Chapter G Honors Mrs. Sprague

The residence of Mrs. Alice Fisher on Market street was the scene of a beautifully appointed formal tea Thursday afternoon when Chapter G, P. E. O., entertained in compliment to Mrs. C. A. Sprague, state president of P. E. O. Receiving in line were Mrs. Alice Fisher, Mrs. C. A. Sprague, the honor guest, and Mrs. Fred Lange, president of Chapter G. State officers, chapter presidents and Chapter AB and the Corvallis chapter of P. E. O. were bid adieu for the affair.

Presiding at the serving table were Mrs. Fred Lange, Mrs. A. S. Shrum, Mrs. W. H. Byrd, and Mrs. E. Parker. A lovely arrangement of yellow snapdragons and daffodils and yellow tapers formed an attractive centerpiece. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. Earl Cooley, Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. Gardner Knapp and Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist.

During the calling hours, Miss Frances Virginia Melton played a group of piano numbers. The committee in charge of the arrangements for the affair were Mrs. Earl Cooley, Mrs. E. J. Balfman and Mrs. W. B. Robinson. Among the state officers who motored to Salem for the afternoon were Mrs. Amy Welch, Mrs. Glen Husted, Mrs. J. L. Jones, Mrs. I. D. Soderline, all of Portland, and Mrs. Grace Magruder of Clatskanie and Mrs. Catherine Ainsworth of Hood River.

Card Party at Joe Turner Home

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Turner entertained with a gay affair recently in compliment to a group of friends. Five hundred was in play during the evening with honors going to Mrs. Lloyd MacDonald, Perry Sanders and Grant Gruchow. Supper was served informally late in the evening. Daffodils and spruce were the flowers used in the decorative scheme.

Those bidden for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Terrin, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sim, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Gruchow and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Turner.

Elkins Woman's Club Meets

Month—A detailed account as to the procedure and steps taken in the examination of a child in the clinic assigned for children of preschool age, was given by Miss Margaret Gillis, Polk county nurse, in her talk before the Elkins Woman's club Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Percy Lamb was hostess to the club at her home on the Pacific highway south of town. Mrs. U. Crook was co-hostess and the two were assisted by Mrs. Lester Smith at the tea hour. Fragrant spring blossoms made gay groupings of color in the living-room where the meeting opened with the singing of the club song, "The Sun and the Moon." The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Frank Loughery in the chair.

At the conclusion of routine matter which included the reading of reports and communications Miss Gillis was introduced by the president. Her address was heartily received by the members who plan to sponsor a clinic for the smaller children of the community in June. The children who will attend school the coming year for the first time will be included in the clinic fostered by the Monmouth Parent-Teachers association of which Mrs. Carl DeArmond is the chairman. The annual spring exchange of bulbs and plants was made at the Wednesday meeting. The next meeting of the group will be Wednesday, May 3 at the home of Mrs. Tom McElroy with Mrs. Harry Blodgett assisting. Guests and members enjoying the afternoon included Mrs. Tom Severson, Mrs. Charles Bowman, Miss Gillis, Mrs. Fox, Mrs. Schmitz, Mrs. Vera Lawson, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Merle Lucas, Mrs. Jessie Johnson, Mrs. Metz Hubbard, Mrs. Ralph Dodson, Miss Juanita Nelson, Mrs. Blodgett, Mrs. Fred Scholl, Mrs. Blodgett, Mrs. Flux, Mrs. William Horton, Mrs. Dell Tedrow, Mrs. N. A. Nelson Sr., and the hostesses.

A benefit card party sponsored by the W. R. C. will be held at Miller's hall on Thursday, April 27. Bridge and five hundred will be played.

Jefferson—Members of the Wednesday Embroidery club of the Willersburg district held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Gus Giecke. The afternoon was spent informally and at the tea hour refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Floyd Fisher. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Floyd Hilliker in Albany. Members and guests present included Mrs. Ed Chapin, Mrs. Elizabeth Thaux, Mrs. Louis Smith and children, Robert Louis and Beverly, Mrs. Virginia Daniels, Mrs. Harold Fisher, Mrs. H. P. Drager, Mrs. Ellen Burwell, Mrs. Arthur Moreland and the hostess, Mrs. Gus Giecke.

Miss Bjort To Wed Glen Cruson

The wedding date of Miss Dorothy Bjort and Glen Cruson of San Francisco and San Mateo, Calif., was announced on May 21 at a prettily appointed affair given Tuesday evening by Mrs. W. A. Blake, Mrs. Phoebe McDaniel and Mrs. O. A. Meignard at the home of the bride-elect on South Liberty street.

Great bowls of spring flowers were arranged about the guest room and centered the serving table at the supper hour. Miss Bjort is a popular member of the younger set. She attended Salem high school.

Mr. Cruson is a newspaperman in San Mateo, where the couple will make their home following their marriage.

Those enjoying the affair Tuesday evening were Miss Dorothy Bjort, the honor guest, Miss Mildred Milroy, Miss Zella Harlan, Miss Veina Alexander, Miss Helen Alexander, Miss Viola Lotus, Miss Lavina Burkey, Miss Gale McClain, Mrs. Kenneth Graber, Mrs. W. A. Blake, Mrs. Phoebe McDaniel and Mrs. O. A. Meignard.

The program was a versatile one, ranging from two Shakespearean songs by Lester, "Sigh No More, Ladies" and "Come Away Death" to the lighter, more fanciful "Summer Night" (Herman), "To the Spirit of Musicians" (Stephens) and "April" (Buchanan).

David Campbell, eminent pianist, proved himself to be a player of great ability and a skilled technician. Mr. Campbell was continually applauded and generous in his encouragements. His informal explanations added to the charm of his program.

Mr. Campbell's outstanding group included Heldegrab (Gabus), Etude in D Flat (Scriabin), La Fille aux Cheveux de Lin (Debussy), La Campanella (Paganini-Liszt), and La Chasse (Paganini-Liszt).

The "Bridal Chorus" from the "Rose Maiden" by Cowen was sung as the last number on the exceptionally pleasing program by the mixed chorus with splendid tonal blendings and a splendid sense of musical values.

DUNKEN DRIVING CHARGED—Dallas—The case of the State vs. Ira A. Drake of Portland with the charge that of driving while intoxicated is being tried in the circuit court. The case was tried in justice court and a hung jury resulted. It hinges around an automobile accident which took place on the west side highway near McCoy on March 4.

BETHEL CLUB MEETING—Bethel—Entertainers representing the Doolittle service station will furnish musical and novelty numbers at the Bethel community club Saturday night. "A Little Clodhopper," the play which the local players have entered in the drama contest will also be given at that time. The meeting will open at 8 o'clock sharp as the program will be long.

Excitement caused by the finding of human bones in a London suburb recently quickly subsided when they were pronounced discarded anatomical specimens.

WOMAN'S CLUB TO HONOR NEW MEMBERS—The Salem Woman's club will entertain with an interesting affair at the clubhouse Saturday afternoon in compliment to its new members. A surprise feature has been arranged for the day and special musical numbers have been arranged for the pleasure of the guests.

Miss Violet Van Cleave will sing "Fallen Leaf" and "Trees." Miss Virginia Thompson will play, "The Spinners of Crantex" (Rene-Baton). A large reception will follow the program hour with prominent Salem matrons assisting about the rooms.

Mrs. J. R. Kennedy Luncheon Hostess—Mrs. J. R. Kennedy entertained with a birthday luncheon at her home Tuesday, honoring her mother, Mrs. Lucetta White and her cousin Mrs. Paul Hansen. The table was decorated with spring flowers and candles in pastel shades. Mrs. White served the beautiful decorated cake, a gift from Miss Lottie McAdams.

Those present were the honored guests, Mrs. White and Mrs. Hansen, and Mrs. Hattie Turner, Mrs. Charles Fulkner, Mrs. Howard Edwards, Mrs. Arthur White and the hostess, Mrs. Kennedy.

Salem Folk Hear David Campbell

The Salem MacDowell club chorus presented for the approval of Salem folk Thursday evening the most delightful concert yet to be given by the organization. The men's section of bass and tenor voices held in the accompaniment of the rhythmic tone pictures created by the women's voices. Miss Lena Belle Tartar, director, is to be commended upon her splendid conducting.

The program was a versatile one, ranging from two Shakespearean songs by Lester, "Sigh No More, Ladies" and "Come Away Death" to the lighter, more fanciful "Summer Night" (Herman), "To the Spirit of Musicians" (Stephens) and "April" (Buchanan).

DEMAND FOR BOOKS TAXING LIBRARIAN

Dallas—Keeping up with the demand for books this past winter has taxed the resources of the public library to the limit, states Mrs. U. S. Loughary, librarian in charge, and it has been necessary to purchase quite a few new books. The latest list includes 24 volumes of fiction and will make a welcome addition to the book shelves. The list is:

Mystery Mile, by Allan; Farwell, My Little Lohan, by Barrie; The Two Undertakers, by Bedding; The Gap in the Curtain, by Buchanan; The Provincial Lady in London, by DeLafayette; A Short History of Julia, by Glenn; The House of the Opal, by Gregory; The Shadow of the Mesa, by Gregory; Miss Delicia Allen, by Johnston; Wheat Women, by Jones; Pageant, by Lancaster; Ann Vickers, by Lewis; The Terrified Mystery, by Lowndes; The Lady of the Manor, by Marshall; God Lights a Candle, by Monroe; The Hundred Days, by Mundy; Walls of Gold, by Norris; Never Ask the End, by Patterson; Evening, by Priestly; The Boat of Longing, by Rolveng; This Year, Next Year, Sometime, by Ruck; Mulliner Nights, by Woodhouse, and the World's Atlas.

CORRECTED LISTING OF TEACHERS MADE

Independence—Through a misunderstanding of facts the name of Miss Margaret Eddy was omitted from the list of high school teachers who were re-elected for the ensuing year by the local school board.

Miss Eddy, the English teacher, was the only one not to receive a cut in wages and was re-elected for another year. The list of high school teachers corrected to read as follows: Paul Robinson, principal; Lorin Mort, coach; Howard Bennett, agriculture; Dorothy Young, commercial department; Mrs. Fern Wheeler Busenback, home economics; Mrs. Hazel Stainsberg and Miss Margaret Eddy, English.

The wages for all women teachers next year will be $100 per month in the high school.
