CLASS STAGES FIELD JAUNT; REPORT LATER

Silverton—A Friday afternoon class party for the vocational guidance group of the junior high school was featured in a detailed review of the "field trip" taken to Salem last week. Miss Edna Spunker, teacher, and senior and junior high dean of girls, purposely delayed the report of the trip to test the observation qualities of the members of the class. A week elapsed before they talked over the trip. The class members went to the teacher one by one, however, and arranged with the principal for a double period, staging a complete surprise for Miss Spunker in playing games and furnishing amusements, as well as giving the reports of their all-day visit to the places of their choice.

The pupils rather ignored the difficulties of a few flat tires being mended on the trailer that was well filled with enthusiasm, were taken to the capital city at the end of Miss Spunker's car, and told in remarkable detail the experiences of the trip. They took their lunches and were extended the hospitality of the Y.M.C.A. dining room at lunch time.

The most popular place and that recited about with keenest interest was the Capital Journal plant. They also saw just about all the details at the state library, city library, Y.M.C.A. gym and other attractions. Marinello shop with one of the boys submitting to a real facial. Stiff Furniture store, Bartholomew, architect; Olson's floral shop, U. S. National bank, the house and senate in action, and cigar smoke; and each and every one a student ride in the pole vaulted planes at the Eyerly field. The forestry department was second to the Capital Journal in interest.

The personnel of the class includes: Frankie Reed, Dorothy Hudson, Ina Weatherill, Amy Erickson, Fremont Arbuckle, Madeline Kercher, Clara Jarvis, Boyd Canoy, Margaret Langley, Florence Hallett, Sylvia Anderson, Robert Arthur, Edwin Claus, Clifford Snyder, Ruth Shepherd, Neal Ramsby, LaVerne Long, Lyle Specht, Donald Long, Charles Cross and Norris Ballanger.

SCIO ARRANGES ANNUAL DINNER FOR OLD GRADS

Scio—Preparations for the first annual banquet of the proposed Scio high school alumni-teacher association have passed the preliminary stage and are swinging into tangible form, according to those at the head of the movement. The banquet will be held January 21 at 7 o'clock. The Parent-Teacher association will serve the banquet, announces F. A. Gallegly, principal of the high school who is also organizer of the movement to form an association composed of Scio high graduates and past and present teachers of the school.

The hall at which the banquet is to be served has not been definitely determined but it was believed a room adequate for the occasion will be available. Attendance is expected to reach at least 100.

The primary objective motivating Gallegly in starting the movement for an alumni-teacher association was that of procuring and maintaining as accurate a history of the Scio high school as possible. He has enlisted the interest and assistance of many of the graduates of the school, the classes dating back to 1907, when Audie (Shelton) Myers was graduated. Birdelle (Brenner) Sticha and Rolla Shelton were members of the class of 1911, and Vella Brenner completed the course in 1914, according to information furnished the workers.

At the preliminary meeting Nov. 23 at which the plans were inaugurated, Rolla Shelton was chosen temporary chairman and Lucille Sommer temporary secretary. A committee composed of Audie Myers, Birdelle Sticha, George Stodard, Gilbert Calavan, Ronald Sommer and Wilbur Johnston was appointed, with instructions to assist the temporary officers in securing a list of graduates eligible to become members. It was decided that all graduates, including their wives and husbands be included in the guest list for the organization meeting and banquet.

The banquet committee consists of Glen Thurston, Doris Neptune and Georgia Whitney, while the matter of a program devolves upon a committee composed of Mrs. Glen Thurston, Mary Lois Goar and M. H. Beal.
