

MAYOR THOMAS TAKES OFFICE FOR 3RD TIME

Independence—The city council met in executive session Wednesday evening and after closing the work of the year, the newly elected members for the ensuing year were sworn in by B. F. Swope, retiring city recorder.

Mayor A. L. Thomas, who was reelected after serving two terms as city mayor named his appointees and these were confirmed by the new council. Very few changes were made in the personnel of the executive and appointive offices. Those being seated for the year 1933 were as follows: A. L. Thomas, mayor; A. H. Phelps, city recorder; Harry G. Keeney, A. H. Foster and R. W. Craven as councilmen. The holdovers on the council are Guy G. Walker, J. E. Hubbard and W. H. Cocker.

Appointments were made as follows: I. D. Dix, city treasurer; B. F. Swope, city attorney; Dr. George C. Knott, health officer; A. E. Horton, city engineer; Oscar Moore, chief of police; J. M. Crabtree, police officer and street worker; R. M. Brown, pound-master; Ray Harmon, wire inspector. All the latter were reappointments excepting the city attorney which office was newly created by ordinance of the last council at a preceding meeting.

Members of the library board: Z. C. Kimball, Miss Myra Montgomery, Mrs. G. G. Godfrey and R. W. Craven as purchasing agent. The following committees were appointed by the mayor: street committee, J. E. Hubbard, H. G. Keeney, A. W. Foster; finance, H. G. Keeney, G. G. Walker and R. W. Craven; fire and water, G. E. Hubbard, R. W. Craven and J. E. Walker; police, W. H. Cocker, J. E. Hubbard, A. W. Foster; health, R. W. Craven, G. G. Walker and W. H. Cocker; ordinance, A. W. Foster, W. H. Cocker, H. G. Keeney; park, G. G. Walker, R. W. Craven and A. W. Foster.

Application were received from J. B. Violette and Roscoe Staats for renewal of their pool room and card permits and the city recorder was directed to grant such permits upon filing of proper bond and payment of license fees.

REVIVAL CAMPAIGN OPENS AT WOODBURN

Woodburn—The Pacific northwest gospel trio, which includes Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ames and Val Cloud, has commenced a series of evangelistic services at the Bethel Presbyterian church. Song services are held each evening led by Ames and special musical numbers are a feature of each service. Meetings begin at 7:30 o'clock on week days and at 8 o'clock on Sundays.

Rev. Houdinot Seeley has chosen "Another" for his subject at the Woodburn Presbyterian church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Olema S. Hartung will speak at the morning service of the Methodist Episcopal church on the topic "Prophecy, New and Old." Special music will be given by the choir. At the evening service a sacred concert will be given by the DeMoss ensemble.

LEGION, AUXILIARY HOLD SOCIAL EVENT

Dallas—Carl B. Fenton post of the American Legion met with its Auxiliary unit for a covered dish dinner Thursday night prior to the usual business meetings. Guests for the evening were Comrades Ackley of Portland Post No. 1 and Dr. Adams, formerly of Reedpost but now a resident of Dallas. Members of the school patrol are slated to be guests of the post at its next meeting and an invitation is being extended to Lieut. Walter Lansing and W. J. Mulkey, Jr., of the state police to attend and talk to the boys on the movement.

Plans are also being made to have the winners of the school awards in past years attend a meeting in company with this year's winners. Jack Eakin, state commander, gave an account of his recent trip and the excellent time he had had especially in the cuisine line. He also mentioned that the soldiers' home at Roseburg would be dedicated some time in May and that it was hoped that a commanders and adjutants' conference would be held there at that time. Eakin expressed the hope that as many post members who were able to do so would be present at the ceremonies. The meeting ended with a short dance and social hour.

Dance Is Planned

St. Mary's—The dance committee of the Catholic Daughters of America met at the home of Mrs. Paul Schwab to make arrangements for the "Hard Times" dance which they will give January 12 in the St. Mary's school auditorium. After the discussion of the plans Mrs. Schwab served a luncheon to the committee which consists of Mrs. Eleanor Schwab, chairman; Mrs. Rose Appleby, Mrs. Rose Wachter, Mrs. Mary Butsch, Mrs. Pauline Pickett and Mrs. Lauretta Schwab.

C. D. A. WILL MEET

ML Angel—The Catholic Daughters of America will hold their business meeting Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the music room of St. Mary's school, with Mrs. Mary Le Doux presiding. The committee for the evening includes Mrs. Elizabeth Saalfeld, chairman; Mrs. Rose Rothfleisch, Mrs. Eunice Bauman, Mrs. Bernadine Zollner, Mrs. Cecelia Skontzki, Mrs. Theresa May, and Mrs. Tillie Mickel.

M'Kee Attractive To School Prowler

McKee—It is getting to be rather a habit with thieves breaking into the McKee school. The building was entered recently for the second time within a period of six weeks. The teachers' desk was ransacked, the cupboards evidently looking for money as nothing of value was missed. Entrance was gained by prying out a pane of glass. The thieves took a water bucket the first time.

CLUB CAMPAIGN TO OPEN SOON

Silverton—The Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs in its "Oregon Loyalty" campaign, hope for the cooperation of all the school children in the state in putting over 100 percent programs for Oregon during the last three weeks of January. There has been arranged committees to instruct the school children to sing songs by Oregon composers, give poems and readings by Oregon authors, and to remind their mothers to serve all Oregon menus and lunches for schools. To submit recipes for Oregon products, and many other things that only children understand the object of home boosting. The junior women club members are interviewing the manufacturers and merchants in Silverton, and every business house that sells Oregon products, to feature, show, display, advocate and exhibit Oregon-made goods.

VISITORS DEPART FOLLOWING VISIT

Mt. Angel—Mt. Angel folk have had quite a number of visitors this week. Volney C. Cousins of Seattle, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Schwab, left for his home. Mrs. Teckla Van Hatten, also of Seattle, will remain for a few more days at the Schwab home and upon her departure will make a trip to California. Lawrence Butsch of San Francisco left for his home after spending a number of days with his father, Henry Butsch, who has been seriously ill. Mrs. Mike Senko of Cornelius is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary Ficker, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Barth and family of Portland were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Diehl. Miss Sybil Michels of Portland spent several days at the home of her mother, Mrs. Louise Michels. Alice Bialy, who is attending school at the Central Junior college, spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bialy. The Misses Mary, Ann, and Martha Bialy of Salem spent a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bialy. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eisen of Seattle were visiting friends in Mt. Angel Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Eisen was formerly editor of the Mt. Angel News and at present is advertising manager of the Washington State Grange Bulletin, Seattle.

ROWE WILL DIRECT STAYTON PHONES

Stayton—H. J. Rowe was elected president and general manager of the Stayton Mutual Telephone company at the annual meeting. Other officers are W. A. Weddle, E. D. Alexander, secretary-treasurer, and Grant Murphy was chosen as representative to the switchboard association.

Cracks Ribs Again

Silverton—T. E. Preston is recovering from a fall in the woodshed of his home, in which he cracked two ribs. This is the third time within a few years that he has had to carry the same side "in a sling" from broken ribs.

Rape Is Charged

Dallas—The grand jury returned an indictment Friday against L. H. Beam for the crime of rape upon his daughter. The offense is alleged to have been committed December 10. The girl is 13 years of age.

Houghmans Hosts

Mt. Angel—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Houghman entertained a number of their friends at a party in their country home. Games and cards were the diversions of the evening and at a late hour luncheon was served by the hostess. Those present included Miss Doris Hoffman, Miss Pennel, Miss Beatrice Guitard, Joek Webb, Albert Lockinger, Andrew Drysdale, J. Sharp and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Houghman.

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

DISTRICT MEET OF LEGION HAS DATE SELECTED

Silverton—Plans were completed at meetings of the executive committees of both the Legion and the Auxiliary during the week, for the district conference, divisions of which will be held in each county Tuesday, January 17. Both groups will postpone their regular meetings Monday night and will conduct their separate business sessions for each, preceding a joint social hour. Talking part in the Silverton meetings are members from Stayton, Woodburn and Salem.

LODGE FOUNDER GIVEN HONORS

Silverton—Observation of the 15th anniversary of the birth of Thomas Wilder, founder of the order of American Oddfellows, will be the theme of the program accompanying the joint installation of officers of the I. O. O. F., Silver lodge No. 21, and of the Tryphena Rebekahs No. 38, at the local hall Saturday night.

THURSDAY THIMBLE CLUB ENTERTAINED

Riverview—The Thursday Thimble club met at the home of Mrs. Zolpha Kelly with Mrs. Anna Holt as joint hostess. Due to the abundance of sickness in the neighborhood only 15 members were present.

Junior Orchestra Starts Rehearsals

Silverton—After a holiday spell, the Silverton junior symphony orchestra will resume rehearsals Monday evening at the 4-L hall. The orchestra, directed by Hal Campbell, has an enrollment of 50 members, and is engaged in working up a concert program which will include Haydn's 6th Symphony, known as "The Surprise."

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

Sodaloty Planning Social On Monday

Mt. Angel—Monday evening at 8 o'clock the Young Men's sodaloty will entertain at a social in the St. Mary's school auditorium to honor the new members of their sodaloty. The Young Ladies' sodaloty will be invited as guests for the evening. A short program given by the boys will open the evening.

Farmer Union Session Will Ask Low Fees

Perrydale—The January meeting of the Farmers' Union of Perrydale local was held Thursday night at the school auditorium. A good sized crowd attended. Several visitors of other locals were present, and also the state president, L. H. McBea, and two members of the state board, Walter Russel of Bellevue local and Abe Rempel of Mt. Pisgah local. Talks were given by these men concerning the activities of the state board.

Small Linn Bridge Damage Runs High

Albany—Members of the Linn county court, who have completed an inspection tour of Linn county, report considerable damage done to new roads and small bridges in all parts of the county by the recent heavy rains and high water.

Extension Course Is Made Available

Silverton—Miss Mozelle Hairhead of the correspondence study department of the state schools, has issued an invitation to graduates of graduates of the senior high schools who cannot afford to attend the higher institutions of learning, to avail themselves of correspondence work at a nominal cost. Any correspondence work of college grade can earn a pupil up to within 45 hours of graduation. Summer sessions are counted as resident work. Mr. Kramer is announcing to all post-graduates that this can be arranged through the general extension division of the University of Oregon.

Junior Orchestra Starts Rehearsals

Silverton—After a holiday spell, the Silverton junior symphony orchestra will resume rehearsals Monday evening at the 4-L hall. The orchestra, directed by Hal Campbell, has an enrollment of 50 members, and is engaged in working up a concert program which will include Haydn's 6th Symphony, known as "The Surprise."

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

Amity Forum Names Electoral Group

Amity—The Amity commercial club met Wednesday noon in the Methodist church. As this was the time for election of officers the following were nominated and from this number the officers for the year will be chosen: O. E. Roth, A. W. Newby, Guy Nott, Ernest Gibbs, F. E. Mauser, A. B. Watt and H. W. Torbet. After the business meeting Major Schools of the mounted police of Canada gave a talk on prohibition. About 14 were present at dinner.

School Bands Will Compete

Silverton—The school band has commenced preparatory rehearsals for the coming state contest to be held at the University of Oregon sometime late in March. The selection to be played by all bands is the "Lustspiel" overture by Kela Bela, Hungarian composer. This second number has been left to the choice of the band masters. The Silverton group will play for their second number a selection entitled "Reminiscences of Weber," a selection especially arranged by Hal Campbell, director. Campbell has selected arias and concerted music from Weber's operas—Freischutz, Euryanthe and Oberon. Throughout the arrangement, each soloist is featured and the ensembles are strikingly contrasted. Weber's music is particularly adaptable to band arrangements, being highly dramatic and always melodious.

Switchboard Fees Placed Under Fire

Liberty—The annual meeting was held by the stockholders of telephone lines 108 and 137 Thursday evening at the community hall. The regular business meeting was also taken care of. Discussions were made on ways and means of reducing the switchboard fees. It was voted for this company to go on record as being in favor of support of the committee, already chosen, by different rural telephone companies to appear before the public utilities commissioner in regard to the fees now charged.

Leave For Islands

Bethany—Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Cochran and baby recently of Chehalis, Wash., left Wednesday for Honolulu, where Cochran will be in the newspaper business. The Cochrans were guests for several days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Larson.

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

Hot School Lunch Project Success

Liberty—The hot school lunches, provided by the Woman's club and the community are proving to be quite a success. The women have their plans well outlined and menus planned for all the month of January. Hot chocolate and soups are served on alternate days. Liberal donations by residents of the community make the cash expenditure very small. The lunches are served free to the pupils.

City Reservoir Will Be Probed

Turner—The first Turner city council meeting of the new year was held Tuesday night at the Prather drug store, as a temporary arrangement while the city hall was surrounded by high water. The newly elected mayor and two councilmen being sworn in office with H. R. Peetz administering the oath of office to George Crume, mayor, to serve for two years and A. E. Robertson and Perry Baker as councilmen for terms of four years duration. The treasurer's report was read and accepted. On account of illness E. J. Harrison, the retiring mayor, was unable to be present for the meeting.

Church Groups Cast Ballots

Jefferson—Members and friends of the Evangelical Christian Endeavor held their annual church meeting and election of officers recently. During the brief program a Christian Endeavor newspaper was read by Beulah Wilson. Rev. G. P. Dunning presided at the business session. The following officers were elected: Laura Kihl, president; Glenn Wilson, vice president; Evelyn Gulvin, secretary; Walter Kihl, treasurer, and Nettie Reeves, pianist. Sunday school officers elected were: Mrs. Helen Kihl, superintendent; Mrs. A. Wilson, assistant superintendent; John Kihl, secretary; Frances Weddle, librarian, and Mrs. J. T. Jones, pianist. Walter Kihl was elected church trustee for a term of three years and Miss Anna Klumpke was elected trustee to serve the remaining year of the unexpired term of E. W. Lester, who recently moved to Medford. A social time was held.

Industry Rebekah Officers Seated

Amity—District Deputy Mrs. Nellie Rogers, assisted by staff of past noble grand installed the following officers at the last regular meeting of Industry Rebekah lodge. Miss Mildred Harrison, noble grand; Mrs. May Dickey, vice-grand; Mrs. Bessie Sorenson, recording secretary; Mrs. Mable Yarnes, financial secretary. Appointive officers are Mrs. Venusha Newby, R.S.N.G.; Mrs. Lena Harrison, L.S. N.G.; Mrs. Edith Mack, R.S.V.G.; Mrs. Eva Roth, L.S.V.G.; Mrs. Mattie Hess, chaplain; John Gibbs, inside guardian; Mrs. Phoebe Osborn, outside guardian; Mrs. Gertrude Richter, conductress.

Tune In Popularity Quarter Hour

Station KALE—1300 kilocycles 6:30 P. M.

Star To Celebrate

Woodburn—Everygreen chapter No. 41, Order of the Eastern Star, will celebrate the 37th anniversary of its organization Monday evening.

Warner Bros. Capitol

LAST TIMES TODAY!

Romantic! Dramatic! Spectacular!

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

STARTS SUNDAY! Exotic women! Cruel men of the world's last terror-shadowed frontier! Deep in the heart of the Kongo, a white man and his blood-thirsty ape ruled this savage empire!

LOVE MADE THEM CONQUERORS! A picture that will indelibly stamp the memory of every man, woman and child...with happiness and faith in humanity!

RICHARD ANN DIX · HARDING THE CONQUERORS

Cards Are Enjoyed At Klinger Home

Mt. Angel—Miss Olive Klinger was hostess at a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Klinger, Wednesday evening, when she entertained a number of her friends. Games and dancing was enjoyed by her guests during the evening. At a late hour a luncheon was served by the hostess, who was assisted in serving by her mother. The following were the guests present: Miss Dorothy Schwab, Miss Estelle Bauman, Miss Mary Wachter, Miss Constance Conrad, Miss Georganna Bourbonnais, Miss Delphine Ebner, Miss Anna Bigler, Mrs. Letitia Zollner, Raymond Rothfleisch, Andrew Wachter, William Beyer, Sylvester Schmitt, Raymond Terhaar, Gerald Zollner, Virgil Klinger and Paul Wachter.

Church Groups Cast Ballots

Jefferson—Members and friends of the Evangelical Christian Endeavor held their annual church meeting and election of officers recently. During the brief program a Christian Endeavor newspaper was read by Beulah Wilson. Rev. G. P. Dunning presided at the business session. The following officers were elected: Laura Kihl, president; Glenn Wilson, vice president; Evelyn Gulvin, secretary; Walter Kihl, treasurer, and Nettie Reeves, pianist. Sunday school officers elected were: Mrs. Helen Kihl, superintendent; Mrs. A. Wilson, assistant superintendent; John Kihl, secretary; Frances Weddle, librarian, and Mrs. J. T. Jones, pianist. Walter Kihl was elected church trustee for a term of three years and Miss Anna Klumpke was elected trustee to serve the remaining year of the unexpired term of E. W. Lester, who recently moved to Medford. A social time was held.

Industry Rebekah Officers Seated

Amity—District Deputy Mrs. Nellie Rogers, assisted by staff of past noble grand installed the following officers at the last regular meeting of Industry Rebekah lodge. Miss Mildred Harrison, noble grand; Mrs. May Dickey, vice-grand; Mrs. Bessie Sorenson, recording secretary; Mrs. Mable Yarnes, financial secretary. Appointive officers are Mrs. Venusha Newby, R.S.N.G.; Mrs. Lena Harrison, L.S. N.G.; Mrs. Edith Mack, R.S.V.G.; Mrs. Eva Roth, L.S.V.G.; Mrs. Mattie Hess, chaplain; John Gibbs, inside guardian; Mrs. Phoebe Osborn, outside guardian; Mrs. Gertrude Richter, conductress.

Tune In Popularity Quarter Hour

Station KALE—1300 kilocycles 6:30 P. M.

Star To Celebrate

Woodburn—Everygreen chapter No. 41, Order of the Eastern Star, will celebrate the 37th anniversary of its organization Monday evening.

Warner Bros. Capitol

LAST TIMES TODAY!

Romantic! Dramatic! Spectacular!

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

STARTS SUNDAY! Exotic women! Cruel men of the world's last terror-shadowed frontier! Deep in the heart of the Kongo, a white man and his blood-thirsty ape ruled this savage empire!

LOVE MADE THEM CONQUERORS! A picture that will indelibly stamp the memory of every man, woman and child...with happiness and faith in humanity!

RICHARD ANN DIX · HARDING THE CONQUERORS

Cards Are Enjoyed At Klinger Home

Mt. Angel—Miss Olive Klinger was hostess at a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Klinger, Wednesday evening, when she entertained a number of her friends. Games and dancing was enjoyed by her guests during the evening. At a late hour a luncheon was served by the hostess, who was assisted in serving by her mother. The following were the guests present: Miss Dorothy Schwab, Miss Estelle Bauman, Miss Mary Wachter, Miss Constance Conrad, Miss Georganna Bourbonnais, Miss Delphine Ebner, Miss Anna Bigler, Mrs. Letitia Zollner, Raymond Rothfleisch, Andrew Wachter, William Beyer, Sylvester Schmitt, Raymond Terhaar, Gerald Zollner, Virgil Klinger and Paul Wachter.

Church Groups Cast Ballots

Jefferson—Members and friends of the Evangelical Christian Endeavor held their annual church meeting and election of officers recently. During the brief program a Christian Endeavor newspaper was read by Beulah Wilson. Rev. G. P. Dunning presided at the business session. The following officers were elected: Laura Kihl, president; Glenn Wilson, vice president; Evelyn Gulvin, secretary; Walter Kihl, treasurer, and Nettie Reeves, pianist. Sunday school officers elected were: Mrs. Helen Kihl, superintendent; Mrs. A. Wilson, assistant superintendent; John Kihl, secretary; Frances Weddle, librarian, and Mrs. J. T. Jones, pianist. Walter Kihl was elected church trustee for a term of three years and Miss Anna Klumpke was elected trustee to serve the remaining year of the unexpired term of E. W. Lester, who recently moved to Medford. A social time was held.

Industry Rebekah Officers Seated

Amity—District Deputy Mrs. Nellie Rogers, assisted by staff of past noble grand installed the following officers at the last regular meeting of Industry Rebekah lodge. Miss Mildred Harrison, noble grand; Mrs. May Dickey, vice-grand; Mrs. Bessie Sorenson, recording secretary; Mrs. Mable Yarnes, financial secretary. Appointive officers are Mrs. Venusha Newby, R.S.N.G.; Mrs. Lena Harrison, L.S. N.G.; Mrs. Edith Mack, R.S.V.G.; Mrs. Eva Roth, L.S.V.G.; Mrs. Mattie Hess, chaplain; John Gibbs, inside guardian; Mrs. Phoebe Osborn, outside guardian; Mrs. Gertrude Richter, conductress.

Tune In Popularity Quarter Hour

Station KALE—1300 kilocycles 6:30 P. M.

Star To Celebrate

Woodburn—Everygreen chapter No. 41, Order of the Eastern Star, will celebrate the 37th anniversary of its organization Monday evening.

Warner Bros. Capitol

LAST TIMES TODAY!

Romantic! Dramatic! Spectacular!

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

STARTS SUNDAY! Exotic women! Cruel men of the world's last terror-shadowed frontier! Deep in the heart of the Kongo, a white man and his blood-thirsty ape ruled this savage empire!

LOVE MADE THEM CONQUERORS! A picture that will indelibly stamp the memory of every man, woman and child...with happiness and faith in humanity!

RICHARD ANN DIX · HARDING THE CONQUERORS

Advertisement for Sherlock Holmes featuring Arthur Conan Doyle. Includes text: 'TOMORROW EXPOSES MODERN CRIME METHODS!', 'SHERLOCK HOLMES', 'with LIVE BROOK Miriam Jordan Ernest Torrence', 'Something new in Detective Drama!', 'Last Times Today', 'TONE! The SUNDOWN RIDER', 'GRAND'.

Advertisement for Hollywood Theatre. Includes text: 'All Home Owned Theatre HOLLYWOOD', 'Home of 25c Talks LAST TIMES TODAY', 'The IRON MASTER Reginald DENNY and Lilo LEE', 'Also Slim Summersville Comedy News, Cartoons, Comedy and Harry Carey in "The Last of the Mohicans"', 'ATTEND OUR 9 O'CLOCK SHOW SATURDAY NIGHT AND REMAIN FOR OUR 11:15 MIDNIGHT MATINEE FREE', 'LILA LEE UNHOLY LOVE H.B. WARNER', 'Joyce Compton Ivan Lebedeff Lyle Talbot Reryl Mercer', 'SUNDAY, MONDAY AND TUESDAY Continuous Performance Sunday, 2 to 11 P. M.', 'The Greatest Woman's Pictures Ever Produced FANNIE HURST'S', 'Back Street with IRENE DUNNE JOHN BOLES', 'George Meeker, Zasa Pitt