BIRTHDAYS OF GRANGERS ARE TO BE HONORED

Silverton Hills—A number of interesting features characterized the regular meeting of the grange Friday night, including reading of reports and passing resolutions, and the institution of a "birthday night" each three months in honor of the members whose birthday anniversaries will have been within the three months preceding.

A number of committee chairmen reported on their experience at the meeting of the tax reduction league in Salem. The group unanimously passed a resolution favoring Ray W. Gill, state grange master. In his stand concerning the passing of the sales tax.

C. V. Murray gave a short address during the lecture hour on the duties of a chaplain. Other members gave talks on subjects of concern to the work of the grange.

A banquet was served to the large crowd with special honor accorded those whose birthday anniversaries had been within the past six months. These were seated at a special table. Mrs. Oscar Lee was chairman of the refreshment committee, with Mrs. E. A. Beugli making personal gifts as favors for the honor guests, and Mrs. L. O. Hadley making the cakes for the banquet.

Specially honored were "Grandma" Murray, L. O. Hadley, Mr. Mable, George Benson, Victor Hadley, John and Bessie Techantz, Rita Maulding, I. E. Murray, Elmer Peterson, Clifford Maulding, Ethel Peterson, Mrs. M. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Beugli, J. H. Maulding, Mrs. Oscar Lee, Mrs. W. E. Parrish, C. V. Murray, Lois Alexander and Alfred Stark.

The little folks had a birthday table to themselves with places laid for Patricia Maulding, Lester Beugli, Bruce Alexander and Marjorie Maulding.

EVANGEL ATTRACTS CAPACITY HOUSES

Monmouth—A capacity audience was present both morning and evening Sunday for the evangelistic meeting now in progress at the Christian church. Special musical numbers featured both services. A vocal trio composed of Mrs. M. Butler and Mrs. A. Davis of Independence and Mrs. D. A. Hoag rendered a pleasing selection at the morning worship and in the evening a piano duo followed by a vocal number by DeVore Penhollow, formerly of Monmouth, were entertainment features. The speaker, Evangelist Teddy W. Leavitt, preached from the topics, "Like a Man, Like a God," and "A Study of God."

Sunday marked the beginning of the second week of the series of meetings conducted by Evangelist Leavitt. He is assisted by Miss Stephens, who leads the song service, and entertains the audience for a few minutes at each meeting with a drawing, done exceptionally well, in chalk. Miss Stephens is also directing the juvenile "Smile chorus" composed of boys ranging in age from 8 to 13 years, which meets the latter part of each afternoon.

The evangelistic meetings are held each evening in the week with the exception of Monday, which has been designated as "rest night." The meetings will continue for the month of January. Mrs. M. Mack, E. N. Gilliam, Mrs. E. C. Cole and Mrs. C. A. Hommel constitute the entertainment committee.

Drunk Charges Are Taken Into Court

Dallas—Jack Cullen was committed to the county jail Saturday night from West Salem where he had been arrested for being drunk in a public place.

Russell Henry, arrested Sunday night by Chief of Police Tony Neufeldt and Sheriff T. B. Hooker, on a drunk and disorderly charge, appeared in justice court Monday forenoon before Justice of the Peace Charles Gregory, who imposed a fine of $5.

ASPIRIN HONORED

Brooks—Mrs. R. M. Aspinwall entertained recently with a merry surprise party in compliment to her husband, R. M. Aspinwall, whose birthday anniversary it was. Cards were in play throughout the evening and at a late hour supper was served.

Those bidden to honor Mr. Aspinwall were Mrs. Ellen Aspinwall, Mrs. J. P. Aspinwall and daughter, Miss Lucille Aspinwall, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Aspinwall and children, Dean and Barbara Jean Aspinwall, all of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Aspinwall and son, Duane, of Astoria, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bump of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Aspinwall and daughters, Misses Bessie and Hattie Aspinwall of Brooks, and the hostess, Mrs. R. M. Aspinwall.

CARD SHARPERS UNDER ARREST

Silverton—Local police did some underground sleuthing Saturday night and brought to the light of the public those who were "fleeing" an elderly man, a recent arrival here, of a nice little fortune in a series of card games. Other definite evidences of what the authorities have been looking for were indicated. A game of poker was brought to an impolite close. Implicated were Monte Leonard, Harold Tegland, Ralph Staggs and two speculators, Jack Earlywine and Tom Wells of Mr. Angel. Coming out of the place as the police went in was a fellow by the name of Sandberg, according to the reports. The raid was made about 12:30 Sunday morning with Chief Arthur Dahl and night policemen Higginbotham and Kennedy making the investigations.

The rendezvous was well planned for protection from interference. It was located in the basement room under the stage of the Gem theater building which has not been in use for several years. A lighting and wiring system leading from a sandwich shop where the alarm lights to designate the approach of the enemy, had been secretly planned and from indications had been in operation for several weeks and Silverton, now can boast, if the choice of being in the speak-easy class of cities. Developments as to arrests are pending for a time.

WILL WILL PRESIDE OVER AURORA CLUB

Aurora—The Aurora Community club recently held its monthly meeting and officers elected for the ensuing year were J. M. Will, president; J. G. Church, vice president, and A. L. Strickland, secretary.

The club voted to sponsor a minstrel show to be staged in Aurora Friday, January 13, at the band hall. The show is under the auspices of the Hubbard Community band and is composed entirely of Hubbard people.

The committee in charge of arrangements here consists of J. G. Wursler, M. A. Peterson and A. W. Kraus.

CONVENTION BANNERS ARE WON BY LYONS

Mehama—The Santiam district Sunday school convention held Sunday at the Station Methodist church was represented by a delegation from Mehama. Due to the prevalence of the flu epidemic the crowd going was much smaller than usual. All three banners were won by Lyons this time.

Mehama—Miss Betty Gough returned to her home in Mill City Sunday after spending the past two weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. Gies Wagner.

Mehama—The Women's Christian Temperance Union of Turner will be entertained at the home of Mrs. P. C. Gunning Wednesday afternoon. An interesting program has been arranged by the committee in conjunction with an afternoon of sewing for the Children's Farm home, finishing garments worked on at the December meeting.

The active W. C. T. U. of the Cloverdale and Pleasant View districts met at the country home of Mrs. Louis Hennies for the January meeting. The all-day meeting was usual with a covered dish luncheon was served. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Ivan Hadley, followed by the business session presided over by Mrs. L. E. Hennies, president. Mrs. William Morris reported on the Christmas box furnished by the union, and sent to a needy family. Mrs. Walter Miller and Mrs. Alfred A. Dumbuck discussed the question, "What can we do to make our community a better place to live in?" Little Norval Hadley and Joyce Kunkle furnished special music with songs, Mrs. Ivan Hadley accompanying. The main diversion of the day was working on the new union quilt which is of the Dresden plate pattern.
