

LEGION AFFAIRS OCCUPY GROUPS OF BOTH ORDERS

Silverton—O. D. Adams, chairman of the American Legion committee of the Salem Legion post, was the principal speaker on the program sponsored by the Silverton Legion Auxiliary at the army Monday night. The regular social affair of the two organizations for the month was given over to a patriotic observance of the Americanization movement. Adams dealt with the re-counting of events connected with the national work of Washington and Lincoln.

Approximately 100 attended the supper at 8:45 o'clock which was followed by separate sessions of the Legion and Auxiliary, the program and a social dance. Virginia Bowman headed the program committee, assisted by Fred Melh and George Manolis.

Other program numbers were a vocal solo by Miss Frances Nelson, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Alf O. Nelson, her mother; the "Four Horsemen" two Alquist and two Thorkildsons, in several male quartet vocal selections; vocal number by Miss Virginia Campbell, accompanied at the piano; and instrumental quartet selections by the Silver Falls Strangers, Huddleston, Alquist, Booth and Carpenter. Mrs. Roy Davenport, Earl Booth and Paul Alquist played for the informal dance which closed the evening's pleasures.

At the business session Claire Jarvis, chairman of the Scout committee made the report of the dance given on Saturday evening for the benefit of troop No. 20. James Scarth as chairman of the ways and means committee reported a limited amount of farm labor had been hired in return for farm products to members of the Legion. Arrangements were made, jointly with the Auxiliary to furnish dinner for the Salem Cherrians and Silverton chamber of commerce during the first week in March.

Guy W. DeLay of the high school faculty, was engaged to direct a play sponsored by the Legion with local talent for the character parts. This was under the management of the ways and means committee, members of which include Mr. Scarth, Roy Davenport, George Manolis, Fred Radigan, Claire Jarvis, and C. J. Towse.

The Auxiliary business meeting was in charge of Mrs. Alta Hall, president, and Miss Billie Johnson, secretary.

The report of the child welfare committee was made by Mrs. Allie Holdenstrom, chairman, and Mrs. Dewey Allen. The Auxiliary are aiding two children of an ex-serviceman's family.

In the general welfare work Mrs. Lee Austin, chairman, told of the work of furnishing an infant's layette for a needy mother. Other reports were concerning the cedar chest that is being filled with articles that will be sold about Easter time to raise funds for the unit, and the committee working in conjunction with the city welfare department of the Auxiliary aiding in the purchase of several hundred pounds of beef that will be available for distribution for four more Saturdays.

The sewing club of the auxiliary with meet on Wednesday, March 1 at the home of Mrs. Clarice Johnson, with Mrs. Lottie Jarvis, Mrs. Edna Johnson and Miss Billie Johnson as assistant hostesses.
