Lindstrom and Piegenson, who have the contract of putting in the fills at each end of the new bridge have a crew of men at work this week in charge of Frank Bullis, clearing the right of way where the curve east of the bridge is to be widened. FISTIC BATTLE FEATURES MEET OF ORIENTALS

Independence—As a result of a misunderstanding over settlement of wages between "Shortie" Komoto, a Japanese hop-labor contractor on the E. C. Horst company ranch, and Gabriel Gestre, a Filipino laborer, Thursday evening, they proceeded to settle their differences in a fistic encounter.

Komoto was knocked down and somewhat bruised about the face and was taken to Independence to a doctor for medical attention while the Filipino was taken to jail where a charge of assault and battery was filed against him.

About 10 o'clock Judge McIntosh was called to his office where Gestre entered a plea of guilty to the charge as filed. A fine and jail sentence was administered, the jail sentence being suspended providing he leave the county and remain away from the Horst ranch.

This is the first intimation of any trouble between these two races as they have always worked together peacefully before. Only a limited number of Filipinos are being used this year at the Horst ranch and

COSTUMES BRIGHTEN ARRIVAL OF BEER

Silverton—If beer had not been impacted as non-intoxicating and 3.2 alcoholic content, one might have thought he was seeing things of the beverage, to be exact, at 11:48 o'clock Friday forenoon, at the George Manolls place of business, brilliant costumes began to appear representing peasantry and nobles of Norway, bands of gypsies, sleek uniformed nurses, cowboys, negro maudslins, hay-ribes and numerous other oddities. This proved to be only the dress-up for the senior class, an annual event. The elements were heartily in sympathy with the advent of suds for scarcely had the first truck bearing beer appeared when a real storm broke.
