SILVERTON LODGE MEMBERS GATHER

Sheridan—A large audience greeted the players who presented the Parent-Teachers' association farce in the American Legion hall Friday evening. The play was coached by Miss Loretta Mason of the high school faculty and participated in by the teachers of high and grade school, assisted by James Morrissey, George Krentzer and Miss Betty Morrissey.

The play, "A Pair of Gloves," by Anthony E. Willis, centered around a pair of gloves which brought about the breaking of a young girl's heart, all of which came to end happily upon the finding of the gloves.

The cast included Otis J. White as Walter Dillingham; Ernest Heinbach as Jefferson Ruggles; Walter Meyer as Robert Slocum; Jim Morrissey as Charles Brooks; George Krentzer as Jim Ryan; Miss Altha Chandler as Mrs. Ruggles; Miss Nadine Gilkison as Mrs. Dillingham; Miss Betty Morrissey as Mrs. Ruggles; Mrs. Alison G. Fry as Mrs. Brooks; and Miss Ruth Higgins as Valaska Bjorn. Mrs. S. M. Johnson, president of the P. T. A., was business manager and reports herself as being highly pleased with the cooperation given those presenting the play and the fine crowd present Friday evening in spite of bank closings.

Two Hubbard Mail Routes Consolidated

Hubbard—The two Hubbard mail routes have been combined to form one route which is 62 1/2 miles long. It is covered by Edmund Chausse, who was transferred to the Hubbard district from Medical Lake in Washington. The two former carriers, Zol Zehner and Fred Palmer were retired. Mr. and Mrs. Chausse will make their home in the Hatcher residence which is now being modernized for their occupancy. Chausse began his work here March 1.

Lodge To Frolic

Silverton—Miss Ora Larson, Miss Letha Cavender and Mrs. Faye Renwick compose an entertainment committee of the Rebekah lodge that has arranged a party to be given for the members following the regular lodge meeting Thursday evening. A pot luck supper will be served and cards played with the affair in keeping with St. Patrick's day.

BENTONS ARE SAFE

Silverton—Scores of residents here have relatives in the stricken district of southern California, but no one has heard of any fatalities among them. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Benton have received telegraphic word from their son and daughter, assuring their safety, though they were on duty in a downtown office in Los Angeles at the time of the first shocks, and barely escaped to the open spaces in time to avoid injury.

LAKES RETURN HOME

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. Russel Lake and two small sons, Marshall Lee and Arthur Graham, returned to their home near Mill City Sunday evening from a three-day visit in Silverton and Chemawa. Independence—The Kill Kare club were guests of Mrs. W. H. Walker and Mrs. Stella Calbreath Friday evening at the Walker home, following a no-host dinner, for an evening of "500." Mrs. Elmer Addison and Grover C. Mattison won high score honors for the evening.

There will be one more meeting of this club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McIntosh and this will close the season's activity excepting for the annual picnic which is usually held later in the year. Mrs. O. D. Butler and Mrs. A. B. Robinson were special guests of the club on Friday evening, substituting for Mrs. Swope and Mrs. McIntosh, who were absent.

CLUB ATTRACTS LARGE CROWD

Waldo Hills—A large crowd attended the community club program given at the hall Friday evening with Mrs. J. Culver of Salem guest reader and M. S. Chandler of Silverton giving the principal talk of the program.

Mrs. Helen Paget, the Edison Comstock, A. A. Geer and Karl Haberly families were in charge of the other program numbers and arranged the selections in an unique setting. The stage was furnished to represent an evening home scene and those that appeared did so as informal callers. A piano duet was played by Mrs. Comstock and her daughter Janet; the Misses Vesper and Reba Geer sang a duet with Mrs. Flora Hedrick of Salem accompanying; Arch Geer and Edson Comstock put on a comedy skit; Elmer Palmquist and Bud Nelson sang popular numbers with guitar accompaniment played by themselves; Mrs. Culver's readings were greatly appreciated; Chandler told of postal service and regulations; Frank Bowers gave one of his chalk talks illustrating the first rural carriers and the modern ones in cars.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Chapin and their son Ross of Salem were introduced to the members as special guests. Table decorations carried out the St. Patrick's day idea. Mr. and Mrs. Bowers and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cunningham were in charge of refreshments.

Homestead Drawn; Site Is Popular

Silverton—Albert Mead and James Down accompanied Mead's brother, Edwin, to Sandy Friday to see the 40-acre homestead on the loop highway which became his as a result of a drawing Thursday. There were 22 applicants for that particular homestead. Using his army time, Edwin Mead will be able to prove up his homestead in seven months. This claim is considered a favorite site on account of the location.

Club Entertained

Jefferson—Mrs. Earl Lyman and Mrs. Charles McKee were hostesses to members of the Past Matrons club of Euclid chapter Thursday afternoon in the lodge rooms. The president of the club, Mrs. George C.
