

SILVERTON HOST FOR CONVENTION OF REBEKAHS

DAY AND NIGHT SESSIONS HELD BY LODGE GROUP

Silverton—The 25th annual Rebekah convention of district No. 4 was held here Tuesday afternoon and evening with Tryphena Rebekah lodge No. 38 as host and Mrs. Maybelle Gay, P.N.G. of Silverton as chairman of the convention. Mrs. Elsie Simeral of Salem was secretary.

Mabel Walker of Turner was chosen chairman of the district, Elsie Townsend of Salem vice-chairman and Elsie Simeral re-elected secretary, a position which she has held for 18 years.

Officers serving Tuesday at the session were Maybelle Gay, chairman; Mabel Walker, Turner, vice-chairman; Elsie Simeral, secretary; Josephine Balwether, Monitor, warden; Helen Welner, Gervais, conductor; Zella Smith, Scotts Mills, chaplain; Alma Henderson, Salem, L.S. chairman; Mabel Gabriel, Canyon, R. S. vice-chairman; Rose Damm, Aurora, L.S. vice chairman; Laura Lavesey, Woodburn, I.G.; Grace Carter, Butteville, O.G.; Edith Palmer, Hubbard, musician; Helen Mulkey and Ora Larson, pages.

Lunch was served at the Rebekah hall to the delegates. Miss Emma Adamson was chairman of the luncheon committee, assisted by Mrs. Maude Myers, Mrs. Emma Tyland, Mrs. Alice Ryan, Mrs. Eda Riches and Mrs. Kate Porter, in the kitchen, and as a table committee, Pearl Allen, Sylvia Allen, Ora Larson, Helen Mulkey, Ruth Lorenzen, Pearl Davenport and Martha Winchell.

Decorations in the hall and at the Eugene Field school auditorium were supervised by Mrs. Bertha Morley, and consisted of high baskets of ferns and pussy willows, banks of fir and potted plants with pink blossoms and hangings of pink and green, suggestive of the colors of the order.

The afternoon session was opened at 1:30 o'clock with more than 200 members present. Mrs. Clarence Reed of Tryphena lodge was in charge of the opening in the Rebekah degree. The warden and instructor presented the flag of the country and were in charge of the remainder of the opening ceremony. All officers of the home lodge were present. The seating of the convention officers was by Thalia No. 191.

After the introduction of the officers of the Rebekah assembly, the grand lodge officers were introduced by Mrs. Mary Skille, Mrs. Mary Sylvester gave the address of welcome, with a response by a representative of Frances lodge No. 242. The chairman, Maybelle Gay, appointed members for committees on press, memorial, thanks and resolutions. A vocal number, "Will O' the Wisp," by Spross, sung by Mrs. F. J. Roubal with Pearl Davenport at the piano was followed by reports from Salem No. 1, Thalia of Hubbard, Frances of Monitor, Home of Woodburn, Ideal of Turner, Turk of Canyon, Ivy of Scotts Mills, Harmony of Gervais, St. Alexis of Butteville and Tryphena of Silverton. Aurora was reported as having given up its charter last December. Ideal lodge exemplified working way into lodge. Home lodge took the chairs while the session was conducted by convention officers. Leona Krenz sang a solo.

Salem was chosen as the meeting place for next year's convention. Examining a Rebekah from Nebraska was amplified by Ivy lodge of Scotts Mills. Maude Rogers, president of the Rebekah assembly, conducted a question box.

The evening session was in charge of Maybelle Gay, chairman, and was held in the auditorium of the Eugene Field building. A 40-minute concert was given by the Silverton school band conducted by Hal Campbell. An orchestra number was given by Harmony lodge. Miss Catherine Cuddy sang a solo, and Salem No. 1 exemplified the Rebekah degree. Mrs. Rogers gave the address of the evening on the work of Rebekah assemblies.

SPRING CAUSES MOVES

Woodburn—The feeling of spring in the air is causing several Woodburn families to change their place of residence. Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Shope have moved from 750 South Front street to 919 Young street; Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Galar are moving from 448 Front street to 321 Oswald street; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rema have moved from the Woodburn apartments over the postoffice to the Presbyterian manse on Third street; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Corn have moved from Hardcastle avenue to the John Hunt house at Fourth and Garfield streets.

Dance And Card Parties Success

Silverton—The card and dancing party given under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters have been well attended. Another of the series will be given Wednesday evening with both bridge and "500" in play, a supper, and two hours of dancing. The parties are at the K.P. hall and the public is welcome.

Committee members in charge are E. B. Ekanan, Fred Mehl and Scott McPike from the Knights lodge, Mrs. Chloe Stagner, Mrs. Lillian Heald, Mrs. Wanda Anderson and Mrs. Lavonne Bowen.

GIRL RESERVE MEETING HELD

Silverton—The junior high division of the Girl Reserves met in the Eugene Field building Tuesday afternoon and enjoyed an interesting program, pretending they were taking a trip to Sumatra. Mrs. C. J. Hall who has served for a number of years as a missionary in Sumatra, told the girls at last week's meeting of what clothing, passport and visa preparations would be needed for the trip, and other necessities for the journey.

At Tuesday's meeting, each girl was admitted to the room upon presentation of her passport, which was a verbatim copy of a real passport that was issued by Robert Goetz who acted as the secretary of states, because they wished to stop at the British Isles. Miss Stella Dybevik acted as British consul and prepared the visas in true order. The program was a lecture given by Rev. Hall, illustrating his talk with colored slides of scenes that would be a part of their daily encounters in the island of Sumatra.

Next week's meeting will be held in Mr. Crabtree's class room, and Rev. Hall will continue the talk on Sumatra. The passports will be returned to the girls at the close of the series of lectures to be passed in their hobby books which is one of their projects. In two weeks both the junior and senior divisions of Reserves will give a social tea with their mothers as special guests.

Attending as advisors Tuesday were Mrs. Lee Alfred, general advisor, Miss Catherine Cuddy and Miss Ruth Lawrence as special advisors. Visitors were Misses Ruth Scott and Dorothy Gelsler. The group meets after school hours.

MT. ANGEL COUNCIL MEETING QUIET ONE

Mt. Angel—The monthly meeting of the city council was held Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the city hall with Mayor Webb and Councilmen Young, Smith, Hasting, Bochsler, Prosser, Wellman and Schwab present.

A communication from F. A. Meyer and Attorney Rosch regarding the foreclosure of the assessments on Meyer's lots were read. The mayor turned this matter over to the finance committee with power to act. In a communication from Libby, McNeill & Libby regarding the 1 1/2 inch water meter, it was stated that the writers were willing to pay the city $10.75 for their utility in the meter, if it was properly repaired. It was ordered that the recorder arrive at a settlement with this company regarding the meter. The meeting adjourned after all the bills of the month were read and upon the approval of the finance committee were ordered to be paid.

Class Has Party

Monmouth—The Bible class of junior high school girls of the Christian church was complimented with a tamale supper at the home of their teacher, Miss Pauline Riley for the week-end. Girls entertained included: Margery Chambers, Virginia Craven, Helen Hutchinson, Frankie Lane and Clara Mae Haller.

SUBSTITUTE TEACHER

Hazel Green—Mrs. Vida Miller, principal of the grammar school, has been absent from her teaching duties due to the critical illness of her young son Billy, who is suffering with a severe case of pneumonia with other complications. Substituting for Mrs. Miller is Mrs. Arvilla Boyer of Salem.

HUBBARD KEEPS OLD TEACHERS

Hubbard—At the school board meeting Monday evening the election of teachers took place. Mrs. Lorena Duncan was re-elected as teacher for the first and second grades. Mrs. Duncan has been nine years with the Hubbard school.

Miss Frances Friend was re-elected for the third and fourth grades. This will be her second year here. Mrs. Lottie Fry was re-elected to teach the fifth and sixth grades. Mrs. Fry has taught in the local school for five or six years and before coming here taught at the White school one mile north.

The seventh and eighth grade teacher was not selected. Kenneth Dart, the present teacher, is planning to attend school in Seattle next year and a number of applications for the position are under consideration.

In the high school Mrs. Nellie Cornell was re-elected as commercial teacher. Mrs. Cornell has been with the Hubbard school for a number of years.

Mrs. Adelaide Fields, English and French teacher, resigned and her place will be taken by Miss Wanda V. Elliott, now teaching at Condon. Eugene Silke, superintendent, was re-elected at the January school board meeting. R. C. Palmer was re-elected superintendent of buildings and grounds.

RECITAL IS GIVEN AT SUBLIMITY HALL

Sublimity—A recital was given by the pupils of Sister Mercedes, teacher of music in the parochial schools at Stayton, and Sublimity, Sunday evening at the Forester Hall in Sublimity.

A musical playlet, "Little Tiptoe" was given, with the characters as follows: Dame Marguerite, Thelma Zuber; Little Tiptoe, her niece, Lillian Spaniol; Prevot of Puy-de-dome, Lola Pound; Angelina, playmate of Little Tiptoe, Stella Lulay; Bettine, servant of Dame Marguerite, Anna Lulay; Fairy Queen, Rita Frank; attendant fairies, Rosella Bell, Betty Korinek, Lila Mae Bell and Paula Smith.

Other numbers on the program were: "Down the River of Golden Dreams," orchestra; "Royal Trumpets March," duet, Betty Korinek and Rosella Bell; "Jolly Waters," song, Charles Gullen, Harry Meiers, Nicholas Breitenstein, Joseph Gerspacher and Eugene Huebeger; "Jack in the Box," Charles Gehlen; "The Dream Waltz," duet, Charles Gehlen and Theresa Wolf; "All Wien," Annes Bielel; "Butterfly," Rosella Bell; "I'm Happy If You're Happy," orchestra; "Spooks," Lela Mae Bell.

Scene two—"Second Valse," Betty Korinek; "Star of Hope," trio, Lela Mae Bell, Betty Korinek and Rosella Bell; "Russian Song," Theresa Wolf; "Blue Hawaii," orchestra; "When Grandma Danced the Minuet," recitation, Betty Korinek, accompanied by Lela Mae Bell; "Waltz," duet, Theresa Wolf and Annes Bielel; "Song of India," Lola Pound; "Alice Blue Gown," Rosella Bell; "Don't Sing Aloha Jack Eakin," orchestra; and "Hours of Dreaming," song by all.

March Missionary Meeting Scheduled

Hazel Green—The March meeting of the Woman's Missionary association will be held at the home of Mrs. Pearl Van Cleave in Middle Grove, Thursday. Mrs. Will Davis will be leader of the program and Mrs. Clark Smith will conduct the devotional service. This will be the annual election of officers and final report of the reading contest by the captains, Mrs. Joseph Cook and Mrs. Louis Wampler.

The Lella Luckey chapter of the Otterbein Guild will hold their March meeting Sunday, March 12 at the Walter Rutherford home with Nora and Edna Rutherford as hostesses. Miss Ellen Smith will preside as program leader.

Club Hour Changed

Rickey—Annual election of officers will be held Friday night at the regular meeting of the community club. What promises to be an exceptionally good program will be put on by the entertainers from the Doolittle service station in Salem. The public is invited.

Accident Interrupts Call For Funeral

Silverton—Will Storts of Brownsville met with a serious accident as he was on his way to Silverton to attend the funeral services of his father, Philip Storts. His car was crowded into a bridge curbing on the highway between Albany and Jefferson, causing much damage to the car, and injuring Storts by a wound on the head and severe bruises about the face and body. No bones were broken. He was able to return to his home Monday in company with his brother Ed of Salem.

BROOKS PEOPLE PRESENT PLAY

Brooks—The young people of the community are sponsoring a one-act play entitled "Friday afternoon at a Village School," which will be given Friday night at the Brooks school house, following the regular business session of the Brooks Parents Teacher association. Mrs. Clifford Bishop is coaching the play.

The cast of characters is as follows: Professor, Bob Bishop; Katie, Thelma Reed; Laura, Edna Lesher; Julia, Gretchen Hogate; John, Alwert Harris; George, James Riggi; Charles, Manual Hogate; Dick, Billy Bishop; Walter, Bill Coffindaffer; Georgiana, Hazel Nys; Sarah, Bernadine Wheeler; Forest, Frank Riggi; Jack Willie Wright; Maria, Donna Bishop; Jimmy, Leo Reed; Clara, Ina Lesher; Bud, Clifford Bishop; LeMayne, Richard Hens; visitors, Laverne Catton, as Mrs. Quenberry, and Elizabeth Clark as Mrs. Applegate, and their young daughters, Doris Clinton and Beverly McCoy, and Rose, Peggy Tonts, and Clifford Bishop as messengers. There will be musical numbers, guitar and piano and tap dancing by little Doris Clinton, age 4 years.

PROMOTIONS MADE IN NATIONAL GUARD

Dallas—As the result of competitive examinations held Monday night, Eddon Vaughn has been promoted to the rank of sergeant and John E. Blodgett to that of corporal in company 'L' of the O. N. G. Both men were given a high rating in the examinations which brought out a high standard of excellence from all aspirants.

Three new recruits were obtained during the past week and are now attached to the company. They are Wilfred F. Hinamon, Robert F. Hobson and Merle E. White. Captain Jack Eakin states that the permanent organization of squads is now under way in preparation for the annual camp at Clatsop.

Preliminary Show Is Staged By Cast

Hubbard—Aaron Slick of Pumpkin Creek, a three act rural comedy was presented at the state training school Tuesday evening. Characters in the play were Ben Miller, Ed Erickson, Tom Higginbottom, Orva Barrett, Marie de Lespinasse, Frances Leffer and Beatrice Claypool. The group was directed by Mrs. Marie Claypool. Music between the acts was by members of the community orchestra under direction of Dr. A. P. de Lespinasse.

Clinic Is Staged

Hubbard—A toxoid and preschool clinic was held Wednesday afternoon at the Knights of Pythias building with Dr. F. Burge as examiner and Miss Nora Lyndes as nurse. Local folk assisting were Mrs. Waldo Brown, Mrs. George Knight and Mrs. George Grimps. The health work in Hubbard is under the auspices of the Woman's club. The Hubbard district includes the Broadacres, White and Hubbard school districts.

GRADE IS INCREASED

Hazel Green—George Kalb of Oregon City grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stevens has registered at the school as a pupil in the seventh grade. He is well known in this community as he has spent several summers here as guest of his grandparents. His mother will be remembered as May Stevens who also lived here years ago. He will now live with his uncle, Ralph Stevens.

SALARY CUTS FOR TEACHERS

Dallas—The hiring of teachers for the year 1933-34 has begun in the county according to information available in the school superintendent's office.

While only three districts have reported to date the subject is a most one all over the county and decreases in the salaries paid during the past year are likely to have a considerable bearing on the rehiring of teachers.

In district No. 17, Bethel, the teachers in the upper and lower grades have been re-elected with a salary deduction of 25 per cent. No action has been taken to date in regard to the high school department in this district pending further decision by the board on the matter. Dolores K. Kahle has charge of the upper grades and Guida Mullen the lower. At Cochrane, district No. 24, Mrs. Edna Bool has been hired, replacing Mrs. Florence Chapman, while at Polk Station, district No. 18, Mrs. Fannie Domaschowsky, will continue her work there for another year.

UPPER CLASSMEN AT ANNUAL PARTY

Turner—The annual junior and senior class party was held in the high school gymnasium with members of the faculty and students in attendance. The evening was spent in games with refreshments served at a late hour to Principal and Mrs. John R. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Thurlio W. Smith, Marjory Pickard, Jean Snyder, Eugene Mellis, Robert Mitchell, Leone Cook, Homer Mitchell, Ed Schmidt, Audrey Shoen, Harold Fowler, Rachel Garner, Emma Denyer, and Alvin Garner. Committees functioning for the party were refreshments, Leonard Shoen, Emma Denyer and Eugene Mellis; entertainment, Robert Mitchell, Mabel Beardsley and Jean Snyder. Marjorie Pickard is president of the junior class, Eugene Mellis, vice president; secretary, Mabel Beardsley; councilman, Emma Denyer, and class advisor, Miss Harriet Fredrickson.

Language Program Given At Sublimity

Sublimity—A language program was given at the public school. The committee in charge included: eighth grade, Laura Tate; seventh grade, Dottie Lath; sixth grade, Mabel Jones; fifth grade, Bernard Schmid, who acted as chairman of the program. The grammar program, given in place of the usual 4-H club meeting, was as follows: "Oregon, My Bluebirds," audience report on "Bluebirds," Betrice Ruetters; poem, Velma Yeoman; report on "Whales," Leonard Neal; report on "Water-lilies," Camilla Lulay; report on "Kingfishers," Ralph Lulay; poem, Loretta Ditter; report on "Daylilies," Loretta Elzel; report on "Lady Slippers," Delores Bentz; story, Lillian Glover; report on "Canada," Elgie Jones; poem, Jean Galop; report on "Baltimore Oriole," Vera Palmer, and a song, by Dorothy Tate.

Class Has Party

Silverton—Just folk class of the Methodist Episcopal church held a party Monday evening in the social rooms of the church, with Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Hall as chaperones. Jigsaw puzzles were the order of diversion of the evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Perrins, Ruby Schank, Lucille Skaffe, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker, Louis Ojlen, Dwight Poote, Gert Polson, Catherine Cuddy and Kathryn Morrison.

MRS. SCHOLL HOSTESS

Hubbard—Mrs. Anna Scholl was hostess to a group of young folk Saturday evening with "500" in play in honor of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Archer of Walla Walla, Wash. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Archer, Miss Mary Will of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Leary, Miss Lenore Scholl, Ed Mosherberg, Miss Orva Barrett, Miss Elvira Scholl and John Scholl.

Combined Meetings Planned By Clubs

Hazel Green—The meeting of the two 4-H cooking clubs was postponed last week due to the illness of the club leader, Mrs. Louis Wampler.

The "Home Meals" club will hold a joint business meeting with the "Jolly Nine" club Thursday at 12:30 o'clock at the school.

WORTHINGTONS ARE HOSTS FOR DANCING

Brush College—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Worthington were hosts at a dancing party given at the Schindler place Saturday evening. Frank Blaski of Pringle furnished the music with his piano-accompaniment. The group attending were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Olson and Francis and Irene Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Worthington and children, Elaine, June, Jessie, Paul, and Dale, M. C. Parks, Eldon Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rivet and daughter and son, Hazel and Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Himmel, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Singer, John Charge, Mr. and Mrs. John Church, Mrs. William Calder, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Bayer, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Olson and son, Junior, Jack Olson, Clarence Woelk, Mr. and Mrs. John Schindler, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith, Claude Smith, Mrs. Louise Singer, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Singer, Harvey Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson and daughters, Lucy, Pauline, and Jaunita, Marian Cupples, M. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Taylor and son, Orel, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stephens and sons, Emmot and Raymond, Miss Kathleen Beardsley, Joe Himel, Rosie Krall, Antonia Krall, Lucy May Peterson, Charles Simons, and W. E. Cox and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Worthington.

FEDERATED WOMEN PLAN SILVER TEA

Woodburn—The regular business meeting of the Federated Women of the Methodist Episcopal church was held Tuesday afternoon at the church. Plans were perfected for a silver tea, which will be held in the church parlors Tuesday, March 28.

Committees appointed by the president, Mrs. Paul Pemberton, were: general chairman, Mrs. W. D. Simmons; program, Mrs. Pemberton and Mrs. V. D. Bain; decorations, Mrs. E. O. Brown, Mrs. Ina Honney and Mrs. Oscar Allen; kitchen, Mrs. Ida Parr, Mrs. James Lavesley and Mrs. E. N. Hall.

Guests will be received by Mrs. Glenn S. Hartong, Mrs. Ivan C. Beers and Mrs. Perle L. Love; Mrs. A. E. Austin, Mrs. P. W. Settemier, Mrs. Florence Goulet and Mrs. Carl Young will preside at the tea. Mrs. and Beatrice Brown, Pearl Zulsdorf and Miss Swidler will serve.

Smoldering Ashes

Woodburn—A box of ashes, parked at the corner of the Wayne Gill residence Monday, caused a blaze which routed the Woodburn fire department at 3 a.m. Tuesday. The ashes, smoldering through the day and part of the night, broke out in flames which ignited the building and filled the house with smoke, awakening the family. The outside corner of the house was slightly damaged.

Cause For Alarm

Hazel Green—Leonard Faust who underwent a minor operation on his arm recently and who is wearing a cast on the entire arm will be compelled to wear the cast several weeks instead of a few days as anticipated. Patricia Haynes is recovering from a belated attack of the measles and Caroline Haynes is recuperating following a severe siege of ear trouble which necessitated lancing of both ears. Clinton Wampler who chopped off part of his thumb recently is now able to resume his studies at the school.

PATIENTS IMPROVING

Hazel Green—Leonard Faust who underwent a minor operation on his arm recently and who is wearing a cast on the entire arm will be compelled to wear the cast several weeks instead of a few days as anticipated. Patricia Haynes is recovering from a belated attack of the measles and Caroline Haynes is recuperating following a severe siege of ear trouble which necessitated lancing of both ears. Clinton Wampler who chopped off part of his thumb recently is now able to resume his studies at the school.

MIDDLE GROVE WILL BE HOST FOR INSTITUTE

Hazel Green—The Sarah Oliver union of the W. C. T. U. met for an all day session recently at the United Brethren church with representatives from Keizer, Middle Grove and LaBish Center.

Mrs. Margery Looney, president of the union, presided as leader of the meeting. Miss Naomi Van Cleave conducted the devotional services and Miss Phyllis Koning led the song service.

Mrs. Necla Buck of Salem and national W. C. T. U. worker listed the points stressed for a working union. Marion county has had the highest number of points for two years. Mrs. Buck also urged cooperation in supplying needs of the children's farm home in Corvallis where 162 children are being cared for with facilities for only 140.

Mrs. Fred Toose, Jr., state director of young people's work stressed the need of enlisting the children in the W. C. T. U. work. Mrs. Lydia Lehmon of Salem also gave a short helpful talk of the work to be accomplished.

The annual meeting of the union is scheduled for March 14 in Middle Grove at the Evangelical church. Annual election of officers will be held and plans perfected for a silver medal contest to be held in the near future.

MEMORIAL RITUAL IS HELD BY LODGE

Monmouth—A short memorial service which included the draping of the charter in memory of Mrs. Guy Hewitt and Mrs. I. C. Powell, recently deceased, was observed at the regular meeting of Agate Rebekah lodge.

Musical program numbers and a birthday party for those who observe the anniversary of their birth in March were enjoyed at the close of routine matters. Mrs. Charles Calbreath contributed an accordion solo to the program. Orest Houghlin sang and his accompanist Norman Reynolds concluded with two piano selections. Among the gifts presented "Miss Maggie Butler, one of the honored guests who is a member of long standing, was a festive cake decorated with 16 candles, which was cut and passed to the company.

Past Noble Grands Sponsor Farewell

Brooks—The Past Noble Grands club sponsored a farewell party Saturday night at the home of Mrs. William Alsop. The honor guest Mrs. Alta Foren was presented with a gift by the club. Mr. and Mrs. Foren are moving to Sweet Home where they will make their home.

Those present were: Mrs. A. L. Collins, Mrs. Joe Pitts, Mrs. Enli Cramer, Mrs. Edwin Harper, Mrs. C. A. Sawyer, Mrs. Ida Schwab, Mrs. Frances Morgan, Mrs. Lillian Shaner, Mrs. Minnie McDonald, Mrs. S. A. Harris, Mrs. William Alsop, Miss Betty Beck and friend Charlot, Miss Lavonne Harris, Mrs. Kenneth Coomler, Mrs. Alta Foren and daughters Edith, Fay and Eva Foren, and Miss Lois Coomler and Mrs. Wendel Barnett.

RETURN TO LONGVIEW

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hollingsworth and small son, John Edward, and Mrs. Hollingsworth's sister, Miss Alma Olson, their house guest from Williston, N. D., are returning to Longview, Wash., Tuesday evening from a three-day stay at their Silverton home. Hollingsworth was recently transferred to Longview with the Standard Oil company and plans to be again in Silverton in April. They maintain their home here.

Virgil Tschantz Is Party Honor Guest

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. John Tschantz gave a double surprise affair for their son Virgil, Monday evening, the occasion being in honor of his birthday anniversary. A 7 o'clock dinner was served with the following guests: Zina Davis, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. DuVal, Agnes and Norris DuVal and Roy Keller.

A group came later to spend the evening socially with a late supper served by Mrs. Tschantz. They were Frances Barstoft, Bertha Beugh, Fern and Ruth Alexander, Eupha Mires, Clifford and Victor Hadley, Clifford Maulding, Elvin Mires, Carl King, Lyle Keller and Al Stark. The young people were former schoolmates of Virgil Tschantz.

DALLAS DELEGATION GUEST GRANGE HOUR

Brush College—An unusually large crowd was present for the last meeting of the local grange when 20 members of the Dallas grange were present as special guests and assisted with the program. At the 8:30 o'clock supper preceding the program seating room was not available at one time for all present.

The program opened with a song, "My Wild Irish Rose," by all; a trio number by the sixth grade of West Salem; recitation by Dorothy Lane; a thirty minute address on the international situation by Col. Charles Robertson of West Salem; three numbers by the sixth grade quartette composed of Dorothy Lane, Georgia Cook, Opal Thurman and Gerald Brown, accompanied by Paula Grant; reading by Mrs. H. A. Peterson of Dallas; accordion solos by Gerald Olsson of Dallas and a resume of fishing streams of Polk county by Dr. H. A. Peterson.

Following the program the regular business meeting of the grange was held.

Snow Is Measured By Yards At Summit

Hubbard—Mrs. W. S. McMannis and small daughter, Tressa, have returned from a visit with McMannis at Cascade Summit. They found the snow 12 feet deep on the level there with tunnels dug from the station to the houses. Residents reported the snow had been 30 feet deep during the winter. McMannis was transferred from the Hubbard depot when it was closed to his present location. Mrs. McMannis and Tressa expect to make their home there after school closes here.

Quincy—Mrs. Lavette Coy Has returned to her home in Missoula, Mont. Mrs. Coy has been with her father, Mr. Barnick for a few weeks.

Superficial BURNS

Cooling, soothing Menthohalol relieves the pain. Promotes quicker healing.

MENTHOLATOL

FIGHT COLDS 2 WAYS MISTOL

FOR NOSE AND THROAT Essence of Mistol ON HANDKERCHIEF AND PILLOW

SPECIAL Complete Sound Pictures EXTRA ! of Roosevelt Inauguration

WARNER BROS. EL SINORE

Held Over For Today Only! Hurry! Don't Miss It!

Cecil B. DeMille's The SIGN OF THE CROSS

No Advance in Price

TOMORROW - FRIDAY - SATURDAY

A flaming drama of fear... hate... and love. Mighty picture from the famous novel!

Barbara STANWYCK

BITTER TEA OF GENERAL YEN

Mat. 25c Eve. 50c Seats 25c

Home Owned Theatre HOLLYWOOD

TODAY AND THURSDAY TONIGHT IS DIME NIGHT

All Seats 10c Except Loges

ONCE IN A LIFE TIME

with Jack Oakie, Sydney Fox, Alene MacMahon, Russell Hopson, Louise Fazenda, Gregory Ratoff, Zasu Pitts, Onslow Stevens, Jobyna Howland

Breaking all attendance records of the last 20 years GREAT! IT'S AT THE GRAND

MATINEES 25c EVENINGS 35c

On the Stage — "Mystic Calvin"

Also Comedy News Snapshots

HELD OVER!

'til the end of the week. Saturday is positively the last day

"STATE FAIR"

* JANET GAYNOR

* WILL ROGERS

* SALLY EILERS

* LEW AYRES

* Norman Foster

* Louise Dresser

* Victor Jory