

EPWORTH'S TO OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Silverton—The Sunday program for the 40th annual convention of the Epworth League has been planned by the committee in charge of which Ralph Langley is chairman. The convention programs begin Sunday, February 5, and continue through two days of the following week. All present and former members of the Silverton Epworth League, and out-of-town visitors will be special guests of the Methodist church at this time.

Sunday's program is: Sunday school 10 o'clock. Sermon at 11 o'clock by Dr. M. A. Marcy of Salem, district superintendent of the Methodist church. Dinner in the church dining room at 12:30 o'clock.

Roll call of past officers and members of the Silverton Epworth League.

Testimonial meeting. Discussions of Epworth League topics led by Rev. Glen S. Hartong, pastor of the Woodburn congregation and president of the Salem district of Epworth League.

Supper at 6 o'clock. The evening service given over entirely to a musical program beginning at 7:30 o'clock by the concert orchestra conducted by Fred Baker, the adult choir led by Mrs. F. J. Roubal, and the junior choir led by Fred Baker.

Tentative plans for two programs for the week include the appearance of the Salem Drama Guild in "Why the Chimes Rang", a pageant with music and reading accompaniment. The play is beautiful in a cathedral setting. The philharmonic choir of 28 voices may be secured for Wednesday night's program.

The anniversary will be advertised in a stunt pep program number at the annual Salem district convention held at Newberg Saturday.

THREE CLUBS ADDED TO ROSTER IN POLK

Dallas—Fairview has organized a sewing club, Fox Grove a cooking club and Bruce College a hatcher's sewing club, according to the latest registrations on file in the office of the county school superintendent. Officers of the new organizations are:

Fairview: Lois Yocum, leader; Rosella Good, president; Lavee Fox, vice-president; Geneva Green, secretary. The names of six members are on the roster.

Fox Grove: Mrs. Ole Best, leader; Dorothea Freer, president; Barbara Clark, vice-president; Marion Jahn, secretary. Five girls belong to this club.

Bruce College: Mrs. Harry Bonney, leader; Vernon Root, president; Gaydon Blodgett, vice-president; Willard Glazo, secretary. This club has seven members.

Kill-Kare Players Guest, Mattisons

Independence—Members of the Kill-Kare club were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Mattison on Monmouth street after a no-host dinner at the Fry and Ray cafe Friday evening. Five hundred was the diversion of the evening with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Swope carrying off the honors. The hostess was assisted by her daughter Barbara and Mrs. E. E. Addison.

A short business meeting was held at the close, announcing that the club would be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Sloper in two weeks. An invitation was extended to the members by Mrs. O. D. Butler to meet at her home in the near future.

Victor Point—Miss Bernita Jones is home after having spent a week at the home of Mrs. Marie Reuf and daughters, Marian and Barbara at Independence.

Iowa's 'Colonel'

Grace Donovan of Iowa City was chosen honorary colonel of the University of Iowa's R. O. T. C. unit. (Associated Press Photo)

Surprise Birthday Party Informal One

Silverton—In honor of Mrs. Ella Russell of Gladwin street, a group of friends staged a surprise birthday party Saturday afternoon serving a hot lunch and enjoying an informal social program. Miss Hilda J. Olsen and Miss Thelma Jorgensen were the self appointed hostesses for the affair. Others present were Mrs. A. Rungland, Mrs. John Harstad, Mrs. A. Brekke, Mrs. H. Ostrem, Mrs. Oscar Olson, Mrs. H. Ballangrud, Mrs. T. A. Gundersen, Mrs. J. M. Jensen, Rev. Jensen, Mrs. L. Ulvin-Smith, Mrs. A. Halverson, and Mrs. Ingebreton.

ETTILIN FOUND DEAD IN BED, MT. ANGEL

Mt. Angel—Charles Ettlin, 45 years of age, was found dead in his bed at 9 o'clock Monday morning by his uncle, Casper Ettlin. The deceased was born in Switzerland and came to Oregon when he was young and settled at Crooked Finger. Two years ago he and his uncle, the only close survivor of the deceased, moved to Mt. Angel, where they have resided since. Funeral services were held Monday morning from St. Mary's church at 10 o'clock. Rev. Father Berthold officiating. Interment at the cemetery. The remains were in charge of the Unger funeral parlors.

ROBERTS COMMUNITY CLUB GIVES COMEDY

Roberts—At the community club Saturday evening the women gave a three-act comedy, "Spooky Tavern," directed by Mrs. Roy J. Rice, Mrs. S. C. Davenport and Mrs. John Osborn.

Characters in the play were Len Hacker, owner of Spooky Tavern, Mrs. W. C. Pettyjohn; ghost woman, who haunts the tavern, Mrs. G. S. Higgins; Lucy Hacker, a spiritualistic medium, Mrs. M. L. Salchenburg; Joyce Wingate, a college girl, Mrs. Albert Blanche; Florabel Wingate, her younger sister, Gladys Bettencourt; Bedelia, the girl's colored mammy, Mrs. E. A. Goodrich; Ralph Channing, a senior in love with Joyce, Mrs. Forrest Edwards; Terry Tanner, a junior in the same fix, Mrs. Leonard Zieke; Willie Worsle, a stuttering freshman, Mrs. Robert Judson; Blackie Simms, a former football player, Mrs. Calvin Bredner; and Faron, known as the creeper, Mrs. Esther Query.

Proceeding the play Miss Julia Query sang two solos accompanied on the piano by Janice Higgins. In the contest programs between the men and women the women won by a few points. From the door receipts the club realized $12.54.

Catholic Forester Officers Retained

Stacyton—John Zuber, president; E. A. Dittler, secretary-treasurer, and directors, L. M. Doerfler, George Schubert, and Edward J. Bell were all re-elected at the annual meeting of the Sublimity Catholic Forester Hall association held at Sublimity Friday evening. Various business matters were attended to and the board of directors and officers were instructed to complete various repair matters on the upper floor of the hall as a matter of convenience to the various organizations that use and rent the hall for meetings.

Madsens Are Hosts

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Victor Madsen entertained Sunday dinner for Henry and Will Hjorth, Mrs. M. J. Madsen, Miss Lillie Madsen, and Roger and Colleen Madsen. Will Hjorth plans to return to Green Bay, Wis., leaving Tuesday. Henry will remain in Silverton for a longer time. The Hjorths drove to Silverton from Wisconsin during the Christmas holidays, by the southern route. They will return by train.

Nelson Defendant

Dallas—The Monmouth Lumber and Fuel company has filed a complaint in circuit court against William P. Nelson stating that between June 11, 1929 and November 12, 1930, they delivered to the defendant at his request goods to the value of $816.10 of which only $150.11 has been paid. Plaintiff seeks a judgment on the balance, $666.00, plus interest at 6 per cent, the costs and the disbursements.

WILL LEAVE HOSPITAL

Silverton—Kathleen Dahl, 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hartwick Dahl of the Bethany neighborhood, will be removed from the local hospital to her home next week. The little girl was critically injured seven weeks ago when she was struck by a car while returning from school near the Mt. Angel highway. She sustained an inner skull fracture, both legs broken, a crushed pelvis and other injuries. No hope had been held for her surviving for several days after the accident. She will not be able to walk with the aid of crutches for several months.

PARENTS TEACHERS MEET

Falls City—The first meeting of the year will be held by the Parent-Teachers' association Monday night in the high school auditorium. A very interesting and instructive program is being planned and all parents are invited to attend and start the year right.

MRS. BROKE HOME

Silverton—Mrs. Halvor Brokke returned to her home from the Silverton General hospital Wednesday after submitting to a minor operation of the neck.

LUTHERAN STUDENTS MEET

Silverton—Alf O. Nelson, attorney, attended the Lutheran Student Service association all-day session at Corvallis Monday. Dr. William Behoefer is Lutheran student pastor of Monmouth, Eugene and Corvallis, and Rev. R. Bogstad of Eugene, is president of the association.

4 HAZEL GREEN DISTRICT CLUBS OFFER PROGRAM

Hazel Green—The community club held its January meeting with the four clubs contributing one half hour each of entertainment. The Sunshine club presented a one act play entitled "Spreading Sunshine." The cast included: Zella, Margery Looney, Katherine Ziehlinski, Venita Perrine, Dorothy Clemens, Adella Cook, Luella Van Cleve and Mrs. Clarke Smith; hobo, Ralph Lehman; school kids, Dorothy Mavken and Marvin Van Cleve; musicians, Ellen and Dorothy Clemens.

NATAL EVENTS ARE OBSERVED

Silverton—Beginning the custom in 1900, Walton H. Worrell of Albany, and Frank M. Powell of Silverton, have celebrated their birthday anniversaries together each year, excepting the year when Powell was in the World war—on a Sunday nearest the date of January 30. During that time, a number of others whose birthdays were on the same date have met with them, but only the two of them met this year.

Mrs. Worrell was hostess Sunday to a group of friends at their Albany home with Mr. and Mrs. Powell and Marshall Powell attending from Silverton, and from Albany Mrs. O. D. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pate, Mrs. Elsie Martin-Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. John Goin, Miss Mary Worrell, and Mr. and Mrs. Worrell. Dinner was served at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and cards and music were the diversions of the afternoon.

EIGHTH GRADER IS OFFERED SURPRISE

Rickey—Members of the upper grade room and their teacher, Mrs. Minnie Jackel, were hosts for a surprise party for Lella Jansen, an eighth grade pupil who is leaving Tuesday with her parents to make her home in Amity. The afternoon was spent in playing games after which a lunch was served by the pupils of the upper grade room.

Those present were Hazel Dell, Sheridan; Frances Flood, Edna Hensel, Dorothy McElroy; LaJune Genser, Inez Miller, Arlene Beard, Mayetta Genser, Hilda Miller, Margaret Splid, Bobbie Piccus, Gladys Crabb, Virginia Carathers, Mary Aneta Courtner, Neta Taylor, Harold Magee, Willis Harner, John Burton, Francis Weaver, Roy Taylor, Carroll Dean Courtner, Edward Burton, Billy Clearwater, Carlus Kenny, Raymond McElroy, Robert Fulton, Harold Beard, Mrs. Minnie Jackel and the honored guest, Lella Jansen.

Van Winkles Hosts To Epworth League

Jefferson—Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle entertained members of the Epworth League society with a party at their home on Main street Thursday evening. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Rosalie Pullen.

Those present were Mary Louise Fontaine, Marjorie Fontaine, Melba Foster, Jean Smith, Kathryn Foster, Marjorie Foster, Geraldine Davis, Bertha Smith, Lorena Hart, Eleanor Looney, Rosalie Pullen, Alice Harris, Vero Harris, Dallas Spragg, Benita Spragg, Gilbert Spragg, Richard Van Winkle, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Looney, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Waterman, Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Ginn and the host and hostess, Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle.

Postmaster Quits Jefferson Office

Jefferson—Harry E. Jones, who has been postmaster at Jefferson for eleven years, has resigned and Clarence Thurston has been appointed to fill the unexpired term. A permanent appointment to the office has not been made, pending the decision of the new government.

Children's Session Feature Of Campaign

Donald—Evangelistic services now being conducted at the M. E. church here by Mr. Cloud will continue this week. The attendance is steadily increasing. Assisting in the services are the regular pastor, Carl Blackler, and Mr. and Mrs. Ames of Portland. The latter have been assisting Rev. Cloud with a children's meeting each afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The children have learned a number of songs and several choruses and quartets have been arranged for the evening program. Friday evening music was furnished by a trio composed of Rev. Blackler at the piano; Henry Goode with a harmonica and F. Lynch, a guitar. Miss Lois St. Helen is pianist for the general singing.

Goods Are Placed

Silverton—Mrs. Ed Holden and Mrs. L. L. Stewart were joint chairmen of the goodwill store Saturday, assisted by Mrs. John Porter, Mrs. George Hurst, Mrs. Jean Cunningham and Miss Mrs. Boesen. Red Cross nurse of Salem, in charge of county distribution work. Miss Boesen was on duty from 11 to 12 o'clock. Many families were assisted Saturday and the committee worked Sunday to distribute the contributions from the Fireman's dance.

Mrs. Dahl Honored

Bethany—A group of friends and relatives surprised Mrs. Anson Dahl with a party on her birthday anniversary Sunday afternoon. Those present in addition to Mrs. Dahl were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Satern and sons, Marshall and Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Overlund and son, Albert; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Overlund and son, Ervin, and Mr. and Mrs. Hans Overlund.

SCARLET FEVER OVER

Falls City—Eugene Ross entered school again Monday after being confined to his home for the past six weeks with scarlet fever. He was the first one in the family to be stricken with the fever.

Home Owned Theatre HOLLYWOOD

Home of 25c Talks
Moonlight and Honey-suckle
Romance as only Dixie knows it!
Today and Tuesday

Richard BARTHELMESS CABIN in the COTTON

With Bette Davis
Dorothy Jordan

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

Today & Tomorrow
He could sell a 2-pants suit to Gandhi... he could sell refrigerators to the Eskimos...

Heavy Snow Falls In Camp Section

Silverton—Reports from Carl Specht, caretaker of Camp 15 of the Silver Falls Timber company, late Saturday give from 8 to 12 feet of snow on the level with drifts much deeper. Specht also stated snow had fallen each day and night for a period of three weeks.

NATAL EVENTS ARE OBSERVED

Silverton—Beginning the custom in 1900, Walton H. Worrell of Albany, and Frank M. Powell of Silverton, have celebrated their birthday anniversaries together each year, excepting the year when Powell was in the World war—on a Sunday nearest the date of January 30. During that time, a number of others whose birthdays were on the same date have met with them, but only the two of them met this year.

Mrs. Worrell was hostess Sunday to a group of friends at their Albany home with Mr. and Mrs. Powell and Marshall Powell attending from Silverton, and from Albany Mrs. O. D. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pate, Mrs. Elsie Martin-Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. John Goin, Miss Mary Worrell, and Mr. and Mrs. Worrell. Dinner was served at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and cards and music were the diversions of the afternoon.

EIGHTH GRADER IS OFFERED SURPRISE

Rickey—Members of the upper grade room and their teacher, Mrs. Minnie Jackel, were hosts for a surprise party for Lella Jansen, an eighth grade pupil who is leaving Tuesday with her parents to make her home in Amity. The afternoon was spent in playing games after which a lunch was served by the pupils of the upper grade room.

Those present were Hazel Dell, Sheridan; Frances Flood, Edna Hensel, Dorothy McElroy; LaJune Genser, Inez Miller, Arlene Beard, Mayetta Genser, Hilda Miller, Margaret Splid, Bobbie Piccus, Gladys Crabb, Virginia Carathers, Mary Aneta Courtner, Neta Taylor, Harold Magee, Willis Harner, John Burton, Francis Weaver, Roy Taylor, Carroll Dean Courtner, Edward Burton, Billy Clearwater, Carlus Kenny, Raymond McElroy, Robert Fulton, Harold Beard, Mrs. Minnie Jackel and the honored guest, Lella Jansen.

Van Winkles Hosts To Epworth League

Jefferson—Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle entertained members of the Epworth League society with a party at their home on Main street Thursday evening. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Rosalie Pullen.

Postmaster Quits Jefferson Office

Jefferson—Harry E. Jones, who has been postmaster at Jefferson for eleven years, has resigned and Clarence Thurston has been appointed to fill the unexpired term. A permanent appointment to the office has not been made, pending the decision of the new government.

Children's Session Feature Of Campaign

Donald—Evangelistic services now being conducted at the M. E. church here by Mr. Cloud will continue this week. The attendance is steadily increasing. Assisting in the services are the regular pastor, Carl Blackler, and Mr. and Mrs. Ames of Portland. The latter have been assisting Rev. Cloud with a children's meeting each afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The children have learned a number of songs and several choruses and quartets have been arranged for the evening program. Friday evening music was furnished by a trio composed of Rev. Blackler at the piano; Henry Goode with a harmonica and F. Lynch, a guitar. Miss Lois St. Helen is pianist for the general singing.

Goods Are Placed

Silverton—Mrs. Ed Holden and Mrs. L. L. Stewart were joint chairmen of the goodwill store Saturday, assisted by Mrs. John Porter, Mrs. George Hurst, Mrs. Jean Cunningham and Miss Mrs. Boesen. Red Cross nurse of Salem, in charge of county distribution work. Miss Boesen was on duty from 11 to 12 o'clock. Many families were assisted Saturday and the committee worked Sunday to distribute the contributions from the Fireman's dance.

Mrs. Dahl Honored

Bethany—A group of friends and relatives surprised Mrs. Anson Dahl with a party on her birthday anniversary Sunday afternoon. Those present in addition to Mrs. Dahl were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Satern and sons, Marshall and Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Overlund and son, Albert; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Overlund and son, Ervin, and Mr. and Mrs. Hans Overlund.

SCARLET FEVER OVER

Falls City—Eugene Ross entered school again Monday after being confined to his home for the past six weeks with scarlet fever. He was the first one in the family to be stricken with the fever.

Home Owned Theatre HOLLYWOOD

Home of 25c Talks
Moonlight and Honey-suckle
Romance as only Dixie knows it!
Today and Tuesday

Richard BARTHELMESS CABIN in the COTTON

With Bette Davis
Dorothy Jordan

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

Today & Tomorrow
He could sell a 2-pants suit to Gandhi... he could sell refrigerators to the Eskimos...

Lee Tracy Star of "Blessed Event"

and Lupe Velez
—in—
"The Half Naked Truth"
Comedy, "Build Up"
Sports—News
MATINEE
TODAY—2:15... 25c

STAYTON FORUM NAMES MURPHY; BOARD CHOSEN

Stayton—At the regular meeting of the Stayton chamber of commerce held in the offices of the Murphy Gardner lumber company Friday evening which was called for the purpose of reviving the Stayton chamber of commerce, Grant Murphy was elected president for the coming year; Edward J. Bell, secretary-treasurer and directors, Harry J. Howe, E. C. Denny and L. H. Wright.

Happy Hour Club Is Given Program

Waldo Hills—At a recent meeting of the Happy Hour club at the home of Ethel Knight, Mrs. Beryl Ottaway was awarded the hooked rug that was sold for the benefit of the finances of the club. Social hostesses were Mrs. J. Brunner and Mrs. Fred Towns. Miss Knight prepared the following program for the entertainment:

Violin solos by Kenneth Towns and Jane Ogden with Doris Towns as piano accompanist; a group of readings by Bessie Ray of Center View; guitar selections by Melvin Kaser; piano duets by Geraldine Dickman and Marjorie McLaughlin; vocal duets by Beryl Ottaway and Fern Davenport, and piano numbers by Fern Davenport.

GLAZNER NEIGHBORS MAKE SURPRISE CALL

Pratum—A number and friends and neighbors called on the J. H. Glazner family southeast of Pratum for an all-day visit and shower. Because of age and ill health Mr. and Mrs. Glazner seldom leave home. A covered dish dinner was served followed by a program as follows: song, by the group; reading, Mrs. Lorena Thompson; harmonica solo, Mrs. Frank Bowers; readings, Mrs. Alfred Kleen and Mrs. A. L. Bower; solo, Mrs. E. D. Rounds; reading, Mrs. Harold de Vries; duet, Mrs. George Kleen and Mrs. Paul Silke, and a reading by Mrs. Melvin Lien.

Gifts were presented Mrs. Glazner following the program. Each gift was accompanied by a favorite recipe and household hint, the latter being read after the opening of the gifts. Some of the women worked on a quilt.

SUNSHINE SEWING CLUB ENTERTAINED

Hazel Green—Mrs. Perry Sanders entertained members of the Sunshine Sewing club recently. At this quilting for Mrs. Lee Clark of Middle Grove was completed. Mrs. Margaret Splid will entertain the club February 8.

Mrs. Joseph Cook will be hostess for an all day quilting party to be held February 2. A pollock lunch will be served at noon. The quilting will be for Mrs. Clark Smith, local minister's wife.

Members and guests present included: Madeline Margery Looney, Katherine Ziehlinski, Dorothy Wackon, Adella Cook, Leola Worden, Luella Van Cleve, Myrtle McDonald, Carrie Gilbert, Anna Barnett, Venita Perrine, Elsie Kobow, Agnes Wackon, Dorothy Ziehlinski, Marie McCorkle, Clarke Smith and Misses Carolyn Johnson and Mandy Clark.

Illness Reveals Son Still Alive

Silverton—Lewis Griffith and his son, Oable Griffith have returned from a trip to Oakland, Calif., where they were called by the illness of a son of Lewis Griffith, Fred, in a hospital. No member of the family had heard from him for more than 20 years and they had thought him dead until word came from him last week. He is much improved in health and will come to Silverton in a few weeks. A sister, Mrs. Jim Reed, is also a resident here.

Card Social Held

Mt. Angel—A social gathering of the Catholic order of Women Foresters was held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Margaret Smith. Assisting hostess was Miss Grace Smith with "500" played during the evening and high score honors awarded to Mrs. Margaret Miller. Mrs. Josephine Barr received the door prize. Later in the evening luncheon was served by the hostess. The next social gathering will be held at the home of Mrs. Philip J. Lutz.

VISITING IN PORTLAND

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Hunter of the Valley View community are spending a month in Portland with relatives.

VISITORS AT BETHANY

Bethany—Mr. and Mrs. George Brown and daughter, Donna Lee, of Portland, were house-guests of Mrs. Brown's father, Hans Johnson, over the week-end.

She dared to defy Society!!

SECOND HAND WIFE

WITH
Sally
EILERS
RALPH BELLAMY
During the day she guided him—helped him—and then sent him home to his wife
Can a Stenographer play with her married boss?

Added
TOM HOWARD
With "A Tale"
HODGE PODGE
MAGIC CARPET
FOX NEWS
GRAND

Richard BARTHELMESS CABIN in the COTTON

With Bette Davis
Dorothy Jordan

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

Today & Tomorrow
He could sell a 2-pants suit to Gandhi... he could sell refrigerators to the Eskimos...

Happy Hour Club Is Given Program

Waldo Hills—At a recent meeting of the Happy Hour club at the home of Ethel Knight, Mrs. Beryl Ottaway was awarded the hooked rug that was sold for the benefit of the finances of the club. Social hostesses were Mrs. J. Brunner and Mrs. Fred Towns. Miss Knight prepared the following program for the entertainment:

Violin solos by Kenneth Towns and Jane Ogden with Doris Towns as piano accompanist; a group of readings by Bessie Ray of Center View; guitar selections by Melvin Kaser; piano duets by Geraldine Dickman and Marjorie McLaughlin; vocal duets by Beryl Ottaway and Fern Davenport, and piano numbers by Fern Davenport.

GLAZNER NEIGHBORS MAKE SURPRISE CALL

Pratum—A number and friends and neighbors called on the J. H. Glazner family southeast of Pratum for an all-day visit and shower. Because of age and ill health Mr. and Mrs. Glazner seldom leave home. A covered dish dinner was served followed by a program as follows: song, by the group; reading, Mrs. Lorena Thompson; harmonica solo, Mrs. Frank Bowers; readings, Mrs. Alfred Kleen and Mrs. A. L. Bower; solo, Mrs. E. D. Rounds; reading, Mrs. Harold de Vries; duet, Mrs. George Kleen and Mrs. Paul Silke, and a reading by Mrs. Melvin Lien.

Gifts were presented Mrs. Glazner following the program. Each gift was accompanied by a favorite recipe and household hint, the latter being read after the opening of the gifts. Some of the women worked on a quilt.

SUNSHINE SEWING CLUB ENTERTAINED

Hazel Green—Mrs. Perry Sanders entertained members of the Sunshine Sewing club recently. At this quilting for Mrs. Lee Clark of Middle Grove was completed. Mrs. Margaret Splid will entertain the club February 8.

Mrs. Joseph Cook will be hostess for an all day quilting party to be held February 2. A pollock lunch will be served at noon. The quilting will be for Mrs. Clark Smith, local minister's wife.

Members and guests present included: Madeline Margery Looney, Katherine Ziehlinski, Dorothy Wackon, Adella Cook, Leola Worden, Luella Van Cleve, Myrtle McDonald, Carrie Gilbert, Anna Barnett, Venita Perrine, Elsie Kobow, Agnes Wackon, Dorothy Ziehlinski, Marie McCorkle, Clarke Smith and Misses Carolyn Johnson and Mandy Clark.

Wilson Is Jailed On Drinking Charge

Independence—Kenneth Wilson ran afoul of the law in Monmouth Friday afternoon while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. He became boisterous and disturbed the peace of the citizenry for several minutes before being taken into custody by Constable Schunk. He was incarcerated in the city jail on a charge of Independence and given a chance to sober up and think it over before being arraigned. Upon being arraigned before Judge McIntosh he entered a plea of guilty to a disorderly and drunk charge. Being unable to pay a fine he was committed to the jail of Polk county.

Card Social Held

Mt. Angel—A social gathering of the Catholic order of Women Foresters was held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Margaret Smith. Assisting hostess was Miss Grace Smith with "500" played during the evening and high score honors awarded to Mrs. Margaret Miller. Mrs. Josephine Barr received the door prize. Later in the evening luncheon was served by the hostess. The next social gathering will be held at the home of Mrs. Philip J. Lutz.

VISITING IN PORTLAND

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Hunter of the Valley View community are spending a month in Portland with relatives.

VISITORS AT BETHANY

Bethany—Mr. and Mrs. George Brown and daughter, Donna Lee, of Portland, were house-guests of Mrs. Brown's father, Hans Johnson, over the week-end.

She dared to defy Society!!

SECOND HAND WIFE

WITH
Sally
EILERS
RALPH BELLAMY
During the day she guided him—helped him—and then sent him home to his wife
Can