

SILVERTON HAS LARGE TURNOUT FOR SALEM MEN

Silverton—More than 175 were present at the banquet Wednesday night given at the army by the Silverton chapter of commerce to the Salem men who were program guests for the pleasant affair.

Daniel, a to the music of an old time Salem orchestra was enjoyed till a late hour.

Ernest Starr, president of the local forum, introduced Dr. C. R. Wilson who gave the address of welcome as representative of Mayor E. W. Garver, who could not be present. Frank C. Debebach, Jr., King King of the Cherrians, responded, and acted as toast master, introducing George Graves who made the trip of the Cherrian band possible for their part of the program.

Douglas McKay, Salem mayor, gave the principal talk of the banquet hour, mentioning that one good of the times of depression had been to create a friendliness between neighboring towns. Howard Hulsey, announced Blossom Day and invited the members of the Silverton community to be a part of the big parade. Chief of Police Frank Minto responded to an introduction. Mrs. Alta Hall made a short talk on behalf of the Silverton auxiliary of which she is chairman.

Deckebach complimented the Silverton school band on its recent success and extended an invitation to the boys and their capable leader, Hal Campbell, to come to Salem as guests of the Cherrians, to which Robert Goetz, superintendent of the Silverton schools, responded with a promise that the invitation would be accepted.

George Graves made a talk on the Silverton to which he used to make regular trips and had continued to do so for more than 30 years and gave an interesting comparison showing the improvements in the business of the town.

A musical program was given by the Haywire quartet of which Dr. S. F. Scott, Dr. A. D. Woodmansee, Frank Zinn and Rufe White are members. This program preceded the dancing hour.

The local group accepted the invitation of the visitors for an evening as guests of the Cherrians at Salem.

Church Class Guest At Home of Hanson

Silverton—The Loyal Women's class of the Christian Sunday school held its monthly business and social meeting as guests of Mrs. Frank Hanson Wednesday afternoon, with 26 members present.

Mrs. John Wolford, president, presided as chairman and Mrs. H. Good, secretary, during the business session, which included committee reports by Mrs. Kate Morley on social work of the class, Mrs. C. Amos on membership and Mrs. Emil Oeder as chairman of the lookout committee. The group voted $12.50 to be placed in the church treasury. Devotionals included a prayer by Mrs. Ella Brookler and scripture reading by Mrs. Lucy Wray.

Casesy Plan Trip

Stayton—About 15 members of the Catholic Foresters of Sublimity and Stayton are arranging to go to Portland next Sunday to initiate a class of new members for one of the lodges in that city. The Sublimity drill team has been rehearsing for the event during the past week. Following the initiation there will be a state court meeting of the order.

GUESTS SMITH HOME

Monmouth—Mr. and Mrs. Ingraham Jones and daughters, Leah Lois and Phyllis Anne, who have arrived from their home in Honolulu for a visit in the states, were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith. Additional guests at the Smith home were Mrs. William Horvick and Mrs. Edith Jones who motored down from McMinnville.

Stayton—Mrs. Chrysal Miller is visiting with former friends at Stayton during the week-end. She is now making her home in Portland.

"One Call Does It All"

REST ASSURED
that times have changed. Years ago a man used to put powder in his gun and go out and get a deer; now the "deer" puts powder on her nose and goes out TO GET A MAN! You can also rest assured that an auto repair service backed and guaranteed by flawless reputation is the best key to economy in the maintenance of your car. When your car is overhauled at this shop it is repaired to stay fixed. This adds to your savings by forestalling added complications.

Batteries and Battery Service
Your car graded according to factory specifications

Salem Automobile
Company
435 N. Commercial St.
Phone 4672

Club Achievement Day Is Observed

Sublimity—The Achievement day program of the Sublimity 4-H club was held Thursday afternoon at the schoolhouse at 1:45 o'clock. The club's articles were placed on exhibition all day. Prizes were given for the three best works of each of the different organizations.

Clubs participating included the Jolly Cookers, the Sunbeam Sewing club, the Beaver's Handcraft Work and the Handwork Sewing club. All members took part in a short program, after which a baseball game was played with the North Santiam grade team.

SILVERTON SENIOR CLASS PLAY DATED

Silverton—An original way of announcing the senior class play April 28 which is considered the first event of graduation, is a letter formulated by the senior class, Miss Lou Ann Chase, director, that has clever illustrations and depicts from the ordinary method of telling the attractions of the production.

The play is "Second Childhood," with Wayne Satchell as the professor whose friends are worried over his mental condition. Margaret Keene as "Auntie" and Raymond Specht as the general who tries to keep Mary Wickham, the red-headed gypsy out of sight. Bill Cameron as Phil, worships at the feet of Sylvia (Louise Latham) ghost as she stands in full wedding regalia. Other characters are Vera Beugli, Elmer Egan, Wilma Stanton, Laurel Hanson, Walter Jorgenson and Catherine Bump.

CULTURE OF IRIS IS TOLD TO CLUB

Monmouth—The central objective of the civic clubs meeting at the home of Mrs. F. E. Chambers was to do so for more than 30 years and gave an interesting comparison showing the improvements in the business of the town.

A musical program was given by the Haywire quartet of which Dr. S. F. Scott, Dr. A. D. Woodmansee, Frank Zinn and Rufe White are members. This program preceded the dancing hour.

Church Class Guest At Home of Hanson

Silverton—The Loyal Women's class of the Christian Sunday school held its monthly business and social meeting as guests of Mrs. Frank Hanson Wednesday afternoon, with 26 members present.

Mrs. John Wolford, president, presided as chairman and Mrs. H. Good, secretary, during the business session, which included committee reports by Mrs. Kate Morley on social work of the class, Mrs. C. Amos on membership and Mrs. Emil Oeder as chairman of the lookout committee. The group voted $12.50 to be placed in the church treasury. Devotionals included a prayer by Mrs. Ella Brookler and scripture reading by Mrs. Lucy Wray.

Casesy Plan Trip

Stayton—About 15 members of the Catholic Foresters of Sublimity and Stayton are arranging to go to Portland next Sunday to initiate a class of new members for one of the lodges in that city. The Sublimity drill team has been rehearsing for the event during the past week. Following the initiation there will be a state court meeting of the order.

GUESTS SMITH HOME

Monmouth—Mr. and Mrs. Ingraham Jones and daughters, Leah Lois and Phyllis Anne, who have arrived from their home in Honolulu for a visit in the states, were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith. Additional guests at the Smith home were Mrs. William Horvick and Mrs. Edith Jones who motored down from McMinnville.

Stayton—Mrs. Chrysal Miller is visiting with former friends at Stayton during the week-end. She is now making her home in Portland.

"One Call Does It All"

REST ASSURED
that times have changed. Years ago a man used to put powder in his gun and go out and get a deer; now the "deer" puts powder on her nose and goes out TO GET A MAN! You can also rest assured that an auto repair service backed and guaranteed by flawless reputation is the best key to economy in the maintenance of your car. When your car is overhauled at this shop it is repaired to stay fixed. This adds to your savings by forestalling added complications.

Batteries and Battery Service
Your car graded according to factory specifications

Salem Automobile
Company
435 N. Commercial St.
Phone 4672

CLUB PROGRAMS READY FRIDAY

Brush College—A musical program will be presented at the Friday night meeting of the community club. The date would have been last Friday but due to the fact that it was Good Friday it was postponed. Mrs. Mary Selton and Miss Ruth Bennett, teachers, are in charge of the entertainment.

The Olsen orchestra will furnish several numbers; the upper room will give a musical play, "The Indian Princess," which is a story of Pocahontas and Captain John Smith, characters including Antonio, Krall as Pocahontas; Ruth Munson as John Smith; Corydon Blodgett as Powhatan; Robert Ewing as Sir Henry; leading Englishman, Irving Joeckal as Captain John and a number of Indian maidens, sailors and other Englishmen.

Several vocal numbers are planned and the primary children will give a number under the direction of Miss Bennett, their teacher. Money received from the sale of refreshments will be used for school equipment. Mrs. Carl Harritt and Mrs. Frank Munson will be in charge of the food.

Hayesville—The Hayesville community club will hold its April meeting Friday evening. An unusual program is being prepared by Mrs. Rogers and her committee. There will also be an exhibit of quilts, fancy work, 4-H club work and other articles of interest. Any resident having an article for exhibit kindly get in touch with Mrs. Beers or Miss Pitts.

Central Howell—The regular meeting of the Central Howell community club will be held on Friday evening. The program is in charge of Gladys Lichty and Susie Rutchman. Entertainment is composed of Hazel Hansen and Clara La Valley. Following the program a pie social will be held with J. S. Kaufman as auctioneer in charge of the pie sale. Each woman is requested to bring a pie, two plates, forks, spoons and a knife.

Brooks—A play, "Long Star Camp" will be given at the Brooks community clubhouse Friday night sponsored by the community club. Other numbers on the program are as follows: duet, Miss Lena Riggs and Frank Riggs; readings, Lifford Wright; duet, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Strevett, accompanied by C. V. Ashbaugh on his guitar; solo, Mrs. Mal. coin Ramp; reading, Mrs. Emily Van Santen, with Mr. Hoffer playing the musical accompaniment; Negro skit, "Plantation Mammy" by Mrs. Fairy DeRoche; reading, Bertha Loomis; song, "Mona," Jean Wright; reading, Robert Bailey.

Depression Chasers Garden Club's Name

Falls City—A garden club called "Depression Chasers" has been organized with nine boys answering to roll call and Mrs. O. L. Frink as leader.

Officers of the club are: Connie Hyllon, president; Orlo Frink, vice president; Leslie Hudson, secretary; Jim Inman, yell leader, and John Paul Frink, song leader. Other members are Bud Jones, Leslie Frink, Milton Ferguson and Bobby Hyllon. Leslie Frink won first prize on pop corn in North Dakota a few years ago and has saved some of the prize corn and intends to try raising it in Oregon this year. Each boy plans to have some vegetable to exhibit at the state fair this fall.

Line Is Repaired

Turner—Extensive repair work is being done on the Turner telephone company lines by a crew consisting of H. R. Peetz, Frank Schampier and Earl Standley. The resetting of telephone poles within the city limits and general going over of the company lines has been accomplished. The telephone board members are Frank Schampier, president; Fred Denham, vice-president; Earl S. Prather, secretary-treasurer; C. A. Bear and Thomas Little, directors, and H. R. Peetz, repair line-man.

Rickay—There will be an all-day health clinic held at the schoolhouse Friday.

Falls City Blazes Raze Two Buildings

Falls City—The home of Sol Wingo burned at the ground early Tuesday morning. The fire is thought to have started from some clothing catching fire behind the stove. Nothing was saved. The Wingo home burned at 3 o'clock and at 5 a. m. the Epworth League open air auditorium on the institute grounds at the city park burned. The cause of the fire is unknown. Both buildings were insured.

POLYPHONIC CHOIR ON CONCERT TOUR

Albany—Albany college's polypionic choir of 40 voices, under the direction of Nancy Thielens is to start a three day concert tour of southern Oregon, Saturday, it was announced at the college yesterday. Concerts are to be given in Medford, Cottage Grove, Grants Pass, Roseburg and Rogue River.

The choir, the first organization of its type at the institution, has given a number of radio concerts and made several appearances in the state this year.

CAMP GROUPS HOLD TO STATE PROGRAM

North Santiam—The boys' camp group of North Santiam school held an outdoor meal of beefsteak and onion Monday. The club is bringing its work to completion. The members are Warren Harvey, Orville Tucker, Robert Beal, Don Spies, Floyd Smith, Royal Scott, Robert Bethel, Joe Wolfe, Wayne Bond, Waldo Riches is leader.

The girls' handwork club led by Edna Fery and the girls' cooking club led by Mrs. L. M. James, has completed its year's work and the three clubs are planning an achievement day program April 28 at which time work of the members will be displayed at the Marion county 4-H club fair at Salem May 5.

GERVAIS PRESENTS SENIORS IN FARCE

Gervais—A farce-comedy in three acts will be presented by the senior class Friday under the direction of Helena Estudillo, assisted by Miss Catlin in the dancing features.

Cast of characters: Jim Hartley, a breezy clerk at Seaview Inn, Lealand DeJardin; Hotfoot Jackson, a gentleman of color, Alfred Bowley; Flossie Flowers, an unsophisticated hotel stenographer, Lillian Lemery; Henrietta McWhiffle, a plucky lady that knows everything, Etheloy Suse; Mrs. Wiggins, more at home on a farm, Yvette Berning; Jack Kennore, a college man from Ohio, Dougger; Rose Wiggins, his movie-made daughter, Frances McDonough; Dorothy Darling, who works for college education, Florence Ferachweiler; T. Augustus Templeton, a crook who lives by his wits, Bennie Lemery.

Past Lodge Chiefs Conduct Memorial

Hubbard—Ten of the past chiefs of Arion temple, Pythian Sisters, will conduct the memorial service for the convention of the 11th district of Pythian Sisters at Independence May 4. The group includes Mrs. Wilma Leffer, Mrs. Corbie deLespinasse, Miss Orva Barrett, Mrs. Ella Stauffer, Mrs. Anna Stauffer, Mrs. Sadie Scholl, Miss Lenore Scholl, Mrs. Cora Smith, Mrs. Meta Friend and Mrs. Edith Painter. The latter is pianist for the service. Miss Barrett in addition will be protector for the convention sessions.

FORMER TEACHER REELECTED
Turner—Mrs. Leta Sloan has been reelected for her second year in the Marion grade school. She taught the Turner primary department for seven consecutive years and has many friends here. During Easter Mrs. Sloan was the guest of Mrs. Gayette Barnett at her Turner home and visiting among friends.

SENIORS GIVE COMEDY FRIDAY

Woodburn—Final preparations are being made by the senior class for the presentation of the three-act comedy "Skidding," by Aurania Rouverol which will be given at 8 o'clock Friday evening at the high school auditorium. The play is of unusual quality and has been made possible for smaller high schools to present by a recent reduction in royalty charges.

The setting is in a small Idaho town with the action centering around the activities of Judge Hardy's family which is typical of modern small town families. The Judge (Lawrence Koch) is running for re-nomination and is assisted by his daughter, Marian (Mary Alice Coyne) who has recently returned from college. Mrs. Hardy (Lavola Stram) furnishes much of the comedy with her old fashioned ideas and misunderstanding of political matters. Others in the cast are Vera Culp as Estelle Hardy Campbell, and Gwendolyn Strike, as Myra Hardy Wilcox, married sisters of Marian; Margaret Martin, Aunt Millie, school teacher; Bill Uppendahl, Grandpa Hardy; Cornelius Gearing, Wayne Trenton III, fiancé of Marian; James Cooper, Andy, a 16 year old boy; and Donald Courtney, Mr. Stubbins, veteran politician.

TYPING TEAM WILL COMPETE SATURDAY

Dallas—The high school typing teams to represent the school at Corvallis in the state contest Saturday have been selected by the coach, Mrs. R. R. Turner, with the personnel as follows:

In the novice class Edna Boliman and Louise Fink will carry the school colors while in the amateur division Orva Aebi and Hazel Plummer will compete for honors. The school won the county championship last Saturday in both divisions and judging on past performances in the state contest are likely to make a very creditable showing. In the course of the last few years the school has been one of the first three placed in the respective divisions and the general opinion is that the girls will give a good account of themselves.

Faculty Members Guest at Roubals

Silverton—Mrs. F. J. Roubal entertained members of the school faculty families in an informal afternoon of sewing and working jigsaw puzzles at her home on South Church street Wednesday. The guest list included Mrs. Clara Goetz, Mrs. Robert Goetz, Mrs. Herman Kramer, Mrs. William Gates, Mrs. Warren E. Crabtree, Mrs. Harold Davis and Mrs. James Manning.

Technocracy Talk Is Given Council

Mt. Angel—Rev. Father V. L. Mofenber of the Rose City rectory, Portland, was the main speaker at the Knights of Columbus meeting which was held Tuesday evening in the music room of St. Mary's school. He gave a lengthy but interesting speech on technocracy. Preceding the talk a short business meeting was in session with Sidney Jackson presiding. Arrangements were discussed for the Mothers' Day program which will be held in conjunction with the young men's sodality and will be held on May 16 in the auditorium of St. Mary's school. Following the meeting a past grand knight program was in charge of Albert Bourbonnais, and cards were enjoyed by the members.

—Relieves Pain Promotes Healing

Murk Honor Guest On 82nd Birthday

Hubbard—F. Murk was honored with a party at his home in West Hubbard on his 82nd birthday. The party was given by his daughter, Mrs. Mina De Wolf with whom he makes his home. Guests were his sons and daughters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Parrot, Claude and Vera of Hood River; Marion and Clarence Murk; Bob McCabe, all of Portland; Marion McCabe of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan M. Hochstetler and sons, George and Glen of Salem, A. DeWolf and son Claude.

SUBLIMITY PLAYERS GIVE COMEDY FRIDAY

Stayton—The final touches of the play, "When a Feller Needs a Friend," which is being presented by the Sublimity Dramatic club at the Foresters hall at Sublimity Friday evening, are being made by the club during this week.

Rehearsals are going on each evening and the players are showing undue earnestness in making this one of their best showings. Those taking part in the Sublimity dramatic club for this play, which is practically the same cast as in previous plays, includes Bernard Minden, Theo. Minden, Leo Subbauer, Lawrence Boedingheimer, Leonard Zuber, Genevieve Minden, Adeline Riestler, Thelma Zuber, Helen Riestler and Leona Halfman. Mike Benedict is directing the play and Edward J. Bell is assisting in the make-up and costumes.

The curtain raises at 8 o'clock. Roy Mack's dance band will play between acts and a dance follows the performance.

TURNER TEACHERS OFFERED CONTRACT

Turner—At a special meeting of the Turner school board all of the teachers were given their contracts to teach during the school term of 1933 and 1934 as follows: Principal, high school and grades department, John R. Cox; Thurlio W. Smith, commercial instructor and director in athletics; Mrs. Cleora Parkes, advanced grades in junior high room; Miss Ruth Clark, intermediate room; Mrs. Agnes Booth, primary room and grade music and glue club instructor. All of the faculty members were rehired, but due to the lack of finances the home economics department will be discontinued next school year. Miss Harriet Frederickson, teacher in that department, will teach elsewhere this fall. School board members are C. A. Bear, chairman, Ted Whitehead and Stanley Riches, directors, and Donald S. Riches, school clerk.

SHAW PEOPLE LEAVE

Shaw—Mr. and Mrs. J. Grubenhoff and daughter Estella left Wednesday morning for Washington. They have traded their farm here for a farm in Washington.

HOLLYWOOD TONITE IS DIME NITE

New Morals for Old
Lewis Stone, Myrna Loy & Jean Harlow

Friday & Saturday
Two Big Features

"JUNGLE BRIDE"

with Anita Page & Charles Starrett

and Buck Jones in

"WHITE EAGLE"

Friday Nite is Amateur Nite

We Accept Local Currency

HOLLYWOOD THIS FRIDAY NITE AMATEUR NITE

Three Prizes $5.00, $2.00 & $1.00

If you can sing, dance or play a musical instrument get in this contest. Call the theatre.

SALEM SINGERS WILL BE HEARD DALLAS SUNDAY

Dallas—"The Seven Last Words," a sacred cantata by Theodore DuBois, will be presented at the Dallas Christian church Sunday evening by the choir of the First Christian church of Salem. This musical production tells the story of the seven last expressions of Christ while He was on the cross. Sixty-five voices are used in the choir. Three soloists, Nell Fleming, baritone; Billie Cupper, soprano, and John Schmidt, tenor, will carry the leading parts. The choir is under the direction of Professor Loren Davidson, minister of music at the First Christian church of Salem. Lois Plummer is accompanist for the choir.

Several former Dallas residents are in the choir, including John Schmidt, Harold Witterat, Mark Ellis and Abe Friesen. Last Sunday evening the First Christian church at Salem was filled to overflowing to hear the cantata. The Albany Christian church was packed Wednesday evening to hear the same choir. The program in Dallas will begin at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening. The people of Dallas and surrounding territory are cordially invited to be guests of the Dallas Christian church to hear this famous bit of sacred music.

Sunday morning the pastor will resume the series of sermons on "Christ's Messages to the Modern Church," which are based on the book of Revelation. The sermon Sunday morning will be "A Church with a Great Opportunity." Harold Witterat will sing a solo, "Awake! Arise!" by Edwards.

The Live Wire class is making a special study of the life of Christ each Sunday morning. Mrs. K. E. Burke is the teacher of this class.

Sublimity—The Misses Rose and Marie Lulay returned to Mt. Angel Tuesday afternoon to resume their studies at Mt. Angel Academy after spending five days visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lulay and family.

HE'S LOOSE! HE'S COMING! King Kong

ELLSINORE THEATRE
Starting Sunday

Try Journal Want Ads

LISTEN MOTHER ... to this!

JUST hear Rice Krispies snap and crackle in milk or cream! That's how crisp these toasted rice bubbles are. That's why children love them.

And Kellogg's Rice Krispies are so good for everybody. Nourishing rice. Easy to digest. Always oven-fresh. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Listen!— get hungry

WARNER BROS. ELSINORE Salem Demands It Be HELD OVER

FOR THE ENTIRE WEEK

Positively Ends Saturday Night

11,442 people have seen it once,
2563 people have seen it twice,
1089 people have seen it three times...
If you haven't seen it—see it now—or if you have, see it again... the miracle picture of 1933.

42nd STREET

200
AND
14 STARS
BEAUTIFUL
GIRLS

WARNER BAXTER • BERT DANIELS • GEORGE BRENT
LUBY KERR • DICK POWELL • GINGER ROGERS
LUA MURKIN • GUY KIBBE • NED SPARKS
ALLEN JENKINS • GEORGE E. STONE
HENRY B. WALTHALL • EDDIE MUGENT
ROBERT M. WARD

NO ADVANCE
IN PRICES
MATINEE
2:15

25c

EVENINGS
5:00 Good Seats

25c

"Young and Healthy"

"42nd Street"

"You're Getting to Be a Habit With Me"

"Shuffle Off to Buffalo"

Don't Miss This!
SUNDAY—
TO COURAGE... TO LOYALTY
TO ALL LIFE'S GALLANTRIES!!

CARAVAN

TOMORROW—
BARGAIN
DAY—
At 1:45 P. M.
10c
TOMORROW NITE
PAL NIGHT
Get your coupons from our ads in the Capital Journal or Oregon Statesman.

THE WESTERN CODE
GRAND

Breier's Better VALUES

FOR THRIFTY SHOPPERS.

CLOTHING AND SHOES FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY

Ladies' Dresses New Spring styles in printed silk or plain colors— $5.95 values $2.97	Ladies' Hats New shapes and styles for Spring. All colors including white. $1.95 values 97c
Ladies' Slippers or Oxfords in light colors and white. $3.45 values $1.87	House Dresses New bright prints made in our own dress factory. $1.49 values 88c
Men's Work Shoes All leather upper, composition soles. A good summer shoe $1.17	Children's Oxfords Black, brown or tan. Also 1 strap slippers, leather soles. $1.49 values 97c

If you are not satisfied with your purchase we will refund your money.

C. J. BREIER CO.

141 N. Commercial St. Salem, Ore.