

PROFESSIONAL GRIDDEERS DISCUSS RULE CHANGES

ELIMINATION OF HUDDLE, TRY FOR GOAL SUGGESTED

Columbus, O., Jan. 31 (AP)—The point after touchdown and the huddle may be abolished from professional football when officials of the National Football League meet in February, Joseph F. Carr, league president, announced today.

A special meeting of the National league club owners will be called by Carr for discussion of proposed rule changes, which professional football leaders believe will make the game faster and more interesting.

Other proposed changes in the professional game provide for a play-off in case of a tie score, and for moving the goal posts from the end line to the goal line to encourage goals from the field.

Carr said that several club owners had suggested an added 10-minute period in case of a tie at the end of the regular playing time. Another plan for ending a deadlock calls for giving the ball to each team for a specified number of plays until one team scores.

Coaches and owners of National league clubs have objected to the point after touchdown on the ground that it is unfair to one of two evenly matched teams. For instance, Carr pointed out, the wind or weather might give one team a distinct advantage in making the extra point.

Abandonment of the huddle has been proposed because "timing shows that 10 to 20 seconds are lost in each huddle." It is simply a measure to speed up the game, Carr said. The personnel of the National league will remain unchanged next fall, according to Carr.

CAVENEY TO HEAD SEALS ONCE MORE

San Francisco, Jan. 31 (AP)—Jimmy Caveney will again manage the San Francisco Seals in the Pacific Coast league next year.

He had no difficulties coming to terms with the club owners yesterday. Caveney took the helm last season and pulled the Seals from a mid-season slump.

Donald Has List Of Honor Pupils

Donald—Names of pupils who have received grades sufficiently high to entitle them to be on the honor roll and who have been neither absent nor tardy the past two months, were given out this week by principal Mrs. Julia Dalmas, as follows:

Eighth grade: Donna Sloab, Betty Ackerson, Bruce Giesy and Fritz Lemcke; sixth grade: Francis Ryan, Wallace Lee, Octav Lemcke and Jean Carver; fifth—Helen Perket, Raymond Erb, and Warren Feller; fourth—Frances Perket and Verne Scholz; third—Virginia Erb; first—Erl Cone, Vida Zimmerman, Jane McEwan and Virginia Smith. The bi-monthly reports of grades were sent to the parents Friday.

Gervais Students' Averages Pleasing

Gervais—The Gervais union high school has completed its first semester with a fine average for all students. There will be only one additional course offered this semester. Psychology will be given to follow economics. Much interest is shown by students in this course and should prove to be very popular.

Major G. H. Schoof will give a lecture on life in Africa, Mexico and Canada. Tuesday. Major Schoof has spent a great number of years in the Royal Mounted police in Africa, Mexico and Canada. The exhibition includes war trophies, hunting expedition material and Indian relics.

CANCELLATION ASKED
Paris (AP)—Abolish the treaty of Versailles! Cancel all war debts and use the money to help the farmers, the war wounded and the widows and orphans! Such is the cry of the communists, which has been given official dignity in a resolution just introduced in the French chamber by seven red deputies—who probably know themselves it will never be taken seriously. Among the recommendations implied are the return of Alsace-Lorraine to Germany and scrapping of forts on the Franco-German border.

BAGGED TWO FOXES
Whitewater, Wis. (AP)—Never before in local history was there a record of a motorist killing a fox until Howard Tubbs recently bagged two within one month. An animal which hesitated in the glare of his automobile spotlight was identified as a fox by Tubbs because of its bushy tail. A quick twist of the steering wheel, and he took the trophy. The second was killed in similar fashion.

Warner Selects Nevres As Most Valuable Player

Philadelphia, Jan. 31 (AP)—Ernie Nevres—and not Jim Thorpe—is Glenn S. (Pop) Warner's selection as the greatest football player he ever coached.

"I would rather have Ernie Nevres," the "Old Fox" said when asked to make the selection. "By that I mean Nevres would be the most valuable man from a team standpoint."

"Thorpe's greatness was not confined to the gridiron but he had to be humored a bit. Sometimes he didn't want to play—and didn't. Nevres had a hard time making the Stanford University freshman team but became a marvelous back before ending his college career."

PLANT PLANNING RESUMPTION OF ARMORY FIGHTS

Resuscitation of the fight game, dormant hereabouts for several months will be attempted in the near future. Matchmaker Harry Plant stated today. Plant believes that many fans, tiring somewhat of the wrestling racket, would welcome an exhibition of fistfights now and then and has already put out feelers for a number of first-class leather pushers. As contemplated now, however, there will be no curtailment of the wrestling business, the boxing matches will be in addition to the mat game, a card being presented whenever a sufficient number of fighters with real reputations can be rounded up.

"We are not going to be in a hurry about staging fights," Plant declared. "We want to give the fans a good show and will not shoot until we are reasonably sure we have the right type of talent."

Under tentative plans fights would be held at the armory twice monthly, probably on Friday nights. The schedule would not be of the rigid sort and there might be times when the fights would not be staged for a period of three weeks or so. The best of local talent would be given preference for a time, provided the fighters were in good condition and if the shows proved a financial success, outsiders, such as the Chicago boys of Portland, Benny Felt and others would be given an opportunity to show their wares.

Gervais Will Play Aumsville Tonight

Gervais—The Gervais high school basketball squad will meet the Aumsville town team on the latter's floor tonight. This will probably be a free scoring affair since a previous game was won by Gervais 51 to 41. The girls will also play. Gervais showed a great deal of improvement recently in the game with Parrish, although the latter won 20 to 12. At half time Parrish led 6 to 5. The first four minutes of play went scoreless.

Observance Planned

Pratum—Sunday will be observed in Oregon Methodist Episcopal churches as catch-up Sunday and as was announced will be observed in the Pratum church. This is being done so the church budget may be gotten in shape.

JONES SUGGESTS LIMITATION ON FORWARD PASS

Los Angeles, Jan. 31 (AP)—Howard Harding Jones, who ordinarily keeps his tongue when the matter of football rules changes are discussed, broke his silence today with some pertinent remarks on the use of the hands and the forward pass.

To sum it all up, the University of Southern California's highly successful mentor things the illegal use of hands rule should be enforced or abolished. Pernicious passing should have a greater penalty and the sideline play should be eliminated.

"If the officials aren't going to enforce the penalty for illegal use of the hands," said Troy's head man, "and I didn't see it enforced at all last year, then I say take the rule out and let everybody use 'em."

"Fifteen yards penalty might be too much for the second incomplete pass in the same series of downs. Ten instead of the present five would be about right. Then add 15 more for the third pass that fails. If a team starts throwing the ball to the winds let it pay for it."

Coach Jones is emphatically in favor of moving the ball 15 yards from the sidelines should it be carried five yards or less from the boundary.

"The sidelines play is just a waste of time since few ever are worked for gains and almost never for touchdowns."

The Trojan coach, who with Lou Little of Columbia and Noble Kizer of Purdue will sit in with the rules committee as advisors when it meets in New York, doesn't particularly care whether the rule is lifted or not, but he is taking a parachute jump off the Empire State building.

The Babe has known the year when he squandered close to $100,000. He admits it. Things were so bad that, at one time, on the insistence of Miller Huggins, half of Ruth's $52,000 salary with the Yankees was kept by the club until the end of the season. But Ruth "blew it" as soon as he got the cash, anyway.

COLUMBIA BEATEN BY MOUNTAINEERS

La Grande, Ore., Jan. 31 (AP)—A brilliant passing attack that opened the way for many lay-in shots combined with close checking of Columbia university's scoring threat, Rossi, enabled the Eastern Oregon Normal school basketball quintet to win the first of a two-game series with the Irish here last night. The score was 42 to 35.

The Mountaineers took an early lead and maintained it until the last few minutes when a Columbia rally put the Portland team ahead by a one-point margin. But the La Grande cagers rallied in turn and Columbia could not stop their drive for the winning points.

Robbins and Karstens, Normal school forwards, led in the scoring with 12 and 11 points respectively. Plaskol, Columbia guard, was most effective for the losers, scoring 10 points.

Carefree Bambino Living Life Of Gentleman, Refuses To Worry

New York, Jan. 31 (AP)—No one, including Babe Ruth himself, seems to be doing a great deal of worrying about whether the big fellow takes a $25,000 "cut" in salary this year.

The Babe doesn't need to, although he will be astute enough to effect a compromise, if that is necessary, before he signs his 1933 contract. As we sat down to talk things over, past and present, he dismissed the salary business with this side remark:

"It's a good thing I walked that home run in the third game of the world series or they might have asked me to take a $50,000 cut. I sure got that one when I needed it."

Baseball's fair-haired "boy," now nearing forty and about to start his twentieth year in the major leagues, has generally gained what he needed or what he desired. He is "fixed," financially, for life, no matter whether he quits baseball tomorrow but he has no more idea of quitting baseball, this year or next, than he has of taking a parachute jump off the Empire State building.

The Babe has known the year when he squandered close to $100,000. He admits it. Things were so bad that, at one time, on the insistence of Miller Huggins, half of Ruth's $52,000 salary with the Yankees was kept by the club until the end of the season. CORILLA JONES ONCE MORE AT PEAK OF BOXING

Cleveland, Jan. 31 (AP)—One of Willie (Gorilla) Jones' famous punches today had placed him once again at the top of the American middleweight boxing heap.

A right to the jaw of Sammy Slaughter that traveled little more than three inches last night returned to the Akron negro the National Boxing association title he lost a year ago.

Scarcely, however, had the 8,400 fans concluded one of the wildest ovals in Cleveland's ring history in tribute to the husky battler than they witnessed a weird finish of another fight that sent him home arguing.

Ben Jeby, recognized in New York state as the middleweight champion, won the unusual battle by decision of the referee but as he climbed out of the ring he left a wildly gesticulating Paul Pirone urging him to come back and fight some more.

Pirone had been floored six times in the first five rounds. When the bell clanged for the start of the sixth, he sat unconcerned, obeying the command of his manager, Eddie Mead, to wait for a count of nine. Jeby, floored once himself, stood punching the air above Pirone's head and begging the Clevelanders to "come on" as Referee Freddy

Block pumped out the count. When Pirone's handlers finally gave him the "go on," Block lifted Jeby's hand in token of a technical knockout. So, while Pirone stood in the center of the ring asking more fight and spectators milled about threatening dire punishment to Jeby and his handlers, Jeby donned his bathrobe and called it a night.

COLLINS ELECTED CLUB'S PRESIDENT

Decision to go ahead and continue Illahee Country club as an up to date golf concern if their is any practicable way of doing so was reached by a group of members meeting at the chamber of commerce Monday night. Final decision will be reached on March 1 when the committee of five appointed to confer with the State Building and Loan company, the organization which holds the club's paper, hands in its recommendations. A more optimistic feeling prevailed during Monday night's conference.

Harry V. Collins was elected president of Illahee club for the coming year. Other officers named were Max Flannery, vice-president; Wm. Newmyer, secretary, O. L. Fisher, treasurer, and Earl Burch and Dr. H. H. Olinger, new directors. Ernie Skelley, Orin Chase and Dr. C. H. Robertson are hold-over directors.
