

CHURCH SERIES BROUGHT TO END FOR SILVERTON

Silverton—The last of a series of three programs in commemoration of the 40th anniversary of the inception of Silverton society of the Methodist Episcopal Epworth League, closed Wednesday evening with a program in the church auditorium by the Philharmonic chorus of Willamette university.

The Drama Guild of the First Methodist church of Salem put on the play, "Why the Chimes Rang," Monday evening. The members of the local junior choir appeared in musical numbers. The all-day meeting Sunday was a success.

MASONIC SPEAKERS FOR INDEPENDENCE

Independence—Prof. Peck of Corvallis was a guest of Lyon lodge, A. F. & A. M., on Wednesday evening and spoke on masonry, dealing with the signs and symbols used in the ritualistic work of the Blue Lodge going well back into ancient history for their origin and applying them to present day use. There was a good attendance present despite the fact that it was the coldest night of the season, and a number of cars were drained on the streets to keep them from freezing. Prof. Peck was accompanied by his son Robert, also Barkell and Miller from Corvallis lodge of Masons.

After the regular session a luncheon was served in the club rooms before the open fireplace and a social hour held after which they indulged in cards and pool and other games. Captains Foster and Smith selected the teams and the first games of the contest were played. Another speaker from Corvallis has been arranged for the next regular meeting to talk on another phase of masonry.

INITIATION HELD FOR DALLAS LODGE

Dallas—Initiation ceremonies were held Wednesday night by the Neighbors of Woodcraft for three new members. This was followed by an evening of entertainment, a special feature of which was the drill put on by the Odd Fellows team under the captaincy of T. L. Parsons. A vocal solo, "Rock of Ages," by Miss Genevieve Goad was greatly enjoyed by the members. Other items on the program were: vocal solo, Joe Garner; two vocal solos by Little Yvonne Bolton; a reading by Freda Peterson, and a short play, "Bringing Down Father," with Virgil Bolton, Clarice Garner and Fred Peterson as the players. Refreshments were served to approximately 100 members and friends. A program of dancing concluded the evening.

Friendship Quilt Is Made At Marion

Marion—A group of women from Woodburn gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Ramage Tuesday and quilted a friendship quilt for Mrs. Ramage. Those present were Mrs. John Schaefer, Mrs. J. L. Jack, Mrs. John Ramage, Mrs. Bert Seely, Mrs. Ralph Seely, Mrs. B. L. Carothers, Mrs. George Sweeney, Mrs. Art Hughes, Mrs. Blaine Seely, Mrs. Charles Skiller, Mrs. Leonard Larson, Mrs. Dale McCollough, Dorothy Ramage and Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Hughes of Woodburn, Mrs. Herman DeLaugh and Mr. and Mrs. Ramage. A pot-luck dinner was served at noon. Mr. and Mrs. Ramage moved into the Conklin place last fall from near Woodburn.

Initiation Held

Monmouth—The initiation of Miss Donna Silver into Sunbeam circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, was a feature of its meeting Tuesday night. The tables and refreshments which were directed by Mrs. C. Price, Mrs. C. Deming and Mrs. J. Scott, reflected the St. Valentine motif. The meeting drew out a good attendance. A program is to be given at the next meeting of which Nadine Mason and Donna Silver were put in charge.

WESTENHOUSE HONORED

Solo—A district organization of grade school principals recently perfected at Junction City elected Kenneth Westenhouse, former Solon and a graduate of the high school here, as president of the new unit. He was also elected director for the Junction City district.

CUTS AND BRUISES

Mentholatum quickly soothes the pain away and promotes healing.

MENTHOLATUM

Livestock Project Started by Youths

Orchard Heights—There has recently been formed a livestock 4-H boys' club at the Mountain View school with Glen Southwick, club leader, calves, pigs, rabbits and chickens are to be selected by the boys who have elected Wilson Clark president; Paul Doran, vice-president; and John Doran secretary and treasurer. Besides these officers the membership includes Jimmy Smart, Vernon Priller, Billy Busch, Roy Tansey, Harland England and Ammon Adams.

FIRE DISTRICT IS UNDER WAY

Monalla—A meeting Tuesday night of business men and farmers of the proposed rural fire district was held. It resulted in a temporary organization being formed. Chief E. R. Wallace of the Monalla volunteer fire department was elected president. Howard Stiller, secretary and D. R. Robbert, treasurer.

An organization committee was appointed consisting of W. S. Corbett, E. Feyer, J. W. Eby, Albert Moehrer and Clay Engle. A boundary committee was appointed whose duty it will be to decide on the territory to be included in the proposed fire district. The committee includes E. R. Wallace, chairman, Arthur Carter, George Bunke, Henry Schatz, Aaron Yoder, and Nels Lundmark.

It is proposed to raise the initial cost by subscription. When the district is organized the only costs to be met by taxation will be the maintenance which is thought will be very small.

For a number of years the Monalla volunteer company, which purchased its equipment without cost to the taxpayers, has served the country free. Now extra equipment is necessary in order to give farmers adequate protection.

The state fire marshal's office was represented at the meeting by Captain Stokes and Chuck Taylor, chief of staff, of Oregon City also was present and helped by advice.

POPCORN RESIDENTS PROVIDE PROGRAM

Brush College—The Popcorn entertainers gave a splendid program at the last meeting of the Brush College grange. Orchestral numbers were given by Harry McDowell, piano; Roy McDowell, Larkin Grace, and Lester Lippert, all with jazz harps; Frank Withler, Erwin Simmons and Guy McDowell with harmonica; and Ammon Grice, Glenn Askey and Mrs. Harry McDowell with guitars. Ammon Grice and Erwin Simmons gave vocal numbers. Ammon Grice also played the "Devil's Fiddle," made up of chicken wire fencing and other wire and tin cans. The program followed the 6:30 o'clock dinner which was under the management of Mrs. Glenn Adams, Mrs. J. A. Yantis, Mrs. Jas. Imah and Mrs. C. C. Chaffee. Mr. and Mrs. John Simmons and Mrs. Cash Roberts were the committee in charge of the program.

Monmouth Students Are Given Welcome

Monmouth—"Paul Bunyon's logging camp No. 13" was the theme of arrangements for the evening affair given in the social rooms of Luther House recently. The fireplace room was a replica of a logging camp when the ten hostesses from Wallulah Hall completed their task of decorating for the event, which was given in the honor of the Berean Bible class of the Baptist church.

The class consists of a large group of Normal school students and is taught by Mrs. P. O. Calef, who with her daughter, Mrs. R. Aevril and Mrs. T. Severn, house mother of Wallulah hall, were patronesses for the jolly affair.

VERD SCHUNK ILL

Independence—Verd Schunk, constable for District No. 5, is again back on the job after a week's serious illness. He is several pounds lighter on account of his sick spell. He is also chief of police for the city of Monmouth and while he was off duty deputy Lofting acted in his stead.

ATTENDING CONVENTION

Silverton—Among those attending the state convention of the Epworth League held at Newberg Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week are Katherine Morrison, Orma Day, Grace Folsom, Rev. C. J. Hall, Ralph Langley and Kenneth Israelson.

KILL COLDS IN A DAY

This 4 way remedy keeps millions well. Take two HILL'S CASCARA QUININE tablets right away—follow directions.

HILL'S STOPS COLDS

Home Owned Theatre

HOLLYWOOD

Home of 25c Talks
Friday & Saturday
Mickey Mouse Matinee
Saturday 2 P. M.

GIBSON

in
'The Cowboy Counsellor'

SCHWAB CHOSEN JUNIOR HIGH'S STUDENT HEAD

Silverton—The junior high pupils elected the following officers Thursday afternoon: President, Arland Schwab; vice-president, Doris Rickard; secretary, Fairfax Marx; treasurer, Mary Jane Nottker.

DEVOTIONS OCCUPY BROOKS LADIES' AID

Brooks—The Brooks Ladies' Aid society held its regular meeting in the M. E. church Thursday, with the president, Mrs. N. P. Vinyard, conducting the devotional and business session. Mrs. Monroe was appointed as chairman of the work committee. The afternoon was spent working on the Aid fund. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. McFarland, Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Ashbaugh.

POLK BOYS START CLUB ACTIVITIES

Dallas—According to J. R. Beck, county agent, a boys' club in forestry has been organized at Red Prairie with Georgia Emerson as leader. Other officers in the club are Francis Crow, president; Willard Denton, vice-president; and Allan Campbell, secretary. There are six members in the club.

Some of the boys in the Mountain View district have formed a miscellaneous livestock unit with Glen Southwick in charge. Wilson Clark is president; Paul Doran, vice-president; and John Doran, secretary. Nine names are on the roster.

Henry Hoekstra has again lined up his poultry club at the Orchard school with seven members taking instruction. Irvin Voht, vice-president and Lester Voht, secretary.

BROTHERHOOD WILL OBSERVE HOLIDAY

Turner—The February meeting of the Turner Methodist Men's brotherhood was held in the church with a record attendance of members and their friends. Rev. H. O. Humphrey of the Salem-Jason Lee church was the principal speaker his message being "The Christian Home, Its Influence and Responsibility." A short business session preceded the program, with Ivan Hadley, the president, presiding. Devotionals were in charge of Alvin Garner, in the absence of the chaplain, H. S. Bond.

In observance of February being "Father and Son" month, special emphasis was given to that thought, also "Mother and Daughter" were duly honored. Mrs. Arthur Kunkle and small daughter Joyce sang a duet; duet by Ivan Hadley and son Lowell; instrumental music by Mrs. Ivan Hadley; harmonica band numbers; duet by Alvin Garner and Mrs. Ivan Hadley.

The brotherhood group is planning a special feature for Easter and the committee in charge consists of F. C. Gunning, H. S. Bond, and J. L. Webb. A committee of two was named, Ernest Robinson and Walter Peterson, to assist the pastor, Rev. N. Sherman Hawk. Following adjournment refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

GEORGE CLYMER BETTER

Turner—George Clymer of Waterloo, formerly a farmer of the Turner district for a number of years, is reported to be slowly improving from his illness. He has been critically ill for some time in the hospital at Lebanon, a major operation was performed and slight hopes were held for his recovery. At present he is making satisfactory progress, although it will be necessary to remain indefinitely at the hospital.

Turner Leaguers Guest Riches Home

Turner—Miss Harriet Frederickson entertained at the D. S. Riches home for the Girls' League of the Turner high school with 16 members present and two invited guests. Ruth Gilstrap was awarded the prize for the best costume made from four sheets of paper and eight pins. Miss Frederickson was assisted in serving refreshments by Miss Leone Cook, president of the Girls' League. Present were Miss Ruth Robinson, Miss Eloise Melis, Miss Mildred Bones, Miss Wilda Skipper, Miss Nancy Spurlin, Miss Jessie Myers, Miss Ruth Gilstrap, Miss Edna Johnson, Miss Margaret Gilstrap, Miss Clara Clark, Miss Emma Denyer, Miss Marjorie Pickard, Miss Leone Cook, Miss Marjorie Fowler, Miss Anna Johnson, Miss Marion Cook, Mrs. Thurlie W. Smith, Mrs. John R. Cox, and the hostess, Miss Margaret Frederickson.

MAJOR SCHOF SPEAKS

Turner—Major G. H. Schoof of Canada mounted police, chautauqua lecturer and world traveler, addressed the Turner general assembly Wednesday afternoon in the high school auditorium. He spoke of his travels in foreign lands and exhibited an interesting collection of costumes.

Children Perform For Brooks PTA

Brooks—The Brooks parent-teachers' association will hold its regular business meeting at the schoolhouse Friday night. The school children will put on a program following the business session. Clyde Hoffer, principal; Miss Alice Massey, intermediate teacher, and Mrs. Emily Van Sauten, primary teacher, have charge of the program. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

PLUMBING and General Repair Work

GRABER BROS.
154 S. Liberty Phone 6594

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL

LAST TIMES TODAY!
WEIRD, WILD SENSATIONAL!

KARLOFF in 'The Mummy'

Matinee Daily at 2:15 Anytime 2:5c

SATURDAY - SUNDAY
ANOTHER GREAT
DOUBLE FEATURE PROGRAM

No. 1 The Book that Fascinated a Million Women . . .
TIFFANY THAYER'S
SENSATIONAL NOVEL

ANY TIME
25c
KIDNIES
10c

IRENE DUNNE
RICARDO CORTEZ
and No. 2

Human Interest story . . . packed with action . . .
love . . . laughter!

Also
Cartoon
Comedy
"Crystal
Gazabo"
News
Events!

EDDIE
QUILLAN
THE BIG SHOT

Birthday Observed For Lyons Family

Lyons—A birthday dinner was held at the Emma Lyons' home in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Emma Lyons, Bert Lyons and Harry Lyons. Mrs. R. P. Lyons and Mrs. Bert Lyons acted as hostesses to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Lyons and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lyons and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Culhane, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Engdahl, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hatt, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hatt, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Thomas, Mr. Harry Lyons and Mrs. Emma Lyons.

WACONDA CLUB PLANS BENEFIT CARD EVENING

Waconda—Mrs. Karl Brown entertained members of the Waconda Community club at her home north of Waconda on the Champeog highway at an all day session on Wednesday with a pot-luck luncheon served at 1 o'clock.

Plans were discussed for the annual club party sponsored by the club women for their husbands and families only. The party will be held February 25 at the Fairfield grange hall, the chamber of commerce of Salem will furnish an hour and a half program for that evening after which progressive "999" and a supper will be enjoyed. Members are requested to bring card tables and cards. The following card tables were appointed: Cake, Mrs. Ed Schaff; sandwiches, Mrs. Robert Cole; salad, Mrs. William McGilchrist; and coffee, Mrs. Fern Runcorn.

One new member, Mrs. Edwin Becker, was initiated into the club, quilting occupied the group during the day. Mrs. Cora Spurlock and her daughter, Miss Nina Spurlock of Salem and George Brown were special guests for the day. The club group included Mrs. Van Kelley, Mrs. A. L. Lamb, Mrs. Robert Cole, Mrs. Frank Felt, Mrs. Ray Jones, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Mrs. Ed Schaff, Miss Hattie Skelton, Mrs. Pearl Patterson, Mrs. Richard Patterson, Mrs. Robert Fromm, Mrs. Ben Larkins, Mrs. Arline Fromm, Charles Patterson, Mrs. Edwin Becker, Bobbie McGilchrist, Mrs. Fern Runcorn, Mrs. Pete Kieniski, Norman Patterson, Betty Mae Kieniski and the hostess, Mrs. Karl Brown.

The next regular meeting will be held on Thursday, February 23 at the home of Mrs. Brentford J. J. Miller north of Waconda on the Champeog highway. Final plans for the club party will be made on that day. The meeting will be an all day session with a pot-luck luncheon at the noon hour.

HOME MISSIONARY WOMEN IN CHARGE

Silverton—Mrs. H. J. Iverson was social hostess to the members of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday afternoon at her home on Hill street. During the business session, a program was formulated for Sunday morning services at which the members of the society will have charge.

Mrs. C. F. Folsom, vice-president, led the devotionals on the subject of "Brotherhood of Man." Mrs. Albert Grinde, secretary, was in charge of the program numbers on the topic of "Indian Missions," featuring the work of the Methodist churches at Farmington, New Mexico.

Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Ida Heath and Mrs. Fred Iverson. Mrs. Iverson has served as president of the society for a number of years.

Children Perform For Brooks PTA

Brooks—The Brooks parent-teachers' association will hold its regular business meeting at the schoolhouse Friday night. The school children will put on a program following the business session. Clyde Hoffer, principal; Miss Alice Massey, intermediate teacher, and Mrs. Emily Van Sauten, primary teacher, have charge of the program. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

MAJOR SCHOF SPEAKS

Turner—Major G. H. Schoof of Canada mounted police, chautauqua lecturer and world traveler, addressed the Turner general assembly Wednesday afternoon in the high school auditorium. He spoke of his travels in foreign lands and exhibited an interesting collection of costumes.

Children Perform For Brooks PTA

Brooks—The Brooks parent-teachers' association will hold its regular business meeting at the schoolhouse Friday night. The school children will put on a program following the business session. Clyde Hoffer, principal; Miss Alice Massey, intermediate teacher, and Mrs. Emily Van Sauten, primary teacher, have charge of the program. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

PLUMBING and General Repair Work

GRABER BROS.
154 S. Liberty Phone 6594

DELZELL TO SPEAK AT BRUSH COLLEGE

Brush College—W. A. Delzell of Salem will give the address of the evening Friday when the community club assemblies at the schoolhouse for the regular monthly meeting. He will speak on patriotic subjects in keeping with the nationally observed birthdays which occur this month. Mrs. A. E. Utley and her son Billie will furnish musical numbers for the program. Mrs. Chester H. Fisher is in charge of the program and Mrs. George Meier and Mrs. John Kipper form the supper committee.

FRIENDS OF PARKS CALL ON BIRTHDAY

Lincoln—M. C. Parks was honored with a surprise birthday party at his home in celebration of his 65th anniversary when a large number of friends came in and spent the evening with him. Dancing was enjoyed, the Lincoln orchestra composed of Mr. Parks with his banjo, his son Leslie with the guitar and Claude Smith playing the accordion, furnished the music. At a late hour the guests served refreshments.

The group included Mrs. honor guest, M. C. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Worthington and children, Elaine, A. G. Jesse, June, Dale and Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith and children, Dorine, Doris and Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rivet and children, Hazel and Frank, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Olson and son, Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Worthington and daughter Betty, George and Tom Sturgeon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Munson and daughters, Lucy May, Mildred and Ruth, Leslie Parks and Claude Smith.

SODALITY PLANNING FOR SOCIAL NIGHT

Mt. Angel—The Young Ladies' sodality held a business meeting Monday evening in the music room of St. Mary's school. Miss Anne Wavra and Miss Catherine May gave a report on the sodality state convention which was held at the Madeleine parish at Portland recently. Miss Charlotte and Miss Dolores were appointed by the prefect to decorate the Blessed Virgin's altar during the month of February.

It was decided that a joint social of the young ladies' and young men's sodalities will be held Monday evening in the auditorium of St. Mary's school. A program, dancing and a luncheon will be featured during the evening. The entertainment committee for that evening includes Miss Catherine May, chairman, Miss Margaret Perry, Miss Grace Smith and Sylvester Schmitt. The refreshment committee consists of Miss Marie Sprauer and William Bean, chairmen, Miss Mary Dryden, Miss Anna Dryden, and Miss Elizabeth Weinacht. The cleanup committee will include Miss Catherine Hauth, chairman, Miss Gertrude Bartnick, Miss Marie Ewert, Miss Constance Conrad, Miss Olive Klinger and Miss Veronika Lauby.

At the next business meeting Rev. Father Vincent of Mt. Angel college will speak. Following the meeting a program was given by Miss Audrey Ebner, chairman, Miss Rose Wolf, Miss Delphine Ebner and Miss Anna Bigler.

TEACHER IS ILL

Brush College—Miss Helen Winslow of Rosedale is serving as substitute teacher in the absence of Miss Ruth Bennett, primary instructor of the local school. Miss Bennett has been ill for the past three weeks with mumps, trouble which followed an attack of influenza and Mrs. A. E. Utley substituted for her during the past two weeks.

PLUMBING and General Repair Work

GRABER BROS.
154 S. Liberty Phone 6594

SPECIAL EVENT HELD BY GROUP

Silverton—A guest day program of the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church was held Thursday afternoon. During the devotionals Mrs. C. E. Bristol led the service. Mrs. H. J. Winter presided at the piano. Mrs. Albert Grinde read the 65th Psalm and Mrs. C. J. Hall offered prayer. Mrs. Grinde, president, was chairman. Mrs. Roscoe Langley acted as secretary and Mrs. Winter gave the treasurer's report. The chair appointed Mrs. W. Arthur a committee to serve refreshments at the next regular meeting, and Mrs. Ed R. Adams, Mrs. Martin Peel and Mrs. Bristol as program committee.

SALEM GIVES PROGRAM

Solo—The February meeting of the Solo parent-teacher association is to be held next Thursday. The Salem chamber of commerce is expected to furnish the program.

Taylor, Mrs. Constock, Mrs. Mofelt, Mrs. Anna Powell, Miss Janet Constock, Miss Beth Morrison, Miss Kathryn Morrison, Miss Orma Day and Miss Grace Folsom.

DRAMATIC CLUB IS Guest For Frolic

Turner—Miss Mabel Walker and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKinney entertained jointly with a St. Valentine's party at the McKinney home Tuesday evening for members and friends of the Turner Dramatic club for the regular monthly social meeting. Five tables of "500" were in play during the evening. A hot lunch was served later in the evening with Valentine favors used. In March Mrs. Stella Miller will be hostess to the club members in her home.

In attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kendall of Portland, Miss Lolla Skipper of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Webb, Mrs. Stella Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Ahrens, Miss Helen Peets, Miss Rosa Ahrens, Leonard Farris, Albert Given, Herbert Briggs, James Coates, Harold Smith of Marion, Henry Ahrens, Archie Rankin, Vernon Coates and the host and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKinney and Miss Mabel Walker.

SALEM GIVES PROGRAM
Solo—The February meeting of the Solo parent-teacher association is to be held next Thursday. The Salem chamber of commerce is expected to furnish the program.

DRAMATIC CLUB IS Guest For Frolic

Turner—Miss Mabel Walker and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKinney entertained jointly with a St. Valentine's party at the McKinney home Tuesday evening for members and friends of the Turner Dramatic club for the regular monthly social meeting. Five tables of "500" were in play during the evening. A hot lunch was served later in the evening with Valentine favors used. In March Mrs. Stella Miller will be hostess to the club members in her home.

In attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kendall of Portland, Miss Lolla Skipper of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Webb, Mrs. Stella Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Ahrens, Miss Helen Peets, Miss Rosa Ahrens, Leonard Farris, Albert Given, Herbert Briggs, James Coates, Harold Smith of Marion, Henry Ahrens, Archie Rankin, Vernon Coates and the host and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKinney and Miss Mabel Walker.

SALEM GIVES PROGRAM

Solo—The February meeting of the Solo parent-teacher association is to be held next Thursday. The Salem chamber of commerce is expected to furnish the program.

DRAMATIC CLUB IS Guest For Frolic

Turner—Miss Mabel Walker and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKinney entertained jointly with a St. Valentine's party at the McKinney home Tuesday evening for members and friends of the Turner Dramatic club for the regular monthly social meeting. Five tables of "500" were in play during the evening. A hot lunch was served later in the evening with Valentine favors used. In March Mrs. Stella Miller will be hostess to the club members in her home.

In attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kendall of Portland, Miss Lolla Skipper of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Webb, Mrs. Stella Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Ahrens, Miss Helen Peets, Miss Rosa Ahrens, Leonard Farris, Albert Given, Herbert Briggs, James Coates, Harold Smith of Marion, Henry Ahrens, Archie Rankin, Vernon Coates and the host and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKinney and Miss Mabel Walker.

SALEM GIVES PROGRAM

Solo—The February meeting of the Solo parent-teacher association is to be held next Thursday. The Salem chamber of commerce is expected to furnish the program.

DRAMATIC CLUB IS Guest For Frolic

Turner—Miss Mabel Walker and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKinney entertained jointly with a St. Valentine's party at the McKinney home Tuesday evening for members and friends of the Turner Dramatic club for the regular monthly social meeting. Five tables of "500" were in play during the evening. A hot lunch was served later in the evening with Valentine favors used. In March Mrs. Stella Miller will be hostess to the club members in her home.

In attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kendall of Portland, Miss Lolla Skipper of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Webb, Mrs. Stella Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Ahrens, Miss Helen Peets, Miss Rosa Ahrens, Leonard Farris, Albert Given, Herbert Briggs, James Coates, Harold Smith of Marion, Henry Ahrens, Archie Rankin, Vernon Coates and the host and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKinney and Miss Mabel Walker.

SALEM GIVES PROGRAM

Solo—The February meeting of the Solo parent-teacher association is to be held next Thursday. The Salem chamber of commerce is expected to furnish the program.

DRAMATIC CLUB IS Guest For Frolic

Turner—Miss Mabel Walker and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKinney entertained jointly with a St. Valentine's party at the McKinney home Tuesday evening for members and friends of the Turner Dramatic club for the regular monthly social meeting. Five tables of "500" were in play during the evening. A hot lunch was served later in the evening with Valentine favors used. In March Mrs. Stella Miller will be hostess to the club members in her home.

In attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kendall of Portland, Miss Lolla Skipper of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Webb, Mrs. Stella Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Ahrens, Miss Helen Peets, Miss Rosa Ahrens, Leonard Farris, Albert Given, Herbert Briggs, James Coates, Harold Smith of Marion, Henry Ahrens, Archie Rankin, Vernon Coates and the host and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKinney and Miss Mabel Walker.

SALEM GIVES PROGRAM

Solo—The February meeting of the Solo parent-teacher association is to be held next Thursday. The Salem chamber of commerce is expected to furnish the program.

DRAMATIC CLUB IS Guest For Frolic

Turner—Miss Mabel Walker and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKinney entertained jointly with a St. Valentine's party at the McKinney home Tuesday evening for members and friends of the Turner Dramatic club for the regular monthly social meeting. Five tables of "500" were in play during the evening. A hot lunch was served later in the evening with Valentine favors used. In March Mrs. Stella Miller will be hostess to the club members in her home.

SALEM GIVES PROGRAM

Solo—The February meeting of the Solo parent-teacher association is to be held next Thursday. The Salem chamber of commerce is expected to furnish the program.

DRAMATIC CLUB IS Guest For Frolic

Turner—Miss Mabel Walker and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKinney entertained jointly with a St. Valentine's party at the McKinney home Tuesday evening for members and friends of the Turner Dramatic club for the regular monthly social meeting. Five tables of "500" were in play during the evening. A hot lunch was served later in the evening with Valentine favors used. In March Mrs. Stella Miller will be hostess to the club members in her home.

In attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kendall of Portland, Miss Lolla Skipper of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Webb, Mrs. Stella Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Ahrens, Miss Helen Peets, Miss Rosa Ahrens, Leonard Farris, Albert Given, Herbert Briggs, James Coates, Harold Smith of Marion, Henry Ahrens, Archie Rankin, Vernon Coates and the host and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKinney and Miss Mabel Walker.

SALEM GIVES PROGRAM

Solo—The February meeting of the Solo parent-teacher association is to be held next Thursday. The Salem chamber of commerce is expected to furnish the program.

DRAMATIC CLUB IS Guest For Frolic

Turner—Miss Mabel Walker and Mr.