and aches had left me." Sold by all druggists.

Write to Dr. Pierce's, Glenside, Buffalo, N. Y., for free medical advice.

GERVAIS GIRLS TO BE DANCE SPONSORS

Gervais—Plans were made for a dance to be given at the Parish hall Wednesday evening, January 11, by the F. L. girls at their regular meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vogt Wednesday.

The F. L. club are inviting the members of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges to their dance next week. Arrangements will also be made for those who do not dance or play cards. A small charge for refreshments will be made to defray expenses.

Minnie McDonald was installed as vice-president of the club, and Ellen Vogt as secretary. The president, Claire Watta, was absent, but will be installed at the next meeting. After the business meeting the F. L. girls and their guests played cards until the refreshment hour.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vogt, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barnett, Mrs. J. C. McDonald and son Jackie, Miss Alice Massey, the Misses Ellen and Pearl Vogt, and Robert Massey.

Called to Funeral—Miss Helen Hunlock of San Francisco, who came to Mr. Angel to attend the funeral of her father, Tolbert Hook, is now spending a vacation at the home of her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hook, Charles McGee of Milbrook, S.
