

COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL PEOPLE GATHER SUNDAY

Silverton—Homer Livesay was the speaker of the program Sunday afternoon for the Sunday school district convention of Marion county, held at the First Christian church.

Harvey Hallett, president, acted as chairman, and Freeman Keller, secretary. Nine Sunday school organizations compose the district group. Livesay is superintendent of the Pratum Mennonite Sunday school. He used as his topic a general educational theme, illustrating his talk with his own sketches or cartoons on Biblical subjects.

The award of the banner for best percent of attendance went to the Silverton Christian Missionary Alliance, of which Rev. McHarvey is pastor. The local Christian church was second. For attendance at the conference, also went to the Alliance Sunday school, with second to the Silverton Hills organization.

F. M. Powell was song leader with Miss Bertha Alm as violinist and Mrs. Powell at the piano.

Rev. C. J. Hall, pastor of the local Methodist church, conducted the devotional, stressing the need of educational Sunday school teachers as well as spiritualized. Four-year-old Donald Lewis of the Alliance school recited the books of the Bible from memory. Vocal trio was given by Ruth Keller, Margery and Patricia Maulding, of Silverton Hills.

Fred DeVries of Salem, president of the Marion County Sunday school council of Christian education, announced the two-day convention the latter part of February, to be held in Salem at the Presbyterian church.

Roberts Club Women Guest At Luncheon

Roberts—Members of the G. T. club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Bud Stutesman Thursday at a 1 o'clock luncheon. She was assisted by Mrs. S. C. Davenport and Mrs. Ed Harnsberger. Covers were placed for Mrs. Alice Goodridge, Mrs. Ella Bressler, Mrs. Kathryn Woodward, Mrs. Lou Lahnson, Mrs. E. A. Goodrich, Mrs. Albert Blankenship, Mrs. Buster Klein, Mrs. G. F. Jungwirth, Mrs. Leonard Ziehlke, Mrs. Robert Ziehlke, Mrs. Robert Judson, Mrs. G. B. Bowman, Mrs. Flora Hooley, Mrs. Esther Query, Mrs. W. C. Pettyjohn, Mrs. F. V. Edwards, Mrs. J. P. Bressler, Mrs. S. O. Davenport, Mrs. John O'Brien and the hostess, Mrs. Bud Stutesman.

Hortsch Building

Woodburn—Steve Hortsch, who recently moved here from Umatilla, has begun the construction of a building on the east side of the Pacific highway between Young and Lincoln streets which he will use to house a general auto wrecking business, auto service and repair shop. The land was formerly owned by Otto Durant who traded it to Hortsch for a service station at Umatilla.

Silverton Welfare Store Busy Place

Silverton—The welfare store continues to be a busy place Saturdays, with the Red Cross chapter functioning locally in connection with this work. Serving Saturday were the two committee chairmen, Mrs. Ed Holden and Mrs. L. L. Stewart, assisted by Mrs. T. Holdenstrom, Mrs. C. M. Wray and Miss Emma Adamson. The supply of clothing and shoes for both boys and girls from 12 to 18 years of age is still short, and groceries are always well placed.

RURAL ELECTRICITY ADVISE BROADCAST

Silverton—The Smith-Hughes department has enlisted with the Oregon State college department of agricultural engineering radio course on rural electrification.

The rural engineering class of the local schools as well as other departments over the state, tune in on the radio station KOAC each Monday and Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 2:30 o'clock for the lectures given by Prof. Clyde Walker. Radio work is supplemented by the studies, outlines and problems.

The three lessons already held are two on fundamentals of electricity, and one on individual electric plants. The lessons will continue throughout January. Warren E. Crabtree is the instructor in charge.

Kill Kare Members Launch Club Session

Independence—The members of the Kill Kare club opened the new year with the first meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Swope on South Sixth street Friday evening. After the usual no-host dinner at the Ray and Fry cafe they repaired to the Swope home where "500" was played until a late hour. Mrs. Swope served a punch, assisted by the president, Mrs. Elmer Addison, J. S. Robble was successful bidder for high score for the men, and Mrs. Stella Calbreath topped the list for the women. A short business meeting was held at the close, announcing that Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Mattison would be next hosts of the club.

Meeting Cut Short

Gates—Because of sickness among officers and club members the improvement club had but a short business meeting Thursday afternoon. The hostesses that were to meet at this meeting will be in charge at the February meeting. Mrs. Ed Davis, vice-president, had charge of the meeting. Those present for the meeting were Mrs. Ed Davis, Mrs. A. B. Horner, Mrs. Roy Taylor, Mrs. Edwin Lawson, Mrs. Gerald Heath, Mrs. Ruby Winters, Mrs. Clyde Thomas, Mrs. Ed Collins, Mrs. E. V. Collins, Mrs. Claud Sellard and Mrs. Guy Matney.

Silverton—Mrs. Mary Booth fell on the steps of her home Thursday, spraining her back. She was confined to her bed several days but is much improved. Mrs. Booth is the mother of Mrs. Mabel Schroeder.

CLUB YEAR HAS LARGE TURNOUT AT SCHOOL HALL

Turner—Approximately 200 people attended the opening meeting of the Turner Community club for the new year in the high school auditorium. A varied program was presented. The improvement club committee and the orchestra committee reports were not given, but Eddie Ahrens reported on the legislative committee; and the school tuition and bus transportation bill was reported on by J. G. Greenlee, member of the federated community clubs' legislative executive board, who also read a communication. Douglas B. Parkes spoke at length on Boy Scout conferences and the court of honor held at the court-house in Salem during December, at which the local troop was represented.

Rev. N. Sherman Hawk, director of the newly organized glee club and chorus of the community club, announced the second meeting for selection of duets, quartets, sextets, chorus work and organization. The report of the committee to investigate the cleaning of the auditorium following the club meetings was given by Henry Ahrens. C. L. Standley, janitor of the Turner school, has agreed to do the cleaning for $1 per club night. C. A. Bear reported on the federated community club meetings in Salem and announced he had extended an invitation for one of the meetings of the three divisions, glee club, dramatic and orchestra, to be held at Turner.

Douglas B. Parkes, chairman of the program committee, announced the program as follows: vocal duet, Margaret and Dorothy Schifferer, of Summit Hill, accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Bestvator; humorous readings, Rev. Hawk; comedy playlet, "A Quiet Family," members of Clear Lake Community club with parts taken by Martha Robertson, Lunelle Chapin, Neva S. Ith, Leona Orey, Dee Ely, Foss Shapin, Clifford Orey and Donald Orey, with whistling and harmonica numbers between acts by the Chapin brothers; short comedy, "Aunt Rachel's fright," by Cloverdale district with parts taken by Mrs. M. Garner, Glenn Garner, Melvin Holt, Alvin Garner and Florence and Rachel Garner under the direction of Mrs. Martin Schmidt.

Ross Chapin, president of Clear Lake Community club, spoke briefly, extending an invitation to local club members to visit his club. In appreciation of the entertainment furnished by Clear Lake, the Turner Dramatic club will present part of the program at a Clear Lake club meeting in return. A mass meeting of all Turner Community club members of the program committee including Turner, Summit Hill, Cloverdale, Crawford, Battle Creek and Pleasant View districts, was announced by Douglas B. Parkes, chairman, for the purpose of outlining the year's work.

Marion—Mrs. Warren Gray has returned from a visit with her daughter Dorothea at Seattle.

Falls City Church Leaders Are Chosen

Falls City—Church and Sunday school officers elected by the Christian church for the coming year are: Sunday school superintendent, Mrs. J. Ward; assistant superintendent, Tom James; primary superintendent, Mrs. Richard Pawl; secretary, Paul Heritage; corresponding secretary, Miss Lucy Goode; pianist, Mrs. Hazel Gronewald; church officers: pianist, Mrs. Ira Balles; treasurer, Mrs. Clay Guthridge; deacons, Mr. Murphy, Lucy Goode, Paul Heritage and Frances Phillips; deaconess, Mrs. W. R. Russell and Mrs. Frances Phillips.

Roller Skating Succeeds Yo Yo; Sport Attracts

Silverton—An epidemic of roller skating has hit Silverton. Not a yo-yo in sight. It never took a bright day to bring forth the menace, for the hundreds of youngsters swarm the streets and sidewalks in all kinds of weather. The motorists are having a serious problem in the downtown district to avoid accidents as the wildly waving arms appear from nowhere nor are they considerate of the driver as to traffic rules. Pedestrians are learning a new dodge dance step in an effort to protect ankles. And if someone would only invent a noiseless skate he could solve the depression problem over-night.

Jefferson Library Gets New Volumes

Jefferson—The following new books have been added to the shelves of the Jefferson library recently:

Mongolian Plains, Andrews; Great Hunger, Bolger; Camera Trails, Johnson; Napoleon, Ludwig; Bridal Wreath, Under; Good Earth, Buck; Captain Courageous, Kipling; Dr. of Lonesome Pine, Marshall; Inheritance, Bentley; Forgive Us Our Tresspasses, Douglas; Anxious Days, Gibbs; Happiness Hill, Hill; Rudi of the Toll Gate, Hill; Tree Haven, Norris; Bible Stories to Read and Tell, Olcott; The Happy Mountain, Chapman; On the Bottom, Elsborg; In My Zoo, Eipper; The Flight of the Wild Horse, Broster; The Lance of Kalona, French.

Scrafford Returns

Independence—Kirk Scrafford, who was seriously injured from a fall during the recent freeze and who was taken to a Corvallis hospital on account of a fractured arm and hip, revealed by the x-ray, has been removed to his home on the Luckiamute where he is slowly recovering from his injuries. He fell on an open porch which was icy and it was several days before his injuries became apparent when the x-ray was used. Kirk is the son of the late Marshall Scrafford, a pioneer of Polk county.

CLUB MEETS
Marion—The Community club will meet at the hall Tuesday evening. Miss Rose Hutton is arranging the program.

LEGION GROUP MEETS TUESDAY

Silverton—The American Legion and auxiliary are planning for several hundred members and visitors Tuesday night at the district conference, with special guests including members from Salem, Woodburn, Stayton and Dallas.

Dr. Paul I. Carter of the state veterans' hospital, will be the principal speaker of the evening. The sessions preliminary to the joint meeting will be in the nature of a school for the officers of the local groups. Special instructors for the auxiliary are Mrs. Alice George, Eugene, state president; Mrs. Dorothy Eakin of Dallas, vice-president; Mrs. Polly McInturf of Marshfield, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Helen Camp of Gresham, district president, will be in charge of the auxiliary school.

Well known legionnaires to be here are Jack Eakin, state commander; Jerry Owen, editor of the "Oregon Legionnaire"; Carl Moser, state adjutant; Bob Dillard, state service officer; Fred Deiner, Newberg, district commander; Allan Carson, Salem, commander of Capital post, and Keith Powell, Woodburn, commander of the Woodburn post.

A banquet and dance will feature the last part of the evening.

White Road Marker Will Help Traffic

Dallas—R. H. Baldock, state engineer, and William E. Chandler, district engineer, were in Dallas on Thursday conferring with the county court in connection with emergency and other highway work. Of particular news is the word that just as soon as the weather is favorable a white marker will be painted on the highway between here and Salem.

Cui Bono Sewing Club Entertained

Dallas—The Cui Bono sewing club met Friday at the home of Mrs. A. B. Dilley for a 1 o'clock luncheon with the following members present: Mrs. Eugene Hayter, Mrs. H. G. Black, Mrs. Vern Smith, Mrs. Frank Hobson, Mrs. R. Y. Morrison, Mrs. N. L. Guy, Mrs. Oscar Holmes, Mrs. Conrad Sistrin, Mrs. L. A. Hollman, Mrs. G. L. Hawkins, Mrs. Ed Himes and the hostess, Mrs. A. B. Dilley. A special guest of the club for the occasion was Mrs. E. J. Page. Officers elected for the coming year were: President, Mrs. R. Y. Morrison; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. N. L. Guy. Arrangements were made to entertain the husbands at dinner in the library hall February 24.

Quilts Are Made

Marion—A quilting party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Calaven Saturday night. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Robbins and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herman DeLaugh and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith, Mrs. Warren Gray, Emil Schermer, Lester Colgan, Elma and Frances Barber and Bill Bauman.

Brush Creek Club Play Is Popular

Brush Creek—The Booster club has selected its annual play and has begun rehearsals. The title of the comedy is "George in a Jam," and will be given in February. John C. Goplerud is director and character roles are taken by John Carl Goplerud, Jr., Elmer Grace, Inga Goplerud, Mrs. Theodore Grace, Fred and Alvin Krug, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hillman, Margaret Gelsok and Althea Meyer. These annual plays are usually given three or four nights to accommodate the crowds.

BROOKS CLUB WILL KEEP ALL LEADERS

Brooks—Mrs. Cecil V. Ashbaugh entertained the Brooks Community club at her home Thursday afternoon. After a short business session presided over by the president, Mrs. B. F. Ramp, the time was spent embroidering and sewing on novelty articles.

Election of officers resulted in the re-election of Mrs. B. F. Ramp, president, Mrs. Mary Martin, vice president, Mrs. S. A. Harris, secretary and Mrs. A. M. Dunlavy, treasurer.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ashbaugh to Mesdames A. E. Harris, Frank Snyder, B. F. Ramp, J. A. Hall, Virgil Loomis, S. A. Harris, A. M. Dunlavy, Misses Kreta Pae Ashbaugh, Delphine Loomis, Genivere Snyder and Sonny Snyder.

The next meeting will be held in the clubhouse in two weeks. At the close of the meeting readings were given by Mrs. Ramp and Mrs. S. A. Harris.

Friday The 13th Is Unlucky Day

Silverton—Friday the 13th took proverbial toll of Paul Staedell of the Evergreen community in the Dutch Flat neighborhood when he suffered a double fracture of the left leg. Staedell was removing an anchor post in the hop field with a team of horses when the post unexpectedly came out of the ground, striking him below the knee. He is being cared for at the local hospital.

Forum Will Meet

Woodburn—The Woodburn chamber of commerce will hold its first meeting of the year Wednesday evening at the Woodburn hotel, beginning with a banquet at 6:30 o'clock. John Ramage, the newly elected president, will preside and entertainment will be furnished by a team of high school girls.

Dallas—The Traveler's Insurance company has filed a complaint in circuit court against J. H. Rempel seeking a judgment in the sum of $2,300 with interest from November 1, 1931, to November 1, 1932.

MAN'S HEART STOPPED, STOMACH GAS CAUSE

W. L. Adams was blotted so with gas that his heart often missed beats after eating. Adierika rid him of all gas, and now he eats anything and feels fine. Sold in Salem by Perry's drug store.

HAZEL GREEN CLUB WORK TO CONTINUE

Hazel Green—The pupils in the upper grades of the local school have organized a 4-H cooking club and elected officers. Marvin VanCleave is president; Beatrice Johnson, vice-president and Bernice Lehrman, secretary.

Mrs. Louis Wampler who presided as leader of the Royal Cooks and Better Eats 4-H clubs last year, will be leader of the club again this year. The cooking club last year numbered 30 members and was awarded the honor of being the largest cooking club in the state with all members finishing their project 100 percent.

Members of this year's club are Bernice Lehrman, Maxine Wolfe, Hilda Slattum, Beulah Cook, Beatrice Johnson, Dorothy Dunigan, Clinton Wampler, Katherine Montandon, Marvin VanCleave, Ralph and Merle Smith, James Schneider, Caroline Casper, Geneva VanCleave, Alice Montandon, Gertrude Zielinski, Harriet Yunglan, Donald Dunigan, Orville Dunigan, Yohle Yoshika, and Daisy Rutherford.

Cannery Donates For Relief Work

Woodburn—A substantial donation of canned fruit has been given to the Woodburn charity board and Red Cross by the Ray-Brown cannery to be used locally for the needy. Demands for food are becoming more numerous as the winter advances and the need for supplies is great. C. J. Eppy, local chairman for the Red Cross, states that all food stuffs, not too perishable, will be gladly received for distribution by the volunteer workers who are giving much of their time to the worthy cause.

JOINS NAVY YARD

Silverton—Aden W. Kloffenstein of Silverton route 2, went to Brownston, Wash., Sunday morning to work in the United States navy yard as a sheet metal worker.

One Sure Way to End Coughs and Colds

Perseverant coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified croscote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs, croscote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to croscote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the croscote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (Adv.)

Nemo Sewing Club Will Offer Play

Hazel Green—Mrs. Edward Dunigan, Sr., was hostess to members of the Nemo Sewing club for the first meeting of the new year. The club elected a brief business meeting at which time plans were perfected for a rehearsal of the play which the club is sponsoring as their part of the next Community club program which will be given January 27. At the tea hour the hostess served refreshments to Mrs. S. H. VanTrump of Salem, Mrs. Lottie Rutherford, Mrs. Richard Tuve, Mrs. Dominie LaRose, Mrs. Paul Hight, Mrs. Adolph Kittelson, Mrs. Louis Wampler and daughter Marion Lou and Mrs. Fred Chapman.

Silverton—Kathleen Dahl was ill with a serious cold for several days at the hospital while recovering from numerous broken bones she received about a month ago when struck by an automobile. It is expected she will be in the hospital two or three months longer. She is the 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hartwick Dahl of Bethany community.

Sleep Like a Baby Stop Getting Up Nights

Sufferers Use Guaranteed Medicine for Poor Kidney Action

Thousands of men and women suffer from poorly functioning kidneys and bladder, are now learning the refreshing pleasure of sleeping well all night and are combating the annoying "Gettings Up Nights." Acidity, Nervousness, Stiffness, Backache, Burning and Leg Pains, due to functional Kidney Inactivity, by using quick-acting Cystex (pronounced Sistes), Works so fast it starts circulating through the system in 15 minutes, often giving amazing benefits in 24 to 48 hours. Try it under the fair-play guarantee. It must fix you up to your satisfaction or merely return empty package and get your money back. Only 75c at druggists. adv.

Stop The Itching of Eczema

Don't endure the torments of an unhealthy skin. Get a jar of soothing, healing Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap from your druggist. Bathe with the soap and warm water. Dry lightly and apply the Ointment. You will be amazed to see how quickly the itching stops, and healing begins.

FREE TRIAL
the package of Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. Write to Resinol, Dept. 10, Baltimore, Md.

Resinol

UNRESTRICTED CHOICE

— ANY PAIR OF SHOES IN THE STORE! —

WOMEN'S
MEN'S SHOES
SALE
Starts
Tuesday
9 A.M.

$2.95

WOMEN'S MEN'S SHOES
SALE
Starts
Tuesday
9 A.M.

Yes It's True---Every Pair of Shoes In The Store, Some Values Up To $6.95. Nothing Reserved, Not a Pair Excepted, Why, It Even Includes Our Men's 16 Inch High Tops Made of All Genuine Leather with Rubber Soles and all Men's Real Leather Shoes and Oxfords. The Women will Also Find Our Entire Stock Open To Their Selection. There Are Strips, Straps, Oxfords, In Fact Everything and Anything That One Might Want. This Is The Most Drastic Thing That We Have Done Since We Started Business In Salem. Come In!

326
STATE

OREGON SHOE CO.

Next To
Ladd &
Bush Bank