Impressive Nuptials Solemnized

At a charmingly simple ceremony solemnized in the Leslie Memorial church at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening Miss Fieda Hickman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy N. Hickman Sr., became the bride of Harold Dunsmore, son of George Dunsmore of Portland. Rev. S. Darlow Johnson read the service in the presence of immediate members of the two families and a few intimate friends.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Guy Hickman, Jr., was lovely in a gown of white satin, made in princess style, with long sleeves. Her tulle veil was edged with lace and she wore a strand of pearls. She carried Tallman roses and blue sweet peas.

Her sister, Mrs. Harold Kelley, was matron of honor. She wore a smart afternoon gown of Nile green chiffon with a shirred velvet bodice and puff sleeves. Her corsage was of roses and sweet peas. Harold Kelley served as best man for Mr. Dunsmore. Mrs. Tyler Brown, aunt of the bride, played the wedding march.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hickman, Sr., on Leslie street, with 25 bidden for the affair.

After January 21 Mr. and Mrs. Dunsmore will be at home to their friends at 482 South High street.
