NORTH HOWELL GRANGE CHOICE FOR JUNE MEET

Silverton — That North Howell grange will be the meeting place for the Marion county Pomona in June was decided at the Wednesday all-day and evening session at the grange hall in this community.

The singing contest was held in the afternoon as a part of the program and resulted in first honors going to Fairfield grange for the song, "Comin' Through the Rye," sung by Mrs. Allenback, dressed in a charming Irish costume. Howard Zinser as Old Black Joe, won second place for Red Hills grange by singing the song by the same name. The judges were Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. Vinton and Mrs. Van Cleave.

L. S. Lambert, Stayton, as Pomona master, is the regular delegate to attend the state grange at Pendleton early in the summer, with J. O. Farr of Ankeny selected as alternate delegate. The Pomona group sent flowers to Mrs. John Porter and to Mrs. J. J. McDonald, both of whom are ill in hospitals.

Memorial services were observed in respect to Elizabeth McKay of Surprise; Fred Wintermantle of Ankeny; Milton Brown of Salem; James Kenyon of Butteville; Mrs. Rogers of Woodburn, and Clara H. Waldo of Macleay. Mrs. J. F. C. Tekenburg of the Macleay grange read a paper in tribute to Mrs. Waldo.

The resolutions committee including Seymour Jones, G. W. Ferris and G. D. Bowen, introduced eight resolutions that were favorably acted upon. The resolutions pertained to matters on curtailing grange expenses and other affairs particular to grange management.

The program following dinner at noon was well received and included a vocal solo by Rosewell Wright of Ankeny; reading by Carl King of Silverton Hills, and a reading by M. S. Schrock, Pomona master of Clackamas county. Schrock also made an explanatory talk on some phases of the sales tax which proved an interesting subject for argument as the members were largely expressed as disfavoring the sales tax. Schrock gave the obligations for the conferring of the fifth degree on a group of candidates at the morning session. Both Mr. and Mrs. Schrock and Mrs. Marie Flint McCall, state lecturer, were introduced to the assembly of more than 200 during the forenoon session.

The informal program was opened to the public in the evening with dancing and a lunch enjoyed. Music was furnished by the Mulkey and Leslie families. An early evening program included a dance by the Leslie sisters, several selections by the Heck band composed of 10 members of the Silverton Hills home economic committee, two selections by the Grieg male chorus with Martin Rostvold directing, a reading by Mrs. E. S. Porter, and an explanation of "Why Is Agriculture in the Dumps," given by Max Gehlhar.

Mrs. Daisy Bump is Pomona lecturer and Anna Hadley, Pomona secretary.

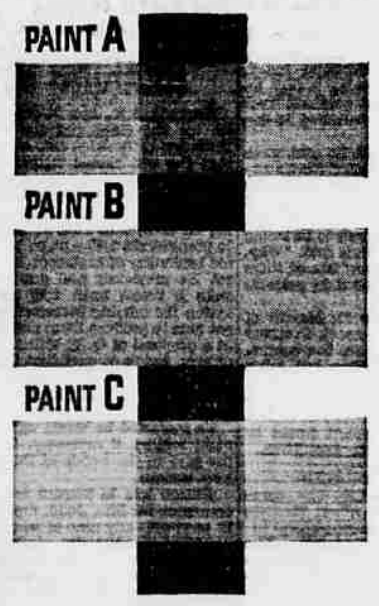
By Actual Test

BASS-HUETER PAINT

COVERS MORE, WEARS LONGER, AND COSTS LESS ON THE JOB



PAINT A A Standard Brand — PAINT B Bass-Hueter — PAINT C A Standard Brand

In each case one-half cubic inch of paint was applied with a clean new brush. This comparison was not made with so-called cheap paints — only well-known, staple brands were used. This test proves conclusively that Bass-Hueter actually covers more surface—covers it better—and "costs less on the job" than any other paint sold on the Pacific Coast.

The test itself is now on display in our store. Let us show it to you.
