MILTON WAGSTAFF DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Milton B. Wagstaff, 60, 1265 North 21st street, passed away this morning at 9 o'clock at the family residence. He had been ill for the past 10 days with pneumonia. Mr. Wagstaff had for some time been active in the insurance business in Salem. At one time he was connected with the Sperry Flour company.

He was active in lodge circles including the Shrine, Knights Templar, and A. F. & M. lodge 508 of Sloux City, Iowa. He has also been the treasurer of the Unitarian church in Salem for the past several years.

Surviving him are his widow, Louise, and children, Melvin D. Wagstaff of Seattle, Mrs. Delbert Fleming of Yakima and Regney Wagstaff of Salem; three grandchildren and a brother, J. M. Wagstaff of New Orleans.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 1:37 o'clock from the chapel of W. T. Bigdon and son under the auspices of Masonic lodge, No. 4. Paul bearers will be Knights Templar.

MORTGAGE RELIEF SCHEME ADOPTED

Portland, Feb. 10 (AP)—Relief for the mortgage burdened Oregon farmer loomed today with the establishment of "farm mortgage adjustment committees" in 34 counties in the state.

The plan, evolved recently by large insurance lenders in the east, was agreed on yesterday in a meeting of members of the state committee on farm relief and called by O. M. Plummer, chairman of the committee.

Harry M. Hawkins, speaking for the Mortgage Bankers association, gave full approval to the plan and promised cooperation of lenders.

Under the plan, the county committees—representatives of farm and business interests—would arbitrate differences between borrower and lender, and arrive at a fair adjustment of cases submitted. It would seek to eliminate harsh treatment of mortgage debtors by creditors and of unfair practices by borrowers in their dealings with lenders.

Most of meetings this Thursday was spent in selection of members of the committees. Members will be called together for group meetings shortly in Portland, Medford, Astoria, Baker, and Corvallis to start activities. Members consist of farmers and businessmen.

Past Grand Knights Sponsor Programs

Mt. Angel—The Knights of Columbus held a meeting Tuesday evening in the music room of St. Mary's school with Sidney Jackson presiding. The regular routine of business was discussed. Rev. Father Vincent gave a short but interesting talk on "Personality". The business meeting was followed by cards.

High score awards were received by Charles Peryn and Sidney Jackson. John Beyer was awarded low score and the door prize was drawn by Robert Zellner. The entertainment was under the direction of Alois Keber and was one of the series of programs which is being given by the past grand knights.

The evening was closed with a luncheon served in the dining hall by John Beyer, chairman, Lawrence Thomas and Joseph D. Hauth. The next business meeting will be held in two weeks.

M'MAHAN NOT TO TRY ARCHERD

Charles J. Archerd is scheduled to enter his plea at 10 o'clock this afternoon to an indictment charging him with larceny by balle or disposing of certain wheat held in his warehouse for T. F. Walker valued at something over $400. The plea was to have been entered at 10:30 this morning. But it was discovered that in preparing the indictment the names of the witnesses appearing before the grand jury had been inadvertently omitted. The grand jury is expected to meet at 2 o'clock and prepare a new indictment with the witnesses endorsed thereon as required by statute, and thus will be resubmitted in time for Archerd to enter his plea at 3 o'clock.

Judge McMahan will not try the case, it has been learned. He stated that long years of business association with Archerd as well as his long standing friendship would leave the court open to criticism if he undertook to sit on the trial of the case and it is expected an outside judge will be called in and that date for trial will be fixed at an early one.

Avery Thompson is appearing for Archerd on his preliminary appearance at 10 a. m. Friday, Feb. 17, however, will appear for him in connection with the indictment and it is expected he will enter a demurrer to the indictment. If this is not sustained then he will also appear for him at the trial.

CUT RATE AUTO LICENSE PASSED

Assurance was given this afternoon that automobile licenses for the remainder of the license year for $2.50 would probably be in effect sometime Saturday, or by Monday at the latest, when it was announced that President Fred Kiddle and other senate leaders had consented to advance house bill No. 405 to final passage by suspending the rules and placing it on third reading when the committee report recommending its passage is read.

The report of the senate committee on roads and highways is unanimously in favor of the bill, no opposition to it has developed in the senate and Governor Meier has announced that he will sign it as soon as it is transmitted to him. The bill has already passed the house and carried the emergency clause.

Removal of the clause by the bill is scheduled to come in the senate immediately after conclusion of the debate on the Thomas seven-part utility bill, which has been waged on a divided committee report since Thursday morning.

The bill by Speaker Earl Snell and Representative Winslow is an emergency measure to place thousands of unlicensed cars on the highways for the remainder of the year.

The bill was passed late this afternoon and was sent to the governor for his approval.

LONG TIME JURY TO END SERVICES

The long existing Marion county grand jury will see its service definitely come to an end tomorrow night, stated Judge L. E. McMahan today. He stated that the jury will expire with the February term and that a new jury will be selected from the next jury panel.

Judge McMahan today also discharged the petit jury for the February term of court.

The grand jury will probably be in session again tomorrow and has been called for a meeting this afternoon. It has been a grand jury since October, 1921, being selected following the grand jury which was discharged as being further inoperative when the court did not make an order continuing it from term to term. Probably had the court not failed to do that the original grand jury would just now be winding up its sessions instead of the present one.

Twenty one card tables in play

Silverton—Twenty-one tables of "500" were in play, and a number engaged as social hosts, included the large crowd at the party given Wednesday night at the K. P. hall by the Pythian Sisters. This was the first in a series of four like affairs that will occur fortnightly.

MEIER PREPARING RELIEF MESSAGE

Governor Julius L. Meier today was preparing another special message to the legislature, this one dealing with legislation for building projects enabling cities and counties to petition for relief loans from the reconstruction finance corporation. Such a message was requested by the delegation from the Oregon Building Congress this morning which was in conference with the executive.

ORGANIZE TO BRING RELIEF TO FARM DEBTORS

Portland, Feb. 10 (AP)—Elimination of harsh treatment of mortgage debtors by creditors, and unfair practices by borrowers toward the lenders, was proposed through a plan considered here Thursday by representatives of farm and business interests who discussed an organized cooperative effort to bring relief to farm mortgage debtors of Oregon who are in distress through inability to meet obligations.

Harry M. Hawkins, representing the Mortgage Bankers' association, declared his organization is pledged to cooperate in the voluntary movement. O. M. Plummer of Portland presided at the meeting which was the result of a conference at Salem a month ago between leaders of farm organizations and mortgage bankers.

The proposal under consideration would create county committees representing farm and business interests to arbitrate differences in cases submitted for adjustment.

Committees who will be responsible for establishing the plan in their respective counties include: Marion: M. G. Gunderson, Silverton; Ray J. Glatt, Woodburn; Warren Gray, Marion; Ralph Zimmerman, Astoria; Gene Courtney, Woodburn.

Polk: George A. Woods, Dallas; S. L. Stewart, Rickreall; R. W. Hogg, Salem; A. G. Rempie, J. R. Beck, Dallas.

McMinnville: Merton Tompkins, Dayton; George Fuller, Whiteson; Frank Brown, Sr., Carlton; S. T. White, McMinnville.

BARGAIN RATES SOUTHERN PACIFIC

Announcement of plans for a three-day offering of Dollar Day round-trip transportation over the Washington-Bend route, weekdays, February 24, 25 and 26, was made today by the Southern Pacific Company.

The cent-a-mile train rides will be in effect between all points on the railroad's lines in six western states, according to A. F. Noth, local agent. Final return limit, he said, will be March 7.

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the St. Paul and Astoria bridge project, scheduled for Sunday, February 26, will be an outstanding attraction in the west, it was pointed out, and many persons are expected to avail themselves of the low fare excursion to attend the spectacular celebration.

Reception Staged For New Recruits

Mommoth—A reception was given the early part of this week in the parlors of the Christian church for the new recruits gained during the evangelistic meetings which closed Sunday evening after continuing for more than four weeks. About 44 new members were welcomed into the church.

A musical program given by Miss Glenn Stevens and Mrs. Thompson who assisted in the meetings, was a pleasing contribution to the event. Miss Stevens was the soloist while Mrs. Thompson presided at the piano.

The evangelist, Rev. Toddy Leavitt, who conducted the revival, is now leading a series of meetings in Forest Grove.

HOUSE TO HEAR SNELL ON RADIO

Broadcast, balcony and bull combined to enliven the morning session of the 37th legislative assembly Friday with a resolution, bearing the name of Representative Harvey Wells, Multnomah, was introduced just prior to lunch.

The resolution recognized his qualification as an expert on the subjects and desires that his melodious voice shall not be confined to the house alone and asks that a radio be installed prior to 7:30 o'clock this evening in order that all might hear with special attention called to "affirmative and concrete" suggestions for the guidance of members.

"Where did that bull bill go?" inquired Speaker Snell. Reference to the resolution to the committee on health and public morals, made by Representative Lomeran, was so seconded. He added that he was reminded of the resolution adopted by the house a few days ago, by the sweet words and honeyed phrases of the resolution, but unlike the bee bill, the bee might sting but the "speaker not yet."

The resolution was adopted. After order had been restored, it was announced that the Salem Hardware company had offered to install a radio on the speaker's platform and that the broadcast of Speaker Snell's talk would be received in the house of representatives.

LAWYERS MUST BE MEMBERS OF BAR

All persons now entitled to practice law in Oregon shall be members of the Oregon State Bar, including judges of the supreme, circuit and district courts and with their consent, judges of the United States court, under previous provisions of a bill introduced in the house Thursday afternoon by the committee on judiciary.

The bill prescribes a board of governors of three members from each of the congressional districts. After the first election the annual election for governors would be held on the third Monday in August. Governors may be recalled upon signed petition of 25 percent of the members in the district. The bill gives the board of governors the power to make an order after a hearing, to make an order recommending to the supreme court the disbarment of any member.

A new game code, substituted for one received earlier in the session, was turned in by the house game committee. Another bill, applying only to Multnomah county, enables county courts to lease county-owned lands. Inspection of a county dairy herd inspector is also asked, with the county court fixing the fee for each single bovine dairy animal and not to exceed 35 cents per head, of which not to exceed 25 cents shall be paid by the owner. For herds of more than one head the amount shall not exceed 25 cents each, of which not to exceed 15 cents shall be paid by the owner.

WELCOME EXTENDED TO JUNIOR MEMBERS

Silverton—At a joint meeting of the senior and junior divisions of the Girl Reserves Tuesday afternoon at the auxiliary club rooms of the armory, the seniors welcomed juniors who had finished their junior high school work at the close of the first semester. Those welcomed were Guinevere Taylor, Margaret Thompson, Opal Green and Beale Metcalf.

Assisting in the ceremonies were Mrs. Lee Alfred, general advisor, and Miss Elaine Clower, Miss Olivia Deguire, Miss Ruth Lawrence and Miss Catherine Cuddy, division advisors.

Following the reception formalities, the girls sang songs, made place cards and worked on programs to be used at the Oregon-Washington conference which meets Saturday of next week. Silverton plans to send a full quota of six delegates.

OLEO TAX BILL SCHEDULED FOR DEBATE TODAY

Decision to formally observe Lincoln's birthday will be observed Monday afternoon in the house of representatives by both houses of the 37th assembly, the house approving the senate resolution which previously had set the observance for Saturday afternoon. The house also passed a memorial to congress relative to compacts and treaties between states interested in the development of the Columbia river in order to obtain more federal aid.

Action on the proposed moratorium on teachers' salaries was deferred until Friday afternoon. The moratorium would eliminate the present $75 a month minimum for a period of two years. Mrs. Hannah Martin, Marion county, continued her attack upon the measure and attempted to have it amended to make the minimum $50 to which Representative Chas. Linn, county chairman of the committee on education objected. Surprised that a woman with the intelligence of Mrs. Martin would speak for the teachers and disregard the welfare of children in rural districts was expressed by Representative Nichols, Douglas county.

A proposal to increase a juror's fee from $1 to $1.50 a day and decrease witness' fee from $1.50 to $1 was defeated.

Other bills approved were the licensing of auctioneers; limiting the time for filing claim for aggravation of injury under workman's compensation act; requiring dealers and brokers not domiciled within the state to name corporation commissioner attorney in fact for service of pleadings; directing the state industrial accident commission to permit the filing of a claim by Grace May Johnson; providing for the payment of examination of domestic societies issuing insurance by the society; changing code of examining domestic insurance companies; amending code relating to timber lands; reduction of license fees for employment agents in Portland from $250 to $100.

Astor, Ore., Feb. 10 (AP)—Fire broke out just before 3 o'clock this afternoon in the Warrenton business district, destroying an entire block in a short time and threatening other parts of the city. Fire equipment was rushed from Astoria and a strong effort to control the flames was started. A stiff east wind made fire fighting difficult.

The fire broke out in Ager's pool hall and spread rapidly to adjoining stores. The cause was reported as unknown.

Loss already has mounted into the thousands of dollars, several shops being destroyed. Nearby residences were reported in peril.
