TRUSTEESHIP IS TAKEN BY TURNER CHURCH

Turner—Following morning worship Sunday a special meeting was called at the Turner Christian church of the members and church board for the purpose of acception or rejection of the trusteeship and to enlarge articles of church cooperation. In the will of the late Cornelia Ann Davis no trustee was named for the proposed home for the needy, the court later naming the Turner Christian church. If court appointive is made, the local church will assume the trusteeship and management of the building, and managing and maintenance of the home for the needy in accordance to the seventh provision of the Davis will.

Dr. H. C. Epley of Salem presided at the special meeting, opening with prayer and followed by a eulogy to Mrs. Davis. After the object of the meeting was stated a vote was taken on accepting trusteeship with the result of 68 to 13 in its favor. Only the requirement of a three-fourths majority vote was necessary. By motion the members were asked to accept the business transacted at a special church meeting. Rev. Ellmore J. Gilstrap, pastor of the church, was elected superintendent and manager of the home for the needy. A board of three members was also elected for the purpose of handling the business. They are Mrs. Frances Delzell, Fred Bates and Dr. H. C. Epley, for terms of one, two and three years respectively.

Following the adjournment of the business session at 1 o'clock a good felolwship dinner was served in the church dining room to approximately 100. A musical entertainment and social time was enjoyed by the large group in attendance. The Christian Endeavor society sponsored a unique indoor campfire meeting in the evening, made of electric lights. The young people circled the campfire, all participating in the main toeme topic, "Is It Practical to Live Without Worrying?" under the leadership of Margaret Gilstrap.

BASEBALL BENEFIT CALLS EIGHT TABLES

Brooks—Eight tables of "500" were in play at the card party sponsored by the Brooks baseball team, at the club house last week. High score prizes were held by Mrs. C. A. Bailey and Ronald Jones, and low by Mrs. Dunlavy and Robert Fosberg. Refreshments were served to the following:

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ramp, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Batchelor and daughter Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. John Henny, Mrs. Mary Martin, Mrs. Emily VanSanten, Mrs. A. M. Dunlavy, Misses Alice Massey, Mary Clark, Bessie Aspinwall, and Arleta Wood, Mrs. James Riggi, Carl Aspinwall, Jim Riggi, Ralph Girod, Ronald Jones, Ivan Wood, Richard Hess, Frank Riggi, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bailey, Frank Henny, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Ramp, Mrs. Virgil Loomis, Jack Montgomery, Iris Isham, Bob Fosberg, Fred McLaughry, Harry Loomis, Leo Ramp and Earl Ramp.

Another benefit party will be given Wednesday night at the clubhouse.

Buchheit Honored By Birthday Dinner

Mt. Angel—Mrs. Mamie Mackie was hostess at a birthday dinner complimenting Leo Buchheit on the occasion of his birthday anniversary Sunday evening at his home. Covers were placed for the honor guest, Leo Buchheit, Mrs. Mamie Mackie, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Buchheit, Mr. and Mrs. Math A. Beyer, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schlottman, Miss Mary Wachter, Joseph Seelig, all of Mt. Angel, Dr. A. Wrightman, Miss Ella Dolan and Miss Orga Prossen of Silverton, and Miss Anne Smith and Joseph Kloughenstein of Portland. Following dinner cards were played for the remainder of the evening. High score awards were won by Miss Ella Dolan and Joseph Seelig. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Buchheit received the low score prize and Harvey Smith the door prize.

Promotors Gather

Mt. Angel—Rev. Father Alcuin, O. S. B., Rev. Father Damian, O. S. B., of St. Benedict's Abbey, Alois Keber, P. N. Smith and Frank Meidl motored to Portland to attend the promotor's meeting in the interest of the annual Laymen's retreat, which is to be held at St. Benedict's Abbey June 16, 17 and 18. The meeting was held at the Portland hotel. The retreat this year will be in charge of Father Vincent Carey, O. S. B., of St. Martins, Lacey, Wash.

MISS SOVIK IMPROVING

Silverton—Miss Hannah Olson has received word from Rev. and Mrs. Edward Sovik, workers in the missionary field at Kolshan, China, that Mrs. Sovik was much improved in health. She has recently undergone two major operations and her case was thought to be serious. Rev. Sovik was a former pastor of the Immanuel Lutheran church in Silverton and they have many friends here who will be glad to know of Mrs. Sovik's improvement.

SCHMIEDECKE IS HOME

Silverton—Charles Schmiedecke returned home during the week following more than two months' visit in several California cities as guest of relatives. During his stay in Palo Alto with his aunt, Mrs. Mina Keswick, Schmiedecke was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Davis, students at Stanford university. Davis was principal of the Silverton high school last year. Schmiedecke spent a number of weeks in Los Angeles visiting an aunt, Miss Anna Johnson, leaving there a few days before the earthquake disaster.

West Stayton Has Crowd For Actors

West Stayton—A large audience was present Friday evening at the school auditorium when the three act play, "When a Man is Single", was presented by the Community club. The cast consisted of four men and four women: Mrs. Mabel Royse, Darrel Royse, Mrs. Ben Chamberlain, Mrs. Martha Downes, Miss Butcher, Lloyd Sunderman, Harry Stewart, Paul McClellan.

An orchestra of two violins by Irish and Haymaker of Turner, accompanied by Dickman at the piano entertained between acts.

DALLAS SONGSTERS HEARD AT REVIVAL

Silverton—A special attraction of the program at the First Christian church Sunday night was a male quartet with three Dallas guest singers from the Dallas Bruderthaller German Mennonite congregation. They were Sol Ediger and Elvin and Leander Tuering, and DeVere Penhollow of the Leavitt evangelistic group was the fourth member of the quartet.

In response to several requests, a short concert of solo and duet spirituals was sung by Leavitt and Penhollow with Penhollow playing the piano accompaniments. Several baptisms took place following the evening sermon. Services will continue through the week.

DEPRESSION PARTY IS HELD AT TURNER

Turner—Victoria Chapter of Eastern Star of Turner and members of the Stayton Eastern Star chapter sponsored a "depression party and dance" in the Masonic hall here with a large attendance of members and invited guests. Mrs. Jessie Jones, Turner matron, whose home was recently destroyed by fire, was complimented with a kitchen shower following regular lodge session. A short program was presented as follows:

Skit by Bobby Jones and Dorothy Tucker of Marion; reading by Marjorie Tucker; instrumental solo by Miss Tucker; humorous playlet, "Topsy and Eva," by Mary Kelly and Jessie Jones. H. P. Jensen, representing "Ole, the Swede," was declared the most appropriately costumed.

The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing with Lawrence Robertson, Fred Steiner and Floyd Robertson furnishing the music. Luncheon was served at a late hour to all chapter members and the following invited guests: Mr. and Mrs. Tucker and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schaffer, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Peebles, James Erwin and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ball.

HAZEL GREEN CARD CLUB HAS ELECTION

Hazel Green—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tuve entertained members of the Saturday night card club. Four tables of cards were in play during the evening with high score prizes awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wampler while consolation prizes went to Mrs. Charles Glaze and Charles Hall.

A business meeting was held at which time election of officers was held and resulted as follows: President, Edward Dunigan Sr.; vice-president, Carl Brant; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Louis Wampler. A meeting of the executive committee will be held at the Carl Brand home at which time plans will be completed for the new season.

Guests present included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stafford of Waconda and Mrs. Knute Tuve of Portland. Members present were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hynes, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wampler, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dunigan Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brant, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glaze, Fred Chapman, Jack Fassett, Clinton Wampler, Willard Glaze, Patricia and Caroline Hynes and Marian Wampler.

Nemo Sewing Club Guest Riggi Home

Hazel Green—Mrs. Paul Riggi entertained members of the Nemo sewing club for the March meeting with her mother, Mrs. D. LoRose and Mrs. James Riggi assisting hostesses. At the tea hour the hostesses were aaisted in serving by Mrs. Chester Jefferson.

Guests and members present included Mesdames James Riggi, Albert Haselbacher, Maurice Dunigan, Royd Hawley, Richard Tuve, Lou Faist, Chester Jefferson, Fred Haselbacher, Edward Dunigan, Sr., Perle Woods, Will Davis, Walter Rutherford and Misses Donna Jefferson, Marian Wampler and Mrs. Wampler.

COLLEGE GIRL HOSTESS

Turner—Miss Sheila Delzell entertained a group of friends with a party at the country home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Delzell. Following an evening of games and music a luncheon was served to Miss Emma Denyer, Miss Marjory Fowler, Miss Ruth Gilstrap, Miss Margaret Gilstrap, John Hawk, James Denyer, Harold Fowler, Albert Jensen, S. Bowen, Kenneth Bear, Russell Denyer, Kenneth Fowler, Rev. E. J. Gilstrap, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Delzell and the hostess, Miss Sheila Delzell, who is home from Oregon State college for spring vacation.

COAST PEOPLE GUESTS

Silverton—Mr. and Mrs. B. Lyons and daughter Beatrice of Marshfield came to Silverton Sunday for a weeks' visit at the home of Mrs. Lyons' mother, Mrs. Ingeborg Ormbrecht, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson. A brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Elner Ormbreck, accompanied the Lyons family to Portland Monday to spend the day with friends.

SALEM KIWANIS CLUB PRESENTS VARIED PROGRAM

West Salem—The community club held its March meeting Monday night in the community hall. A short business meeting was held before the program and entertainment features of the evening were given.

Mrs. Elmer Cook, chairman of the relief committee made a report on the relief work that had been done during the past month. President E. L. Miller appointed Mrs. Emmett Dickson, Mrs. W. D. Phillips and Mrs. Roy Stevens to arrange for the program for the April meeting.

The evening's program was presented by the Salem Kiwanis club under the auspices of the Salem chamber of commerce. C. E. Wilson, secretary of the chamber told of the efforts of the chamber of commerce in cooperating with the various community clubs in Marion and Polk counties by putting on programs for the various clubs. He also said that the Salem chamber was cooperating with a committee from West Salem in bringing before the state engineer, the matter of improving Edgewater street, which is the Salem-Dallas highway, through this city.

Dr. Henry E. Morris, past president of the Kiwanis club was chairman of the program committee. Monday night's program was the fifth to be put on by the Kiwanis club this winter in conjunction with chamber of commerce programs.

The following numbers were presented: music, dance band; Scotch songsi, Robert Hutcheon; comedy skit, Harold Jepsen and Norman Summers; music, Haywire orchestra, Dr. A. D. Woodmansee, H. R. (Rufe) White, Frank Zinn, S. F. Scott; address, "What's Wrong With the Courts?" Judge Harry Belt; Scotch songs, Robert Hutcheon

SHERIDAN REPORTS FEW HONOR PUPILS

Sheridan—The number of high school students on the honor roll for the first quarter of the semester just past was slightly smaller than for last semester, despite the fact that new names were added in the sophomore class, the largest in school.

There were four from the freshmen, eight from the sophomore, a decrease of four; three from the juniors and four from the seniors. They include the following: Freshmen, Margaret Wright, 1.25; Frank Huntley, 1.25; Bert Hammell, 1.75; Victoria Fuqua, 1.50; sophomores, Mildred Anne Graves, 1.00 ;Lloyd Blair, ?; Arleene Barber, 1.20; Eugene Ritner, 1.25; Darell Syron, 1.25; Helen Ashton, 1.50; Amos Brubaker, 1.50; Edith Leach, 1.75; juniors, Charles Hillway, 1.25; Katherine Stockton, 1.75; Selma Schukar, 2.00; seniors: Loisel Haas, 1.00; Genevieve Seth, 1.25; Eldon Hamilton, 1.25; Donald Atwood, 2.00.

The falling off is not unusual, as faculty member susually report a lagging in work at the beginning of the new semester, due to changes in schedule, etc.

Salem Rotarians Sponsor Program

Stayton—The Stayton chamber of commerce entertained the women Friday night at the regular meeting held in the high school auditorium.

After a short business session the Salem Rotarians entertained with several hous of song and music which was enjoyed by everyone present.

Preparations Made For Eastern Music

Independence—The services at the several churches in the city were well attended on Sunday morning and in the afternoon many went to the Presbyterian church to hear Dr. Schoeler of Corvallis lecture.

Preparation is being made for Easter services to be held April 16. Special music for the occasion requiring considerable practice. The choir of the Methodist church are rehearsing twice a week, meeting on Monday and Thursday evenings. The Easter program will appear next week. Special music is being prepared for both morning and evening services.

Concert Presented

Mt. Angel—Members of the Mt. Angel colege and seminary orchestra went to Portland Sunday where they presented their annual concert at the St. Joseph's Old Folks Home. Their concert consisted of light clasic and popular numbers. Guests of the home, sisters from Portland parochial school and relatives and friends attended. Following the concert a reception was given the players, followed by refreshments. The seminary quartet sang for benedictions.

RETURN FROM KANSAS

Mt. Angel—Louis Schwab and William Prosser returned Friday from a two months' trip to Larned and Dodge City, Kansas. Prosser was called east to visit his mother, Mrs. Fred Prosser, who was seriously ill in the St. Anthony hospital and who passed away last Thursday. On their way home the boys spent some time at Stockton, Calif., where they were the guests of Schwab's brother and sister, Joseph B. Schwab and Mrs. Joseph Boylan, and also at Ukiah, Calif., as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Lindsey. Prosser is employed at the Ficker Motor company and Schwab is connected with the Fred Schwab Commission company.

Sublimity—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rauscher and son, Raymond, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dozier of Stayton motored to Vancouver, Wash., Sunday on business. They also visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Ruettgers at Washougal, Wash.

Own Table Service Is Asked By Club

Monmouth—The March meeting of the Grange Home Economic club drew a good attendance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. U. Seeley, east of town. Members present whose birthdays occur in March were remembered with a cake and Yoho pillows, the latter gift being presented by the program committee which also entertained the group with a program of music and stunts. In order to accommodate the growing attendance each family is requested to bring their own table service. The April meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. C. O. Allen.

AICHER HONOR HOST AT HOME

Woodburn—Joseph Aicher celebrated his 70th birthday Sunday at his home east of town with a birthday dinner, prepared and served by Mrs. Frank Aicher. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. William Harts and family of Scio, Mrs. Augusta Neirring, Sr., of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aicher and Joseph Theis of Woodburn and Mr. Joseph Aicher.

Additional guests who came in the afternoon for the birthday celebration were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Barrows and daughter Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reimer, Jr., Mrs. Augusta Neirring, Sr., and Miss Rose Prantl, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. William Harts, daughters and sons, Lucille and Betty Harts, Robert, Albert and Joseph Wellman all of Scio; Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Aicher, sons and daughters, Alfred, Bernard, Norbert, Gertrude, Katherine and Florence, Mr. and Mrs. Math Hermle, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Aicher and daughter Rita, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hortsch, Mr. and Mrs. Arista Nendel, Messrs. William Koch, Thomas Hermle, Edward Hermle and Joseph Theis all of Woodburn; Mrs. Eugene Hoffer, Miss Antoinette Hassler, Mr. Lawrence Traviss, all of Mt. Angel; Mrs. Henry Wellman of Scotts Mills, Mrs. Thresia Schindler, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Susee and daughter Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eder, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prantl, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Prantl, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Addelman, Misses Thresia Schindler, Pauline Schindler, Clara Eder, Cecilia Prantl., Messrs. Joseph Schindler and Albert Prantl, all of Gervais; the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aicher and the honor guest, Mr. Joseph Aicher.

The afternoon was spent at cards and lunch was served to about 60 guests. Assisting Mrs. Frank Aicher in serving were Mrs. Fred Reimer, Jr., Mrs. Arista Nendel, Mrs. Fred Eder, Mrs. Frank Addelman, Mrs. Sebastian Aicher, Miss Clara Eder and Miss Cecilia Prantl.

POOR MAN WARNED TO BEHAVE SELF

Woodburn—A. O. Lowery appeared before Judge Overton Friday and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of larceny of a sack of wheat. He was given a fine of $25 and costs but on account of a dependent family and financial difficulties his sentence was suspended on condition that he pay the costs and promise not to again violate the criminal laws of the state for a year.

C. P. Brannin appeared Monday on a charge of driving an automobile on the wrong side of the highway and passing another car on the crest of a hill. He plead guilty and was fined $5 and $2.50 costs.

Boys Entertained By Girls' Groups

Central Howell—A most enjoyable party was held Friday evening at the W. A. Roth home when the girls of the Christian Endeavor society of the Pratum Mennonite church entertained for the boys. The evening was spent in games and music and at a late hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Roth assisted by Mrs. Leisy.

Guests present included Leona Leisy, Lillian Rutschman, Ethel Beuller, Esther Gerig, Ruth Ramsden, Lydia Gerib, Laura Gerig, Ruth Welty, Emma Stauffer, Emma Gerig, Susie Rutschman, Martha Gerig, Mina Gerig, Rufus, Ewald and Arthur Franz, Elmer and Irvin Wedel, Clarence Beuller, Roy Rutschman, Peter Bishoff, Dan Stauffer, David, Ernest and Henry Gerig, Irvin Dirks, Homer Welty, Dennis Loganbill, Ray McKibbins, Mrs. Homer Leisy, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roth, Lucille, Leonard, Robert and Erwin Roth.

CHURCH MEN GATHER

Sublimity—The regular meeting of the Holy Name Men was held Sunday evening following the 7:30 o'clock services. Talks were given by outside speakers. This meeting was delayed two weeks on account of the mission given at the St. Boniface church.

HOME FROM FUNERAL

West Stayton—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen and Ed Hankel returned home Sunday from Wilbur, Wash., where they were called by the serious illness of Mrs. Ida McMillan, a sister of Mrs. Allen and Hankel. Mrs. McMillan died Thursday of pneumonia and complications.

VISITORS AT LYONS

Lyons—Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Ross and children, Sonny and Norman, of Portland, spent the week-end with Mrs. Ross' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Darnell. Accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Buoy of Portland, who were guests at the Everett Crabtree home.

A Home Owned Theater
HOLLYWOOD
Now 3rd Big Week in Portland
Coming Soon
"Goona-Goona"

HEALTH MOVIES FEATURE EVENT OF SHERIDAN PT

Sheridan— The monthly meeting of the Sheridan P.T.A. held Friday evening at the high school was one of the most interesting of the current year. Despite the fact that the meeting was changed from Monday to Friday to accommodate the speaker there was a large crowd present.

Mrs. Harold Hadley presided during the program in the absence of Mrs. Otis J. White, chairman. The high school girls' glee club, in their first appearance before the association, presented two numbers, "There is a Song in My Heart," and "Listen to the German Band," under direction of Miss Nadine Gilkeson with Miss Edith Schuman at the piano. "Around the World with the Children," a play in one act by the children in the fourth grade was presented. Children from Switzerland, England, France, Arabia, Japan, Holland and Italy came to visit the children in America and sang the songs and played the games of their own countries. Miss Frances Frizell sang.

During the business meeting, Mrs. George Kreutzer gave the report of the P.T.A. play of March 3, stating that the proceeds amounted to $61. The association went on record as giving Miss Loretta Mason, director, a vote of thanks for her work. Otis J. White, James Morrissey and Mrs. Homer Frick were appointed on the nominating committee, the April meeting being the time to elect officers.

Superintendent White announced visiting day for the grade and high schools as Wednesday and Thursday with special programs Wednesday after luncch. The fourth grade received the attendance banner.

The speaker of the evening, Dr. David B. Hill of Salem, was introduced by Dr. Vincent A. Para. Dr. Hill, who is chairman of the Marion county health board, gave an illustrated lecture on preservation of health. His lecture was sponsored by the Salem chamber of commerce and his pictures on health were enthusiastically received and were followed by a reel on Oregon scenery, and a second one, a comedy, for children.

SIDEWALK REPAIRING HELPS UNEMPLOYED

Independence—Repairing of sidewalks is going forward following the demands of the city council, and under the inspection of the street committee and engineer. In a number of places where the walks have been heaved up by roots of trees or from frost, new portions have been laid, while in many cases just minor repairs have been needed.

Property owners are made responsible by this act of the council, for any damage to persons by reason of defective walks. After 30 days from date of notice the council will proceed to repair the walks and charge the costs to property owners. This has given some employment to idle men.

Nendels Are Host For Card Evening

Woodburn—Mr. and Mrs. Arista Nendel entertained at dinner Friday evening at their home on Hayes street. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Bonney, Jimmie Aicher, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reimer, Jr., of Portland and the host and hostess. Two tables of "500" were in play during the evening with prizes for high score going to Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Bonney and the consolation to Mrs. Fred Reimer and G. F. Wright. Mr. and Mrs. Reimer remained at the Nendel home over the week-end.

Birthday Observed

Mt. Angel—Miss Grace Smith was complimented at a dinner party on the occasion of her birthday anniversary at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Smith, Thursday evening. Covers were placed for the honor guest, Miss Grace Smith, Miss Marie Ebner, Miss Marguerite Persyn, Miss Clara Keber, Charles Persyn, Joe Keller, Sylvester Schmitt, Robert Appleby, Killian Smith and Walter Smith. After dinner the guests worked jig-saw puzzles.

VISITORS IN LYONS

Mehama—Mr. and Mrs. Casteel Mr. and Mrs. Osborne of Portland arrived Saturday to spend the week end at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. L. A. Dickson. Mrs. Osborne remained for a longer visit. Mr. Casteel, father of Mrs. Dickson, returned last week from Long Beach and Wilmington where he has spent the past few months. Mr. L. A. Dickson left last Thursday for Wilmington, Calif., where he has property interests.

START BAZAAR WORK

Shaw—The Sewing circle which is composed of women of the Immaculate Conception parish met at the schoolhouse to sew. They are planning for the next annual bazaar.

Monmouth—Hugh Silcott of Marshaltown, Iowa, who has been a guest of his mother, Mrs. V. Silcott for nearly a fortnight, has returned to his home.

A Home Owned Theater
HOLLYWOOD
Last Times Today
Will Rogers
in
DOWN TO EARTH
15¢ Tax 2
Wednesday - Thursday
"The Greeks Had a Word for Them" with Ina Claire

Monroe Host For Friends At Home

Mehama—An informal gathering was held at the Floyd Monroe home Saturday evening when a few of the young people met there. Dale Monroe was home from Willamette university for his spring vacation and Jessie Moe was home from Vancouver, Wash., whre she has been for some time. The evening was spent in working jig-saw puzzles and dainty favors were given with the refreshments served. After Sunday school was dismissed Sunday a surprise dinner was given in honor of Jessie Moe who has been the primary teacher for several years.

CARD PARTY SLATED ONE NIGHT EARLIER

Silverton—The third in a series of card parties sponsored by the women of the Altar society of St. Paul's Catholic parish, will be an event of tonight, and not Wednesday evening as was formerly planned. Supper will be an added attraction. A door prize will be given to the one holding the highest score of the series. The last in the series will be the fourth Tuesday in April. The parties are held in the parish hall. Mrs. W. Stirber is general chairman and Mrs. L. B. Scharback is chairman of the local committee, assisted by Mrs. Joe Schneider, Mrs. William Schecker and Mrs. Rita Martin.

PROGRAM PRESENTED FOR HAZEL GREEN

Hazel Green—Mrs. Vida Miller, principal of the school and Miss Margaret Borquist primary teacher, presented their pupils in a program last week.

A two act original play of "Jack and the Bean Stalk," was given by the following cast of primary pupils: Jack, Lily Yoshaye; Jack's mother, Shirley Johnson; giant, Irene Wacken; giant's wife, Marie Montandon; fairy, Charlotte Massie; Beauseller, Stanley Fukai; voice of harp, Marian Wampler.

Readings were given by Waldo Gilbert, Bernard Zielinski, George Kaib, and Richard Van Cleave. A trio of humorous readings was given by Clinton Wampler.

Merle Smith presided as program announced. Frank Johnson, president of the students appointed the various monitors who will hold office for April.

A girls' chorus gave a number of vocal selections. The chorus included Beatrice Johnson, Geneva Van Cleave, Beulah Cook, Gertrude Zielinski, Alice Montandon, Dorothy Dunigan and Daisy Rutherford.

HUBBARD PREPARES FOR SALE OF BEER

Hubbard—According to the city charter adopted in 1915 the new legalized beer may be sold in less than one gallon amounts in Hubbard by a person licensed by the city council, the fee to be set by the council. A deposit of $1000 or a bond to that amount will have to accompany the application of the person desiring to sell beer. Action on this beer question may be taken at the council meeting April 7.

Oriental Address Given for Brooks

Brooks—Mrs. George Alden of Salem spoke on Japan and China, at the school house Friday morning. She told the children of her trip to China and Japan and showed many pictures and other articles she purchased while there, among them were robes, copper pans, trick box, dolls, clothes, whistles, comb cases, brushes, purse with "Sacred Mountain" embroidered on, rice linen towels, lunch cloths, and Oriental rugs.

The sixth grade class has just completed its Oregon history and has made a covered wagon, and are making a map of Oregon to illustrate the old Oregon trail, which was on display Friday morning. Visitors present were Mrs. William Cattew, Mrs. S. A. Harris, Mrs. Virgil Loomis, Mrs. A. M. Dunlavy, Mrs. Luther Hutto, Mrs. Clyde Hoffer, Mrs. L. D. Clark, Mrs. H. Clark.

ENDEAVORERS ARE GUESTS

Hazel Green—Rev. and Mrs. Clark Smith entertained Saturday afternoon with a party for members of the junior and intermediate Christian Endeavor societies. Games and music were enjoyed by the group under the direction of Eca Smith who is the C. E. leader. Refreshments were served to Beulah Cook, Marion Wampler, Maxine Wolfe, Alexander Sharp, Clinton Wampler, Merle Howard and Ralph Smith.

Sublimity—Mr. and Mrs. Leo Boddigheimer and son, Kenneth, of Washougal, Wash., are visiting at the home of Boedigheimer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Boedigheimer.

Sublimity—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Robl and daughter, Yolanda, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Benedict and daughter, Lou Anna, motored to Portland Saturday afternoon to spend the week-end with relatives.

Texaco Scotty Pups Free with each oil change or lubrication
R. D. Woodrow
Service Station
619 Court St. — Phone 3773

FILMS ARE SEEN AT GRANGE HOUR AND TALKS GIVEN

Rickreall—A 4-H club program and three reels of irrigation films, shown by J. R. Beck, county agent, entertained approximately 75 people at a regular meeting of the grang here Friday night.

At a business meeting which preceded the program Glenn Hogg reported for the agricultural committee. Mrs. E. A. Stenson was appointed chairman of the garden-flower committee and W. W. Rowell was named chairman of the blackboard advertising committee. Both are new agricultural projects in the local order.

O. G. Lantz reported that W. B. Allen of the Oak Grove district lost 20 sheep from poisoning caused, according to the veterinarian, by eating vegetation which had been sprayey with sodium chlorate used to exterminate Canadian thistles.

Visitors, most of whom made short talks were Deputy Master Arthur Brown and Mrs. Brown of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Harris of Suver; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd T. Blair and Mrs. Dan Blair of Buell; Mrs. L. I. Bursell of Monmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elliott, Roberta Elliott and Mrs. C. F. Broadley, all of Dallas. The visitors complimented the local order on having no manuels in sight during the opening and closing ceremonies. At the lecturer's hour Mrs. George Van Santen presented the following program: eradıng by Ezra Harris; talk on club work, its object and benefits, by Authol Riney, president of the Monmouth sheep club; recitation, Elvin Van Santen; Frances Lantz told of her club work in Greenwood school and Mrs. H. A. Dempsey, club leader at Greenwood spoke on club activities; Betty Pence pleased with two piano solos and J. R. Beck showed motion pictures.

A get-acquainted hour followed during which refreshments were served in the dining room by Mrs. O. G Lantz, Mrs. Charles Larkin and Mrs. J. B. Riney.

Rickreall grange will be host at the next meeting, April 14, to members of the Dallas chamber of commerce who will furnish the program for the evening.

APRIL FOOLS' DAY BRINGS SALARY CUT

Independence — Local postoffice employes are looking forward to April 1 with some misapprehension, it holding for them more than the usual significance of being "All Fools'" day, for on that day their salaries will again be cut, according to a new schedule, a reduction of 15 percent. Their income has been curtailed for some months to the extent of 8 and a third percent but this amounts to nearly double the amount.

POUNDS ARE HOSTS FOR CARD EVENING

Stayton—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pounds entertained a group of friends Saturday evening at their home.

Six tables of bridge were in play with high honors going to Mrs. George Towe and C. W. Fletcher, and low to Roy Davenport and Mrs. George R. Duncan, after which refreshments were served.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. George Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Sim Etzel, Dr. and Mrs. W. V. Adams ,Mr. and Mrs. Dave M. John, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Humphrey. Out-of-town guests Mr. and Mrs. Robert Menzies of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fletcher of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Starr, Mr. and Mrs. George Towe, all of Silverton, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pounds.

Repairing Damage

Dallas—Remodeling of the Charles Guy property which was badly damaged by fire has been started with Giesbrecht and Martin, local contractors in charge of the work. The interior of the house is being completely refinished with a slight change in the floor plan and the old roof torn off to be replaced by a new one. No time has been wasted in getting the work under way and making the house ready for occupancy again.

GRAIN FIELDS RE-SEEDED

Shaw— Farmers in this vicinity are taking advantage of the few dry days to reseed their grain which was killed by frost last winter.

GARAGE FELT SAFER

Hazel Green—Pearl Woods has received word from his sister, Mrs. Hal Shelton of Long Beach, Cal., that they are still living in their garage. Their home was not wrecked as severely as they thought at first.

however they cannot commence repairs until given permission by authorities. Mr. and Mrs. Shelton lived here for 20 years on the old Woods homestead before going to California.

WARNER BROS. ELSINORE
Hurry! Last Day!
You must see the most spectacular romance on the screen!
"King of the Jungle"
with
BUSTER CRABBE
FRANCES DEE
—PLUS—
Laurel and Hardy
in
"TOWED IN THE HOLE"
TOMORROW & THURSDAY

EVERY WOMAN HAS A LOVE SECRET! What Was Madame Blanche's?
"The Secret of Madame Blanche" with Lionel Atwill
Phillips Holmes
Thursday night at 8:30 on the stage
SPRING FASHION SHOW
50 models by Salem merchants

WARNER BROS. CAPITOL
ENDS TODAY

A beautiful woman at the mercy of twelve reckless men
"Destination Unknown"
with Pat O'Brien, Ralph Bellamy, Betty Compson, Tom Brown
3 Days Starting Friday
Old "Blessed Event" Tracy
in the funniest picture of his career
LEE TRACY
BENITA HUME
UNA MERKEL
JAMES GLEASON

CLEAR all WIRES