Artists Honor Mrs. Clifton Mudd

Recognition of Salem's artists and art interests is contained in the invitation extended to Mrs. Clifton Mudd to serve as one of the patronesses for the exhibition by Oregon artists being sponsored this week by the state chapter of the Professional League of Artists in Portland at the new art museum. Mrs. Mudd will go to Portland Wednesday and remain there the rest of the week.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Mudd, who is chairman of the fine arts committee of the 56 Federated Women's clubs in District 3, will attend a tea complimenting the exhibitors to be given by the Portland women's clubs.

Organization of a new club of matrons in Salem was accomplished at a meeting of the members at the home of Miss Iris Stevens recently. "Youbah" was the name selected for the club, which includes among its charter members Mrs. Walter Ziegler, Miss Stella Barry, Miss Mildred Mason, Miss Mildred Starbough and Miss Stevens.

Miss Iris Utter was a special guest at the organization meeting when the afternoon was spent in solving puzzles.

Scott's Mills—Mrs. E. M. Nicholson and sons, Rex and James, spent Saturday evening and Sunday in Salem visiting at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Magee and M. M. Magee and family.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist church will meet Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock in the church parlors. Mrs. J. A. Mills will lead the devotions. The Lucy Anna Lee circle members will be hostesses for the tea hour. All women of the congregation are invited.

Donald—Venus chapter No. 129, O.E.S. met in regular session Friday night. Visitors present were Mrs. Harvey Hinkle and Miss Estingier of Aurora, both of whom are members of Myrtle chapter in Portland. The local chapter accepted an invitation to be guests of Laurel chapter at Canby Thursday evening.

Following the meeting a card party was sponsored by the social club. Thirteen tables were in play. Honors for high scores went to Mrs. J. A. Bush and P. J. Dolson; low score winners were Miss Estingier and Mr. Martin.

The committee in charge included Mrs. F. G. Clark, Miss Clara Whitney, Mrs. J. H. Miller, Mrs. G. B. Ackerson and Mrs. John Kester. The party was the first of a series of three, the others to be given in the autumn.

Central Howell—Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ramsden have as their house guests their niece and nephew, Miss Opal and Donald Peterson of Eagle Rock, Calif., also Miss Violet Punemark of Portland, another niece. The visitors from California, whose home is only eight miles from Los Angeles, barely missed the earthquake of a few weeks ago, as they left just eight hours previous to the temblors. Mrs. Harold St. Clair of Monroe spent the past week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kuenzel, and visited her many relatives around Silverton and vicinity.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in the church. There will be the usual business meeting with election of officers and a program followed by a social hour. Mrs. S. H. Probert is chairman of the hostess committee.

Brooks—Those attending the district aid rally in Salem at the First Methodist church from here, were Meadys A. E. Harris, Cecil Ashbaugh, Wayne Gibson, Harry Kibby, Monroe Ward, Sylvester Harris and A. M. Dunlavy. The attendance honors went to Stayton for having the largest percent of their total membership present. Officers elected for the year were Mrs. J. W. Beckley, Salem, president; Mrs. H. E. Tobie, Stayton, vice president; Mrs. Gordon Black, West Salem, secretary-treasurer. Societies represented were Silverton, Marquam, Jason Lee, Leslie Memorial, Dallas, Turner, Stayton, Canby, Brooks and First church.

Independence—Everett A. Nelson and Margaret Ida Hanna were united in marriage by Judge McIntosh at the McIntosh home Saturday, in the presence of the parents of the contracting parties. The ring ceremony was read by the judge at 3 o'clock after which the young couple went to the home of the bride where a wedding dinner was served. Mrs. Nelson is the daughter of Mrs. May Hanna of this city and has grown to womanhood in this vicinity. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Nelson and has been employed here for the past several years. They will make their home here for the present.

Those in attendance at the wedding were Mrs. May Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. A. Nelson and daughter, and Mrs. J. G. Mentash.

Mt. Angel—Mrs. Nick Renner was complimented at a shower Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Weiland with "500" played during the afternoon. High score honors were awarded to Mrs. John T. Bauman and second prize was received by Mrs. Frank Kramer. Mrs. Peter Myers won the door prize. At the close of the afternoon luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Henry Weiland and Mrs. Fabian Stahl.

Those bidden to honor Mrs. Renner included Mrs. Joseph Ackerman, Mrs. Chris Schwenk, Mrs. Martin Weidinger, Mrs. Frances Skonetzki, Mrs. Forrest Sauvain, Mrs. Anna Holmes, Mrs. Peter Meyers, Mrs. Paul Buchholz, Mrs. N. M. Lauby, Mrs. Martin Buchholz, Mrs. M. I. Meyers, Mrs. Lawrence Thomas, Mrs. L. Schindler, Mrs. Frank J. Hettwer, Mrs. Henry Baker, Mrs. John T. Bauman, Mrs. Alfred A. Klinger, Mrs. Joseph Zerr, Mrs. M. Sabel, Mrs. Eva Erwert, Mrs. William Conrad, Mrs. Charles Ullman, Mrs. Joseph Wilke, Mrs. Ralph Hockett, Mrs. Joseph Stadler, Mrs. Rose T. Ebner, Mrs. Albert Welas, Mrs. Ed Bronkey, Mrs. Lena Unger, Mrs. J. Bartnik, Mrs. John Diehl, Mrs. Henry H. Annen, Mrs. B. Fessler and Mrs. Frank Kraemer.

Woodburn—Miss Jessie Sims, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Sims of Woodburn, a sophomore in home economics at Oregon State college, has been elected vice president of Temeidias, a social organization for Eastern Star women on college campuses. The new officers will be installed March 30.

Wilburs Hosts To Ace High Club

Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Davis and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ullman were the high scoring couples at an evening of cards at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilbur Sunday night when the Wilburs entertained members of the Ace High club.

A St. Patrick's day motif was carried out in the decorations. Mr. and Mrs. Gall Jones were additional guests for the evening. The next gathering of the club will be an afternoon session of the women, a luncheon at which Mrs. R. C. Curtis will be the hostess.

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richmond were surprised with a St. Patrick's day party in honor of their 28th wedding anniversary Friday evening at their home east of Woodburn. Six tables of "500" were in play during the evening with prizes for high score going to Mrs. Hartley Bonney and Mr. Richmond and consolation to Mrs. W. C. Miller and G. F. Wright. A bridge lamp was presented to the Richmonds as a wedding gift from the group. Refreshments were served.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. Pfaffinger, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Bonney, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simon, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Faulconer, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bauman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Welas, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gibbons, Marjorie Wright, Bonnie Lou Pfaffinger, Lynn Simon, Madge Jean, Maxine and Berton Richmond and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richmond.

Lyons—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hester of Salem, Mrs. Cora Barrett and George Davis of Stayton, were Sunday visitors at the Perry Bressler and Clyde Bressler homes.

Hazel Green—A group of young folks celebrated St. Patrick's day by sponsoring a surprise party for Ina and Clarence Zielinski, the occasion also being their birthday. Games and music were played during the evening and at a late hour refreshments were served by the hostess to the following group: Miss Hazel Woelke, Miss Ruth Montandon, Miss Lucille Dunigan, Miss Iola Luckey, Miss Helen Zielinski, Miss Doris Massie, Miss Charlotte Van Cleave, Misses Edna and Nora Rutherford, Ellsworth Smith, Kenneth Luckey, Alfred Montandon, Earl and Elmer Johnson, Lawrence Zielinski and Kenneth McCormick.

The writers' section of the Salem Art league will meet Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Ray Vocum, on "E" Street.

Lyons—A large crowd attended card benefit at the Happy Times club hall Saturday night. The committee for the next meeting includes Earl Allen, Dick Brown, Bill Waterman, Marvin Berry, Oscar Nave and Clyde Bressler. The Rebekahs are planning another benefit party to be held next Saturday night. Rebekahs and Odd Fellows from out-of-town are expected.

Shaw—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Chambers and small daughter, who have been at the Robert Claxton home during the winter months, have left for Baker.

Hostesses were Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Bowes, Mrs. Dean and Mrs. Taylor.

Mechama—The Community club meeting was held at the hotel Saturday evening and cards were played. First prize went to Roy Phillip with consolation going to Estelle King.

Crews Top Onions

Brooks—Two crews of more than 12 men each are working night and day shipping onions at the thousand-acre Hayes-Lalish farm, running two topping machines constantly. This is to prepare the onions for large shipment orders from the Orient. Plans are to make the shipment this week. This is the third week of topping.

Caretaker Honored On 75th Birthday

Silverton—The youngsters of the Immanuel Lutheran church junior league of which Miss Hanna Olson is advisor, were responsible for a very thoughtful act at their 5 o'clock Sunday evening session, when they remembered that during the week the caretaker of the church, Knute Naa, had celebrated his 75th birthday anniversary. In appreciation of his faithfulness and personal interest in them, the group presented him with a large bouquet of sweet peas. Leslie Anderson made the presentation speech. During the morning Sunday school hour the primary department of the church remembered Mr. Naa with a gift.

SILVERTON HOBBY PERIOD IS VARIED

Silverton—One period during the week is given over to the boys of the junior high school division to follow their own choice of entertainment for the hour and are usually held Friday afternoons. Home room 5 entertained home room 36 Friday. Jigsaw puzzles and checkers were first choice and reading favorite stories a close second choice. The boys usually select out-door activities when the weather is permissible.

Marbles and the library was the prevailing choice of boys in rooms 4 and 2. Members of rooms 3 and 7 are making a special study of bird-life and attended the science class to hear Davis lecture on that subject, although a few boys remained in their own room to make improvised marble pots and to play favorite games or stage marble races. Members of room 24 played out doors while a few went to the library.

SHERIDAN HOLDS ANNUAL DINNER; FATHERS, SONS

Sheridan—An occasion of unusual significance in Sheridan the past week was the 12th annual father and son banquet held Friday evening at the Methodist church and sponsored by the men of the church. Arrangements were under direction of Rev. R. A. Feenstra.

The affair was non-denominational and the presence of 110 dads and boys bespoke the community spirit back of the event.

Circle No. 4 of the Ladies' Aid had charge of the dinner with Mrs. Clarence Caudle, Mrs. George Censky, Mrs. George Eply, Mrs. H. B. Skinner and Mrs. Emmeline McKinley in charge of all arrangements. Decorations were in keeping with St. Patrick's day under direction of Mrs. George Eply, and waitresses included the young women of the church. Misses Frances Kosack, Lois Piquet, Mary Elizabeth Schrist, Wauweta Burton, Varel Jones, Marie Nairn, Thelma Lady, Naomi Brown and Thelma Brown.

Leland R. Sackett, superintendent of the M. E. Sunday school, presided at the table during the banquet and the program which followed. H. G. Funk offered thanks.

Scout committee spoke for the scouts, inviting them to the scout rally to be held at McMinnville Friday night. Rev. Feenstra read a poem, "My Son," contributed by George Eply, and then introduced the main speaker, Dr. Carl G. Doney president of Willamette university. Dr. Doney spoke on "Training of Our Youth" and stressed four things in particular: Obedience, industry, truthfulness and love. The group was enthusiastic in its reception of Dr. Doney's speech. After singing "Blest Be the Tie," Dr. Doney pronounced the benediction.

Special mention of dads present were the following: Judge Sackett with his son Leland and grandson Russell; A. J. Bewley with his two grown sons, Paul of St. Helens and Theodore; and Tom Bockes and his little grandson, Lewis Tatom. Clem Howard of the First National bank claimed the most freckled and the son with the reddest hair in the person of Francis Kelly. A large number of soulless "dads" had dadless sons or rented sons.

FORESTERS WILL ELECT
Mt. Angel—A meeting of the Women's Order of Catholic Foresters will be held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Mary Schwab. There will also be election of officers; that evening and all members are requested to be present.

Mechama—Mrs. Floyd Monroe and son Harry accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Phillips and daughter Beverly Ann, on a business trip to Crescent City, Calif., last week.

Silverton—Mrs. E. Loomis is suffering from a broken collarbone and a sore shoulder. Friday she slipped on the steps of her home and fell several feet to the walk. She is at her home being cared for by her daughter.

Shaw—Mrs. George Lambrecht, assisted by Mrs. Myles Kinta and Mrs. Slim Etzel, entertained recently with a dinner honoring her husband, George Lambrecht and her niece, Miss Jean Etzel.
