

LEGION WOMEN PLAN BANQUET FOR VISITORS

Silverton—The auxiliary members were social hostesses to the Legion Monday evening with an informal dance and a supper arranged by the committee in charge which included Mrs. Dewey Allen, Mrs. Otto Alm and Mrs. Ernest Starr. The Davenport orchestra furnished the music.

During the auxiliary business session, the final plans for serving the banquet for the Salem Cherris as guests of the Silverton chamber of commerce tomorrow evening in the army dining rooms, were made. Mrs. Del Barber is chairman of the committee on arrangement.

The Legion business meeting was given over to discussions and reports. The ways and means committee announced that they had in circulation more than $700 in scrip that is backed by Marion county school warrants sponsored by the Al Colledge company of which Charles Reynolds is representative. The general consensus of opinion was that the scrip issuance was considered a success and was being recognized locally sufficient to relieve the embarrassment of those who had been paid for their services in warrants only, for the last months.

The question of retaining the Silverton school band as a school organization was brought to the attention of the Legionnaires by the 4-L's who are attempting to make some provision whereby the boys may still have the advantage of the band that is twice state champions. Discussion favored the retention of the band, though no definite action was voted.

Roy Davenport announced the progress of the junior baseball league under the guidance of Guy W. DeLay, coach, and said the first regular game of the season would be played here Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, the opponents to be announced later.

INDEPENDENCE CHURCHES HAD EASTER MUSIC

Independence—Easter Sunday was observed by the churches of the city with musical programs, early sunrise breakfasts, Sunday school programs for the children, Easter sermons and special Easter music for the morning worship, vesper services in the evening and special programs of music and song at 8 o'clock services.

An early sunrise breakfast preceded by devotions at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Barnhart, provided a drawing feature for the young people of the Methodist church. Rev. Aschenbrenner and W. L. Taylor had this in charge, with 26 young people present to enjoy the breakfast which followed given by Mrs. Barnhart.

A children's program of music and songs, and Easter readings followed by the usual giving of Easter eggs, chickens and bunny rabbits to children took the place of the morning lesson study. Preaching services followed the Sunday school hour in all the churches. Easter sermons and special Easter music furnished by the choirs made the morning worship most helpful. Vesper services were observed in the Presbyterian church at 4:30 o'clock, a special musical program having been arranged for choir and soloists, to which the public was invited.

In the evening at 8 o'clock the following program was by the chorus choir of the Methodist church under the direction of J. G. McIntosh, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. McIntosh, accompanists, Clarence Quartier and Tom Ritchey, trumpet, with violin and trumpet respectively, assisting. Opening number, "The Palm," as a prelude, to which the chorus marched in and assembled in their places.

Congregational singing hymn No. 78, Holy, Holy, Holy; invocation, Rev. Aschenbrenner; solo and octette, Melvin Kelley; soloist; octette, Mrs. D. A. Mercer; chorus, Aschenbrenner, Kelley, Kreamer, soloists; scripture reading, Rev. Aschenbrenner; offertory, Ritchey and Quartier; Mrs. McIntosh, assistant; octette; chorus, Mrs. Mercer; soloist; closing hymn; benediction, Rev. Aschenbrenner; chorus.
