

RODENT POISON CAMPAIGN GETS GRANGE ACTION

Rickreall—Draping the charter in memory of Mrs. Cordelia Harmon Hewitt, who died at her home in Greenwood February 1, formed an impressive part of the grange program Friday night. Those participating in the ceremony were Miss Winifred, Elliott, Ceres; Mrs. E. A. Stenson, chaplain; O. W. Kellogg, A. S., and Mrs. Wees Elliott, L. A. S.

A general discussion favoring the enforcement of rodent poisoning through an agricultural report by Glenn Hogg, who also announced a meeting, sponsored by his committee, at the hall here February 21, at 2 o'clock. Prof. G. R. Hyslop, head of the farm crops department at O. S. C., will speak on what to do to replace winter killed crops. All those interested are urged to attend this meeting.

The agricultural trophy, a silver plaque awarded by the Dallas chamber of commerce, won by Rickreall grange in the district grange contest 1932 was proudly exhibited by master Larkin and a rising vote of appreciation was given to the members of their splendid work. The grange endorsed the following bills and the secretary was instructed to mail copies of the resolutions to the representatives in the legislature:

- SB 45—Grange state-wide power bill.
Farm mortgage moratorium, ham stringing recall and initiative and referendum.
HB 9—Grange labor income bill.
HB 45—Increases in inheritance taxes.
HB 4—Constitutional convention, county unit bill.
HB 58—Telephone bill, repeal of gasoline refund for farm operations.
HR 7—By Dick.
SB 73—"Lame Duck" school director bill.
State bank bill.
Auto license legislation.
Talks were given by F. M. Edger and R. W. Hogg, member of the legislative committee. The discussion which followed centered around the county unit.

INDEPENDENCE FIREMEN WILL STAGE DINNER

Independence—The Independence fire department has set the date for its annual banquet for February 16 and will be given in the Main Street Cafe, starting at 8 o'clock.

The following officers have been elected for the year with their committees: George H. Wood, chief and president; Howard Marquis, secretary and treasurer; Cy Graber, assistant chief; Howard Marquis, captain; J. M. Graves, fire marshal; Linton Berry, engineer; Hugh Yost, nozzleman; Everett Nelson, assistant; R. M. Brown, hydrant man. Sick and Grievance committee, J. M. Graves, Cy Graber and Frank Zumalt; finance, George Wood, Howard Marquis; investigation, J. M. Graves, Cy Graber; refreshments, H. Graves.

Special attention is being called by the fire marshal to chimney fires at this time of year. An investigation may be made as a safeguard. The act of running a stove-pipe through a ceiling or a partition is especially hazardous, and fine stops opposite a pipe leading into a chimney is especially dangerous in case of a fire burnout. Oftimes these stops blow out and cause disastrous fires, caused by combustion of gases in the chimney chamber.

One Cent a Day Brings $100 a Month

Over One-Half Million Dollars Already Paid in Cash Benefits—One cent a day ($3.65 per year), invested in a National Protective Policy, will now buy more insurance benefits than can be secured from any other Company for any amount up to $10 per year.

This new policy, paying benefits up to $100 each month or $1,000 to $1,500 at death, is now being sold to all men, women and children, between the ages of 7 and 80 years, whether employed or not.

The benefits for auto accidents of $100 a month (instead of the usual $50 a month) is said by many to be alone worth the entire cost of $3.65 per year. Yet this is but one of the many features of this new and unusual policy.

The National Protective is the largest and oldest company of its kind in the world. It has paid over six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000.00) in cash to thousands of policyholders when cash was most needed.

Send No Money—For 10 days' free inspection of policy, simply send name, age, address, beneficiary's name and relationship to National Protective Insurance Co., 210 Fickel Building, Kansas City, Mo. No medical examination or other red tape. After reading the policy, it will be mailed to you, either return it or send $3.65 which pays you up for a whole year—65 days. Send today while offer is still open.
