Mrs. M'Nary Hostess To Bridge Club

Members of the Thursday contract bridge club and several additional guests were bidden to a charmingly arranged bridge tea given by Mrs. John H. McNary in her residence on North Sumner street this afternoon. Spring flowers in gay colors were used in effective groups about the living rooms and centered the serving table at the tea hour.

Additional guests for the affair were Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner and Mrs. H. H. Ollinger. Club members include Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. William E. Walton, Mrs. David W. Eyre, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. Frank Suedecor and the hostess, Mrs. John H. McNary.

Miss Jean Smith Fetes Younger Set

Miss Jean Smith entertained a group of the younger set with an informal party recently at the home of her mother, Mrs. Garnet Smith, in West Salem. Assisting hostesses were Miss Elsie Hobbie and Miss Mildred Crum. Various games entertained the guests until a late hour, when refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Those in the group included Bernice Noack, Nelda Crum, Wilma Crum, Elsie Hobbie, Mildred Crum, Harlan Scott, Ernest Crum, Norman Crum, Verle Ward, Harold Hobbie, Marion Comstock and the hostess, Miss Jean Smith.

Mill City—A dance in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walters, who were married recently, was given at the Z.C.B.J. hall Thursday night.

Many friends and relatives, as well as members of the lodge, gathered for the occasion and early in the evening presented the couple with many gifts.

Dancing was the diversion of the evening and a dinner was served at a late hour.

Mrs. Walters was formerly Miss Amy Brickner of Stayton.

Mrs. John Imlah Fetes Past Matrons

Mrs. John Imlah entertained with a prettily appointed 1 o'clock luncheon in her home on Fir street Tuesday evening in compliment to the Past Matrons club of Gervais chapter of Order of Eastern Star. Mrs. Agnes Jones acted as assistant hostess.

The afternoon was spent in sewing and with informal conversation. The Easter motif was used in the table appointments at the luncheon hour.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Merl Ramp, president, and Mrs. Romeo Goulet, Mrs. K. E. Sturgess, Mrs. Sylvia Brinkley, Mrs. Clara Jones, Mrs. Ella Harper, Mrs. Virginia Booster, Mrs. Viola Henning, Mrs. Pearl Stevens, Mrs. Dot Aspinwall, Mrs. Lillie Wadsworth, Mrs. Agnes Jones, Miss Verna Keppinger and the hostess, Mrs. Mary Imlah.

Wisteria Club Plans Gay Dance

The Wisteria dancing club will entertain with a gay informal affair at Castilian hall Friday evening. The committee in charge includes Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beutler, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sientz and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Fletcher. The spring motif will be used in the decorative scheme. Several smart dinner parties will precede the evening of dancing, one being the no-host dinner which is being given in the Green Gate room of the Spa.

The Easter motif of yellow and white will be used in the table appointments. Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Bradley, Dr. and Mrs. Estill Brunk, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Beutler, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox Getty, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hartwell, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Holman, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Panek and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilbur.

Bishop Home Scene of Smart Affair

Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. Henry J. Bean and Mrs. A. N. Moores entertained the members of the Thursday club with a charming informal affair in the Bishop residence on Court street. Bright spring flowers made a pretty background for the matrons who spent the afternoon informally. Wendell Robinson sang for the pleasure of the group.

Special guests were Mrs. George H. Alden, Mrs. Perry R. Kelly and Mrs. Thomas A. McBride. Club members include Mrs. John Albert, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Alice Doid of Portland, Mrs. Marcia M. Cusick, Mrs. S. C. Dyer, Mrs. P. A. Elliott, Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. Marie Flint McCall, Mrs. George Pearce, Mrs. Frank Suedecor, Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mrs. Charles Park, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. Frank Spencer, Mrs. Henry Thielen, Mrs. William Brown, and the hostess, Mrs. Henry J. Bean, Mrs. A. N. Moores and Mrs. C. P. Bishop.

Mrs. Martin Speaks On Legislation

Mrs. Hannah Martin, president of the Salem Woman's club, was among those motoring to Oregon City for the third district convention of Woman's clubs the early part of the week. During the morning Mrs. Martin told the group of the different projects of the Salem club including its research work done by the Fine Arts department, the scholarship loan tea and the husbands' dinner.

In the afternoon Mrs. Martin gave an interesting talk, choosing as her subject, "Measures Enacted by the Legislature."

Judge Rossman Artisan Speaker

Artisans and their invited guests will meet Thursday evening at the fraternal temple at 8 o'clock for an interesting program and informal social hour. Judge George Rossman will be the principal speaker of the evening.

Following the program dancing will be held with out-of-town folk from Eugene and Portland as additional guests.

Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War will hold their regular meeting at the Woman's club-house Friday evening at 8 o'clock, at which time Mrs. Annie S. Warren, department president, will make her official visit. The meeting will be preceded by a 8:30 o'clock pot-luck supper with all members of Barbara Fritchle tent invited.

The Three Link club will meet at the I. O. O. F. hall on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for an interesting Easter program and tea. The committee in charge of the affair will include Christina Cladek, Sarah Hutton, Eva Keene, Clara Shields and Rachel Reeder.

A. A. U. W. To Hear Miss Avis Lobdell

Salem branch, American Association of University Women will meet at the Masonic temple for a 1 o'clock luncheon Saturday with Mrs. Avis Lobdell, noted woman speaker, giving the principal talk on the afternoon of the program.

Miss Lobdell is in charge of the women's welfare work for the Union Pacific railroad. She acted her career on the stage, later acting as feature and dramatic writer on the Portland Journal. In 1916 she began her social work with the railroad.

Mrs. Asa Fisher is in charge of the program for Saturday and Mrs. Leater Pearline will provide daffodils from her country home, Lewistown.

Fruitland—The meeting which was to have been held at the community hall Friday evening has been postponed for two weeks.

Encinitis Club Views Style Show

Members of the Encinitis club were entertained with a style show at their regular dinner held at the Y. W. C. A. Tuesday evening. Mrs. Esther Bloom, Mrs. Dahata Finley and Miss Frances Capper of Johnson's modeled the gowns.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Helen Hamilton, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher, Mrs. Marguerite Farmer Meyers and the Misses Helen Richardson, Alice Paik, Agnes Enel, Harriet Stimmel, Muriel Rowe, Lenore Nagell, Anna Peters, Bessie Tucker, Gertrude Chamberlin, Esther Riecky, Evelyn Poulson, Marie Shindler, Lella Park, Dorothy Franks, Betty Elopsen, Mildred Judson and Mable Currie.

At the short business meeting various committees were appointed to make plans for the mothers' and daughters' banquet to be held in May.

A committee composed of Muriel Rowe, chairman, Mildred Judson and Harriet Stimmel was appointed to nominate officers for the coming year.

County Federation Meets April 27th

By order of the president, Mrs. B. E. Bower of Sublimity, the call has gone out for the spring session of the Marion county federation of Women's clubs.

This meeting will be held Thursday, April 27 at the Union Hill grange hall with the Union Hill Woman's club as hostess. The Union Hill is the president's home club.
